Joshua 1:8 (KJV)

“This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.”

The very moment you mention meditation, most Christians tend to think of Buddha. Remember, there is a man who walked with God, and he was not (Genesis 5:24 KJV). He was in meditation mode to the extent of causing his rapture. Meditation is our art to manipulate forces and create more-than-generals out of us. It is an instrument of success, a weapon to launch you into untouchable dimensions of spiritual and physical influences.

The word meditation is “Hagar” in Hebrew, meaning “plot”. It means to plot in the spirit, determining and envisioning where your money is coming from. Plotting means positioning your pieces like chess for an intended outcome. Using scriptures, you start positioning everything the way you want it. Your God promised to supply all your needs (Philippians 4:19), hence see people coming with supplies to you. See answers and delayed promises fulfilled. The Bible says, “this book of the law shall not depart”. In simple English, to “not depart” means you are not leaving, or something is not moving. Using the word “to plot” means you keep the word in a muttering state, speaking it under your breath before you release it or let it depart. The Bible says day and night, which means the minimum time to do it is a minimum of 24 hours before audibly releasing it. Take time today to plot and craft success in your meditation mode. Sit and create your network of answers and solutions in finances, marriage, education, health, and all. Hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I have wisdom from above; today, I see my lines falling in pleasant places. My money is coming, and I shall live a life of wonder in the name of Jesus.

"Then He said to His disciples. The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few."

The call to win souls is for every child of God. Bringing more souls to the kingdom has to be in the fiber of our being, and it should come out natural for those born of God. When ministers go out to plant churches or do crusades, most would say some grounds are laborious or unfruitful. When they mention the ground, they somehow mention the general environment where they are trying to win souls, which is a wrong move regarding soul winning.

Watch what the Bible says; it says "look up", not "down", or "on the ground". When you start observing the ground, know you have taken a wrong turn because the Bible never instructed us to look on the ground but to look up. Christ is the Giver of the harvest, and He said the harvest is plenty. We are not even looking for the souls, for they are already available. We only go to minister and win them to Christ. Hallelujah!

Look up and not on the ground. Your environment might be very intimidating but know your harvest is plenty and ready. There is a brother or a sister somewhere waiting for you to preach the gospel so that they receive Christ. Share this message around, parade the gospel in your surroundings, and you shall surely reap new souls in the name of Jesus.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I'm an able-reaper, and I shall run with the assignment to win souls. I'm born for this cause, and I shall fulfil my assignment in the name of Jesus.

Job 1:10 (KJV)

“Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.”

Logically, if money was evil, the devil should be loading everyone and making everyone rich so that they become evil. He doesn't do that because, according to the devil, money is like a hedge and more of a spiritual entity that protects and covers someone.

Watch this, in our scripture, Satan even confessed to God that he can't do anything to Job because God gave Job everything (Job 1:9-10). He sees the prosperity of Job as a defense against his penetration. Brothers and sisters, money is a defense against the enemy's devices. You can be easily angered when you are broke. Some sins are products of lack, such as lying, stealing, and prostitution.

When you possess money, it's like a strong bulwark around you. The Bible also says money is a defense (Ecclesiastes 7:12), and the devil sees money as a hedge (Job 1:10).

Today, I pray and prophesy for money and resources in every area of your life in the name of Jesus.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Money is coming to me! I shall have money with a mission, and my prosperity shall be my defense. Hallelujah!

“And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint;”

Census is regarded as the official count or survey of a population, and most countries do their census periodically to capture different kinds of data. It helps countries to come up with general knowledge on population structure, demographics, income, etc. There is also a heavenly census which many are ignorant about. Our scripture for today reveals something about God's census. Stay with me on this.

“Men ought to pray...” In simpler terms, according to this scripture, you must always pray for God to consider you a man(human). Real man, pray. Those who do not pray consistently to God are not considered in the population of man. You are marked in the register of man in the spiritual realm through your prayers. If you are not praying, you are one of those entities just moving to and fro in the face of the Earth. God desires communion with you through prayer.

Dedicate yourself to prayer and communion with God in this deeper life phase, and you shall experience success. Prayer might not be everything, but it's a basic and essential component of your spiritual fiber. Don't postpone praying; talk to God in your car, bedroom, and any place convenient, and believe that Jesus hears you when you pray.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Prayer is a necessity for my spiritual growth. I give myself wholly to prayer and the word of God. I shall pray and not faint in the name of Jesus.

“Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.”

These days, you hear people claiming they have sacrificed for God by ushering, cleaning, or leading prayer in church. There is a commitment beyond doing all these things. Our scripture for today talks of men who “hazarded” their own lives for the gospel’s sake. The word “hazarded” means putting your life at risk, functioning close to death, or being in danger. These men were ready to even lose their lives for the sake of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Now is the time for you to commit yourself beyond the word “committed”. There is no time to miss church because of bad weather or a special visitor. You have a great race to run before the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. If others risk their own lives, you can also risk your job. Some do not attend church because they prioritize meeting some clients, forgetting that it was God who opened doors for such businesses. Let everyone who works with you know that when it comes to the things of God, you do not compromise. God is our standard, and it’s non-negotiable.

Declare to your spirit, soul, and body: “As of this season, the deeper life phase, I shall commit myself beyond what I used to do.” Remove everyone who might try to drain your energy towards God. You have your race to run and do it swiftly in the name of Jesus.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I have my race to run, and I shall finish well. I cut off every habit or person who causes me to compromise the work of God. I shall be a vessel of honor in the kingdom. Hallelujah!

"I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name."

If you think of divine hierarchies, you are tempted to think that there are some powers with more spiritual prowess than God's word. Remember, the Bible even confirms that Jesus Christ was given a name above every other name (Philippians 2:9 KJV). His name is above cancer, poverty, or any form of ordinariness. God revealed something greater than all these in our scripture today: the "word of God". The word of God is more powerful than anything you might think of.

The Bible says He magnified His word even above His name (Psalm 138:2 KJV). God, Himself, seeks counsel from His word when He wants to execute something on this Earth. The word of God is not a standard for us only, but even for God Himself. Every miracle you are thinking of right now is hidden in the word of God. As you are reading this prophetic message, a release of God's anointing is taking place in the name of Jesus. Go for the word, and you shall come back with a testimony. Create your special moments of reading the word of God. Feeding on the word of God mixed with prayers will give you a balanced spiritual diet. When you read your Bible, you are not just reading any history books; the real power is embedded inside. Starting today, don't let a day go by without you reading the word of God. It's a new season and a new dimension of commitment to the word of God. The Word works! Hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am going for the word, and I shall come back with a testimony. I shall not tire of reading my Bible and communing with the Lord through prayers and supplication in the name of Jesus.

"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path."

Most companies and empires collapse because of bad decision-making, or wrong channels are taken. Some decisions are made to boost the business or take it to another level but end up leading to the demise of the same business. You are a product of a decision made by you or someone else. Even for you to be reading this prophetic message, it's a decision that will separate you from others. When the Bible talks of your path, it's not only about the physical roads you use, but your ways, your business, education, and all that pertains to your success.

Our scripture for today says the word of God is the lamp unto your feet and light unto your path. The word gives you illumination and a clear view of where you are going. When there is an illumination in your spirit, you don't make misguided decisions concerning your business, career, or relationship. Your sight won't be blurred because you have light through God's word. As you read this prophetic message, light shines in your spirit, and you shall not make wrong decisions.

From this very moment, continue to feed on the word of God. Shine light in every area of your life. Through the word of God in your spirit, you have a clear view of your path, and you are not going blind in the name of Jesus.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I have the word of God in me, and the spirit of the Lord guides me. I shall make no error in business and everything that pertains to my life in the name of Jesus.

“And the Lord said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward: For all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever.”

There is power in imagination, and there is a creative ability in your imagination. When chaos was around Abraham, the Lord appeared unto him and told him to look around, and He promised to give him as far as he could see. Scientifically, Abraham couldn't clearly see a place 100 kilometres from where he was standing using a physical eye. For Abraham to be a possessor of nations, he used a different eye, the eye of the spirit, to see as far as the other nations. He entered into the imaginative mode and saw nations upon nations.

Don't be limited by circumstances or any physical flaws within your radius. See beyond the natural, and you will indeed possess as much as you can see. The enemy might try to put blinkers around you so that you don't see beyond the recession, sickness, or poverty. But like Abraham, see yourself in prosperity, power, and peace. Your spirit eye is not limited by anything.

Your family is waiting for you to see beyond so that your entire generation will be saved. Your company might be stagnant for some time but see prosperity and expansion beyond measure in the name of Jesus. Hallelujah!

"Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new."

Physical laws and principles of success govern the physical world. When you admit that you are human, you are subject to all laws governing the physical realm. Poverty, stagnation, and failure are elements of the worldly realm, and those who live beyond that will be successful. Your question will be, "How do I live above these?"

By being in Christ, the Bible says you are now a new creature (2 Corinthians 5:17). The word "new" is the Greek word "kainos", which means "creature that never existed before." When they try to remind you of your past weaknesses and failures, just let them know that you never existed before. You are a brand new creature on the face of the Earth. You are not human; you are a total stranger to the realms of the Earth. When people of the world say, "There is a going down", you shall say, "There is a lifting up!" Hallelujah!

As you read this word, all things are becoming new. You might be in a dry spell, but God is making everything new. Speak the word in every area of your life, and your victory is guaranteed in the name of Jesus!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a new creature, and I live in the realm of limitless possibilities. The forces of this world do not limit my ability, and I am invincible in the name of Jesus.

“And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness:...”

When you look at a Mercedes Benz as a vehicle, there are two things that you will witness: looks and functionality. When we talk of looks, it's the vehicle's general outward appearance. Regarding functionality, it's the range of operations and performances the vehicle can offer. The Bible says God created men in His own “image and likeness “. Image is all about appearance, which means God looks exactly like you. Likeness means functionality, which means you function exactly like Papa God.

When God saw darkness on the face of the Earth (Genesis 1:2 KJV), what did He do? He did not complain about the dark, but He commanded the light to be, and there was light. There might be chaos in your life, but function like your Papa, speak peace, and all things shall shift for your good. Your Papa doesn't complain, but He creates orders in the spirit and makes everything function in His own way. You can do exactly the same.

There is no room to complain but to give orders in our lives. Declare things, and they shall be established as the Bible says in Job 22:28 (KJV). You are from on high, and nothing is impossible for you.

“And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God was.”

The deeper life phase is not for ordinary people but those who desire to live beyond an average Christian life. We used to live by commitment or dedication, but this phase is for those ready to break the lines of the norm. We are used to the God who is light, but there is also a God who lives in thick darkness, the same one who answers by fire.

This season is for God-catchers, not God-chasers. We will not just look for Him, but we will be walking and working with Him. We are harnessing the greatest voltage of His presence. God-catchers are those who no longer seek Him but are with Him full-time.

The Bible says, when others stood afar off, Moses (the God-catcher) drew near. Note that God was not in the light but in thick darkness. Moses would follow whether God was in a pillar of fire, cloud, or burning bush because he was a God-catcher.

Be that one person who can move to where God is. Don't be found where God was but where He is. You are a God-catcher, not a chaser. Your house, business, and office embody God's presence. Hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a God-catcher. I seek the heart of God, and I live according to His desire. There is no room for ordinariness, poverty, and inaction in my life in the name of Jesus!

