On-the-record denials this sweeping and emphatic apparently caused some journalists not to write this story. The McClatchy guys went with it anyway, despite their sources' refusal to be specific about what, exactly, was being investigated.

10) Brit Hume linked to a series of emails between Cleta Mitchell and Peter Stone discussing McClatchy's decision to publish a story which Mitchell said was based on lies.

(Adam Schiff provided information that was used in the story)

believe the bottom team is why your story today got read wrong. The pattern of the reporting is bent toward believing these fake stories that support Schiff's view of the world.

I told Peter that there was not a shred of truth to the story. I could not have been more emphatic.

I do not lie to journalists. I would not have said it was false if it wasn't. I would have tried to explain it. I did not do that. I said it is not true.

Getting to the bottom of this means asking what else the HSCI Dems have told you or written or said to you that is also false. Getting to the bottom of this is asking whether you've been fair and objective to Devin Nune[s] and his staff— or whether perhaps you've taken everything he says with a bucket of salt while accepting as true whatever the Schiff forces say.

This story is totally false so I have every reason to believe that much of the rest of what they have said and written is false. Totally unreliable.

Peter knows I don't have any NRA association any longer. I've told him that before. He's called me over a number of years about NRA. I have told him as I tell every reporter that I am no longer on the board and haven't been for several years. I'm willing to go on the record with reporters to defend the organization - of which I am a lifetime member - and to explain how it works, because the organization is always lied about and attacked every time there's a school shooting. I may rethink doing that after this experience. Someone has fabricated this story and pushed it to the Committee and to reporters. And you guys fell for it and disregarded what I said.

I have had the same response to everyone who has approached me about this rumor, which is that it is a crock. I couldn't have been more emphatic. Other reporters accepted the truth. And dropped it. But told me someone was peddling it to them. But they realized it could not be and was not true.

Somehow, that wasn't good enough for McClatchey and for some unknown reason, you ran a story citing an unnamed source who apparently knows more about me than I do. That's what's so mystifying.

But if you want to really get to the bottom of this, you should get out all your stories about the

More on what @costareports is hearing - Trump has been talking about it for several days, and White House counsel's office has taken a look at what is possible since the shutdown began and Trump revived talk of this inside White House.

Trump confidant tells me he's still talking today about declaring a national emergency if talks collapse... and he's getting encouraged by several of his friends on hard right to do just that, knowing it'd be challenged immediately

Why disclose the real plan upfront?

Why not allow Dems and RINOs to expose their corruption by putting them through a publicly visible wall debate?

78) Q said the clock and the graphic are critical.
We know that the "graphic" refers to diagrams that connect Q posts to tweets by the President.

79) What is the clock?
It could simply be the idea that we need to pay attention to timestamps and time intervals [deltas] between POTUS tweets and Q posts.
That measurement requires knowledge or awareness of a clock.

89) Additional information on the kill box.

en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Kill_box

Kill box

In weaponry, a Kill Box is a three-dimensional target area, defined to facilitate the integration of coordinated joint weapons fire.^{[1][2][3]}

It is a joint forces coordination measure enabling air assets to engage surface targets without needing further coordination with commanders and without terminal attack control. The space is defined by an area reference system, but could follow terrain features, be located by grid coordinates or a radius from a center point.

Such a joint coordination measure can help commanders focus the effort of air and indirect fire assets, and also restrict the trajectories and effects of surface-to-surface fires. There may be no-fire areas (NFAs), restricted operations areas (ROAs) and airspace coordination areas (ACAs) included. No friendly ground forces should go into a kill box unless covered by a no-fire area.

A type of Fire Support Coordinating Measure (FSCM), a Kill Box is often defined by a grid reference system – based on lines of Latitude and Longitude – superimposed upon a map of an area of operation. Each square of the grid may be sub-divided into smaller boxes, each of which may carry its own level of permission – or restriction – on the use of air-to-surface or surface-to-surface weapons.

First developed by the U.S. Air Force in the late 1980s, the technique gained notoriety through its use during the first Gulf War (1991). The tactics, techniques, and procedures of Kill Box employment were further refined by the U.S. Air Force throughout the 1990s, leading to more efficient prosecution of targets.

