#Qanon

Hillary Clinton: Fired from Watergate

Appointed to Staff of House Judiciary Committee during Watergate. She was "fired" for corrupt and unethical behavior according to Dan Calbrese and Jerry Zeifman¹⁾ (lifelong democrat in charge of the house investigation).

According to Zeifman, "She was an unethical, dishonest lawyer, she conspired to violate the Constitution, the rules of the House, the rules of the Committee, and the rules of confidentiality." Specifically, that she was one of a few individuals trying to deny President Nixon legal counsel and hid/removed evidence (legal files and implied they should be lost). And other things like that.

Zeifman was then smeared by the Hilary campaign machine, WaPo and Snopes, for technically not being able to "fire her" (as she wasn't a direct report to his committee, so he could only recommend she be removed and not "fire" her), and all her unethical behavior might have been at the suggestion of her bosses²⁾. But even if true (she was "just following orders"), that doesn't change the ethics/liability according to the bar or common decency. Nor that the pattern of her getting in the middle of scandals, being accused of questionable ethics by those closest to her, and "losing evidence" seemed to follow her through her life.

As does her defenses efforts of her and her supporters trying to get people lost in the weeds of technicalities and to ignore the bigger picture/pattern: a small scandal reveals other bigger scandals/questionable behavior, then someone close to her takes the fall, and we move on to the next scandal around her, while she or someone else to blames the "vast right wing conspiracy" for all of it. (For the record, that "vast right wing conspiracy", is a quote she plagiarized and took credit for, another pattern).

As a 27 year old staff attorney for the House Judiciary Committee during the Watergate investigation, Hillary Rodham was fired by her supervisor, lifelong Democrat Jerry Zeifman.

When asked why Hillary Rodham was fired, Zeifman said in an interview, "Because she was a liar. She was an unethical, dishonest lawyer, she conspired to violate the Constitution, the rules of the House, the rules of the Committee, and the rules of confidentiality."

Subject: (AP) Haiti PM: U.S. Baptists knew removing kids was wrong

PORT-AU-PRINCE (AP) - Haiti's prime minister says it's clear to him that the 10 U.S. Baptists who tried to take 33 Haitian children out of the quake-ravaged country "knew what they were doing was wrong." Prime Minister Max Bellerive also tells The Associated Press his country is open to having the Americans tried in the United States. Bellerive says some of the children have parents who are alive. The government is attempting to locate them. He says a judicial system needs to determine whether the Americans were acting in good faith, as they claim, or are child traffickers. The Americans are mostly from Idaho. They have been held since being arrested January 29 trying to enter the Dominican Republic with the children.

NEWS REPORT ON MISSING KIDS IN HAITI

From: Hillary Clinton
 To: Cheryl Mills
 Date: 2010-01-22 10:26
 Subject: NEWS REPORT ON MISSING KIDS IN HAITI

The UN mission in Haiti has stepped up surveillance of roads, UNICEF officials said.

Mr Legrand said there was separate but only anecdotal evidence of people taking children by road to the neighbouring Dominican Republic and loading children on to planes.

"We have seen over the past years many children being taken out of the country without any legal procedure," he said.
 "This is going on. This is happening now. We are starting to have the first evidence of that, this is unquestionable."
 He was unable to give details on the 15 missing children or their condition or clearly connect the anecdotal observations in Haiti's chaos with trafficking.

The cases were documented by social workers and by partner non-governmental organisations working for UNICEF in hospitals.

- President Donald Trump's former attorney, John Dowd, said he and special counsel Robert Mueller had a great relationship while he was working for the president.

John Dowd, President Donald Trump's former attorney, is praising special counsel Robert Mueller now that he has resigned from the legal team working for the president amid the Russia investigation.

Earlier this month, Dowd said that he hoped federal officials would "bring an end to alleged Russia Collusion investigation," according to NBC News, saying it had been set up based on a "fraudulent" dossier about Trump's alleged ties to Russia. But on Tuesday, five days after he left Trump's team, Dowd told the National Law Journal that he and Mueller, who is leading the investigation into Russian meddling in the 2016 US election, had a great relationship.

' According to one report, the Army had at least one observer at every demonstration of more than twenty people. The Army's activities were summed up by Senator Sam Ervin: Allegedly for the purpose of predicting and preventing civil disturbances which might develop beyond the control of state and local officials, Army agents were sent throughout the country to keep surveillance over the way the civilian population expressed their sentiments about government policies. In churches, on campuses, in classrooms, in public meetings, they took notes, tape-recorded, and photographed people who dissented in thought, word, or deed. This included clergymen, editors, public officials, and anyone who sympathized with the dissenters.
