

The Dictatorship Of Facebook

Arthur Cristian

Love For Life

1st January 2019

This article was originally intended to be sent as an email to the Love For Life mailing list on the 20th December 2018 about Facebook blocking access to the 6 pin code for the 2 Step Authentication Process so that Arthur could again have access to the 6 x Facebook walls he uses to promote the Love For Life insights, the Kindom remedy and all the other Love For Life propaganda work Fiona and Arthur do. However, our overall workload with the food Garden, household, children, outside-world correspondence with emails, YouTube, phone calls, etc, kept us from finishing this email and things have now changed with Facebook as the Facebook 6 pin code was finally texted to us on the 26th December after various Facebook friends posted what was happening between the 24th and 25th December 2018, including us (Fiona & Arthur) using Hannah Wood's Facebook account (she gave us her password, etc) to notify hundreds of Facebook friends via Private Message, on their Facebook Walls and on Arthur's 6 x Facebook Walls he uses.

Arthur here. Since March 2005, thanks to Fiona's full support, this MAN was gifted with the absolute freedom to contemplate and scrutinise vast amounts of information and, through the many intense 3,500+ debates, was able to keep going where the logic (sense) of truth took him until the big picture was finally worked out in great detail. Though this MAN has been working really hard all this time, he didn't have to be concerned with mortgages, rents and leases and all the other obligations of "The System" that keep us distracted and unable to contemplate and hold the big picture dream of reality, which was critical in learning to scrutinise all information and focus and contemplate on the truth of the big picture that has kept expanding until it has become simple and the basis of the free ebook coming shortly.

Every generation comes with access to the good heart and the dream for freedom, truth, joy, abundance, etc, is built into every MAN, but look at the mess we are all in. Look at all the brilliant intellectuals and all the great minds of "The System" that come and go, a generational collaboration involving hundreds of thousands of brothers and sisters, but we continue down the roads of chaos, war, conflict between us, death and destruction. Then there is the arrogance amongst each generation as they think that they have worked it all out and that they are gifted with some sort of exclusivity and privilege that was not gifted to the generations before and yet, if there was such a truth offered to a generation, we would all be in paradise now, but that isn't the case.

It became obvious to us that there was another whole range of psyops and brainwashing at play that had not been worked out and it is this information that we share in the LFL insight work. We are not saying that we are the only ones sharing this information but, often, the work of those sharing truth is hijacked and sabotaged so not many get to access what they share. The realisation of these truths made us all the more determined to keep going despite all the stigma associated with us and all the white-washing, white-anting, and even hijacking of the LFL insight work.

We realise that issues such as these with Facebook, and our recent encounter with PayPal when they closed Fiona's 2005-2006 account for no reason, could be put down to glitches in the system or just random happenings but we also know that those behind "The System" have a strong immune system always at the ready to lash out at any threat to their authority and any revelations about what they are up to. What better way to shut down perceived threats than from behind the shields of the faceless corporations that can do what they like in terms of allowing or denying access to their services with almost no recourse available for the user? Then any claims of being targeted can be written off as paranoia, just a coincidence, etc, with no way of proving otherwise.

Those behind "The System" are the masters of disinformation to protect the enormity of the scale of their bluff based on fantasy. We will go into great detail about all of this in the ebook but we have been touching on these themes in many recent Facebook posts, copied over to the LFL website.

It took about nine years for Arthur to lose that dread of Monday mornings and now he often doesn't know what day it is. The truth of what has happened to us all under "The System" is now so clear that it is ridiculously simple to anyone who takes the time to contemplate on the Love For Life insights and scrutinise them thoroughly.

One of the key factors that we realised was essential in going where the truth took us was to burn off belief, faith and associated opinion which are the mechanisms people use to avoid looking at the truth, a denial that is rooted in trauma that shows up as the imagination of fantasy as being reality.

Along the way, this MAN has made many enemies among those whose agenda is to keep men and women all across earth oblivious to the fact that they have been brainwashed into accepting fantasy as reality and, in doing so, been used and abused for a whole lifetime. Even those who are aware of the brainwashing often do not fully comprehend the full depths of it still in their lives.