During the 2003 Invasion of Iraq, they were once again used with devastating effect to prosecute the air war in support of the initial invasion. Use of Kill Boxes is now part of Joint U.S. Doctrine and is used by many of the U.S.'s allies.

Ruth Bader Ginsburg
3/15/33 - 1/6/2019
RIP

Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg died today. Doctors were unsuccessful in prolonging the life of the esteemed long time member of the Supreme Court. Ginsburg, known for her controversial opinions regarding sex with children, and the abortion of undesirables, succumbed to cancer after a long and historic career as a judicial pioneer. Doctors say that the use of adrenochrome and other drugs not available to the little people, were not successful in stopping the aggressive attack of the disease created by big pharma and the food industry. Millions are in shock, as they now know that Donald J. Trump, the President of The United States, will again select a nominee for the Supreme Court to fill the vacancy left by Justice Ginsburg. Justice Ginsburg is survived by millions and millions of snowflake liberals, some of which offered their own organs to the Justice in order to prolong her life, and keep Donald Trump from winning anymore. Donations in lieu of flowers can be sent to <https://www.gofundme.com/thetrumpwall> at the request of the family.

Edward Joseph Snowden (born June 21, 1983) is an American computer professional, former Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) employee, and former contractor for the United States government who copied and leaked classified information from the National Security Agency (NSA) in 2013 without authorization. His disclosures revealed numerous global surveillance programs, many run by the NSA and the Five Eyes Intelligence Alliance with the cooperation of telecommunication companies and European governments.

In 2013, Snowden was hired by an NSA contractor, Booz Allen Hamilton, after previous employment with Dell and the CIA.^[1] On May 20, 2013, Snowden flew to Hong Kong after leaving his job at an NSA facility in Hawaii, and in early June he revealed thousands of classified NSA documents to journalists Glenn Greenwald, Laura Poitras, and Ewen Snowden was hired by the CIA in 2006.

I suspect Snowden was recommended by Hayden but it's just a guess.

That time Edward Snowden and Gen. Michael Hayden took a photo together — wearing smiles and tuxedos

By Abby Ohlheiser

August 13, 2014

Wired has published a massive profile of NSA whistleblower Edward Snowden. And while it's worth a read in its entirety, there's one photo from the story that has already emerged as a standout.

118) Q asked:

Post public release of CLAS NSA PRO > U1?

Where is Snowden today?

What country was involved in U1?

Q is tying the NSA scandal to the sale of Uranium 1 to the Russian energy company Rosatom.

119) The sale of Uranium One began in 2009 with a transfer of 16% of the company's shares to Rosatom. The sale was completed in January of 2013.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Uranium_One sxr Uranium One and was renamed Uranium One Africa Ltd. The main uranium asset of Aflease was the Dominion mine.^[6] The gold assets of Aflease were divested by 2008 and Uranium One Africa was sold in 2010 to Gupta family.^[7]

In 2007, SXR Uranium One Inc. acquired UrAsia Energy,^{[8][9]} a Canadian firm headquartered in Vancouver which owned stakes in uranium mines in Kazakhstan,^[10] from Frank Giustra, and dropped SXR from its name.^{[11][12]} At the same year, Uranium One bought the Shootaring Uranium Mill from the United States Enrichment Corporation. It was sold to Anfield Energy in 2015.^[13] Also in 2007, Uranium One acquired Energy Metals Corporation which owned the Hobson uranium processing plant in Texas, and uranium exploration properties located in Wyoming and Texas. The Hobson uranium processing plant and assets in Texas were sold to Uranium Energy Corporation in 2009.^[14]

In 2009, the Rosatom subsidiary ARMZ acquired 16.6% of shares in Uranium One in exchange for a 50% interest in the Karatau uranium mining project, a joint venture with Kazatomprom.^[15] In 2010, Uranium One acquired 50% and 49% respective interests in southern Kazakhstan-based Akbastau and Zarechnoye uranium mines from ARMZ. In exchange, ARMZ increased its stake in Uranium One to 51%.^{[16][17]} In 2010, Uranium One acquired Irigaray uranium processing plant, the Christensen Ranch satellite uranium processing facility and associated uranium exploration properties in the Powder River Basin in Wyoming from the joint venture of AREVA and Électricité de France.^[18] In December 2010, ARMZ increased its stake in Uranium One to 51.4%. At the time of the 2010 sale, the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission estimated that Uranium One held the extraction rights to about 20% of U.S. uranium in the ground;^[19] they amounted to 0.2% of the world's uranium production.^[20]

