

MIAMI EDITION
SUMMER 2018

SOUTH FLORIDA
LUXURYTM
GUIDE

Destinations
LUXURY TRAVEL
AROUND THE WORLD
+ BEAUTY & WELLNESS

Wat Phra Singh Buddhist Temple,
Chiang Mai, Thailand

THE GUIDE

BY LIANA LOZADA

Play
SPIKED POPSICLES

Everyone enjoys the refreshing summer treat of a Popsicle, but chances are, you've never had one quite like this. The Confidante Miami Beach has launched a pop-up collaboration with Cielito Artisan Pops, where guests can create customized cocktail and ice-pop pairings. Try them out at The Confidante's weekly Backyard Saturdays pool party, which is open to locals at no cover charge. 4041 Collins Ave., Miami Beach; 305.424.1234; theconfidantemiami.com

SUMMER SNEAK PEEK

Fisher Island is giving short-term access to its luxurious recreational facilities with the new Preview Membership. The sneak peek runs May through October, giving selected applicants unlimited availability to the private club's golf, tennis, marina, beach club, fitness center and pool amenities. Membership includes privileges for the holder's spouse and children under the age of 24, as well as exclusive dining and hotel rates. 1 Fisher Island Drive, Fisher Island; 305.535.6076; fisherislandclub.com

NEW KID ON THE BLOCK

SLS LUX Brickell, SBE/Related Group's highly anticipated hotel and residences, officially opens this summer. Although the property, which was propelled by architecture firm Arquitectonica and Yabu Pushelberg interior design, sold out earlier this year, locals will be able to take advantage of its chic ground-floor amenities, including the second Miami location of acclaimed sushi restaurant Katsuya, and the first local appearance of the brand's happening lounge S Bar. 805 S. Miami Ave., Miami; 305.859.0202; sllux.com

SOFI SPEAKEASY

The Scapegoat is stirring things up South of Fifth. The new cocktail bar focuses on American-made spirits, wines, beers and whiskey. Flanked by blacked-out walls and framed by wood and vintage-inspired accents, The Scapegoat offers a throwback-style reprieve. Expect drinks served in jelly jars, torched and smoked sips, and twists on classics. 100 Collins Ave., Miami Beach; 786.275.6488; scapegoatsobe.com

MEAT MARKET AFTER DARK

A little extra effervescence is going into ladies' night at Meat Market's newly launched Meat Market After Dark. On Thursdays at 10 p.m., women are served complimentary Champagne while DJ Keidy leads revelers into the weekend. The bar menu will still be served, offering signature bites like the Gouda tater tots. 915 Lincoln Road, Miami Beach; 305.532.0088; meatmarket.net

SIP ON THIS

For the first time since opening in 2016, Wynwood's KYU has switched up its drinks menu. The new cocktails are designed to push the palate, as is exemplified by the "No Figgity, No Doubt," which flaunts Bulleit bourbon, Amaro Montenegro and Punt e Mes with a torched rosemary garnish. For something slightly sweet, try the "Peaches & Cream," made with toasted juniper, coriander-infused Absolut Elyx vodka, white peach, cream and lavender bitters. 251 NW 25th St., Miami; 786.577.0150; kyumiami.com

KYU's No Figgity, No Doubt