We have also become aware of just how many intelligence agents there are out there across all aspects of "The System" including a very heavy coverage of all forms of social media. We have learnt to tell these agents from those who are just hostile due to trauma or whatever as their patterns are pretty obvious one you get to know them. We have become very skilled at burning them off, especially those that we realised we had let become close to us in the early days.

They attack in many ways but we have become very skilled in quickly recognising the psyops they use and either playing with them before we fend them off, and not allowing them to influence the insights being shared on Facebook and elsewhere, but recently, they seem to have been trying other methods than just trying to cause trouble on our free social media platforms. We have written about our encounters with PayPal, "The Fascism Of PayPal": <https://www.scribd.com/document/391965019/The-Fascism-of-PayPal-Fiona-And-Arthur-Cristian-Love-For-Life-30th-October-2018> - the Termination Notice (not eviction) on this 13 year rental property where we live <https://www.scribd.com/document/391022403/All-Correspondence-With-Real-Estate-Agent-Since-November-2017> and many other events that seem unconnected but all combine to keep us busy countering their effects on the dream that we hold. While some of the things we have encountered are no doubt coincidental, there is also no doubt that some of them aren't!

From a few weeks ago, whenever we open up Facebook using Chrome, Opera, Edge and Firefox browsers, the reasonably new mini tower PC hard drive and fan-motor start working much harder and faster, getting louder and louder and when we start typing a comment/reply or creating a new thread on the Facebook wall, the PC continues getting louder and louder as it works harder and faster and then we suddenly get this message on the screen and then the browser refreshes and all the unfinished, unsaved text is gone.

If we let it, this issue can repeat itself 4 times within the first 5 minutes or so of logging into Facebook and this continues happening until we finally log out of Facebook. So, we have started typing all our comments in our Thunderbird email program or in Windows Notepad and then quickly copy/pasting them into the comment section or wherever we are creating a new thread on the FB wall.

While we are not logged into Facebook, the PC issue of getting louder and louder, etc, does not occur, even while we're making a large photo library, or editing/making a video, or watching videos or listening to music, or when all 4 x browsers are open with more than 20 tabs running news.com. etc, in the background.

But the instant we log into Facebook, the issue immediately starts up again. We've tried shutting down and rebooting, clearing cache and browser history, resetting the Chrome browser, getting the Chrome browser to check for malware and other issues and fixing them. We searched on the net for similar reported issues and with it, fixes.

We have a range of 3rd party detective malware and virus software that we use to find any virus or malware and we even use Avira 24/7 for this PC's complete internet, privacy & network protection and this German made and supported Avira protection software is considered internationally as top shelf protection and elimination software. Nothing sinister has been found.

After clearing all the cache and history, resetting the browsers, and re-logging back in to Scribd, Photobucket, Google, YouTube, LoveForLife website, etc, etc, with usernames, email address and our lengthy, complicated passwords, we got straight back into these accounts but, with Facebook, we can log back in to the account but they will not send the 6 digit pin number to our nominated mobile phone number registered with Facebook, something that has worked more than 50 times over the past three years or so:

Two-factor authentication required

You've asked us to require a 6-digit login code when anyone tries to access your account from a new device or browser.

When you receive your 6-digit code, enter it to continue:

We must have tried logging out and logging back in again over ten times in a 4 hour period or so and even tried again the next day, today, but nothing comes through.

With Google and its YouTube, we performed the same 6 digit "Two Factor Authentication Required" and we received the Google 6 pin code on the same mobile phone (Aldi via Telstra 4G network) that Facebook uses within 15 seconds of requesting it to complete the security process and we are already back in to the YouTube Channel we use as well as Google, Google Hangouts, etc.

We even tried the other options Facebook offers

- Approve from another device

Just check your notifications in another browser or phone where you've logged in.

- Use text message

Text me a login code

- Other options

Submit a request to Facebook

and after a few attempts at texting the login code Facebook says:

You have requested too many text message security codes recently. Please try again later.