ARMZ took complete control of Uranium One in January 2013 by buying all shares it did not already own.^[4] In October 2013, Uranium One Inc. was delisted from the Toronto and Johannesburg exchanges and became a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of Rosatom.^{[21][22]} From 2012 to 2014, an unspecified amount of Uranium was reportedly exported to Canada via a Kentucky-based trucking firm with an existing export license; most of the processed uranium was returned to the U.S., with approximately 25% going to Western Europe and Japan.^{[23][24]} In 2015, Uranium One relocation of certain head office functions such as finance, internal audit and some technical services to Moscow. In 2017, Uranium One established a trading company Uranium One Trading in Zug, Switzerland. However, in January 2018, trading functions of the company were transferred to Technabexport, an export arm of Rosatom.^[25]

Snowden's Leaks

During his years of IT work, Snowden had noticed the far reach of the NSA's everyday surveillance. While working for Booz Allen, Snowden began copying top-secret NSA documents, building a dossier on practices that he found invasive and disturbing. The documents contained vast information on the NSA's domestic surveillance practices.

After he had compiled a large store of documents, Snowden told his NSA supervisor that he needed a leave of absence for medical reasons, stating he had been diagnosed with epilepsy. On May 20, 2013, Snowden took a flight to Hong Kong, China, where he remained as he orchestrated a clandestine meeting with journalists from the U.K. publication The Guardian as well as filmmaker Laura Poitras.

On June 5, The Guardian released secret documents obtained from Snowden. In these documents, the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court implemented an order that required Verizon to release information to the NSA on an "ongoing, daily basis" culled from its American customers' phone activities.

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DwRs6WEWoAYkcgQ.jpg>

121) Snowden flew to Hong Kong (with the help of CI_A).

The official story was that he was going to fly to Ecuador or Venezuela but he ended up "stranded" in Russia.

Russia was his final destination from the beginning. (See below)

Exile in Russia

Snowden remained in hiding for slightly more than a month. He initially planned to relocate to Ecuador for asylum, but, upon making a stopover, he became stranded in a Russian airport for a month when his passport was annulled by the American government. The Russian government denied U.S. requests to extradite Snowden.

In July 2013, Snowden made headlines again when it was announced that he had been offered asylum in Venezuela, Nicaragua and Bolivia. Snowden soon made up his mind, expressing an interest in staying in Russia. One of his lawyers, Anatoly Kucherena, stated that Snowden would seek temporary asylum in Russia and possibly apply for citizenship later. Snowden thanked Russia for giving him asylum and said that "in the end the law is winning."

That October, Snowden stated that he no longer possessed any of the NSA files that he leaked to the press. He gave the materials to the journalists he met with in Hong Kong, but he didn't keep copies for himself. Snowden explained that "it wouldn't serve the public interest" for him to have brought the files to Russia, according to The New York Times. Around this time, Snowden's father, Lon, visited his son in Moscow and continued to publicly express support.

In November 2013, Snowden's request to the U.S. government for clemency was rejected.

122) Q asked:

Could @Snowden be seen releasing CLAS programs/intel FROM INSIDE OF RUSSIA?
What role did BRENNAN PLAY in the Snowden leaks re: NSA?

123) The CI_A says Russia as a bogeyman we must fear.

Snowden couldn't leak NSA spy tools from Russia without it looking like they were involved. Brennan enabled Snowden to fly to Hong Kong first and leak the info from there to remove Russia as a suspect (Optics matter)

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DwRw-lIW0AAQWla.jpg>

124) Once the NSA spy tools had been leaked, Snowden traveled from Hong Kong to Russia. Since a worldwide security hold had been placed on his passport, he needed the help of the CI_A and Brennan to get him there. Once in Russia, he could make no more flights so he remained there

https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DwRymMOXgAECh_v.jpg

125) Q asked:

What was BRENNAN's background re: SAUDI ARABIA?

Brennan served as the CIA's station chief in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia in the mid-1990s and in 1999, he was given the position of chief of staff to CIA director George Tenet.