“These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.”

Many Christians are reckless with the words they utter. The words you speak have the power to revamp your life either negatively or positively. Our world was framed not by mortar and water, but by words, and God had to speak to create the universe. The diversity you see worldwide, from flora to fauna, is a product of the spoken word.

In our scripture today, Jesus said, “the things I speak”. Note that the Master didn’t say the “words” but the “things”, which means we speak objects whenever we speak. Never use your tongue recklessly because you are framing destinies positively or negatively whenever you speak. You can speak that business, the money, or the marriage you desire, and let it be in the name of Jesus!

Choose your words wisely and use your tongue to build, not to destroy. The tongue in your mouth is not just a mere mass of flesh but an instrument to mold a glorious future. The Bible confirms that death and life are in the tongue’s power (Proverbs 18:21 KJV). Speak life, money, love, peace, and prosperity in the name of Jesus.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My tongue is a pen of a ready writer. I speak prosperity and promotion in every area of my life in the name of Jesus. Hallelujah!

“And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.”

Love is a force that goes beyond any circumstance. Where there is love, there is always liberty. Remember, God's love for humanity drove him to save the world. His love for humanity pushed Him to the limits by giving His “only begotten Son” (John 3:16 KJV). We stand tall today because of unmistakable love and are products of His generous gift of love.

When reading the Bible, most people think the greatest commandment for us as Christians is to love, as Jesus mentioned in Matthew 22:36-38 (KJV). That word is not for us, brothers and sisters, but for those who were in the old covenant before Jesus died and rose from the dead. As for you and me, our word is in Romans 5:5, “the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts”. We don't love by commandment but by nature because of the Holy Ghost in us. Our hearts are marinated in love.

Be an embodiment of love today and demonstrate love to the world, for our God is love. Love gives, so don't just expect it but be the first to demonstrate it and show its fruits. Hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I'm an embodiment of love, and I love not by commandment but by nature. Today I chose to demonstrate love to my world, and my God gives me the power to will and to do, in the name of Jesus.

“That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.”

The differentiation between lower and higher altitudes is naturally referred to as the snake line. It's that position whereby if a snake is taken high beyond that altitude, it will become unconscious or eventually die. When a snake fights with an eagle, it will repeatedly take the snake to those heights until it dies or becomes unconscious. Eagles belong and function well on those heights, and it fights by taking the snake to its residence. If Mr. Snake is being interviewed and asked about what happened, Mr. Snake will just say, “Mr. Eagle took me to his residence.”

Watch this; the Bible says we are born from above and are spiritual beings living in the physical world. The words translated as “born again” in the Bible mean to be born from above. Take any problem or challenge you might face to your altitude, and take it above through your prayer and declarations. Where you belong, nothing is impossible.

You are from on high, and the moment you stick to those higher altitudes through your communion with the divine, no lack or sickness will come near you. You are born to reign in the name of Jesus.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

"The entrance of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple."

Success is a product of the amount of light you have concerning the aspect of life. Most of the areas people struggle in are because of a lack of knowledge. Some blame their past, families, demons, or even bloodlines, but all you need is the word of God in you, and you come back with a testimony. Demons reside in areas of your ignorance. That's why I always say the greatest deliverance of your life happens when your ignorance is confronted.

Our scripture shows us that it is the word of God or the knowledge of God that gives us light; when you have light, you can easily have direction. Most things seem difficult because of a lack of knowledge of God's word, which means there is no light to win over difficulties. That business or marriage of yours might not need physical help but the light from the word of God.

Feed yourself with the word of God, and the word itself shall give you enough light to navigate through your life. When you have the light, you can control your environment and always come out with solutions. Today you are taking the capsules of this prophetic message.

"Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid."

The scripture says you are the light of the world, and you cannot be hidden. What a bold declaration! The Lord says you are the light, not you shall be light. This means because of being born of God, you are already illuminating light. Not only that, but you are a city set on a hill. Amongst all the valleys and plains, a hill will always stand tall. There might be hardship around you or your family, but according to our scripture, you shall stand tall, and nothing shall override the power of God in you. The devil might try to bring a dull cloud unto you, but don't be troubled; reflect the light of God's spirit inside you towards that dull cloud!

When you have light, you cannot be hidden. No words or power can hide your gift, talent, or vision. You have all that it takes to change the course of your life. Arise and shine, for thy light has come. You have no room for failure because God has already set you in a place of effectiveness. You are set on a hill where nothing shall obstruct your light. “Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.”

When they hear of salvation, most people think of the blood shed on the cross for the remission of humankind's sin. Salvation through Christ is more than just the redemption of sins.

Isaiah, one of the most learned prophets of the old, said something profound about salvation. He mentioned something called “wells of salvation”, not “well of salvation”. Wells of salvation means salvation has different wells embedded in it. The Bible says, by His stripes ye were healed (1 Peter 2:24 KJV), and He became poor for us to be rich (2 Corinthians 8:9). All this is a clear declaration that salvation is not all about sins but good health, prosperity, dominion and all. Hallelujah!

With joy, drink from every well which you are thirsty. If you lack money, drink from the well of finances and prosperity. If you are sick, drink from the well of healing. Declare it and take it, for it's at your disposal, for God gave it all to you. God is not trying to give you or do it for you, but He has done it already. Command every well of salvation to overflow into your life today.

“But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

Many committed the mistake of taking God's position to worry about their future or present situations. Whenever you worry, you automatically take God's position. It's a sign that you rely on your own instead of a superior source in your life. Do not limit God to your abilities, for He is beyond what you imagine. The “I AM” is a game changer, and no situation ever troubles Him.

The Bible says, with God, nothing shall be impossible. It's not some things that are easy for Him but all things. Remember, “all” means “all”. “All” covers the full circle of your life without any missing portion. When you walk with God, you get into a realm of possibilities where nothing can stop or resist you. If nothing can stop God and the Bible says in him we live, move, and have our being, it means nothing can stop us. Hallelujah!

Move into the realm of possibilities today, for greater is He that is in you than He that is in the world. You are a wonder, and nothing can stop you from achieving your goals and visions in the name of Jesus.

There are situations the enemy throws your way that seem unconquerable or irremovable. The devil always takes those moments of discouragement to preach his ability to kill your faith. Hear the prophetic word for you today; God said I would do a new thing in your life. Hallelujah! The word new means something which never existed before or something fresh. In this year of wonders without number, God shall do new miracles in your life, something which was never heard or seen by human eyes.

The Bible says that God shall make ways and rivers in the desert. A desert is an inhabitable place of dryness and scorching heat, but God is saying in such an environment, He shall make wells of water. You might be in a family where nothing is moving or in an environment of inflation, depression, and chaos; God shall surely make wells for you in those deserts. You are an answer-bearer, and where the enemy says there is a going down, you shall say there is a lifting up in the name of Jesus!

What are you doing under the circumstances? You are not even supposed to be there, and your location of residence is far above the circumstances.

You might be in a challenging situation now, but you shall never stay there. We are in a world with different financial and political circumstances, but the Bible says we do not belong there. We are ambassadors of Christ (2 Corinthians 5:20 KJV), and our source is outside the normal world support structures. We are reigning, and no circumstance shall take over your life.

Tell every disease, poverty, or suffering that there is no room for all those in your life. You are born from above, and your life embodies grace.

"We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts:"

The Bible is more than an encouraging story and a record of God's works. It is also more than a code of conduct. The way you see the Bible determines what you get from it. Remember, the prophet of the old was given the scrolls to eat, and they tasted like honey in his mouth (Ezekiel 3:3 KJV). Brothers and sisters, the Bible is more than a series of events and scriptures.

The Apostle Paul said we have a more sure word of prophecy which is "The Bible". He could have said the "sure word" of prophecy, but there was a need to emphasize by saying a "more sure word". This means the word of prophecy that you see us demonstrating in the church is for the edification of the body of Christ (1 Corinthians 14:3 KJV). It's the icing on the cake. Go for that word today, and you will surely come back with a testimony.

Be a changed person today; never allow a day to pass without reading the word. The word of God is the prophecy you have been looking for. Let your spirit burn for the word as you read this prophetic message. A spoken word created you; therefore, you live by the word of God.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a product of the word. I live by the word, and my life is destined for greatness. My life shall manifest the power of God as I delve deeper into the word. Hallelujah!

“Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:”

Our ministry has a vibrant cell structure continuously growing to win souls. There is a command that we picked from the scripture above. Jesus Himself commanded us to make disciples or teach all nations. Discipling nations are more than just speaking to a few people in each nation. This is beyond that level, brothers and sisters.

When the Bible says disciple nations, it means having a country as your cell church. It sounds very awkward and amiss, but that's exactly what it means. God wants you to look at a country like Australia, South Africa, or Russia and calls it “my cell group”. You have the power and the grace to conquer and shepherd nations, not villages. See yourself with the same light as God sees you. Nations shall hear your voice. Start today, share the word of God, go for that business for the sake of God's projects, and you shall be a testimony. Hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I have a greater mandate in this life. My voice is superior, and I am called to disciple nations. Nations shall bow at my command in the name of Jesus.

“But ye are come unto mount Zion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,”

When we talk of Mt Zion, many are tempted to think that we are talking of a godly physical location somewhere. As much as there is a physical location referred to as Mt Zion, there is also a spiritual realm or dimension called Mt Zion. The Bible says, “Ye are come unto Mt Zion (Zion)”, not “we will go to Mt Zion” because we are already in it. An innumerable number of angels surrounds us, and we are partakers of the divine nature in the city of God.

The ‘Mt Zion mentality’ will help you overcome all the tricks and elements of this world. Although we are visible in the physical or worldly realm, we are more than alive in Mt Zion. Isaiah says in Mt Zion the deserts will produce water (Isaiah 43:19 KJV). Even one who is so weak or as good as lame shall still produce something profitable (Isaiah 33:23 AMP).

You are a citizen of a great city called Mt Zion. You are in this world but not of this world. Nothing shall stop you from achieving what you want because your supply is from a superior source, Mt Zion.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a citizen of a greater city called Mt Zion. I shall not lack any good thing, and prosperity is my portion. I will not die but shall live long to see the goodness of the Lord in the name of Jesus. Hallelujah!

“Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.”

People often claim that they do not have a business or anything moving in life because there is no capital. What is capital for a child of God like you? For you, the capital you need is not money or a person; all you need is faith.

Faith on its own is a currency; it can buy or start something for you. Faith is the evidence of things not seen, which means before you see a multi-million dollar business, you must first see it through the eyes of faith. When you possess faith, you carry enough proof or title deed to give you legitimate right over anything you want in this life.

Have faith in the word of God and when you hear it, believe it and act upon what you believe. Generals in the Bible did not use weapons to subdue kingdoms but, faith (Hebrews 11:33). By faith, you also can conquer territories in the name of Jesus.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

By faith, I shall dominate territories, and I choose to see everything through the eyes of faith, not doubt. Through my faith, I shall do wonders without number in the name of Jesus.

“A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things.”