The above in red reappeared when we tried again today, at least 9 hours since the last text attempt, but no text was forthcoming from Facebook.

So last night we finally wrote to Facebook using the "Submit a request to Facebook" function, saying:

"We successfully logged back into the Facebook account and we still continue to receive all the Facebook notifications via email, etc, but we are not having any success in receiving the 6 digit "two step authentication required" code via SMS or text. While waiting to receive the 6 pin code from Facebook, and still using the same Samsung mobile phone with its Aldi---->Telstra 4G network plan, we received Google's "two step authentication required" within 15 seconds of logging into the Google account."

Arthur also sent an attached copy of the 1st of many fake debt collection notices used in sequence with all the others you will view in the song:

"How Did They Get The 100 Points?"

<https://youtu.be/AujSN4aiAX8>

And within a few minutes Facebook replies (WOOWWWW, less than 5 minutes - is there a white van plugged in nearby with Intel inside it, as depicted in Hollywood movies --- LOLLL only joking, BUT.....hmmmmmm).....

Hi,
Thanks for your email.

It looks like you didn't attach a valid form of identification to your request.

We can't verify your account until you submit a copy of a valid form of ID.

Please reply to this email and attach a copy of your ID.

You can learn more about the types of ID we accept in the Help Center:
<https://www.facebook.com/help/159096464162185/?ref=cr>

Thanks,
The Facebook Team

and then another Facebook email comes in within seconds after the first one.....

Subject: Re: Thank you for submitting your ID

Hi,
Thanks for contacting us.

It looks like we couldn't confirm your identity from what you sent.

To help you with your account, we'll need you to send a photo or scan of something from our ID list that confirms your identity:
<https://www.facebook.com/help/159096464162185/?ref=CR>

You can help us confirm your identity in one of two ways: - Send a photo or scan of one item from group one like a drivers license, passport or official name change paperwork or - Send a photo or scan of two different items from group two like a magazine subscription and a school ID or a bank statement and a membership ID

There are also a few things you can try to get back into your account on your own: - Log in from a computer or phone you've used to log into Facebook before. - Turn off private browsing or incognito mode in your browser. - Request a new login approval code.

To learn how to do this, please visit the Help Center:
<https://www.facebook.com/help/132694786861712/?ref=cr>

We hope to hear from you soon so we can help you get back into your account.

Best,

Jack McQueen

Hi Jack

Don't have a commercial ID as this MAN has been completely out of "The System" of commerce since 2006. This MAN does not have a "person"/fiction to re-present in commerce or not but this living MAN is the living MAN and this living MAN has been confirming the living MAN is coming forward, present with the presence of life. This MAN is not a commercial fiction being re-presented.

Fiona Cristian my soul mate of 22 years is still in "The System" and together as the Cristian family, after joining Facebook 2008/2009, all the 6 x Facebook walls we now use are plastered with facsimiles of our Love For Life work, almost daily. If you want, you can ring the Australian mobile phone number registered with Facebook where the 6 pin access code has been sent numerous times over many years and we can chat to you over the phone, or you can Skype us or Google Hangout so you can use live video while chatting with us - we are both here together right now.

If you want, we can go into the homepage of the Loveforlife website and post this at the top inside the html index page.....

"Hi Facebook", it's Arthur Cristian here, can you please send the 6 pin code to the mobile phone so we can log back into Facebook as this has been the norm with us for many years now."

Or we can put up a 1 minute video on the YouTube channel we use <http://youtube.com/arthurloveforlife> saying the same thing or you can just send us the 6 pin code as you have done numerous times before to the registered mobile phone you have on your register since 2008/2009 or to the email address psychicreign@gmail.com

Please don't tell us that we are about to find out that Facebook is up to similar shenanigans to those we recently encountered with PayPal?: "The Fascism Of PayPal": <https://www.scribd.com/document/392198207/The-Fascism-of-PayPal-30th-October-2018>

With many Love For Life supporters and sympathisers, we, the Cristian family, are about to launch a very intense 8 weeks on the street, door to door, town to town campaign targeting the region we live in, including where possible, radio, press, internet, etc. Is Facebook going to be now also listed as one of the many shenanigans we have been encountering over the past few months or so? So why now the complications (severe discrimination and censorship) with commerce Jack?