126) Q asked:

Does the C_A hold blackmail on political leaders?

Does the C_A protect those who protect them?

127) The CI_A is believed to use blackmail to hold power over influential people in what is known as Operation Brownstone (or a Brownstone Operation).

Preface

The existence of "Operation Brownstone" and "Brownstone operations" is not yet officially recognized as operating procedures of the U.S. government. This topic is considered by many to be purely speculation as it is largely based on circumstantial and anecdotal evidence, but there have been many requests to address this particular topic. Some of the witness testimony from Jeffrey Epstein victim, Virginia Roberts, and the Palm Beach Police Department resembles such an operation. We will discuss what we know based on what few sources exist that seem to support that such operations indeed existed and have taken place.

Operation Brownstone, also known as a "Brownstone operation," is a reference to a theory that intelligence agencies, such as the CIA and FBI, engage in utilizing underage individuals for prostitution purposes with high profile targets, for the purposes of being able to blackmail those high profile individuals later. Generally, the incidents are recorded via videotape and the underage victims are debriefed after the encounter.

128) Q asked:

Why are ex C_A contractors running for office?

How many ex C_A contractors are currently in office?

129) CI_A agents ran for office because the agency itself is being dismantled. Wanting to retain power, many are trying to be elected.

[CI_A intelligence operations will be transferred to NSA]

<https://sputniknews.com/military/201804171063651958-democrats-cia-pentagon-midterms/>

In the November 2018 midterm elections, a vast number of former intelligence and military operatives are running for Democratic party nominations across the US. If even just a few are successful in their bids, military-intelligence personnel will comprise the country's legislature like never before. Here are some of the most prominent.

In all, 57 individuals running for Democratic nomination in 44 congressional districts have intelligence and/or military backgrounds. If projections of a Democrat 'Spring' are fulfilled and their candidates sweep the board November 6, perhaps as much as 50 percent of the party's new lawmakers could be drawn from America's shadowy military-intelligence nexus.

While the potential figures involved are staggering in the first instance, it's also notable how unashamedly candidates boast of their time spent toiling in the US parapolitical underbelly on their candidacy websites. Previously, such employment history would typically be suppressed, or at least unmentioned.

Underage Sex Allegations Will Put "Prominent People in Handcuffs"

Posted By Tim Hains
On Date January 4, 2019

In an interview Thursday morning with 'Good Day New York,' Alan Dershowitz pushed back against allegations that he had sex with underage girls through billionaire convicted pedophile Jeffrey Epstein. He said he is being framed and has emails that will put "prominent people in handcuffs."

"There are emails so far that are secret, but that prove, not only that I was framed, but who framed me," Dershowitz said. "It names names. These people are going to go to jail once these e-mails come out because this was a total frame up for financial reasons, and I can prove it, and will prove it. Have me back on the show when the e-mails come out, boy it will be so interesting because there will be prominent people in handcuffs. Prominent people in handcuffs once these e-mails come out."

140) Yes, Dershowitz did travel on the Lolita express.
 The flight log shows it was on the 17th day of November.
 But unlike other people, Dersh had a legitimate reason.
 He was one of Epstein's attorneys and he didn't actually fly to Little S. James Island.

141) A closer look at the flight log shows that Dershowitz traveled from an airport with the abbreviation
 BED to an airport with the abbreviation CYUL.

Hanscom Field (IATA: BED, ICAO: KBED, FAA LID: BED) (Laurence G. Hanscom Field) is a public use airport operated by the Massachusetts Port Authority, located 6 miles from the central business district of Bedford, a town in Middlesex County, Massachusetts, United States.^[1]

Hanscom is mainly a general aviation airport, the largest in New England. Both runways can accommodate jets, and are used by Hanscom Air Force Base, a defense-research facility next to Hanscom Field. It is a popular training airport, with more than 40 rental aircraft on the field. The Civil Air Terminal building hosts two flight schools, East Coast Aero Club and Executive Flyers. East Coast Aero Club offers helicopter and airplane instruction and rental. Executive Flyers offers airplane and aerobatics instruction. Transient general aviation planes are served by three FBOs: Jet Aviation, Rectrix Aviation, and Signature Flight Support.