When you talk about money, religious people will rush to think you are a carnal-minded person. If money is evil, the devil should be loading people with millions rather than fighting them to get money. Do you know that your own Bible speaks about money more than Hell and Heaven combined? What it is about money that even God compared His mastership against money. He said you could not serve God and money (Matthew 6:24 KJV). He didn't see His positions threatened by the devil, yet money does.

Stay with me here. The Bible says money answereth all things (Ecclesiastes 10:19 KJV). When you study English, you will understand that word “all” means everything. This includes health, business, marriage, and everything you can think of. You might have gotten this devotional free, but the printing is not free. The gospel might be free, but the resources used to bring it to you is not free.

Today, I decree and declare money with a mission for you. All angles of your life are opening up for prosperity in the name of Jesus.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

“Be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.”

Stress is a shift that causes emotional and physical strain to you. Your body's response to anything requires your attention. Many are troubled by chronic sickness caused by stress and unnecessary thoughts within their minds. The Bible says he gives his beloved sleep (Psalm 127:2 KJV), but someone reading this prophetic message is not sleeping, thinking about many issues about business, marriage, education, and all.

You do not need to stress yourself about anything. Live a stress-free life because Christ in you is the hope that everything will be well and more. To stress is to take God's position in your life. Remember, He dresses the lilies of the valley and feeds the fowls of the air. What more you, his seed? You even have the power to command a shift in your life. When God saw darkness on the Earth, he was not stressed, but He commanded light, and it came to being.

Let God take dominance over your life. Set yourself free from thinking about your life, for the one who brought you to this Earth knows what you need. Continue to pray and praise your Master (Philippians 4:6 KJV), the Author and Finisher of your faith.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I live a stress-free life. God is my provider, and He takes over all my worries. I shall not lack any good thing in this life. I am a wonder, and all things are working for my good. Hallelujah!

“Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.”

Information changes from time to time. What was relevant in the past might not be relevant in this modern day and age. The famous cars and music bands in the past might not be that attractive today. The same principle governs the spiritual world; revelation is not stagnant but dynamic and progressive. In the deeper life phase we are in now, God is pouring out messages and prophecies relevant to this season. If you hold on to the past, you will miss a great deal.

Our scripture above ends by praising us for getting established in the present truth. Note, for there to be present truth, there are past and future truths. Some churches still believe in old truths. For you to know God as the one who performs miracles, it's a revelation but an old revelation. Today, we know that in Him we move, live, and have our being (Acts 17:28 KJV), which means we are the ones performing the miracles. We are the miracle workers. Christ is doing everything through us, not for us. Brothers and sisters, this is the present truth. Hallelujah!

Through prayers and supplication to God, you get fresh manna. God will begin to release present truth and relevant information for your life, and you shall be more up-to-date than tomorrow's newspaper.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am established in the present truth. I live, move, and have my being in Christ. My life is governed by God's word, which is a more sure word of prophecy. Hallelujah!

1 Corinthians 9:27 (KJV)

“But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.”

We need the flesh to function on the Earth, but we are never supposed to be governed by the flesh. The Bible says we are born of the spirit, which means in anything, it is the spirit that should take dominance in our lives. As the Bible expresses, there is always tension between your flesh and spirit (Galatians 5:17 KJV). But as you grow in the word of God, your spirit takes control over the flesh. The carnal or the flesh is the source of doubt, backsliding, and failure. Never allow your flesh to be the leader in anything you do. When you use the flesh to discern, you make a misinformed decision because the flesh is deceiving (Jeremiah 17:9). In this deeper life phase, there is no room for carnality. We are rebelling against sin, iniquity, and reckless lifestyle. Apostle Paul wrote to the church in Corinth that he buries his flesh daily (1 Corinthians 15:31 KJV). This shows you that even the great apostle was tempted to go astray, yet he never allowed his spirit to give an exhumation order to his flesh. Put nine-inch nails on your flesh every day. You are born of the spirit and governed by the spirit, not the flesh.

As you read this prophetic word and pray today, declare that in every area where your flesh was trying to take dominance, your spirit takes over. Empower your spirit by feeding on the word of God. Never give your spirit one cold snack and starve it. Give your inner man a rich menu of the word of God and see victories coming from all angles.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My spirit is the governor of my life, and I empower my spirit with the knowledge of Jesus Christ. My spirit governs my flesh, and I am spirit led in the name of Jesus.

“And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he heareth us:”

It is sad to see some Christians worshipping a God, yet they are not sure of His existence or ability. Some are not sure about where their prayers are going. I have seen many who pray and feel like their prayer hasn't crossed the ceiling of their houses. The God we worship is more real than you are to yourself. The Bible says something very profound, “this is the confidence that we have” The word confidence also means “guarantee”. We have surety that when we talk to Papa God, He hears us.

Never go for feelings when it comes to God's existence. God is there whether you feel like He is there or not. Your situation might not agree with God's existence, but remind yourself that He said He would never leave you nor forsake you (Hebrews 13:5 KJV). He is with us till the end in the name of Jesus. Get to a level where you preach and introduce your God to your situation. We are in the deeper life phase, and God's position in our hearts is not compromised or negotiable.

"Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again."

The reason for your existence is your mission. Like a soldier in the army, you have no reason to stay when your assignment end. Jesus had an effective ministry though he ministered on this Earth for a very short time. The impact of his ministry is forever seen. He was very focused on his assignment and mission. All your efforts must be directed towards your mission and vision. When you know your assignment, you won't be distracted by anything. Hatred, contempt, or words cannot shift you from your purpose. According to today's scripture, Jesus always uttered His mission that the Son of Man should come, be betrayed, and be crucified, but He rose on the third day. When Jesus finished his mission, he had no reason to stay but check out. Nothing took Him away from His mission because His focus was so clear. He was here for the redemption of mankind through the cross. He even said for this "cause", I was born and came to the Earth. His reason for coming to this Earth was a well-defined script.

Don't let anything distract you from your purpose. You carry a higher assignment of God, and it needs no turning back. The world is waiting for you and eagerly waiting for your godly manifestation. Never allow the echoes of this world to disturb you. Some could mock and disrespect Jesus, but He was never shaken because of His focus. When you know your mission, any distractive voice will be just noise. Stick to the mission, and you shall see a mighty hand of God. Hallelujah!

"If ye be Christ's, then ye are Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise."

As a Christian and a child of God, all of God's wealth and resources automatically belong to you. The Bible says in Romans 8:17 (KJV), "And if children, then heirs; heirs of God and joint-heirs with Christ."

An "heir" inherits or has the right of inheritance in anything from someone. This means that whatever God owns, you own them as well. Haggai 2:8 (KJV) states, "The silver is mine, and the gold is mine". If the gold and silver belong to God, then it also belongs to you. You have to believe that it is yours. Lack shall be a story of the past. How can you be broke when your father owns all the world's wealth and has freely given it to us? Rejoice and have fun; the money is coming in Jesus' name!

“But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.”

Pointless arguments often occur when evangelism is happening in big cities. There are people that the evangelism team will encounter with loads of questions, mainly to provoke an argument. The mindset of the person asking the question is to either know genuinely, to prove that they know better than you, or a hidden agenda to debate religious superiority, wanting to showcase that their religion is far more enlightened and better. At the very point of conversation, you should be able to discern whether the discussion is headed in the right direction or is meant for useless arguments, as our scripture for the day points out.

Never be drawn to unprofitable debates or arguments about Christianity because they lead to contentions and striving. You should therefore be wise as the serpent. Easily detect when a person is very stubborn and argumentative, which is unprofitable. Remember, you are a vessel for the Master's use; the Holy Spirit will teach you what to say to win over an unbeliever to Christ.

At your workplace and other places of frequent meetings, let your lifestyle and the character of Christ in you prove to others around you that you are royalty. The royals don't just talk uncontrolled. The choice of words, etiquette, decorum, dress code, and mannerism - all sum up your life in totality which will draw people to the Christ in you.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Now is the perfect time to win more souls for Christ. My character and lifestyle will be a shining example to showcase the God of Love that I serve. I will never encourage pointless arguments wherever I go, in Jesus' name. Amen!

"For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, to give you a future and a hope."

Jeremiah 29:11 is so powerful that it's worth reading daily to remind oneself of God's intentions concerning his children. Most marriages, relationships, friendships, and families fall apart because there seems to be a life of suspicion and inadequate disclosure. The scripture for today needs to be read or shown to those who don't think that a Bible-believing, tongue-speaking, and Holy Ghost-filled Christian should not prosper! For some unexplained traditional reasons, many folks out there think that poverty is equivalent to righteousness and are critical of any Christian with traits of prosperity.

The one speaking in this scripture is God, whose thoughts are carefully worded to remain unambiguous. God had given his blueprint, roadmap, strategy, and design for a Christian's life, including a "prosperity package". The thoughts and plans of God have prosperity at the very core. Anything contrary to God's plan is the plan of the devil. God is excited when you become a prosperous Christian as He says in Psalm 35:27, "...Let the Lord be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of His servant". When people are afraid to talk about prosperity, then you know they have not understood what God says about wealth and riches in Christ.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a joint heir with Christ, I am called to greatness, and my life shall manifest the glory of God who resides in me. Nothing will prevent me from becoming a prosperous Christian in Jesus' name. Hallelujah

Revelation 20:6 (KJV)

“Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years.”

Notice here in the scriptures that you are called “Holy”, which means that you are already set apart, separated for the Master’s use; also, you are given a position as a priest of God and of Christ. Then it ended by saying you shall rule with Him (Jesus) for a thousand years. Understand that your rulership cannot be argued as others might think, but it is confirmed in the Word of God. You are born again to reign with Christ. A victorious believer who understands this is not trying to dominate or influence, but you are the influencer to your generation, marketplace, and surroundings.

The Bible clearly says that Christ is in you the hope of glory. This glorious life should be practiced now and not only during the millennium reign with Christ. You have the authority to dominate circumstances and situations that try to stop your progress. You are an embodiment of the Godhead. When you move, Christ moves; when you talk, Christ talks; when you act, Christ acts. You have been empowered to do exploits for Christ, and all power is given to you: don’t hesitate to use it when necessary. You have contemplated your rulership and suffered the loss for so long; now it’s time to exercise power and dominion given to you by Jesus; you are called to reign! Amen.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am not a victim of life circumstances and situations; I stand in a position of rulership with Christ. I am a priest, and I shall have dominion now and always in Jesus’ name. Hallelujah!

Deuteronomy 8:18 (KJV)

“But thou shalt remember the Lord thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he sware unto thy fathers, as it is this day.”

Prosperity in the body of Christ is most often ignored, rejected, or even despised. The moment a believer gets wealthy, that person becomes an object of insult. Preachers are targeted when they break through the circle of lack and want and start living in abundance and surplus. All this results from wrong teachings and traditions that have been passed down in the body of Christ. These wrong teachings create the false idea that the more impoverished a Christian is, the more devout they are. Note, the Bible is very emphatic; scriptures tell us that God is not fond of poverty! Take, for an instant, Proverbs 6:10-11 (AMP) “Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to lie down and sleep – So will your poverty come like a robber or one who travels (with slowly but surely approaching steps) and your want like an armed man (making you helpless)”.

