About Us

The World of Hospitality delivers breaking news on the topics that are shaping the modern hospitality sector.

Providing guidance and contacts for owners, operators and managers to help develop their business and achieve excellence.

The hospitality industry is undergoing a period of productive growth. Investment and development are at record breaking levels across the globe whether it is independently owned or internationally branded. New developments are setting the very highest design standards and existing owners are refurbishing to remain competitive with the demands for creativity and luxurious interiors.

The World of Hospitality is designed to inspire, excite and inform.

Each issue features beautiful written articles from the worlds leading luxury hotels, fine-dining restaurants and bars at home or abroad. The issues also include comprehensive product galleries from the worlds leading manufacturers and service providers.

The World of Hospitality is the perfect partner for companies looking to target key buyers and specifiers within the hospitality sector.

Exhibitions

On top of our unique circulation, The World of Hospitality distributes additional copies of the magazine at a number of relevant trade shows and exhibitions.