It's all been good in this "free world" since 2008/2009, so what's changed?

Maybe an extra dose or two of Fascism going on now with Facebook?

Who are you trying to keep out?

Are we bad people Jack?

There are more than 1000 Facebook friends registered to the Love For Life mailing list. Should we send this out to them so they can complain to Facebook to get our point across?

As we are already logged in to the free Arthur Cristian Facebook "Account" using a very long and complicated password, you can simply help by just sending the 6 pin code to the mobile phone you have on register.

What is so hard about this?

Do we have to keep trying daily until finally the 6 pin code works again or is it intentionally being interfered with as in sabotage?

Also, this MAN doesn't own anything including Facebook.

Going back to 2008/2009, this MAN just uses the free services Facebook provides from which Facebook receives great commercial revenues from all the advertisements it places on all the Facebook walls we use from which we don't claim any commercial considerations.

All power and benefits to Facebook.

We also have 4 girls living in this same household, using the same IP address and who all have Facebook accounts and they don't have this 6 pin authentication issue.

Arthur

Since the 20th December 2018, we've heard nothing back from Facebook and we will continue to attempt logins to induce a 6-pin code, if ever.

We also turned on a separate computer in the house and the girls were all able to log in to their Facebook accounts but when we tried to log in using Arthur's P/W and email address, we get in to the account but it wants the 6 pin code which is never forthcoming.

Of interest, even when we try to log in and perform any procedure to resolve the 6 pin code issue, the PC starts working harder and harder and gets louder and louder and it only stops when we log out of Facebook. At least 4 times while attempting to write to Facebook here: "Submit a request to Facebook" and attaching the fake 72 day debt collection notice, the "Aw, Snap!! reload" message on the screen comes up and the browser is refreshed, and all the unfinished text and document attachment are gone.

We ask for anyone who can get on to all the Facebook walls we use to post what is happening with Facebook. You have our permission to post the entirety of this email on to the 6 x Facebook walls we use and anywhere else on the net to inform others as to what is going on.

December 2018 - A discussion about the 90-day Termination (not eviction) notice on the 13-year rental property, supposed to be out by 6th November 2018 (now extended to the end of January 2019, with Julie trying to get us to lose our lives in "The System", despite Arthur explaining the difference between fantasy and reality and why system remedies do not work. We show how those wedded to fantasy, "The System", are not willing to entertain anything that destroys the model of survival that they have in "The System" because to do so is to examine and discard everything keeping them clinging to these survival methods. They prefer to ignore the truth, just as those high up in the chains of law, religion, government, aristocracy and corporate control are trained to ignore the truth so that it can never see the light of day. A precedence would cause the whole system to collapse, so nothing of truth can be acknowledged.

The first small edition of the new and free Love For Life e-book "Defining Magnificence Into Mediocrity And Calling It Magnificence" will be released in the coming week or so, with or without simple illustrations, to assist in inspiring others to get a much larger piece of land happening here in the Southern Highlands of NSW as soon as possible, so we can expand the Kindom Dream which includes the intense healing work required to assist anyone who dreams to get out of "The System" of psychosis in this life, never to return.

When the free e-book is released, the current, temporary, rough and ready home page of the Love For Life website <http://loveforlife.com.au> will then be upgraded to become the main focus of the e-book. There are also a range of Love For Life videos you can explore here: <https://www.youtube.com/user/ArthurLoveForLife/videos>

Extract copied over below, taken from the current temporary homepage of the Love For Life website (we now have to include the Facebook exploits which will happen shortly).....