Poverty is of the devil that comes to rob you of your peace, joy, health, and your very life, while prosperity comes to establish your joy, peace, health, and fullness of life. When you are endowed with prosperity, it becomes very easy for you to support the spread of this gospel worldwide. Hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a child of God with riches and wealth as my possession; I have no contract with poverty. I am rich in every aspect, just as my Father is rich - who owns cattle on a thousand hills. Amen.

Hosea 2:8

Psalm 16:11 (KJV)

"Thou wilt shew me the path of life, in thy presence is fulness of Joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore."

Most people, including some Christians, are confused about the difference between joy and happiness. Circumstances do not dictate joy, situations, or environment. Joy does not rely on your feelings and emotions; it flows from the inside and is obtained through an intimate relationship with the Lord Jesus. Statistics show that most of the world's wealthiest people, whom the world had placed at the pinnacle of success, suddenly commit suicide. One of the reasons for this tragedy is a lack of joy.

They have found happiness in their achievements according to the world's standards, such as surroundings, the right mood, conditions, and relationships. This means that their happiness disappears the moment one variable is missing. Hence frustration kicks in to fill the void, and eventually, life becomes meaningless to the person whose life is anchored on happiness.

As the scripture points out, true joy, in its fulness, is found when you are submerged in Jesus and marinated in his love. You can only find this state of being in Jesus. With the infusion of His Word in you and guided by the Holy Spirit, there is an irreplaceable inner peace that only gravitates towards eternal and permanent riches above. Let this be your priority now in Jesus' name, amen!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

“And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up”

Many Christians have become specialists in murmuring and complaining about everything and quickly give up on their dreams, projects, and businesses, and ultimately, their relationship with God starts to decline. One thing you need to know is our arch-enemy; the devil's real name is Lucifer. Note that the name “devil” is his job title, meaning one who pounds until he pierces through. If your enemy uses this persistence strategy until he cuts through, how much more do you who have the very Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead? Why think that you cannot accomplish that project or business? Your dream will have a different meaning if you go deeper into the understanding that the Maker of the universe lives in you.

God never gives up on you, so you can never give up on Him. Today, begin to see yourself victorious in what you do. You are not a quitter, but a victor, not a weakling, but a mighty man of valor! The scripture for today tells you that in due season, we will reap if we do not give up. Practice tenacity, persistence, and resistance, and your victory will never be denied! Amen.

“Now it came to pass on a certain day, that He went into a ship with his disciples; and he said unto them let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.”

The disciples panicked when faced with the danger of contrary winds and storms. The word “contrary” simply means “against”. There was a destination set before them: the “other side”, as instructed by Jesus, yet the disciples were thrown into chaos even though Jesus was on the ship with them! Jesus being in your boat does not guarantee that your boat will not encounter stormy winds. You could be a fanatic worshipper, a walking bible by the number of scriptures you quote, or maybe a violent giver to the ministry and God’s work. Yet, all these tributes cannot stop the advancing contrary wind and storm. It is also true for the five-fold ministry, and even at this level of ministry, the contrary winds can still rage fiercely.

What counts is Jesus is in your boat! When Jesus is in your boat, all other factors become insignificant. Jesus, who boldly declared, “let us go to the other side”, had seen the contrary wind and storm way ahead; His Word is eternal, and it should steer you to your final destination regardless of any situation! Hallelujah!

“A fire shall always be burning on the altar; it shall never go out.”

When it comes to offerings and tithe, the place where it is done is that high elevation in some churches called an “ALTAR”. During bible times, this scripture was a command to always to keep the fire burning at the altar. Your giving is like an offering on an altar. Your monetary giving represents your hard work, time, energy, sweat, and, in a nutshell, life. When you pour out your offering, tithe, or seed on the altar, you honor God with your substance and life! According to scripture, an altar is a meeting place with God and, therefore, cannot be taken lightly.

We can never diminish the significance of an altar as it powerfully shows a point of connection between God and man. Pouring out your substance on an altar signifies your heart before God. God is interested in your heart and even admonishes us to jealously guide our heart, for out of it flows the issues of life. At the altar, there is a spiritual transaction that has been passed. When life concerning your health, children, career, or finances seem to decline, go to that very altar, and pour your heart there. It will speak for you without fail. The answer to your supplications will arrive swiftly, for the altar speaks, Hallelujah!

“Jesus said to them, ‘Fill the waterpots with water.’ And they filled them up to the brim.”

Notice the waterpots were filled to the brim, not halfway, not half-measured, not a quarter-filled; no, the servants made sure that the waterpots were filled at maximum capacity to the point where it was now running over. We have entered the deeper life phase, meaning that we have entered the zone where the half-filled pot is over, the season of incomplete efforts is over, and the season of doing less instead of more is over. We have entered the phase where your impact and efforts must be maximal! There is no more playground ahead. Let your service be without blemish, your scorecard speak

“Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now has been made manifests to his saints:”

These are exciting times we live in and precious moments each day we breathe free oxygen. A mystery is something very difficult or impossible to understand or explain. Something shrouded in secrecy or mysteriousness. A puzzle! I can give you more and more definitions from the English dictionary or concordance, yet it will still be complex for anybody to understand easily. The fact that God, in His wisdom, decided that He alone would be the custodian of this mystery and not angels, archangels, or the twenty-four elders can get a hint of this mystery shows the sovereignty of God.

This mystery from today's scriptures has been carefully guarded to avoid any leak from generation to generation until, as the Bible normally says, the “fulness of time”! The time is now to do what's required, either in Heaven, here on Earth, or under the Earth. God decided in his infinite wisdom when to make known this mystery that was hidden from ages past. With all the innovations and increases in knowledge, this generation was known to God before its existence. God alone can say why He decided that this mystery is revealed to us and in us “...which is Christ in you, the hope of glory” (Colossians 1:27). Hallelujah!

Whether in live service, out of Church, in an aircraft, boat, vehicle, on the prayer mountain (GoodNews City), or in the ambassadorial office, these environments are always saturated for God to speak. So it's not about the place but about the God who speaks. I always tell people that I don't preach by invitation but by commandment. I say what I am commanded to speak, and that's the fact. Going deeper on this one, if I speak by commandment, my speech can be translated into tangible results. There is heavenly weight behind the words that I speak.

I put a premium on my words, for they are not just words but valued objects that can run, execute, enforce and bring alive that which was spoken! When I declare, "Prosperity will answer at your door," the moment I utter these words, there is a transmission in the atmosphere to pull or attract prosperity towards you. When you understand the value of your spoken words, you will choose your words carefully before you utter them. The very Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead lives in you. The words you speak will go out and take the shape of that which you desire. When you desire prosperity, good health, peace, and financial abundance, all you need to do is speak them. Hallelujah!

Genesis 1:27 (KJV)

“So God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him, male and female created He them.”

The creation story gives us an insight into God's works for six days and night, and then on the seventh day, God rested; till now, God is resting, seated on His throne. God made every animal original in the creation and instructed them to produce after their kind. In our scripture for today, when it came to man's creation, God paused creation, which was original, took a deep breath, and introduced the keyword “IMAGE.” In the preceding verse of the same Chapter 1 of Genesis, the word “LIKENESS” was spoken by God when man was to be created. So, man is not an original species like animals, and we bear God's image and likeness, and that's God's DNA.

God speaking of man, boldly declares, “I have said Ye are gods and all of you are children of the most High” (Psalm 82:6). If God endorses you, why allow yourself to be undermined by others that nothing good will come out of you? If God never got sick, then why will you now call sickness yours? Some Christians even go to the extent of saying “my migraine”, “my diabetes”, “my high blood pressure”, etc. When did you hear God claiming sickness to be His? No, never! A child of God with the DNA of the most High will shake off any negativity because you are made in the image and likeness of God.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

God's DNA is oozing in my blood and veins; I have no agreement with the enemy. I cannot be sick; diseases shall not come near my dwelling. My portion is dominion and greatness in Jesus' mighty name. Amen!

Luke 5:16 (KJV)

“And He withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.”

The “He” being referred to in our scripture today is Jesus. Can you imagine the Lord Jesus performing so many miracles and being very busy with ministry? He says, “I must be about my Father’s business” (Luke 2:49). What is touching here is the fact that despite the huge demands placed on Jesus as he was sought after by everybody, he found time to “PRAY.” Anytime Jesus went about performing miracles, signs, and wonders, power (energy) came out of him. The greater the number of miracles, the more power sprang out. Like the demands of ministry today, the more the expansion and growth of the ministry, the more exhausted one becomes.

Jesus taught us a very important lesson: He didn’t succumb to the pressures and demands of ministry by neglecting his prayer life. Jesus knew to gather strength and tap into power in another dimension, and prayer was the key. This shows that regardless of your office, be it a prophet, an evangelist, a teacher, a pastor, or an apostle, you cannot function at full capacity without reloading in prayer.

Miracles, signs, and wonders become commonplace when you step out of that place of prayer. Through prayer, another dimension will be opened to you, and power from on high will take over you. To be a shape-shifter, you need to reload through prayer. At this point, diseases, sicknesses, and strongholds will vanish like chaff before you. Amen!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a powerhouse filled with power from on high. My environment is charged with the power to heal the sick and break the chains of oppression. When I appear, demons have no option but to flee in the name of Jesus. Hallelujah!

“And Elisha prayed and said, Lord, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.”

Why is it that Elisha's servant couldn't see what Elisha saw? The eyes of the young man in the natural weren't blind, yet he couldn't see what his master saw. This subject needs careful attention and has to be taught over time. The area around the Prophet was fortified with horses and chariots of fire, yet no one around Elisha could see in this realm except him alone. Understand that just because you don't see it doesn't mean it's not there. The prophetic enables you to see beyond what others cannot see. You see far above and beyond the ordinary perception of reality.

It's the spiritual realm that determines natural occurrences. “Through faith, we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God so that things which are seen were not made of things which are visible” (Hebrews 11:3). Understand that the Prophetic sees beyond the ordinary. And when I decree and declare prosperity for you, you receive it without doubting, and prosperity will be yours in Jesus' name. I speak that which I see; it is not guesswork! Hallelujah.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I will never doubt God's word as spoken by the Prophet, for I know that God always confirms the word of His servant. I am a partaker of the abundance of grace upon the life of my Prophet. Therefore I will never struggle in Jesus' name. Amen!

“And the evil spirit answered and said, “Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are you?””

The sons of Sceva (a religious leader) thought they could do what Paul the Apostle was doing. Many Christians think it's very easy to do what their man of God or woman of God is doing, which is one of the reasons why they break away and form their churches without the proper order. Of course, some admire the titles and would like to be called those titles, but the reality is, are you adequately prepared and established in the word of God to go out on your own? We must understand that there are generals and territorial commanders in the realm of the spirit feared by demons.

You need to have the character of Jesus to confront the afflictions and disorders caused by evil spirits. You need to be spiritually sound and understand how to navigate the spiritual realm before attempting spiritual warfare; if not, it's dangerous for you. The sons of Sceva will attest to this. Most people assume that even the prophetic is easy, and everyone wants to call themselves a prophet. But let me clarify here that it's not child's play. To dominate over every enemy attack, you need to be grounded in the word of God and put on the character of Christ! Hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I chose to go for the word of God, and I shall come back with a testimony. The word of God in me shall produce tangible results in the name of Jesus.

