As a trade/industry body you will have conducted research into issues that most affect your members.

Judges will be looking for original work that not only demonstrates the power of the medium the trade/industry body represents (and its impact and interaction with other media) but also encourages smarter, more creative and efficient investment and growth within that medium.

We want to see evidence of how the research has generated a host of rich insights that have been incorporated and used by the trade/industry body members, challenged conventional industry wisdom and directed smarter planning within the advertising industry as a whole.