"Despite neither of us ever having broken the peace, committed a crime or injured anybody, between 2003 and 2007 the crime syndicate operating a tax fraud behind the Australian Government Taxation Department, seeking payment of $250,000.00 failed, and they were unable to bankrupt Arthur in the Federal Magistrates court, between 2005 and 2007 Fiona had the family home stolen from her through fraud (organised crime) caused by Macquarie Bank representatives, between 2014 and 2018 Fiona was sued for $10,130.00 by David Bottrill, a member of Aleister Crowley's Ordo Templi Orientis in Canberra for defamation for a comment that she did not write or post (they also tried to sue Arthur but gave up), Fiona's 2005 PayPal account used primarily to receive gifts from supporters to keep the Love For Life website, Love For Life projects and Kindom remedy up on the net and moving along, including the food forest garden built on a rental property in East Bowral, was suddenly banned with no reason given, in 2009 the NSW Jewish Board Of Deputies tried to shut down the Love For Life website because they claim Australian's do not have freedom of speech while making up lies that we (Fiona & Arthur) support hatred against Jews, and between 2007 and 2010 the NSW State Debt Recovery Office (SDRO) spent around half a million dollars after we didn't pay two $25.00 fines for not voting and a $65.00 fine for not changing the address of a dog's registration. The Macquarie bank fraud led to the destruction of Arthur's 19 year old office automation service and sales business, a holiday rental business and the theft of the family home.

There have been death threats to the family, threats to take the children away and we have encountered hundreds of smear campaigns. Arthur has had four assassination attempts, the last one involved our then 2-year-old daughter, Xanthe. Two elderly Love For Life supporters were gagged, hog tied, hooded, one of them shot in the hip and both, a married couple in their mid seventies, were severely tortured for two hours or so. The 2006 Love For Life website was taken down because it was constantly under attack from sophisticated algorithm bots and now, Fiona has received a 90 day Termination Notice to move from this East Bowral home in the Southern Highlands of New South Wales, Australia by the 6th November 2018, which is not possible for her. She has asked for more time and offered to pay more rent but the owners of multiple properties will not budge, despite the fact that Fiona has been a very good 13 year tenant and paid off most of the mortgage on the house.

The "name" Arthur Cristian has also been used to fraudulently create mobile phone accounts with Virgin, Vodafone, Telstra and Optus despite the fact that Arthur has been completely out of "The System" since 2006 and has no bank accounts, credit cards, drivers licence, passport, tax file number, government handouts, Medicare, no commercial contracts, no cash or black market income so does not have the 100 points needed to set up these accounts. We have received numerous letters from debt collectors regarding these fake accounts.

We have experienced huge amounts of censorship on social media and elsewhere and we seem to be on a blacklist when it comes to mainstream media and the alternative networks that talk about truth, freedom, consciousness, do no harm and remedy to "The System". All this to a non violent family that will never carry weapons, don't drink, don't smoke or take drugs (social or big pharma), don't commit crimes, break the peace or injure anybody, are not part of a cult or sect, not part of any movement, religion, political party, not part of any societies, secret or not and do not eat flesh and blood creatures or any other animal products, apart from honey.

We just see life as a gift on a do no harm path and that the greatest sin of all is to covet another MAN, which is what "The System" is all about, leading to the desecration of magnificence as we all accept the mediocrity of system life that is both the coveting and domination of MAN so that MAN can be used and abused by those who seek all this power and its fake glory. Under the mediocrity, we produce men and women who die without a soul, an eternal death of unconsciousness. This is all to be covered in the Love For Life insight work shared in its entirety on this temporary webpage. It should all be up somewhere between the 10th and 20th January 2018.

We have spent thirteen years learning to recognise the fog of the brainwashing that we have been subjected to and sticking our heads above the fog to see what is really happening and who the perpetrators are, using intense scrutiny through thousands of debates to examine everything we had been taught. The heart of the Love For Life insights that we have been sharing since 2005 cannot be found in books anywhere and you will not hear it from the tongues of most men and women because it has all been kept secret. At the heart of "The System" is the fact that Definitions Form The Fantasies Of Perceived Realities and what has been defined is an illusion because we can only imagine definitions because they are fantasy so we can never be and live the definitions, which is what "The System" is made up of."