“Therefore my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord”

Paul wrote to the Church at Corinth to be unwavering in their faith and should be rooted and grounded in his (Paul) teachings. Notice that Paul also encouraged them that whatever they do for the Lord is never in vain. Many times, some Believers reach a point wherein they start to question the very existence of God because a tragedy happens to a family member, financial burdens become unbearable, or sickness from the enemy ravages someone very close to them. In these unbearable conditions, the question pops up in their mind, where is God?

Have you asked this very question before? Have you been to a point where you think God has abandoned you? Remember that we must be immovable in our understanding of the word of God, the ultimate source of life. God did not bring you this far to abandon or forsake you. All that you are doing for ministry is never in vain. This scripture should raise your faith to another level! The Bible says in 1 Corinthians 10:13 that there hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man, but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able, but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. When God called me that time under the apple custard tree, though I was still very young and didn't understand much, the mandate was very clear, “You are a Prophet to nations.” The call of God is always associated with a geographical location, and I later realized from my many encounters with God that our ministry is global. Never consider your branch the sole representation of what you can cover for Christ. Though your branch is local, you must understand that we have a global mandate. See yourself proclaiming this strange commission to billions around the world.

You are to take cities, towns, nations, and continents. White garments are already prepared for souls to be won, and the harvest is ready, so the task before us is big. There are territories and continents in need of this strange commission God gave us, and we cannot afford to be relaxed. When you realize this strange commission to be a movement, you will start to go deeper into every part of ministry to push it higher. Now is the time to take over nations and continents. You are called for a time like this to fulfill this global mandate with me.

You may have heard me repeatedly say that fire is the ultimate response to the enemy's attacks. The genetic makeup of the devil is fire. Fire is merciless. Fire burns, fire cooks, fire consumes, fire travels, and fire does not discriminate. The word of God tells us, “For our God is a consuming fire” (Hebrews 12:29 KJV). This attribute of God as a consuming fire is also part of your DNA when the Holy Spirit takes residence in you. Problems and issues torment your life as if you are not a child of God. Why? The reason is simple. You fail to show them your identity. That fiery part you are made of needs to show forth and fight fire with fire. Anyone can recognize a Christian on fire for Jesus from afar. You shine a light that shines the brightest and makes demons flee.

Whatever troubles you: your family, your business, your education, your career, your children, your marriage, the answer is fire! It's now hard to be a public spectacle of the enemy's gimmicks. Don't you know that you are seated with Christ far above powers and principalities? You have been too quiet for too long and subject yourself to unnecessary headaches and confusion. Rise up, let the fire within you start burning, and your victory will never be denied in the mighty name of Jesus. Amen!

Isaiah 41:10 (NKJV)

"Fear not, for I am with you, be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, yes, I will help you, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand."

How many of you reading this passage sincerely say, "I am alright, I have no fear"? If God can say fear not, then it means there is a human tendency to fear whenever faced with a situation. It is the unpredictability of the outcome that may cause fear in you. As you read the scripture, you see that God continues to emphasize that He is right there where you are. Have you just received an eviction notice? Is the medical report giving you sleepless nights? Hasn't the mortgage been paid for a while? Oh, did you just receive a dismissal letter? There is nothing to celebrate in all these, yet God is saying, "I will strengthen you!"

No doubt that other situations in life require help, so when God says, "I will help you", it is like dialling the emergency number 911 or 999 in other countries. He knows your case is an emergency, so note that help is coming. Sometimes, like a sinking ship, your business is almost liquidated, your marriage is on the verge of collapse and your finances vanished. But God says, "I will uphold you". Just believe in what God says, and you will witness a miracle in your life. Hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Today, I claim my birth rights as a child of God, and I will not fear. I know who I am in Christ. I am above only and not beneath. My life is moving forward at the speed of light, and I know I am an overcomer in Jesus' name. Amen!

“And He is before all things, and in Him all things consist.”

The universe as we know it, the Earth, the stars, the moon, the sun, the planetary systems, the galaxies, and all humans can comprehend are held together by the word of God. When God made the Earth, He commanded it to stay in space. The Earth obeyed to remain stationary in this space location until today. It remains where it is because of the spoken word of God.

The substance used as a binding agent to hold processed foods together and give them shape is called “gluten,” which is like a glue that holds substances together as one unit. Can you now see the importance of the word of God? Without the word of God like glue holding the world together, the whole world will fall apart. This very Word of God, according to John 1:1, was in the beginning with God, and that Word is God! In the same chapter of John 1:14, “the Word became flesh and dwelt amongst us, and we beheld His glory, the glory of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth”, that’s Jesus! “By humility and the fear of the LORD are riches and honour and life.”

How do you truly measure success? What is the definition of a successful person from the biblical perspective? In today's scripture, humility is the first thing God requires to open the door for success. You must search hard to see a humble man or woman in our day and age. Pride has consumed almost everyone. For example, a very talented person who sings will hesitate to join the church choir, putting it on shyness. To this day, I always say it is not being shy but pride. As we know from the scriptures, God resists the proud but giveth grace to the humble (James 4:6 KJV).

Two things are mentioned here from today's scripture: “humility” and “fear of the Lord,” which serve as conduits for riches, honour, and life. In your character, if God can find these two important ingredients as required, then the litmus test is passed, and you are qualified to receive riches, honor, and life. Many people miss out on opportunities and promotions simply because of pride and lack of fear of the Lord. When you think of yourself very highly than you ought to, that is pride. It's about time to put away pride and practice humility, and you will see the hand of God move in your life like never before! Amen.

“And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.”

The setting of this scripture was when Jesus took five loaves of bread and two fishes and fed over five thousand men, excluding women and children. This is powerful considering the natural reality of this miracle. To man, this is impossible. You cannot make sense of catering for over five thousand people just by a meal from an insignificant kid. What caught my attention the most in this miracle was how Jesus instructed his disciples to collect the leftovers and avoid waste. Jesus, who performed the miracle, was keen on ensuring that resources were accounted for and reduced waste.

Most believers feel that when a miracle is received, there is no need to be diligent. Sometimes it's unbelievable how churchgoers treat church properties, despite having no clue how these things were obtained. If the Lord Jesus can take time and ensure that leftovers are collected and accounted for, how much more church materials? It's about time to imitate Christ in all parts of life. When you become diligent in your household setting, it will multiply at a larger gathering in a church setting. Do not behave recklessly. The world out there eagerly awaits the manifestation of the sons of God. If you want miracles to multiply in your life, start gathering the crumbs and appreciate the Giver.

"Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead."

Judges and leaders in high offices are clothed with power and authority to summon, uphold and render judgment as the final say in the world system. Some of these judgments could bring about life or death scenarios and the verdict unforgettable. The Bible emphasizes that our God is a Judge, for Judges must judge. Other scriptures call Him a consuming fire. God's judgments are pure. This means there is no way to corrupt God to turn His judgment in your favor. His sovereignty is unquestionable, and His and verdicts are without appeal for His judgment is in perfection.

It shouldn't be considered normal when you are attacked from every side by evil people, high-pressed by financial turmoil, family disarray, children being wayward, or your business crashing. You need an advocate to handle your case. You need an advocate that says enough is enough. There are cases and life issues beyond your human intelligence. Jesus is the righteous Judge who will plead and judge your case with the victorious verdict. He has never lost a battle, and for sure, He's your advocate who will never lose a case. You are on the winning side. King Jesus has the final say, glory be to God. Hallelujah!

“And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.”

Jesus focused on resurrecting Lazarus, despite being emotionally affected by the sad news. The talk from relatives about the decomposed body and stench didn't deter Jesus from His focus. How fast and far had the situation in your finances dragged you? Or how hopeless has the marriage been with arguments and pains that you think it's not worth the time and energy anymore?

Jesus' steadfast determination in ordering the stone to be rolled away, given the condition of Lazarus' body, was just stunning. In the face of hopelessness, Jesus found hope. During chaos and unrest, Jesus wasn't distracted from His goal. The reality of Jesus ordering the stone to be rolled away conflicted with normal human expectations, yet the unexpected happened. This is supposed to be the true character of a Spirit-filled believer. When you know that all human endeavors have failed, there is still hope in Jesus.

Lazarus' resurrection indicates that with Jesus, no situation, regardless of its hopelessness, is too late. When the raging storms and fluctuations of life pound on your expectations, rise up, dust yourself from the ashes of anger, and shout aloud the name “Jesus!” like Jesus shouted the name “Lazarus.” Understand that your victory will never be short-circuited in Jesus' name, even as His voice still echoes in creation today. “And He was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light.”

Our scripture for today depicts Jesus' appearance at the mount of transfiguration in the presence of Moses and Elijah. Both prophets of God did wondrous things while they walked on planet Earth. Moses was associated with water and miraculously saved out of water when Pharaoh slaughtered babies his age in Egypt. On the other hand, Elijah is associated with fire when he called fire from Heaven, which killed the priests of Baal. Both men met Jesus at the mountaintop while His disciples Peter, James, and John looked on.

The glorious transfiguration of Jesus demonstrates that all power belongs to Him and Him alone. I always tell people that the beauty you see in a butterfly is not so original. There are stages and processes involved in the development of a butterfly. It was first a tiny round egg. It metamorphosed into a caterpillar, then into a pupa, and finally transformed into a butterfly. We have now graduated from the stages of normalcy in Christendom and plunged into a deeper phase, where glorious living and intimacy with God at another realm and dimension birth forth transfiguration. Do not settle for the ordinary because you are not normal. God handpicks you to run the last course of the relay till rapture, when all those unshakably submerged in Jesus will be transfigured into the glorious body just like Him. Hallelujah!

Our scripture for today is the very words of Jesus Himself. No other religious leader had made a bold claim such as this: the bold declaration of being the way, the truth, and the life. The Bible is full of statements by Jesus telling us who He is. Jesus is the embodiment of true love, which is very hard to find nowadays. The entire Bible, from Genesis to Revelation, speaks about Jesus. His life was foretold and announced by the prophets of old.

Jesus is the Prince of Peace. He is the root of Jesse, the rose of Sharon, the author and finisher of our faith, the desire of the nations, everlasting Father, first and last, He is God, head of the Church, Holy One, true light, Sun of righteousness, I AM, king of The ages, king of kings, the lamb of God, the lion of the tribe of Judah, Lord of all, mediator, mighty God, the rock of ages, the Word of God, El Shaddai, and Elohim.

Jesus Himself puts it this way in Hebrews 10:7 (KJV), “Then said I, lo, I come (in the volume of a book it is written of me,) to do your will, O God.” Jesus is the centrepiece of civilization! Let’s be clear: without Jesus, there is nothing that can exist, for, in Him, we have our being, and in Him, we live and move. Jesus is everything! Hallelujah!

You will notice in the preceding verses of the same chapter before Jabez's prayer that we have a catalog of names and people being born. Generation after generation that preceded Jabez didn't matter until Jabez, whose name signifies “pain or sorrow,” was mentioned. Everyone before Jabez amounted to nothing, but when Jabez came on the scene, there was a dramatic shift in the situation. Today's scripture is the lengthy prayer Jabez offered to the God of Heaven! Jabez's prayer was massive, he laid out exactly what he needed from God and believed that he would have received it, and indeed Jabez obtained his prayer request.

