

Central Park Construction Update

MARCH 2024

March 2024

Estimated Completion date: Q3 2025

Steady progress has been made at Central Park recently with the basement dig-out and retaining wall among the works soon to be completed.

The last reporting period also brought the commencement of basement floor slab works as well as pile caps in a busy month for the site team.

Summary of Works Progressed

- Near completion of basement dig.
- Near completion of retaining wall.
- Progression of drainage.
- Commencement of the basement floor slab.
- Commencement of pile caps.

Works Anticipated

- Completion of retaining wall.
- Progression of drainage.
- Progression of pile caps.
- Near completion of the basement floor slab.
- Steelwork to be delivered to site.

Progression of retaining wall installation

Progression of retaining wall installation

Progression of retaining wall installation

Progression of retaining wall installation

Concrete pour for retaining wall installation

Concrete pour for retaining wall installation

Concrete pour for retaining wall installation

Progression of retaining wall installation

Progression of retaining wall installation

Progression of retaining wall installation

Central Park - Site Activity

Central Park - Site Activity

Contig pile wall completion and commencement of basement pile caps

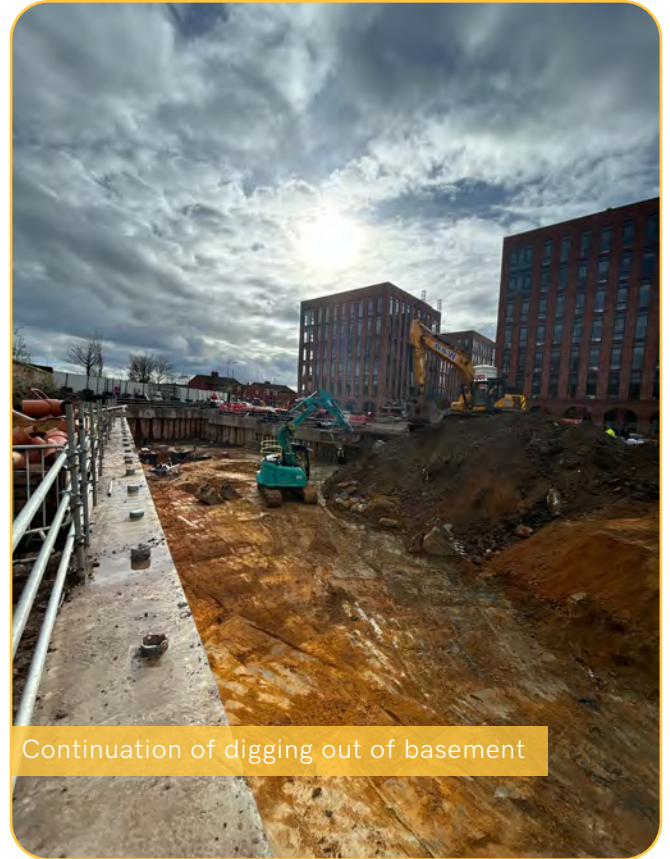

Contig pile wall completion and commencement of basement pile caps

Contig pile wall completion and commencement of basement pile caps

Continuation of digging out of basement

Continuation of digging out of basement

Continuation of digging out of basement

Progression of retaining wall and commencement of concrete slab

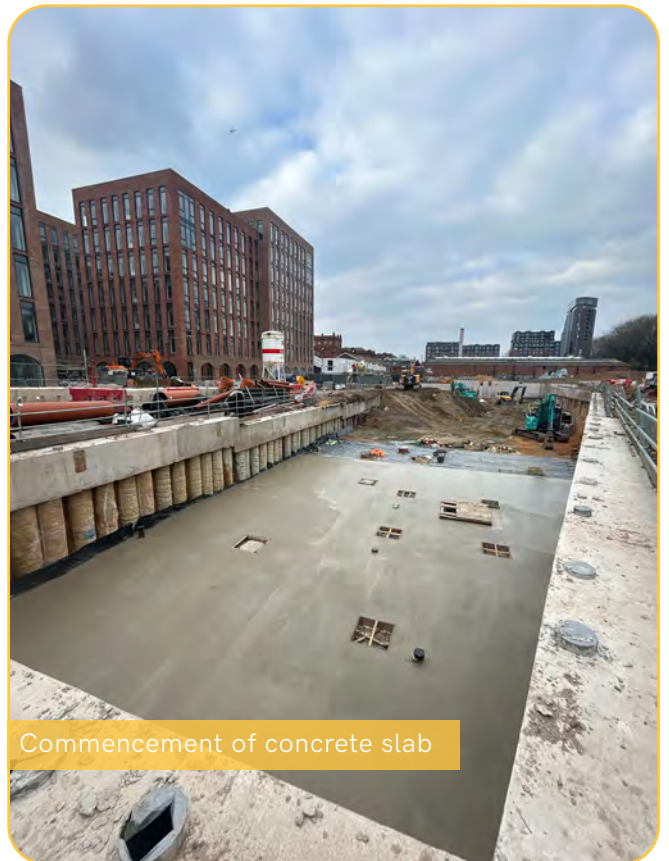

Contig pile wall completion and commencement of basement pile caps

Contig pile wall completion and commencement of basement pile caps

Commencement of concrete slab

Commencement of concrete slab