Here is a great example of how men and women with no respect for their brothers and sisters come along with preconceived intentions and beliefs and refuse to make any effort to sense and connect with others. The agenda to cause conflict and animosity became clear very quickly and the total lack of any real interest in what we were sharing, despite asking questions. This is not a problem for us as we are used to this kind of stuff but it can be very damaging to those who are vulnerable to attacks like this. It is so important that we never allow others to steal who we are because this is what is happening all through "The System". When we are broken willed, it is very easy to be persuaded by others that we are not good enough, that there is something wrong with us, that the direction we are headed is not right, etc, etc. We have to become much stronger than this, especially if we are determined to walk away from "The System" because there is a lot of opposition to be endured if this is how our good hearts tell us to live.

Destroying "The System" and replacing it with Kindom, basically exposing definitions for what they really are.

We've been doing this Love For Life insight work intensely across the net and elsewhere since 2005, but its roots started in 1972.

Arthur is completely out of "The System" since 2006, no longer performs under "NAME" in commerce.

There are many videos to investigate here (a few more to come and that's it): <https://www.youtube.com/user/ArthurLoveForLife/videos>

You can also deeply explore the all the FB alls we use, the best one is this one: <https://www.facebook.com/arthurcristian>

We create food forest gardens too. Latest photos can be seen here: <https://www.facebook.com/arthurcristian/posts/10217133980529708>

We are full on propagandists

Gary Gevisser

is this your real name?

Arthur Cristian

Doesn't exist

"NAME" is a huge lie.

For now you can sense the living MAN Arthur

Gary Gevisser

What is your education?

Are you self-taught?

Do you have any military training outside of reading? In other words have ever had direct communications with an organized military such as the British or Australian armies?

Do you eat meat?

Arthur Cristian

No, was sent to school 1962 to 1971, left it all when "15", "self taught" after that. and since 2005, have used ONLY the senses to make sense of everything going on which has nothing to do with alphabet thoughts/images/definitions...

We are 100% vegan, 80% raw, no meat, dairy, processed, etc.

The vessel was allowed to go back deep into the traumas of Satanic rituals through the clear connections with the intense sufferings of the vessel and through the water of our breath, and from there, with al the trauma running intensely through the vessel and through observation and using SENSES ONLY (touch, taste, feel, smell, hear, see), have produced the vast Love For Life insights we've been sharing for free without a fee since 2005. The vessel is currently obese by intention, This gifted work has come to an end.

Have to go soon, have much to do.

Gary Gevisser

The last part is the most positive of course.

Why don't you give your real name?

Why do say "this gifted work has come to an end", which I happen to agree on, but Im interested to hear your reasoning.

Also from your photos, you look fat; is that the case?

Arthur Cristian

Analogy, one foot in the light and one foot in the dark. This is where the vessel has been in the fiction of time since 2005. This is all coming to an end now with the soon to be released free e-book full of illustrations called "Defining Magnificence Into Mediocrity And Calling It Magnificence".

Gary Gevisser

Are you saying that you are obese on purpose?

Are you saying that you are too preoccupied to pay attention to your food intake?

Arthur Cristian

Talking about freedom, truth, consciousness, life, reality, etc, are DEFINITIONS FORMING THE FANTASIES OF PERCEIVED REALITIES, with most trained/raised in "The System" to mimic definitions, thus remaining completely lost, intentionally designed by Occultists/Freemasons, leaves them mimicking it, unless they've really woken up to their senses.

Living/being truth, walk-the-talk is where its all at now.

Once we were clear on what actually is "The System" and how it all really works down to the tiny nuts and bolts, 3,500+ intense debates with experts, professors, researchers, scientists, academics, theologians, etc, etc, since 2005, using scrutiny and going where the logic of truth/SENSE takes you, had us arrive where we are at now.

Gary Gevisser

Okay, does that explain your choice of obesity and lack of self-constraint?

I thought walk the talk meant you had to be sensitive to the world around you which is difficult for obese people who are mostly into themselves?

Are there any FB friends of yours and mine like Beverly Mckinley who could help you out?

Can you bring Beverly into this conversation?

Arthur Cristian

The wholeness of life is undefined, no defined rituals required ever about food, diet, etc. The wholeness of undefined life is unnumbered souls of consciousness being the undefined soul of the vessel in this MAN, no need to doubt it.

Do you need to jump 10 feet across a room to grab your next breath?

Of course not.

The sun is still shining, nature is still producing abundance, in spite of how far fallen brothers and sisters have turned against undefined reality to destroy it through the defined images of fantasies they serve.

When you get past all forms of doubt and uncertainty, there is no death before us, no right or wrong, left or right, up or down, within or without, no greater and less than, etc, etc.... AND we're not missing out on anything ever as the eternal soul of undefined life is before us always, AND, we are not answerable to anyone, ever, and we don't let another's motive to control and confine us to the definitions they offer, with or without a good heart, because they can't sense the living undefined MAN before them. They just want to change the leopard's spots - control freaks.