It is important to note that your lineage might have had issues in almost every area of life. But dare to be the curse breaker, dare to be the barrier breaker, dare to be the yoke destroyer, dare to be the financier and entrepreneur of international reputation for your family. I am amazed when I hear people talk about their hobbies. Some will say their hobby is reading (novels/literature), some sports, for others it's just walking, and some take a go at mountain climbing. A hobby is what you enjoy doing and somehow get some satisfaction from. It's done regularly, if not daily! Jesus is speaking to His disciples and pinpointing what should be done regularly and that is 'prayer'. Not only regularly but something that is enjoyed with excitement.

The good thing about developing a prayerful lifestyle is that it strengthens your relationship and walk with God. Prayer can be easily done alongside your hobbies, like jogging or walking. This is talking with your Maker. You don't need to be immobile while you pray. Also, it's easy to pray while driving, so there is no excuse for not praying.

You must develop that lifestyle of prayer and see yourself grow in the things of the Spirit. Prayer is simply having a conversation with God; imagine as you take a walk or jog in the morning and pour out everything concerning your life before God as He directs your path. Your miracle is therefore, guaranteed! Amen!

Earnestly speaking, I see people coming to church as if they were forced. The mannerisms, utterances, and persona all indicate that something is wrong. Some put on an act while others show an outburst of everything ungodly from within. Which scripture are you fulfilling if you are angry with church or offended for being in the house of the Lord? I always say that the church is like a clinic; people come in with various problems seeking lasting solutions, so how will someone else's situation influence your relationship with God? If there is a marital problem, financial crisis, career challenges, or legal battles, note that you have come to the solution. You are in for a treat from the one who can do exceedingly, abundantly, above that which you can think or imagine! Safety has often become a big issue in large corporations and institutions, and that caused governments to establish safety boards to ensure people and products are handled safely and securely. In modern times, we have witnessed security as a big issue on the global stage. Most travellers now accept whatever measures are put in place at airports, especially if these measures are done in the name of "security". Some hotels even enforce security protocols. At the airports, it's degrading for our belts to be removed and shoes taken off to enforce and enhance security for travellers.

Sadly, we see the lack in these measures as terrorists continue to cause havoc on innocent people. How safe are we then? Today's scripture says, "He shall cover you with His feathers, and under His wings, you shall take refuge; His truth shall be your shield and buckler." When people become more reliant on their efforts and earthly wisdom, and God is removed from the equation, we see untold misery. God should be at the center. He is our protector, shield, and buckler. People are hired for their differences and fired for their similarities. That simply means what you do that is unique and valuable sets you apart from the rest. That is a principle that increases your value, secures your position, and leads to promotion in any environment. It is true in your place of business, your ministry, and, most importantly, in your walk with the Lord.

God places a premium on value to the extent that He has His own performance rating and rewards system. There will come a time when you will be rewarded for what you do here on Earth. However, you do not need to wait until that time to evaluate your performance. You can start now. Ask yourself, Am I really doing what the Lord says I should do? Is the way I live reflecting God?

There are no grey areas in your answers to these questions. You are either yielding your vessel to God or to the devil. If you are hesitant and uncertain in your responses, it may be because the devil is using you. If you realize that is the case, change is required. Shift immediately! The good news is that you do not need to do this on your own. The Bible tells us that God works in you to want to do His will and to do His will. So, evaluate yourself with the confidence of knowing that whatever your answers are, God will help you to improve.

“Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.”

Many Christians believe their prayers will change the heart of God towards them or their situations. Unfortunately, that belief has caused a lot of frustration and disappointment. They have failed to recognize that their unanswered prayers result from a bad attitude, believing they can manipulate God through their prayers. This is what the Bible calls asking amiss or wrongly.

Notice it is the asking that is amiss and not necessarily the thing that is asked for. That means there is an attitude that can cause you to ask wrongly. Your motive can be incorrect because you ask for the wrong thing for the wrong reasons. But your attitude can also be incorrect in how you approach God in prayer. God cannot be manipulated, and prayer will never change God. Prayer changes you.

Prayer develops your attitude. If you leave the place of prayer and your attitude is still the same, you did not pray. Attitude is the fruit of the heart. Therefore, a bad attitude indicates that a change needs to take place in the heart. You cannot change your own heart. So, what do you do? It is simple. Have times when you pray with one request in mind: God, change my heart. And the best thing you can do is to pray in tongues. This allows the Holy Spirit to frame the requests of your heart perfectly. And as you give Him access to change your heart in prayer, your attitude will also change.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My heart is for God! I give Him access to every room of my heart. I am a walking, talking expression of His desire. As He is, so am I in this world!

“Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour.”

You do not need to be afraid of the devil. The Bible says resist him, and he will run away in terror (James 4:7). No-where in scripture will you find a verse that tells you to fight the devil. He is already a defeated foe. Just imagine facing an enemy, and all you need to do is resist. You are not resisting to gain victory. You have already done that, for Christ has secured your victory over the devil long ago. The fact that all you need to do is resist tells you where the real power is. It is with you!

So, how do you resist the devil? One way to resist is through meditation. The word ‘meditate’ in Joshua 1:8 is the Hebrew “hagah”, which has several meanings. One meaning is to roar. Christian meditation differs from that of eastern religions in that we do not empty our minds. Instead, we fill our minds with the Word of God. As we meditate on scripture, we mutter the word quietly to ourselves. Then there are times when we roar the word.

When the devil roars fear, shame, defeat, and hopelessness at you, roar back! You are the real lion! Christ, the Word and Conquering Lion, resides in you. The devil is a fake lion. Resist him with the word, and you will turn his roar into a defeated whimper!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am filled with the Spirit of boldness and might. There is no challenge I will face today that I cannot conquer. I speak to every mountain, and they become roadways for me. I am moving forward unhindered in Jesus’ name!

We are quickly approaching what the world calls the end of the year, and it has been a glorious year of Wonders without Number so far. And it is not over yet. Remember, a year does not know it is a year. And the new year begins when we declare it is a new year by the Spirit of the Lord. That means there is still time for more wonders to occur.

With God, there is never anything called delay. He does not sleep, so there is no yesterday for Him. He will never sleep (Psalm 121:3-4), so there will be no tomorrow for Him. He lives in one eternal now. That means the money you are waiting for is coming to you now. The healing you desire in your body, mind, or relationship is happening right this minute! That change you desire and the wonders you have been waiting to experience are not coming tomorrow; they are happening now!

So, do not ask, why is it taking so long? Instead, employ the technology of sound and step into the dimension of wonders. Declare what is rather than what will be. Use your words to step into the dimension of God where wonders without number are happening now!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I live in the dimension of wonders! My health is a wonder! My prayer life is a wonder! I speak wonders in my family, ministry, and business! I am a financial wonder, and the money is coming NOW!

"The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against his anointed... He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision"

The only time I speak of the devil is to remind you of his position, which is under your feet (Romans 16:20). Outside of that context, he is completely irrelevant. He is the prince of darkness. 'Prince' means first to be, and darkness speaks of ignorance. That simply means the devil is the first to be ignorant. He is so ignorant that the only way he can know what is going on with you is if you tell him.

Listen, you can fool the devil. He is the biggest fool and easily fooled. God has instituted a technology in your own body whereby you can fool it into health. You can fake a smile, and your body will respond with all the benefits of a real smile, and there are many. Similarly, you can fool the devil by acting out your spiritual reality even if you do not yet feel or see it in the natural.

The devil is not spiritual, and he can only be convinced by actions that contradict what he thinks. You can confuse him by saying and doing the opposite of any negative feeling or circumstance. Instead of crying and complaining about your temporary situation, just sit down and laugh. When you do this, you copy your Father who laughs at His enemies. Awaken to the reality of your power and position in Christ and laugh in the devil's face!

“Sing, barren woman, who has never had a baby. Fill the air with song, you who’ve never experienced childbirth! You’re ending up with far more children than all those childbearing women.” God says so!

There’s an uncommon phenomenon in obstetrics known as false or phantom pregnancy. It is when a woman believes she is pregnant when she is not. This is not a delusional trick of the mind. The woman will actually have physical symptoms of pregnancy. She will look as though a baby is growing inside; she will feel the baby kicking. Some women even experience labour pains. Yet, when it is time to give birth, there is nothing there.

Experts have found that there are contributing factors that cause phantom pregnancy. For example, the woman may have a strong desire to be pregnant or an overwhelming fear of pregnancy or previous loss. For others, it is due to their lower socio-economic status. In other words, people who lack are more prone to this condition. Or it may be that they have tried to conceive for a long time with no results.

Many Christians are experiencing phantom pregnancies in their prayer life. They travail in prayer, yet they do not give birth. But that changes now! It does not matter how many times you’ve tried before, how broke you are, or how fearful you are about your circumstances, God is looking for one thing in your prayer, and that is faith. Get verses that connect to the changes you desire and nourish your spirit with them. Faith in the word makes your prayer life fertile. Something will come out of it!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My prayers are fertilized by faith; therefore, I produce results every time. As I pray, I set angels in motion to work on my behalf, and everything that opposes me is at risk.

“Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men...”

No one argues about the exit sign when a building is on fire. You may go in and out of that building every day and never pay attention to that green or red exit sign. You may even see it and disregard it as something unimportant and insignificant. But in the moment of trouble, when the fire hits that building and it is filled with so much smoke that you cannot see your way out, that exit sign becomes the most important thing to you.

God's ways are often considered foolish. The Bible says He uses foolish things to confound the wise (1 Corinthians 1:27). So, it sounds ridiculous when we tell you to declare the money is coming, and by saying that, you create highways for angels to bring money to you. Nonetheless, that is the technology that God has given you, and it is so simple if you only believe it.

Right now, your finances may be up in smoke, and you cannot see your way out. But God has given you an exit sign to lead you out of poverty, hardship, struggle, and lack. Don't argue with God's methodology. Use the technology of sound to construct highways and byways for angels to travel and deliver the wealth that has been stored up for you. Declare, the money is coming! Every time you do, angels are moving towards you with your riches. The prosperity you seek is on the other side of that exit sign. Take it!

“Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.”

One of the most challenging things is to give a gift to someone who already has everything. The only way you can try to touch the heart of such a person is to observe what gives them the most joy and then do your best to give along those lines. God is one you might be tempted to believe already has everything, but He does not. The Bible tells us that His desire is that no one should perish and that all should come to repentance (2 Peter 3:9). Yet, people are dying every day and taking the express train to Hell.

God's heartbeat is to see lost souls saved. That is what He desires the most. The scripture tells us that Heaven erupts with joy whenever one sinner turns to the Lord. Notice, our scripture for today says there is joy in the presence of the angels of God. That means the joy spoken of here is not the angels' joy. It is God's joy witnessed by the angels in His presence.

Just imagine God shouting for joy every time you lead someone to Christ and the angels getting so excited seeing Him rejoice that they join in the jubilation! Hallelujah! You can cause God to rejoice like that by giving Him the gift He desires the most – a soul that receives salvation. In this festive season, tell someone today about how the Lord changed you, healed your body, and lifted you out of poverty into abundance. Give God a reason to rejoice!

And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the sea shore.

