United States Secret Service

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The United States Secret Service ("USSS" or "Secret Service") is a federal law enforcement agency under the U.S. Department of Homeland Security.<sup>[2]</sup> Until 2003, the Service was part of the U.S. Department of the Treasury, as the agency was originally founded to combat the then-widespread counterfeiting of U.S. currency.<sup>[3]</sup>

The U.S. Secret Service has two missions. The service's investigative mission is to investigate financial and electronic-based crimes, including counterfeit U.S. currency, bank fraud, mail and wire fraud, and cybercrime. The Secret Service is also a member of the FBI's Joint Terrorism Task Force (JTTF) and High Intensity Drug Trafficking Areas (HIDTA) task force.<sup>[4]</sup> The service's protective mission is to ensure the safety of the President of the United States, the Vice President of the United States, and their families, as well as major presidential and vice presidential candidates and their spouses, and foreign heads of state. The USSS works with state and local law enforcement and conducts protective advances (site and venue visits) ahead of protectees' arrival, and "protective intelligence" to investigate threats made against protectees. The Secret Service is also the lead agency in charge of the planning, coordination, and implementation of security operations for events designated as National Special Security Events.<sup>[5]</sup>

(U) One memorandum by Mr. Steele that was not published by Buzzfeed is dated October 2016. The report alleges [redacted], as well as [redacted]. Mr. Steele's memorandum states that his company "received this report from [redacted] US State Department," that the report was the second in a series, and that the report was information that came from a foreign sub-source who "is in touch with [redacted], a contact [redacted], a friend of the Clintons, who passed it to [redacted]. It is troubling enough if the Clinton Campaign funded Mr. Steele's work, but that these Clinton associates were temporarily feeding Mr. Steele allegations raises additional concerns about his ability.

Sidney Blumenthal and Cody Shearer were also in the list of names that Grassley sent to DNC requesting communication.

So Hillary's henchmen with whom she communicates with regularly, Sidney Blumenthal and Cody Shearer, fed information to Jonathan Winer at the State Department who then briefed Secretary of State John Kerry and fed it to Christopher Steele (under hire from the Clinton campaign) – who then fed the briefing memo to FBI.

Nice laundry system you got there, huh? Turning unfounded gossip and accusations into officially sounding intelligence information.

This is a similar pattern to how the Clinton campaign fed opposition research to the DOJ:

Fusion GPS (Glenn Simpson) opposition research, to Nellie Ohr (Fusion Employee), to her husband DOJ Deputy Attorney Bruce Ohr, to Christopher Steele, to media leaks and back to the FBI to validate ongoing efforts.

More information laundry. Opposition research become intelligence information.

A federal indictment was unsealed today charging 36 individuals for their alleged roles in the Infracred Organization, an Internet-based cybercriminal enterprise engaged in the large-scale acquisition, sale, and dissemination of stolen identities, compromised debit and credit cards, personally identifiable information, financial and banking information, computer malware, and other contraband.

Following the return of a nine-count superseding indictment by a Las Vegas, Nevada, grand jury alleging racketeering conspiracy and other crimes, federal, state, local, and international law enforcement authorities arrested 13 defendants from the United States and six countries: Australia, the United Kingdom, France, Italy, Kosovo and Serbia.

71) Note: Although this indictment pertains to 36 members, the Infracred Organization has a total of nearly 11,000 members worldwide.

@Hublife #Qanon

According to the indictment, Infracred members held defined roles within the organization's hierarchy. "Administrators" managed day-to-day operation of and strategic planning for the organization, approved and monitored membership, and meted out punishments and rewards to members. "Super Moderators" oversaw and administered specific subject-matter areas within their expertise. "Moderators" moderated one or two specific sub-forums within their areas of subject-matter expertise. "Vendors" sold illicit products and services to Infracred members. Finally, "VIP Members" and "Members" used the Infracred forum to gather information and to facilitate their criminal activities. As of March 2017, there were 10,901 registered members of the Infracred Organization.

During the course of its seven-year history, the Infracred Organization inflicted approximately $2.2 billion in intended losses, and more than $530 million in actual losses, on a wide swath of financial institutions, merchants, and private individuals, and would have continued to do so for the foreseeable future if left unchecked.

89074 is a Henderson, NV zip code

Why is Henderson PD and Nevada DOJ involved in Bangkok hacker case?

Because the data is being stored in an underground massive data center in Henderson.

82) Why is NoKo in the Olympic games?