When you really wake up, we are no longer on a journey heading anywhere from anywhere.

Gary Gevisser

Are we still FB friends, because I can't find you at this moment?

Arthur Cristian

Do you think your fat body which says it is ill could mean you have an ill mind?

Arthur Cristian

It's at the 5000 limit but it will drop, over 4000 FB friends and multi thousands of FB followers have been removed by Intel over the past 4 years or so, Ghosting happens, messing with click counters in YouTube too.

Gary Gevisser

What if it turns out that you are wrong, that your fat has interfered with your brain waves and that you are actually much dumber than you think?

Do you ever recall when your body was healthy and it made love to your wife or have you always been fat since making love to your wife?

Would you say that she is less or more a of a genius than you?

... since first making love...

Do you agree with my gorgeous F-C [Française-Canadienne] wife Marie, "Being a sperm donor or sperm recipient does not make you a good parent"?

Arthur Cristian

You have a very long way to go, so that you can truly SENSE another MAN'S intentions, undefined dreams for life. Body shape has nothing to do with a MAN'S undefined soul. Instead others get caught up in personality cults trying to force others into defined boxes that suit their defined versions of reality where the control freak mechanisms of right and wrongs are played out throughout "The System". Those who worship personality cults have become vultures living off the current of another MANS life force energy because they all have, on all sides, broken wills.

Gary Gevisser

Could you bring your 5000 FB friends into a live debate with me now, and lets help God expose all the hypocrites unless you think God knows exactly what she is doing?

You appearance is very important because you are responsible for your deformities assuming you are in fact obese which you don't deny.

You look like eating is your main preoccupation leaving you little time other than to listen to your fat diseased talkative cells.

Could we continue this conversation on HOT AIR CURRENT [HAC]

Arthur Cristian

You are offering pavers of definitions you want us to walk down, none of which are dreams created uniquely and originally by our undefined souls. Your God is a defined God and your arguments are of this defined God, all of it as NOTHING.

Bring forward this God in first party, let's hear all these claims directly from the wagging tongue and wriggling fingers of this God (source of all your knowledge that executes authority and power over another MAN) and not from a MAN coming forward in 3rd party, with wriggling fingers and wagging tongue re-presenting this God ("You appearance is very important because you are responsible for your deformities assuming you are in fact obese which you don't deny. You look like eating is your main preoccupation leaving you little time other than to listen to your fat diseased talkative cells.") who can't come forward before the living and talk directly with the living from its tongue.

Until them, everything you have on offer is fraud, is slander and are all lies. All you are doing here is attempting to kidnap another MAN'S vessel so that you can impersonate it through anthropomorphism, in your image, making out all the life of this undefined MAN you are NOW impersonating under the image power of your claimed authority is in the image of your definitions. This is where all your claims are streaming from but you are claiming that they are coming from this MAN when in fact you made it all up. It's obvious who we really are is not on your radar. The blimp you are illuminating on your radar, that you claim is us, is in fact a fantasy that you are imagining.

Definitions form the fantasies of perceived realities. Using definitions to argue for preconceptions is already the predetermination of a fake robotic life set amongst these notions that form the entertainment of "The System" (CULTS/SECTS) where these fantasies are played out in games of right and wrong, health and not health, life and death., etc, etc.

Gary Gevisser

Do you like the acronym HAC?

BTW, what were the edits?

Arthur Cristian

Example of many, Bring forward "fatty cells", let's hear these claims directly from "fatty calles" and not from a 3rd party impostor.

Gary, you came blatantly with a motive that drives you, an energy you've mustered up of your will that brought you into this MAN'S "private" life, seeking to create controversies, chaos and conflict where there aren't any, and with a stranger, a MAN who you know nothing about, and yet you act as if you do.

All you have been able to offer up thus far is a fully loaded smart-ass, know it all, arrogant prick. An ignorant, righteous and an indifferent peacock strutting around the yard, all of which shows you up very quickly as being a low life prick, a piece of scum throwing around make-believe accusations that will be impossible for you to back up.

And you intentionally do this to a stranger who has never broken the peace with you, who has never injured you or committed a crime against you, etc, etc, and who you have never had any long-term, intimate private dealings with, business or not, and who you have never even lived with this MAN and this MAN'S family, and yet you act as if you are an expert about this MAN'S real life.

Are you psychic as in do you practice black magic?

Are you currently practicing the craft of remote viewing?

Are you in the room with us observing everything going on in our "private" lives Gary?

Just how do you really know?

Coveting another MAN is the greatest sin of all, a sin that is a lie, that is a curse you are currently processing right now.

You are currently so far in over your head right now because you are being ruled by a malevolent inspired e-go believing it has a good heart, when in fact it's just a MAN of war bearing a deeply broken will seeking to covet another MAN just to feed the empty space where once there was soul you gave up long ago.

Do you really enjoy getting a turn on fucking around with other people's lives, particularly strangers?

What you are doing here in this MAN'S life is nasty as.