I always say, if you give a woman a house, she will give you a home. If you give her a seed, she will give you a child. God designs a woman to receive what you give and return so much more. That is the likeness of God at work in her. You see, God is a Giver, and His nature is to receive what you give and multiply it back to you. He is a wealthy King who refuses to be outdone.

In the realm of royalty, the glory of a king is measured by his power to outgive another king. That automatically shifts the nature of our giving because the Bible says God has made us kings (Revelation 1:6). So, when you give to God, He does not only see a church member or partner giving. He sees another king giving, and His reputation demands that He outgive you.

That is what happened to King Solomon in 1 Kings chapter 3. Solomon gave an offering, and true to His nature, God was not about to be outdone by another king. He visited Solomon in a dream and asked, "What do you want Me to do for you?" Solomon's response had God's interest at heart. As a result, God not only granted Solomon's request but gave him much more than he asked for. I dare you to try and outgive God. Focus the purpose of your giving on God's Kingdom. He will give you exceeding much and largeness in return.

“And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us....”

There is an interesting verse of scripture in Psalm 89:34 (KJV) where God says, “My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.” It is a marvelous verse that reassures us of God’s faithfulness to His word. However, the part I want to draw your attention to is in the latter part of the verse where it says, “nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.”

From Genesis to Revelation, God has never done anything physical. All He does is speak. When God speaks, He speaks things. He said, “Let there be...,” and whatever He said came into being. He gave you the same power to use. That means when you speak, you also speak things into being. If you could imagine every word you speak taking on physical form, that is exactly what happens in the realm of the spirit. So, when you declare, “I am rich!” those words take shape as spirits with a life of their own and look for ways to make you rich.

Right now, your life is a product of words, things you have spoken into being. So from today, be careful what you say. Never just utter thoughtless words. Be conscious of the power you possess to speak things into being and use it intentionally to create the life you desire for yourself and your family.

The world is fascinated with superheroes. Marvel Studios, Warner Bros, and Sony Pictures make billions of dollars because of that. They understand how human nature is captivated by the idea of untapped possibilities beyond ordinary human potential. That fascination is not just for movies, and it is something that God Himself has put in us to give us an indication of who we are and what we are capable of.

In the scriptures, we have caught glimpses of what a Holy Spirit-empowered person can do, Jesus being our prime example. He changed the chemical composition of water into wine. He ignored the molecular density of water and walked on top of it like pavement. He disappeared and reappeared right in front of people’s eyes. And He says we are capable of greater works (John 14:12).

You are not meant for an ordinary human existence. You are a citizen of Mt. Zion. Right now, it is possible to taste of the powers to come, powers that are in full operation in Mt. Zion. Have you stopped to investigate what is happening there? No one ages there – everyone is youthful and perfectly healthy. They can be transported at the speed of thought. They live in a realm of complete abundance and prosperity, lacking nothing. Have you tasted of these powers yet? If not, what are you waiting for? Earnestly desire to function out of Mt. Zion. That is your place. Begin to walk in those powers now, and show the world who the real superheroes are!

Pride is the lie you believe about yourself, and the greatest form of pride on Earth is a person who wakes up and does not pray. Every morning when you wake up, you enter into a day that belongs to God. It is HIS day! He owns it, and everything He owns, He protects.

God graciously allows you to enter His day and function in it as though it were your own. That is something to rejoice about! From the moment your eyes open, your mouth should also open in a prayer of thanksgiving to God. The Word of God encourages us to bless the Lord at all times and not to forget all his benefits. Sleep is a benefit. Protection as you sleep is a benefit. Waking up is a benefit. Having the strength to turn over, sit up, or rise up are all benefits. There is so much to be grateful for right from the very start of your day.

From today onwards, make it your practice to give thanks to God the moment you wake up. As you develop this attitude of gratitude, you will become more aware of the blessings in your life. God will reciprocate your praise and thanksgiving with His own joy, and His joy will create a fortified place for you in each day. You will go out and come in under His divine protection, strength, and enablement.

“And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit,”

It is often said that when a person accepts Jesus as their Lord and Saviour, that person “gave their life to Christ.” However, that is a misconception. Think about it: you accepted Christ because you realized how messed up and broken your life was. What would Jesus need with a life like that? No, sir! No, ma’am! He does not need your old life. In fact, when you are born again, you do not give your life to Christ; He gives His life to you!

The Word of God declares that when you are born again, you become a brand-new species of being that never existed before. Christ did not renovate or recycle your old life. He replaced it with His own! Now that you are born again, he needs your changed life. This brand-new life you received has qualified you to be used for His service. But God, who is a Spirit, never uses anything He does not first colonize. That is why He requires that you be filled with His Spirit.

You are a container, an earthen vessel containing God Himself, and He wants to be the one to influence you. The same way a drunken person is overwhelmed by the alcohol spirit, He wants to fill you to the brim with His Holy Spirit so that all of your faculties – physical, mental, and spiritual – are totally submerged by Him!

It is impossible for a pastor who lives in lack to impart plenty on you or for someone living in a free council house (the projects) to prophesy a mansion to you, and that prophecy comes to pass. The reason is simple: the level they possess indicates the level of grace they have the power to impart. What they possess is as much as their faith has managed to acquire. Consequently, that is as much as they can offer to you.

Generally, you cannot give what you do not have. That is a simple but potent principle that many have overlooked when it comes to financial sowing. As a result, people have sown financial seed that has produced no harvest. But as a wise investor, it is your responsibility to sow good seed into the most fertile environment so it can produce a harvest.

There are different kinds of soil and environments for different types of seeds. That is why you will find trees native to one area but nowhere to be found in another. So, before you sow, the best thing you can do is to investigate to see what the soil and environment have already produced. Check to see if that ministry's soil is fertile or if the person who receives your seed has the faith to consistently produce the kind of harvest you want. That will let you know the potential harvest you can reasonably expect.

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service."

There is a book that caused an uproar in the medical community called Dead Doctors Don't Lie. The catchy and somewhat controversial title suggests that it is impossible to do anything after you're dead. However, I propose there are things you can and should do after you're dead.

When you were born again, the old you died. Your spirit – the essence of who you really are – was replaced by the Spirit of God. The great Apostle Paul said, "I am crucified with Christ."

Galatians 2:20 (KJV) He understood that a truly born-again Christian has gone to the point of no return. That is the reality for every Christian. The remaining portion of that verse is also true, which says, "nevertheless, I live." Galatians 2:20 (KJV) You still live a life in the flesh. That is where the dilemma lies for many Christians.

We are in the deeper life phase, and you are responsible for presenting your own body as a living sacrifice. It is your duty to take it to the altar yourself. How? By killing every worldly desire. Whatever the world says is trending, fashionable, or "the norm" to do with your body that goes against the Word of God, don't do it! Instead, force your flesh to be a rebel for Christ. At first, you will not want to do it, but stay committed. By God's grace, you will be a holy trendsetter that others will want to follow.

You have capabilities that no other creature on Earth has, and you have special creative abilities that God placed in you to be just like Him. To understand what you have, you must understand how God creates. Today’s scripture tells us that God created, then the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters, and then God said. That is the creative process in action.

Your creative process starts with God’s Word, which is His will. Get a verse. That is the material you will use to begin to create. Then begin to imagine – think about what you desire to see, do, or have in your life. Then move (r-a-c-a-p-h) over that idea; brood over it in constant imagination of the outcome. In other words, meditate on it. Mutter it until you are thoroughly convinced in your heart that what you have imagined and are saying is real. After meditating on it for some time, begin to speak. I am a multi-millionaire! I am healed! My business is flourishing! The money is coming! After you have created, act as though the things you have spoken are true because they are.

As you exercise your creative ability in this way, you call those things that did not exist as though they existed. Those things will have no choice but to obey by coming out of the spiritual realm where you created them and into existence in the physical!

“What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.”

“By any means necessary” is a phrase popularized by civil rights leaders in America to demonstrate their willingness to do whatever it takes to accomplish their cause. However, the essence of the phrase did not start there. The Bible declared long before civil rights that the Kingdom of God suffers violence, and the violent must take it by force (Matthew 11:12). This is the attitude you ought to have when spreading the Gospel.

The number one mission of every Christian is to spread the Gospel BY ANY MEANS NECESSARY. So, you must seriously contemplate what role you play in accomplishing that. There is no grey area when it comes to spreading the Gospel and winning souls. You must be actively engaged in one way or another in accomplishing this great commission, for the salvation of souls is God’s very heartbeat.

You can decide to be on the frontlines, going out into the highways and byways, compelling men to come to the Lord. Or you may be dedicated to praying that laborers be sent into the fields to gather the harvest. You could also commit your finances to God so that your money becomes money with a mission and is used to further the spreading of the Gospel. “But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory...”

The devil is a spiritual being, but he is not spiritual. He does not know everything, and he does not understand spiritual things. For example, God specifically named the tree He told Adam not to eat from. It is implied the devil heard what God said, yet in Genesis 3:1, we find the devil asking Eve, “hath God said, you shall not eat of every tree of the garden?” The devil had no idea which tree they should not eat from until Eve told him.

We speak the wisdom of God in a mystery. ‘Mystery’ does not mean secret.

Instead, it refers to esoteric, or specialized, knowledge given to a select few. So, the devil can hear what is said, but that does not mean he understands. That is why the scripture goes on to say if he had been able to understand God’s mysteries, he would not have crucified the Lord of glory. The devil could know from the scriptures that Jesus would be crucified, but he failed to understand why, which was his undoing.

As you declare, “THE MONEY IS COMING!” you are speaking a mystery, special knowledge given to you. Therefore, say it with boldness and confidence, understanding that you are speaking spiritual things. The devil cannot understand, and he can only try to figure out what’s happening by the angelic activity around you. But God has arranged it so he will be caught unawares as you plunder the wealth of the wicked, and he will be shocked as you takeover!

“And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.”

There is a book on the New York Times bestsellers list since it was first published in 2007. It introduced the idea that people express love to their significant others the way they want to receive love. For example, a person's "love language" may be physical affection. So, according to the book's writers, that person's tendency would be to express love through physical affection because that is the way they desire to receive expressions of love.

Though many believe this was a novel concept, it was inspired by God, for He Himself expresses love the way He desired to be loved. Our scripture for today tells us precisely what His love language is. It says that Jesus, God in the flesh, became obedient, even to the death of the cross. Obedience is God's love language.

Whilst it is good to express your love and adoration to God verbally, you need to understand that God is a Spirit, and spirits do not respond to affection. So, when you really want to tell God how much you love Him, do it through your obedience. Do what He tells you to do when He tells you to do it. That is what He sees and receives as love.

“Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. Resist him, steadfast in the faith...”

'Devil' is not a name. It is a job description. It means one who throws consistently until he pierces through. That is what the devil does. He bombards the mind, telling you one lie after another in hopes that one of them will pierce through. The devil does not have any authority over you. You are the one with the real power. So his strategy is to try to get you to use your power against yourself by receiving his lie and then acting on it by speaking it.

When you speak, you bring things into being. Your very DNA testifies to this fact. Have you noticed that when you go to the doctor, they ask what diseases are in your family line? The presumption is if diseases are in your family's bloodline, you are predisposed to them. That is a lie! But if you believe and speak it, your DNA will unlock that thing, and it will come upon you.

