2) Q has been dropping posts in rapid succession.
Thanks for waiting as I gather information for this thread.

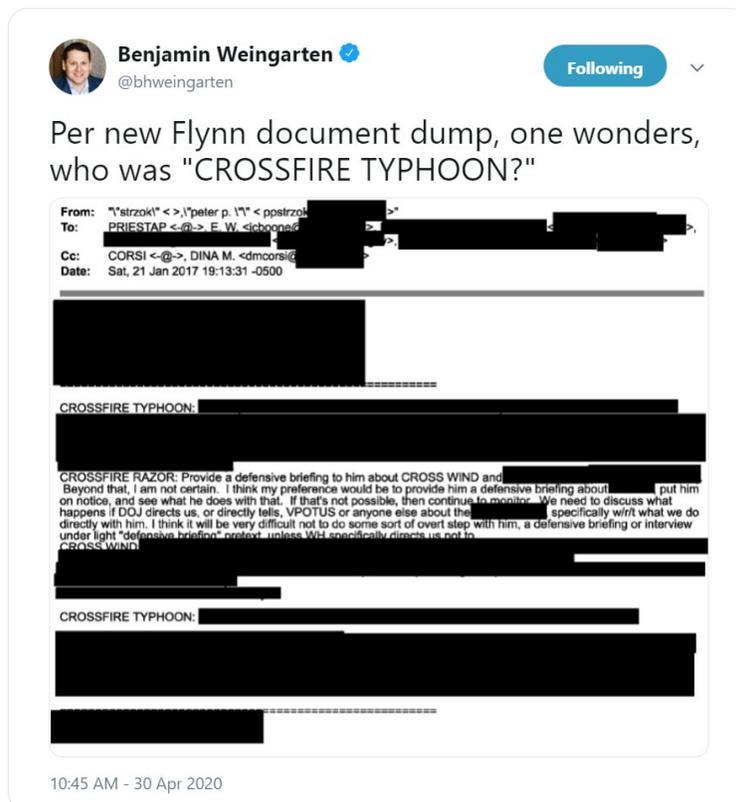

3) The President has declared May 1, 2020, to be Law Day U.S. A.
He asked us to reflect on the importance of the rule of law and if possible, to display the American flag.

4) Proclamation.

5) @bhweingarten wondered who was under investigation in the FBI's "Crossfire Typhoon" probe.

6) Q posted a link to the tweet above and listed other FBI investigations related to the 2016 presidential campaign.

(Unreleased/Redacted would probably indicate other FBI operations related to POTUS that have yet to be disclosed.)

7) Q wrote:

"You didn't think the statement by POTUS re: 'CALM BEFORE THE STORM' was just random did you?"

(October 5th, 2017.)

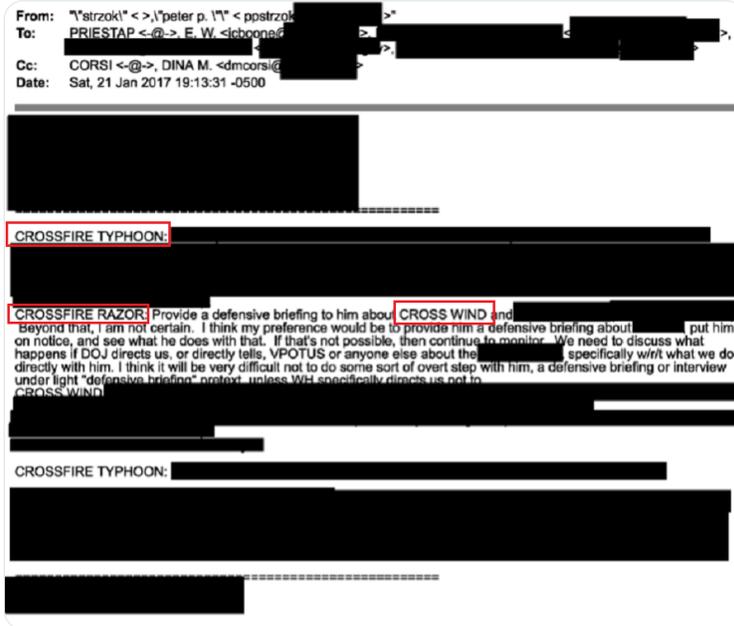

Did POTUS choose those words because he knew the names of the FBI's operations?

8) A declassified email from former FBI agent Peter Strzok to his supervisor Bill Priestap mentioned three people under investigation by the bureau, each of whom was referred to by a different operational name.

The names:

Crossfire Typhoon, Crossfire Razor, and Cross Wind

9) General Flynn's operation was called Crossfire Razor.

On January 4th, 2017, the bureau was about to close that investigation but Peter Strzok intervened and requested it to remain open.

Per the direction of FBI management, CROSSFIRE RAZOR was not interviewed as part of the case closing procedure.