Federal Aviation Administration records say the airport had 8,385 passenger boardings (enplanements) in calendar year 2008. [2] 7,350 in 143) CYUL is the airport abbreviation for Montreal international.

It seems Dershowitz made a same-day round trip between these airports rather than a trip to Little St. James Island.

That's why Dersh (and POTUS) are confident that the accusations against him aren't true.

The research is being done, ostensibly, to help increase mobility and extremity (or prosthesis) function in paralyzed patients & amputees.

<https://ncats.nih.gov/pubs/features/brain-signals-action>

Converting Brain Signals into Action

Today, 8 million Americans are living with paralysis or have lost limbs. Many could benefit from technologies that would help them carry out daily activities, but high-tech prosthetics or other such devices are not always sufficient to meet these needs, particularly for those who are paralyzed. To improve the quality of life for these individuals, NCATS-supported investigators at Pitt are exploring two different computerized chips that convert brain signals into an action simply through the patient's thinking about the action.

"The problem has always been the control of the prosthetic by someone with limited ability to move," said Michael Boninger, M.D., professor and chair of the Department of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation at the Pitt School of Medicine. Boninger and Andrew Schwartz, Ph.D., a professor of neurobiology at the medical school, have built a collaborative research program to develop brain-computer interface devices that interpret the brain's still-intact command abilities and convey them to high-tech prosthetics and assistive devices.

What is the Workforce Investment Act?

In 1998, Congress passed the Workforce Investment Act to reform federal job training programs and create a new, comprehensive workforce investment system. The reformed system is intended to be customer-focused, to help Americans access the tools they need to manage their careers through information and high quality services, and to help U.S. companies find skilled workers. WIA aims to improve the quality of the workforce and enhance the productivity and competitiveness of the nation. Learn more about the Workforce Investment Act.

Since members of the military are in essence government property, it's not difficult to imagine unusual programs being used to treat difficult conditions like PTSD.

Assistant Secretary

SUBJECT: Serving Military Service Members and Military Spouses under the Workforce Investment Act Dislocated Worker Formula Grant

- Purpose. To clarify the Department of Labor policy regarding Workforce Investment Act Dislocated Worker Formula Grant-funded services for two populations: (1) military service members (non-retirees) and (2) military spouses.
- References. Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (WIA), as amended; WIA Regulations at 20 CFR Part 663.115; TEGL No. 16-03, Change 1, "NEG Policy Guidance – Assistance for Returning Members of the National Guard and Military Reserves," dated August 18, 2004; TEGL No. 16-03, "NEG Policy Guidance," dated January 26, 2004; and TEGL No. 5-03, "Implementing the Veterans' Priority Provisions of the Jobs for Veterans Act," dated September 16, 2003.
- Background. A review of current WIA law and regulations indicates there is limited policy guidance on serving returning military service members (non-retiree) or military spouses as dislocated workers. These populations may be served with WIA Adult Formula Grant funds in accordance with the requirements of that program. Unlike the WIA Adult Program, however, the WIA Dislocated Worker Formula Grant Program has basic eligibility criteria that must be met for a participant to be considered a dislocated worker.

The Jobs for Veterans Act (PL 107-288) provides an emphasis on serving veterans by establishing a priority of service for veterans and certain spouses in all employment and training programs administered by the Department of Labor. The WIA Dislocated Worker Formula Grant Program is one of the affected programs, and guidance was issued in September 2003 (TEGL No. 5-03) explaining how the veterans' priority of

Ginsburg Missing Supreme Court Arguments for 1st Time

By The Associated Press

Jan. 7, 2019

WASHINGTON — The Supreme Court says Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg is missing arguments for the first time in more than 25 years as she recuperates from cancer surgery last month.

Court spokeswoman Kathy Arberg said Monday the 85-year-old Ginsburg is continuing to recuperate and work from home after doctors removed two cancerous growths from her left lung on Dec. 21.

Ginsburg was discharged from a New York hospital on Christmas day.

Ginsburg had two earlier cancer surgeries in 1999 and 2009 that did not cause her to miss court sessions. She also has broken ribs on at least two occasions.

The court said doctors found the growths on Ginsburg's lung when she was being treated for fractured ribs she suffered in a fall at her office on Nov. 7.