Your motive/agenda relies on the weaknesses of others not strong enough to stand up against a piece of shit like you and tell you to fuck off.

You currently act (show up) as a vampire, a vulture who preys on the carcasses of another MAN'S life so that you can sink your venomous teeth into their vessel and suck the blood of their life energy out, and these most nasty and despicable routines you run, can only be gotten away with by targeting others who still have a broken will, are vulnerable and are deeply confused and really don't know who they really are.

When I was younger and if you did what you did today, I would have belted the fuck out of you, piece of steel in hand or not.

Today, this MAN does not need to harm another MAN in defence of whatever malevolent intentions that have come this MAN'S way, because this MAN just let's the curse of another confused, delusional and deeply lost MAN'S dreaming and let them fully experience what they are dreaming for, conscious or not. Let them have/experience it all IN THIS LIFE.

Right now, every MAN (man, wombman, child) you have targeted to run this dominating, fantorgasmic vampire routine upon, and who are still under your hypnotic control, adds instant by instant to the curse you are now processing and there is NOTHING you can do to break it, that's unless you completely clean up this act, heal all the damage done, repay every cent taken from them + more, and apologise profusely to all of them, and with sincerity and purity in intention, have completely changed your ways so that you never act as a most nasty vampire, taking advantage of the vulnerable.

Now fuck off.

David Ulf Hi Arthur, I get that he came with a loaded gun, and not trying to defend the guy here, let me say that first! Now, he touched on an issue I was meaning to ask you for a while now, and seeing as I got the hint to look into the Mucusless Diet Healing System by Arnold Ehret in the Kindom Group, I just might ask it here and to you. So the thing is, I have been shifting my diet around for 2 months now and witnessing astounding things that my body is capable of that I had given up on fixing 10 years ago. So since I respect you and what you do very much, I am interested in how you handle diet, for referencing sake and comparing outcomes. Of course, man is undefined, if he is indeed. But it helps me to look at what others are doing in fine tuning my own direction and interpreting phenomenas I experience mith my body. So without further ado: You said your vessel is obese by purpose, and that you eat 100% vegan, 80% raw, no meat, eggs or dairy. So what about the other big toxic foods: grains, high starch veggies/fruits (cereals, flour of any kind, white potatos, unripe bananas) or high fat stuff (nuts, avocados, seed oils, plant oils) and stimulants (coffee, salt, chillies, sugar)? And are you doing any kind of dietetic transition or just going with the flow with some direction in mind? As I said, I am looking to fine tune my diet right now, and your answer will either affirm my experience and what Ehret described, or it will present a huge outlier that I have to work out. Thanks in advance and I hope not to get belted or iron-sticked 😊;)

This has nothing to do with diet, before, during or after. We are not into any form of self-obsession diet. We don't eat for the idea of a diet as this is clearly "self-obsession" appeasing the e-go that is still at the helm dominating the vesel.

We prefer not to eat animals and their milk and refuse to support their murder. Again, this has NOTHING to do with diet - anything to do with diet is "self-obsession" - the undefined living consciousness has no "self" to refer to - it already is, just is. Alphabet thoughts will continue to completely block the natural ability to sense and the undefined vessel senses what it needs in the moment and there are NO ALPHABET THOUGHTS INVOLVED.

ALL ALPHABET THOUGHTS ARE PAVERS OF THE YELLOW BRICK ROAD OF "SELF-OBSESSION" YOU LAY BEFORE YOU SO THAT THE ALPHABET E-GO IS WALKING DOWN THIS PREDETERMINED PATH LEADING THE VESSEL

BECAUSE ITS STILL IN CONTROL OF THE HELM.

To repeat the last, MOST important piece of insight info.....

Using definitions to argue for preconceptions is already the predetermination of a fake robotic life set amongst these notions that form the entertainment of "The System" (CULTS/SECTS) where these fantasies are played out in games of right and wrong, win and lose, 1st and last, left and right, rich and poor, haves and have nots, up and down, etc, etc, and life and death.

And we may as well add, Jew and non Jew, "NAME" (e-go) against "NAME" (e-go) ., republican v democrat, thoughts v thoughts, this most severe conflict deeply rooted in e-motions, goes on between the ears of a fucked up MAN and between a fucked up MAN who has a broken will and another fucked up MAN who has a broken will.

The point is, no thought, idea, concept, etc, that you have ever come across will set you free from this..... "Definitions form the fantasies of perceived realities. Using definitions to argue for preconceptions is already the predetermination of a fake robotic life set amongst these notions that form the entertainment of "The System" (CULTS/SECTS) where these fantasies are played out in games of right and wrong, win and lose, 1st and last, left and right, rich and poor, haves and have nots, up and down, etc, etc, and life and death."

To come across any alphabet thought, idea, sentence, paragraph, etc, and be inspired by it and even be seen enshrining it and holding it up for others to notice, WILL NEVER, EVER SET YOU OR ANYONE ELSE FREE FROM THIS FUCKING NIGHTMARE BECAUSE YOU STILL HAVE A BROKEN WILL AND THERE IS NO SOUL THERE.