[REDACTED] The FBI opened captioned case based on an articulable factual basis that CROSSFIRE RAZOR (CR) may wittingly or unwittingly be involved in activity on behalf of the Russian Federation which may constitute a federal crime or threat to the national security. The FBI predicated the investigation on predetermined criteria set forth by the CROSSFIRE HURRICANE (CH) investigative team based on an assessment of reliable lead information received during the course of the investigation. Specifically, CR was cited as an adviser to then Republican presidential candidate DONALD J. TRUMP for foreign policy issues since February 2016; CR had ties to various state-affiliated entities of the Russian Federation, as reported by open source information; and CR traveled to Russia in December 2015, as reported by open source information. On Thursday Rep. Adam Schiff, the most dishonest and compulsive liar in Congress, sent a letter to the CEOs of Google, YouTube and Twitter to urge them to use their "authoritative" powers to censor and silence voices during the coronavirus pandemic. Last week YouTube CEO told CNN the company would silence anyone who strayed from official WHO policy. Google is cool with that. In fact, the company is very proud of her censorship. Remember this in November: Democrats support this and want MORE censorship and silencing. Schiff sent these letters off to Google, YouTube and Twitter.

James Clapper is a man who served his country with magnanimous distinction. He is an intellectually brilliant leader. Such a person deserves the upmost respect and gratitude for his service to this great nation. With this said, in every person's life, there is a time to hold and a time to fold. Just this week, DNI Clapper proved it is his time to fold.

James Clapper has been placed in a very austere predicament forcing him to play political games. He took an oath throughout his career swearing "to protect against all enemies foreign and domestic." The political game he plays conflicts with the oath he swore.

This week, the current director of national intelligence made comments degrading the true threat imposed by the Muslim Brotherhood. His comments were most likely made in an attempt to appease his masters running the White House. Make no mistake; his recent comments about the Muslim Brotherhood were nothing but intentional. His recent statements proved to the country that he failed the people in his ethical obligations of seeking and speaking the truth about current threats as Director of National Intelligence.

It is assumed that Clapper knows everything about the Brotherhood. He should be aware of Brotherhood infiltration into government institutions to include Departments of Defense, State, Justice, Education, and Homeland Security. The DNI must be cognizant about the MB's major role in the Holy Land Foundation Trial; the largest terror funding trial ever in the U.S. And he should be aware of the Muslim Brotherhood's charters which openly state intentions to replace all forms of nation state's Constitutional laws with Sharia law.

Clapper is no dummy. He must be fully in the know about the aforementioned activities involving the Muslim Brotherhood. Publicly articulating the MB as secular must have been fully intentional simply to fall on the sword of the administration.

There is nothing secular about the Muslim Brotherhood as he so foolishly stated. While it is obvious that Clapper made such comments to appease his masters, he has let down many. Specifically, Clapper has let down the team of intelligence operatives whom he is supposed to lead. His recent misinformation campaign about the Muslim Brotherhood proves his allegiance to the elected running the United States. Regrettably, it also proves his inability to uphold part of his oath in protecting us from all enemies foreign and

DE FACTO STANDARD.

Q

97) A de facto standard is one that is widely accepted in the industry, though it is not officially sanctioned by a recognized organization.

A de jure standard is one that has been officially sanctioned by an organization.

De Jure Facto: Everything You Need to Know

De jure facta and de facto are commonly confused to mean the same thing. While they are often used in the same contexts, they are distinctly different concepts.

<https://www.personal.oxford.ac.uk/de-jure-facto/>

What Is the Difference Between De Facto and De Jure?

De facto and de jure are closely-connected concepts. De facto is a situation that is known to be true and factual but not formally sanctioned. De facto standards are standards in actuality that are widely adopted by an industry and its consumers. Such standards are also referred to as market-driven standards. They are established when a significant portion of an industry likes them enough to use them collectively. With approval from an official standards organization, market-driven standards can be formalized and turned into de jure standards.

De jure refers to a state of affairs that is officially sanctioned by law. De jure standards are approved by an official standards organization. Each standard is ratified through the organization's official procedures and given a stamp of approval. In Medieval Latin, de jure means "from law." It does not only refer to enforced or legally protected standards but also standards that have been approved by a formal standards organization.

Applications of De Facto and De Jure

The terms "de facto" and "de jure" are most commonly used to relate the source of a political or business leader's authority, but they can also be used in many other situations. Many legal issues and international business matters also involve the use of these terms.

Examples of De Facto Standards

De facto standards can come in a variety of forms, including:

- Controlled or uncontrolled standards
- Open or closed standards
- Standards owned by a few or many
- Standards available to everybody or approved users only

Some examples of de facto standards include:

- Microsoft's Windows operating system — Microsoft's Windows operating system and other commonly used Microsoft applications, such as Word and Excel, have long been the de facto standards for computer users.
- QWERTY keyboard layout — The QWERTY layout is the standard keyboard layout in countries that use the Latin alphabet.
- Breadcrumb trail — This website navigation tool is the de facto standard for Internet users who wish to know the location of the current page with regard to the website's hierarchy.

98) Hydroxychloroquine is a de facto standard for treating coronavirus of all types even if though it has not been officially sanctioned.

99) In time, hydroxychloroquine may become the de jure standard for treating coronavirus.