That is why you must never lay claim to any disease or infirmity. Never say “my diabetes” or “my cancer.” The devil will see to it that you hear the evil report over and over again. He will tell you that you will surely die but do not believe it, and never change your confession! You are not denying the fact that your body may be dealing with some form of infirmity. You are simply denying it's right to be there!

From the moment you are born, the world conditions you to grow old and die. Yet the word of God says we are not of this world. As such, we should not be conformed to it. The conformities of this world are subtle. Therefore, you must constantly conscientize yourself about the reality of your true citizenship.

God’s word has given us promises whereby we can escape the corruption of this world. You do not have to be sick, grow old, or die. Those things are of this world. Moses lived under the old covenant yet managed to taste the powers to come. The Bible tells us that at 120 years, he still had the vitality of a man of 30. Moses received such a rub-off of the presence of God that God had to remind him to die.

The word of God declares that you are a citizen of Zion, and the mindset of its citizens is vastly different from this world. For example, a person who is 100 years here is considered a child in Zion! Begin to reprogram your way of thinking. Be Mount Zion conscious! Start now! Tell yourself that you will live beyond 100 years. Your body is listening. It is part of creation waiting for you to manifest as a son of God. Tell it what it needs to hear to live and experience the realities of Zion.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a citizen of Zion. I will live here on Earth beyond 100. My body is strong, radiant, supple, and in vibrant health in Jesus’ mighty name!

Isaiah 65:20

Genesis 18:2-3 (KJV)

“And he lift up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood by him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground, and said, My LORD...”

Abraham has the testimony that he served lunch to the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. He did not have God living on the inside. Still, he managed to develop such a relationship that God could appear to him, visit with him, and discuss His plans with him. You might be wondering how it is possible to see God. Doesn't the Bible say that no man can see God and live (Exodus 33:20)? That is where you would miss it because you are not a man or human. You are a spirit!

Only a deadbeat dad does not want to be seen by his children, and God is not that. He is a good Father, and it gives Him great joy when His children mature enough that He can appear and converse with them. But that requires light because God is a being of light. You also must function as a being of light. When you increase the light of the word in you, you will begin to see what you have never seen.

Your eyes should be open to seeing spiritual things. Abraham should never have a better testimony than yours. Find scriptures that talk about angels or God appearing to people. Allow that light to enter your spirit, and you will soon testify of your own destiny-changing encounters with God.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I receive grace to see with the eyes of the spirit. My eyes are opened, and I begin to see things I've never seen before, in the name of Jesus!

Psalm 119:130

Luke 2:7 (KJV)

“And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.”

This is the time of year when the majority of the world turns its attention to the coming of the Lord. As we remember the birth of the Lord Jesus Christ, we anticipate giving and receiving gifts, spending time with loved ones, and all the wonderful things that the Christmas season brings. As Christians, we not only celebrate His coming as a babe laid in the manger but also as our soon-coming King! Praise the Lord!

But just imagine Mary, the mother of Jesus, cradling the Creator of all things in her arms, nursing El Shaddai, the Many-Breasted One, rocking the one who calmed the raging storm into the peaceful, blissful sleep of infants, and then wrapping the Comforter in the comfort of swaddling clothes and laying Him to recline in a manger.

It is a wonder of wonders that the created would give rest to the Creator. And a greater wonder is that you now have the ability to give the Creator rest. The word of God tells us that He now resides in you. Right now, He is reclining in you. Imagine the trust in the God of this universe that He would choose to make His abode in you. He trusts that you will take Him where He wants to go, that you will carry His presence carefully. He trusts that you will nurture His life and cause it to grow until He is fully formed in you! Hallelujah!

Colossians 1:27

Luke 2:10 (KJV)

“And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.”

God was the original Person to coin the phrase, “Good news to you!” With great joy, He dispatched an angel to herald the coming of the Saviour of the world, the Lord Jesus Christ. The angel announced, “good tidings of great joy!” What a wonderful salutation in anticipation of the arrival of the greatest Gift to the world!

That good news was delivered to shepherds who were in the field. The job of those shepherds was to watch for enemies trying to attack the sheep, defend the sheep from attackers, heal the wounded and sick sheep, find and save lost or trapped sheep, love them, and share their lives, and so earning their trust. And God said I'd got good news for you! Someone is coming who will do all of that for you and more!

God is sending you a better message of good news today because we have already received what those shepherds were waiting for! You can rejoice because the Lord Jesus Christ has already dealt with your enemies. He has defended you from attackers. He has healed the wounded and sick. He has saved the lost. And He has demonstrated His great love for you and shared His very life with you! Hallelujah! What a Saviour!

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Matthew 1:23

Psalm 103:1 (KJV)

"Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name."

We are fast approaching what the world calls the end of the year, and we are already prepared to crossover into the new year. But always remember, a year does not know it is a year. I always repeat this revelation because many Christians don't know this. The new year starts when God declares it to be so.

Now is a great time to reflect on the goodness of the Lord towards you so far this year. Take some time with Him in thanksgiving, honoring Him, and praising Him for all He has done. Taking the time to express gratitude to God for all His benefits towards you is key to your healing, protection, prosperity, and youthfulness. As you praise Him, do it with everything in you: your heart, your mind, your lungs, your brain, your senses – everything!

This has been a phenomenal year filled with wonders so far. But never believe that God is finished. It is still the year of Wonders without Number. So, keep your expectation high and keep your thanksgiving ready. God loves the dramatic, and He is sure to end this year with a BANG!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am the beneficiary of all of the goodness of God. Every earthly blessing and favour are mine. I am forgiven! I am healed! I am prospering in Jesus' name!

Psalm 103:1-5

Genesis 13:14-15 (KJV)

“...Lift up now thine eyes, and look... For all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever..”

You have a God-given creative ability that, once grasped, will cause you to reign in this world. You are born of the Word, a spiritual entity with capabilities beyond your natural senses. Every human has five senses: sight, hearing, taste, smell, and touch. But you are beyond human, and there are spiritual senses that you also need to be using.

In our scripture for today, Abraham was told by God to lift up his eyes and “look.” God was not simply telling him to look at the physical landscape of his geographical surroundings. It was more than that. God had already been training

Abraham to use the God-kind of faith. He had him look at the sand and the stars. Abraham looked alright, but he saw not merely the granular covering on the beach or the celestial bodies in the sky. No, it was not limited to that. Abraham saw his generations!

How was that possible? Abraham lifted his eyes and looked with the eyes of his spirit, that God-like ability in him to see the things he desired in the realm of the spirit and bring them out into the natural. You, too, are empowered with that capability. What is it that you desire? What change do you want to see? Your situation may be as dark as the night sky, but lift your eyes and look – RAÁH! Imagine exactly how you want things to be, and then speak them forth!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My eyes are open to heavenly spiritual realities. I am rising higher than ever before, in the name of Jesus!

Genesis 1:3

Romans 10:17 (KJV)

“So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.”

Today's verse is arguably one of the most well-known verses in the Bible and undeniably one of the most misunderstood. The average Christian reads that verse and thinks it is saying that faith comes once, and that's it. But that is not the case at all! The scripture does not say faith comes or faith came; it says faith cometh! That means faith does not stack up. In other words, you cannot use yesterday's faith today. Faith has to keep coming! It has to be now!

When you say the money is coming, say it with that same understanding. Do not think just because you said it yesterday, that is enough. No! Keep saying it! I often say quiet Christians die quietly. It is quiet Christians who die sick and broke! Never let that be said of you. In fact, I refuse it on your behalf! Open your mouth and declare THE MONEY IS COMING!

If we were to say it in King James English, we would say the money cometh! It is a proceeding word that is taking place in the now! Every time you say the money is coming, understand that money is coming, and it is coming now. It has already started to make its way to you via special angelic delivery. Let it be your everyday mantra, morning, noon and night.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

THE MONEY IS COMING! GLORY!

FURTHER STUDY

Matthew 4:4

Zechariah 1:17 (KJV)

“Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad...”

Why do we talk so much about money? The answer is simple. You need it. Right now, ninety-nine percent of your prayers would be answered if you only had more money. There would be less arguments in your marriage, and your eating would be better. That disease caused by stress because of financial worries would never touch you if only money were present. The Bible says that money answereth all things. That means things – circumstances, issues, problems – are talking and waiting for money to respond.

Your life cannot progress beyond your confession, and your confession can never move beyond your revelation. You need knowledge and understanding of the word to make the right confession. Confession, as we speak of it, is not saying something in hopes that it will happen. No. Instead, the confession of a Christian should be an affirmation of what they know to be true based on the word of God.

God is counting on you to have money. That is His will clearly stated in His Word. He wants and expects you to prosper. It is by prosperity His cities shall be spread abroad. He is not speaking of His own prosperity. He is talking about wealth that He has laid aside for you and wants to express through you for your own benefit and for the upbuilding of His Kingdom. Allow Him to do that. Begin to talk about your money – not the money you lack, but the money God has ordained for you.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am rich! I come from the richest family where the money was and still is. I have more than enough to live in abundance. I am richly supplied to bless nations!

Romans 12:3 (KJV)

"...God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith."

People think that we are leaders and have attained a certain level of good success, we have never faced challenges. Nothing could be further from the truth! The word of God says to whom much is given, much is required. So, when you see us doing exploits and moving in great faith, know that we have a certain standard to maintain.

After my wife BeBe gave birth to one of our sons, the doctors detected a serious heart defect in her. The report surprised her because she had not been experiencing any symptoms whatsoever. Right then, she had to decide whose report she would believe – the Lord's report that she was healed from all sickness, disease, and infirmities or the doctor's report that said she needed open-heart surgery within six weeks.

She decided to have a six-week talking session, declaring the word of the Lord over her body concerning her health. She spoke to her heart, understanding that her heart could hear and respond to her words. When she went back to the doctor, instead of finding a defect in her heart, they found her heart whole and perfectly sound! Take that as an encouragement. The faith God put in her or me is no different than the faith He put in you. Have your own talking sessions. Speak the Word of God over your body, and you will come back with a testimony!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Heart, you are strong and sound. The God-kind of life is in you. Blood, flow to every cell at the right pressure. Body, be vitalized by the spirit of Life right now, in the name of Jesus!

2 Peter 1:19

Isaiah 53:1 (KJV)

“Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?”

The prophet asks, “Who will believe our report?” because he knows many will not believe. Christians only choose to believe the parts of the Bible that speak about hellfire and destruction. But such words were never meant for you. Take the blessings part! Take the prosperity part! Take the healing part! Take the good success part!

This coming year is a container – an allotment of time with an assortment of possibilities and a conglomeration of opportunities. It is filled with wondrous things! You see, God is only interested in transforming you into ever-increasing glory! And today, He is asking you the same question He asked through Prophet Isaiah, “will you believe His report?” God is about to reveal good news to you, a word in season that will shift your destiny and open your eyes to a revelation that you can use to chart the course of your new year. It is not simply a catchy theme but a direct word to you from God concerning your year. Tell yourself, whatever God says, I am taking it as my own! Whatever God releases as we crossover into this next allotment of time, catch it! As he speaks, things are being released! Take that Word, and use it to speak into your year. Get ready, because your life is about to SHIFT!

HAPPY NEW YEAR!