THIS IS A FACT.

Scott Andrews We were all at the pinnacle of health living in paradise, and yet still managed to get caught up in these sick, toxic, corrupted dreams that have become the destruction on earth we see today. This clearly shows that diet is not the main thing. No matter how healthy and pristine the body, the real issue at hand will still not be dealt with if focused on the body, giving responsibility to the body to fix the issues, like miraculously somehow a healthy body is going to shine a light on blind spots and open closed doors for us.

Arthur Cristian Allowing the MAN to use the traumatised vessel to penetrate deeply into the trauma/sexual-abuse, through the water of MAN'S breath, this included the blood, became the radio antenna (so to speak) that let this MAN tune in to all the "frequencies" (so to speak) the Occultists are using to communicate with each other as well as encoding all their inventions in the collective water of our breath, and from there, this enabled this MAN to attune, listen in, to their conversations, only its done through sensing their intentions.

The whole body of the Love For Life insight work exposing how the occults really work and the living remedy Kindom came out of this very intense, painful and extreme hard labour this MAN'S vessel was put through. The MAN suffered deeply. Very few, if any can do what this MAN has done intensely for the past 13 years without the vessel dying along the way.

Scott Andrews Am eating mostly mucusless, however do not give it power over this man. The soul is not defined by the vessel. Yes there are many issues that can come up from putting the body through the effects of cleansing, but again this all goes much much deeper.

David Ulf Arthur Cristian that is a given, my point is that if my body and mind is poisoned, I basically have a broken instrument to measure what is right and wrong for me in this moment. Surrounded by fake food and addicting poisons, I have to relearn what I really need, or if I need anything at all for food. And that is what I am doing and that is what my question was about. I respect your decision all the way, but I dont seem to be able to see the answer to my question. You say "This has nothing to do with diet, before, during or after. We are not into any form of self-obsession diet. We don't eat for the idea of a diet as this is clearly "self-obsession" appeasing the e-go that is still at the helm dominating the vessel."

The english word "diet is not fit for what I am asking about. What I am asking is more in the direction of "lifestyle decisions" and includes doing no harm (not killing animals, but also not killing oneself).

So it seems you just eat what you want in this moment, did I get that right? I'm trying to focus on the point of my question, everything else you said is as clear to me right now as it is possible for me right now, so no questions there.

Arthur Cristian David Ulf Throwing all the scrabble game pieces on the floor with you now rummaging through them on the floor has you still caught up in the e-go, that was there before when you were playing alphabet scrabble on the table, and during when they were thrown to the floor, that being your concerns about poison, toxicity, what is not right or wrong, etc, and the self-obsession e-go is still there in both when you were rummaging through the pieces on the floor and when you were picking them up and putting them back on the table and carrying on playing scrabble at the table again. At all times, before, during and after, you are TRAPPED. Get out of your alphabet head, ONLY THE E-GO IS THERE - there is no undefined soul there.

It is the e-motions that is the intellect causing the self-obsession over the life of your vessel. The e-motions are just the intentions of the occultists determined to control you/all-of-MAN and it plays out as those alphabet thoughts that form the intellect of the fake persona, the e-go, you are still deeply attached to.

And it is here where the light v dark battle (the soul of undefined MAN resisting the constant, intense attacks coming from the beast/egregore that brings forth the e-go you still re-present) over the helm that controls the direction of your vessel ensues. You are still reliant on the intellect of the e-go to bring forth the directions to the helm of your vessel.

These directions are the deep dark e-motions you touched on in your comment.

It shows that you still doubt the good heart bringing forth the undefined soul that was always meant to be at the helm of your vessel and by defacto, proxy and reliance, you continue stepping back into the trauma of the intellect streaming from the egregore that brings forth the e-go you have placed at the helm of your vessel and you continue to suffer the consequence (sequence of the con) of all the e-motions that rise up to influence and dominate the helm of your vessel.

Live like you breathe.

Sure all this talk of dropping the programming is one thing, but getting it done is another and if a person needs another tool to help with it then great. It just helps us feel better maybe, Or maybe we are more alert, maybe we have less cravings, maybe we have more energy, maybe we can innerstand presence better and stay within it for longer periods of time. But if one doesn't try one will never know...it's your path, and also I find it has helped me a lot! I am not the same person as I was when I was eating meat and dairy and bread in vast amounts. The place where stars are created, planets. Oneness undefined and connected and interconnected to the whole piece of Nirvana one finds itself on! Eating a raw food and fruit diet is possible the closest thing to that if one can't grow their own food on their own piece of land.

So as just one example as to why we want to eat living foods.

And...

We really don't know what we are seeing when we see another though to be honest. Maybe that others shape is actually specifically designed for that being...maybe it's all planned by the higher self that way. I guess this is just what we would find if we stopped defining everything even during our misinterpretation of what we think we have defined!