Trump & SoKo initiated diplomatic talks before the Olympics to get NoKo to attend and then to agree to be represented as a unified country, at least for the games. #Qanon

North Korea will compete in the 2018 Winter Olympics in Pyeongchang, South Korea. Two figure skaters, Ryom Tae-ok and Kim Ju-sik, were qualified for the Games, but the Olympic Committee of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea (North Korea) failed to enter them by the 30 October deadline. On 9 January 2018, North Korea agreed in negotiations with South Korea to send the qualified athletes and a delegation for the Winter Olympics.<sup>[2]</sup>

In January 2018, following inter-governmental talks, the teams representing North Korea and South Korea entered the Opening Ceremony marching under the Korean Unification Flag, while in women's ice hockey there will be a single united Korean team.<sup>[3]</sup>

Early life [ edit ]

Brzezinski was born in New York City, the daughter of Polish-born foreign policy expert and former National Security Advisor Zbigniew Brzezinski<sup>[5]</sup> and Swiss-born sculptor Emilie Anna Benešová. Her mother, of Czech descent, is a grandniece of Czechoslovakia's former president Edvard Beneš. Her father was teaching at Columbia University when she was born; the family moved to McLean, Virginia, near Washington, D.C., in late 1976, when Zbigniew was named National Security Advisor by newly elected President Jimmy Carter. Her brother, Mark Brzezinski, is an American diplomat and was the United States Ambassador to Sweden from 2011 to 2015. Her second brother is military expert Ian Brzezinski. She is a first cousin of the author Matthew Brzezinski.

Brzezinski attended the Madeira School and then enrolled at Georgetown University. During her junior year, she transferred to Williams College in Williamstown, Massachusetts,<sup>[5]</sup> and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English in 1989.

Zbigniew Brzezinski

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Zbigniew Kazimierz "Zbig" Brzezinski (/ˌzbɪɡnjɛɪˈbrɛzɪnski/<sup>[1]</sup> Polish: [ˈzɔbɨgnɛf kaˈzɨmʲɛz bʐɛˈzɨnski] ( listen)<sup>[2]</sup> March 28, 1928 – May 26, 2017) was a Polish-American diplomat and political scientist. He served as a counselor to President Lyndon B. Johnson from 1966 to 1968 and was President Jimmy Carter's National Security Advisor from 1977 to 1981. Brzezinski belonged to the realist school of international relations, standing in the geopolitical tradition of Halford Mackinder and Nicholas J. Spykman.<sup>[3][4]</sup>

Major foreign policy events during his time in office included the normalization of relations with the People's Republic of China (and the severing of ties with the Republic of China on Taiwan); the signing of the second Strategic Arms Limitation Treaty (SALT II); the brokering of the Camp David Accords; the transition of Iran from an important U.S. ally to an anti-Western Islamic Republic; encouraging dissidents in Eastern Europe and emphasizing human rights in order to undermine the influence of the Soviet Union;<sup>[5]</sup> the arming of the mujahideen in response to the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan; and the signing of the Torrijos–Carter Treaties relinquishing U.S. control of the Panama Canal after 1999.

Brzezinski served as the Robert E. Osgood Professor of American Foreign Policy at Johns Hopkins University's School of Advanced International Studies, a scholar at the Center for Strategic and International Studies, and a member of various boards and councils. He appeared frequently as an expert on the PBS program The NewsHour with Jim Lehrer, ABC News' This Week with Christiane Amanpour, and on MSNBC's Morning Joe, where his daughter, Mika Brzezinski, is co-anchor. #### 7 Beautiful Historical Symbols For The Vagina

With all the nicknames floating around for the vagina — and the websites dedicated to hashing them out — we have to wonder if all the seemingly playful banter is doing us any good. A lot of the words...

2. The Lotus Flower

How lovely it must have been to constantly have your genitals compared to such a gorgeous piece of nature. The Chinese Han and Ming dynasties especially alluded to this symbol when speaking of the heavenly vagina; the term "golden lotus" was used often in poetry and sacred Taoist texts such as Art of the Bedchamber. It was said to be the core of a woman's potent yin essence, which keeps the universe in harmonious order.

Physically and biologically speaking, the lotus is a fragrant flower, pink and plump, that is known to beautifully blossom in spring, just when the time is right — sounds about right, doesn't it? It's also an Indian symbol of wisdom and vital energy; you may have seen pictures of it splayed across your yoga studio. Gives your practice a whole new meaning.

Coincidence the Matrix (movie) grew people as a crop, used for energy, and controlled their mind?

Sound familiar?

Wonder where they derived that idea from.

Now comes the 'conspiracy' label.

Deeper we go, the more unrealistic it all becomes.

The end won't be for everyone.

That choice, to know, will be yours.