I remember seeing the great Karri trees in Australia and got to climb one, it was one of the highlights of my life, then I saw another cool tree, the tingle, and thought how strange! It didn't at first fit into my idea of what a tree should look like. Yet they were both eating of the same rich soil! And to think back in those days I wouldn't even have entertained the thought it was my ancestor and a God!

Arthur Cristian Wind Omaha But without the much bigger picture of undefined dreams of life being held in focus always, all the effort put in by everyone still using alphabet dreams of diet, health, interests, directions, truth, consciousness, freedom, etc, remain completely trapped in alphabet hell, "The System", all the while trying to walk away from alphabet hell in this life.

The fact is, they are unable to do so and they remain even further entrenched in alphabet hell with no way out of it.

The good heart continues forging alliances with alphabet hell in the belief the dreams derived from alphabet hell will assist their vessel in getting out of alphabet hell (sickness, disease, chaos, conflict, manipulation, war, etc, etc) in this life, thus remaining deeply compromised, trapped and always subordinate to the grand masters of alphabet hell.

The current of the life energy of the good heart continues being misused by all the concepts and constructs of alphabet hell where the good heart is directing its essence into and amongst the congregations of the good hearted in communion with each other, multi-millions of them found everywhere across earth, in social media, suburbs, cities, corporations, auditoriums, theatres, cinemas, clubs, pubs, red light districts, holy houses, arenas, coliseums, shopping centres, libraries, highways, roadways and byways, pedestrian crossings, Youtube, Linkedin, Instagram, Twitter, universities, schools, polling booths, parliaments. court houses, etc, etc, etc, etc.... with all of them spinning tainted good hearted rhetoric and sentiments, "this feels good", "this feels right", "it's so nice", "thank you", "how lovely it is", "good on you", etc, etc, and they are all deceived by the "it just helps us feel better", "it's the best we all can do, "what else can we do?" etc etc, etc, AND NOTHING REALLY HAS CHANGED.

Blinded by their good hearts, they are still focused on the alphabet dreams and making that happen which keeps them completely enslaved and dumbed-down in "The System",

"look, there they all are, holding hands in oneness", ahhhhh, how beautiful, nice and inspiring it is, it feels right, we are a ONE EARTH, A ONE WORLD of good hearts living for do no harm, peace, kindness, consciousness and freedumb in alphabet hell...."

LOLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLL

ALL TOTAL FUCLING IDIOTS, ALL STILL ABSOLUTELY BRAINWASHED BEYOND COMPREHENSION.

None are holding the undefined dream of life that is MAN'S soul and expanding that. They don't sense how to because they remain completely confused, brains addled and mesmerised and the good heart is sending out "good", "right", "true" signals everywhere, always, BUT ALL OF IT IS FAKE

THE DEVIL IS ALWAYS IN THE DETAILS OF ALPHABETS.

They project and illuminate pictures in your head or voces, etc, and make you think you are creating them. They do this to with TV, Internet, Radio, Movies, Videos, Media, Advertising, etc, too.

Could see how he looked, what he was wearing, where he was, etc, and Instantly leapt through the water of the breath, and with the right hand, forcibly grabbed the MAN by the throat and while vigorously shaking and choking this tall,skinny pale MAN up and down from the ground. Told him that if he or any of his cohorts attempt to do this again to this MAN'S family, friends, etc, all the life-energy you've created will instantly be redirected upon all of you where the curse of your collective intention destroys all of you and your beneficiaries in this life and forevermore (something like that).

Arthur Cristian When these skilled, practiced occultists direct their intention into whoevers head/vessel to place pictures, dreams, voices, sounds, etc, there, they are also bringing the whole of their lives with them at the same time (so to speak) too, but most of MAN are too desensitised and trapped in very small dreams of mediocrity (Self-Obsession"), that they are unable to step aside from the distracting E-GO, the intense and prolonging alphabet chit chat going on between their ears, all of it E-MOTION, that they've become very good at re-presenting the E-GO under "NAME" since the womb and therefore, are unable to sense/see reality around them and can't perceive where these remote projected dreams, pictures/images, sounds, voices, demonic-scripts, etc,.are really coming from, and this is why they can't SEE/SENSE the bigger picture of truth going on. "SELF-OBSESSION is devastating to MAN'S undefined soul, it can ONLY lead to murder and genocide of MAN'S soul in this life. Imagining reality and believing it's true, and being/living reality are two completely different things (so to speak). Most if not all are committing eternal-spiritual-suicide and they don't even realise they are doing this, being a drone-robot-slave completely controlled remotely by occultists.

Arthur Cristian Troy Dun It's not really creative visualization as that, generally speaking, works as scripts with writers, actors, producers, directors, stage hands, cameramen, editors, etc, all together performing for the scenes that become the movie illuminated and animated on to the cinema screen, and from there, bouncing back into the audience's heads/senses (so to speak) as the trajectory of fantasy and the fantorgasmic journey they engage with in 3D (so to speak) illusion, causing delusion with undefined reality because they have already completely disconnected from the undefined reality of direct sensory experience with the good hearts' undefined creation of earth, nature, MAN, etc, the undefined soul, that are the celestial bodies hanging (so to speak) in the water of MAN'S/LIVING-CREATORS breath.

The creative visualization is on the film that is passing across the lens of the film projector that's transmitting a fake light onto the cinema screen, encoding everyone exposed to the illumination of these scripts with predetermined scripts that are always there before anyone arrived in the cinema and sat in their seats to be entertained by non-sense (bullshit).

At all times, before, during and after the event that transpire in the cinema, the alphabets are used to form a fake dreamscape in the water of MAN'S breath bearing the intention to capture everyone tempted, seduced and finally brainwashed into the dreamscape of an alphabet fantasy.

The scripts were derived from alphabets. The paper or digital memory used to record and house the scripts were derived from alphabets. The men and women involved in creating the scripts were already deeply brainwashed into alphabets so they can record everything they are dreaming for in alphabets and communicate these scripts to others already deeply brainwashed by alphabets too.

All involved in the making of the movie, including all the manufacturing of inventions used inside and outside the constructions crafted out of alphabets to be the studios, production suites, cinemas, roads, motorised transport, street lights, and the definitions of numbers that are "NAMES" defining make-believe locations etched on title deeds that form the metropoli of cities, suburbs, towns, states, principalities, territories, national parks, crown land, countries, nations, hemispheres, latitudes, longitudes, solar systems, galaxies, universes, etc, etc, that were also given alphabets "NAMES", including all the alphabet based services that supply water, food, labour, shelter, work sites, education, law, religion, government, commerce, insurance, repairs, counselling, psychiatry, medical, hospital, entertainment venues (pubs, nightclubs, music venues, etc, etc, etc.), technology, telecommunications, that make up the lives of all those who traverse all of the above and end up sitting in the cinema to be brainwashed by "creative visualization". They were all derived from alphabets too, and when they finally go to bed after snacks and drinks with lots of chats at coffee shops, restaurants or at someone's home, they go to sleep with alphabets spinning in their heads, wake up with alphabets spinning in their heads, have children greet them with alphabets spinning in their heads and, no matter which way they turn their heads, there are alphabets forming the "lifetime" illusion of their deeply fucked up lives in a wonderland of pure fantasy they perceive as the "creative visualizations of their non-existing lives" because THERE IS NO UNDEFINED SOUL THERE.

All of this has been predetermined from before they were in the womb and it makes up the whole of their system lives. It is a fake, 3D book of life, all of it contrived and all lost in this book are robot drone slaves who think they have freedom in their creative visualisation. There is a team of occultists who are the directors, producers, script writers and marketers of this book, providing 3D glasses to make their illusions appear to be reality.

The MAN, Arthur Cristian, was not caught up in any of the above when this MAN sensed this other MAN intending to be inside Arthur's head (so to speak) with malevolent intentions and from there shifted the MAN'S consciousness through the water of MAN'S breath to attack this piece of shit trying to fuck over Arthur's reality with non-sense. Don't be confused by this MAN using alphabets to explain what was going on because there were no alphabet thoughts involved. It was all through the senses and the intentions of a MAN'S undefined soul.

Arthur Cristian Your complaints that have you try to manipulate another MAN to change the way a MAN communicates with you, just to suit how you want life delivered on a plate to you, is actually your current corruption to the vessel that is already attempting to completely destroy who you really are, the undefined soul.

If you are unable to sense another MAN'S intention with the good heart already gifted to your vessel, then you are already too far gone, already being deeply lost inside the spiralling vortex of fantasy that is the e-go pulling your vessel further and further and further away from the undefined reality of the good heart gifted freely to you, to create the undefined soul of a MAN, and closer and closer and closer into the arms of the egregore, the beast of this MAN-made hell.

Everything written is in CLEAR ENGLISH and the Grammar Queen, Fiona Cristian, has checked the comment in question and is more than satisfied that the comment in question delivers clearly what was being intended during the "time" the comment was being written to you.

This MAN has spent many, many hours deeply contemplating to come up with the insights shared freely through Love For Life. How they come is how they come and either you appreciate the effort put in and take what you want to take from them, or you go to a more "fast food consciousness" site where you will learn nothing except how to stay in "The System" and talk about consciousness, etc.

Brought up in "The System" today, most men and women are programmed to have short attention spans so they can only take in small amounts of information at one "time". They are accustomed to being spoon fed, with lots of glitter and whizz bang toppings to keep their attention. What they don't realise is that the spoon feeding keeps them dumbed down and lazy when it comes to use their brain, which is why all the leaders and gurus of the freedom, consciousness, etc, movements, spoon feed them to keep them dumbed down. It is their job to appear to offer freedom whilst in reality, keeping them completely dumbed down.

The true art of contemplation is almost lost.

Troy, if you are really serious about freedom for you and for the brothers and sisters around you, you have to learn to slow the brain down and to really contemplate, to think deeply, to question and scrutinise everything and to always, always, always keep referring back to the bigger picture of the WHOLE of the dream of life because it is only when you can do that, that you will free your thinking from the shackles of "The System". Then you will not need to read Love For Life posts anymore because it will be crystal clear to you.

If you want to, try reading the Love For Life posts in a different way. Instead of scanning through them, looking for the bits that you think answer your questions, slow down. Don't read when you are about to go and do something. Don't read if there is a program on the TV that you want to watch in a minute. Get comfortable, take a few deep breaths and read the first sentence only. Take another deep breath and read it again. What is it really saying?

This is what "The System" trains us not to be able to do any more because we are so busy and our heads are so full of chit chat between the ears and, if we can't grasp something in an instant, we do not have the ability to keep contemplating on it until we do grasp it. The programming of the scripts in your head that you have been trained into are like a malevolent wind pulling at you as you try to get clear about what has been done to you and what the remedy is.

This hurricane is the intentions of every MAN who has ever tried to dominate you by controlling your brain so that you cannot think clearly. If you want to be free of this, you have to learn to slow down the chit chat and ignore it, so that the storm calms and, in the lull, you get moments of crystal clarity. Once you experience these moment of clarity a few "times" it will become easier for you to experience them again, because you are practising it and when we practise it, we get better at it.

Brought up in "The System" we practise slavery every day, which is why we are so good at it. If we want true freedom, we have to start practising true freedom skills and keep practising them because we will not learn them if we don't. A slave doesn't just suddenly stop being a slave because the slave no longer wants to be a slave. The slave has to practise not being a slave, to practise not saying, "Yes, Sir, No Sir,", to practise letting go of the knee jerk reactions that are the e-motions we practise from so young in life that keep us drifting back to the hurricane to be whirled around in its torment.

We will not dilute who we are to pander to your lack of ability to contemplate, no offence to the MAN Troy who we sense is keen to keep thinking and working things out. Don't let yourself down Troy. Never stop striving to raise your head above the smag of the system bullshit.

The whole of "The System" is about this ignorance of MAN'S undefined soul. They ignore to keep the program running through all their drones and they must ignore everything that will direct the current of their life energy into a MAN'S undefined soul. Hence all the games played out in "The System", always.

We sensed it was Intel from the beginning. It's why we accepted their messenger request and went from there, letting it out play out, with Intel thinking they are toying with us, when in fact we are toying with them.

All the agro, intensity, passion this MAN puts on with these mother fuckers is all show for the colosseum games being played out with these most stupid fucked-wits.

Arthur Cristian As above so below is fulfilling the directives = duality, but duality does not exist in reality because MAN has free will, full autonomy over their vessel and no other MAN is there, between the ears attempting to take full control of the helm, the duality. The occultists want full control over MAN forevermore, hence their symbol of infinity that actually is duality.....

Astrology is a definition forming the fantasies of perceived realities, the directives, if a victim buys into (believes) it

All of the esoterics is rooted in duality, the occults of the occultists.

The symbol of infinity has one MAN, the occultists on one side defining reality to the other MAN, a robot-drone on the other side of the symbol of infinity following the directives as instructed by the occultists, hence SERVING/WORSHIPING the occultist as their GOD forevermore = infinity = duality = Permanent brain control over all of MAN.

The symbol of infinity/duality can also be seen as two eyes, one of the occultists and one of the robot-drone-slave, making it ONE eye as in all-see-"i"-n-g "i"(eye) of the controlling occultist. .

Wind Omaha Arthur Cristian Everywhere we turn are these sayings; As above so below is just one...I had never heard this saying before 4 years ago but it's everywhere in the occult(the hidden) so it's no big secret anymore, ha ha!
At times I had felt that maybe it was partially true, for instance...if a person is not eating correctly than maybe that person isn't at their best and so maybe their world is giving them a reflection of that reality.

Which seems to be the way with Gary there and so many people eating a meat and dairy filled diet, it's aggressive in nature, and I have heard that it's an addiction to the uric acid within the meat that gives it its flavor.

Jewish People only eat Kosher meat because they know better. But it's tasteless and needs spices and herbs to give it flavor, so I wonder why they even bother, and that goes for meat as well! It's what I have come to anyways. Why would I eat anything that is going to tax my body and suck away my energy right!

Then there is the stored adrenaline within it at a cellular level which comes from the stress and fear the animal creates because it knows it's going to die an ugly death. And so the people are also addicted to this adrenaline. Adrenaline junkies rule the world! It's in coffee and many caffeinated drinks and chocolate which sucks. Chocolate comes from cacao and is very acidic, so as above so below right...if you eat too much you will start to become acidic and that begins to burn the arteries and so they harden like grannys overcooked rump roast! The cacao fruit is better to eat and it covers the coco bean. The bean however is bitter and has to be roasted and then sweetened, but the point is it's cooked so acidic and if you eat it...as above so below.

We don't have to give these occultists any power, and we can use language however we see fit with our best attempt at conscious awareness, then as we back out of this energy farm mining disaster we call 'the matrix' those layers might possibly melt away revealing the original design and like the creator it can't be defined.

In a sense though it is true, as above so below... and so just because they highjacked the saying, as above so below doesn't give it any power to me or power over me, or does it? And that is the question of the millenia! Are we constantly creating this reality by speaking english and using their saying that they have attached spells to? Or any language for that matter as it's all contributing the madness we see around us and originates from them as they have known for millenia to control the language and education, medicine, food, religion, spirituality to name a bunch...it's all bogus!

I kind of liked the saying and repeated it myself, but maybe I should be more aware of what I am saying? And to be clear I am not an occultist, just one of their proxies but only by the force that was placed upon me. That is unwinding though as we speak!

We have to come full circle...oops there I go again...repeating another famous saying...and of course we all know if you have a closed circle it's a portal for stars and such, sigils and spells. But during this investigation to uncover the giant lie that is the false matrix we bring into existence by making a living and supporting our families we find that it's all one giant controlled occult trap and that's no lie...it's created by them and for them. So that is a good place to begin to dismantle it!

Diet is important, yet unless I know the persons story and back story from their perspective then I can't say and if it's not a problem for them, then what's the point of evening spending the energy on it. Some people do have problems with diet and are looking for the magic pill to fix it, but it will be more of the same using that mentality the occult has snared us with. Go see the Doctors, they'll fix you up, wrong! It's a Rockefeller's wet dream and it's running on all cylinders. Plant base foods are where it's at, living alive energy rich dripping with goodness colorfull and sweet and tasty. And this stems from good ol fashioned common sense! Maybe the Garden of Eden too, ha ha!

Most people don't even know that what they are saying is occult, because the system is occult by design we find out in the end, I was going to say in nature, but that just seems wrong as it's not natural. It's As you A&F have indicated, but as many have in my spiral! Just try to get the intention of what I am saying...We're just backing out of a big mess, the fall of mankind which is actually us being tripped up!

Arthur Cristian There is undefined MAN on the land there and over there is another undefined MAN on the land with both of them standing and resting on undefined paradise until one of them decided to covet and dominate the other.

This intention gave birth to the symbolic definition of Infinity which simply typifies a MAN on the land wanting to covet and dominate another MAN on the land for the whole of their lives including their children from the womb to the grave across infinity, meaning from birth to death for there is NOTHING else there/existing to dominate.

Everything that has transpired between MAN on the land and MAN on the land since this motive to covet another/all-of MAN on the land was set into motion is "The System", both overtly and covertly recorded across the ages of this intention as the history of the MAN on the land who dreamt to covet and dominate another MAN on the land. NOTHING ELSE IS GOING ON. Everything else that seems to be going on is just smoke and mirrors and that's it.

As Above So Below is just the intention of one MAN seeking to covet/bind and dominate another MAN under their dream/intention and regardless of all the smoke and mirrors enacted, past, present and future, NOTHING ELSE IS REALLY GOING ON.

The law is deeply rooted in and of this AS ABOVE SO BELOW scam = INFINITY

Arthur Cristian And the scales of the law is infinity and IS THE CROSS where crucified MAN on the land is nailed to the cross of infinity and this includes the hammer (MAN'S intent to covet and dominate another MAN) and the nails of the law that is infinity to maintain and perpetuate infinity UNDER THE BIBLE where MAN on the land is being perpetually coveted and dominated by another MAN on the land.

Arthur Cristian Using definitions to argue for preconceptions is already the predetermination of a fake robotic life set amongst these notions that form the entertainment of "The System" (CULTS/SECTS) where these fantasies are played out in games of right and wrong, win and lose, 1st and last, left and right, rich and poor, haves and have nots, up and down, etc, etc, and life and death.

And we may as well add, Jew and non Jew, "NAME" (e-go) against "NAME" (e-go)., republican v democrat, thoughts v thoughts, this most severe conflict deeply rooted in e-motions, goes on between the ears of a fucked up MAN and between a fucked up MAN who has a broken will and another fucked up MAN who has a broken will.

The point is, no thought, idea, concept, etc, that you have ever come across will set you free from this..... "Definitions form the fantasies of perceived realities. Using definitions to argue for preconceptions is already the predetermination of a fake robotic life set amongst these notions that form the entertainment of "The System" (CULTS/SECTS) where these fantasies are played out in games of right and wrong, win and lose, 1st and last, left and right, rich and poor, haves and have nots, up and down, etc, etc, and life and death."

To come across any alphabet thought, idea, sentence, paragraph, etc, and be inspired by it and even be seen enshrining it and holding it up for others to notice, WILL NEVER, EVER SET YOU OR ANYONE ELSE FREE FROM THIS FUCKING NIGHTMARE BECAUSE YOU STILL HAVE A BROKEN WILL AND THERE IS NO SOUL THERE.

THIS IS A FACT.

Ishmahn Micella Bohn Wow.... incredible your patience with this guy....

I doubt I have that gift..... and got something out of it.

People who direct themselves like that.. I consider them a waste of time...

They should join the police/$ystem.... that's the mindset....
