

This is my Q thread for February 14, 2019

My theme: Night Crawl

Active (qmap.pub) (qanon.pub) (bit.ly/Q_Drops) (bit.ly/Q-alerts)

Sometimes, Q allows you to be a fly on the wall.

Without compromising operational security, you're allowed to observe, from a limited perspective, the operations happening around the globe in the takedown of corruption.

As observers rather than participants, our questions about what we're watching are generally not answered. (Answers would compromise the mission.)

We watch as various operators receive instructions from headquarters and carry out their missions.

With that in mind, Q posted a series of images overnight that give us a glimpse into another operation. Like past operations, this one apparently took place in China. Q posted these images early this morning along with notes regarding the operation. Since this information is only for operators, Q hasn't replied to guesses about the meaning of the text that goes with the images.

 Why was she 'selected'?

 Remember [her] history.
 Ref: 230-page book called Sex Bias in the U.S. Code, published in 1977 by the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights.
 Highlights:
 >Called for the sex-integration of prisons and reformatories so that conditions of imprisonment, security and housing could be equal. She explained, "If the grand design of such institutions is to prepare inmates for return to the community as persons equipped to benefit from and contribute to civil society, then perpetuation of single-sex institutions should be rejected." (Page 101)
 >Called for the sex-integration of Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts because they "perpetuate stereotyped sex roles." (Page 145)
 >Insisted on sex-integrating "college fraternity and sorority chapters" and replacing them with "college social societies." (Page 169)
 >Cast constitutional doubt on the legality of "Mother's Day and Father's Day as separate holidays." (Page 146)
 >Called for reducing the age of consent for sexual acts to people who are "less than 12 years old." (Page 102)
 >Asserted that laws against "bigamists, persons cohabiting with more than one woman, and women cohabiting with a bigamist" are unconstitutional. (Page 195)
 >Objected to laws against prostitution because "prostitution, as a consensual act between adults, is arguably within the zone of privacy protected by recent constitutional decisions." (Page 97)
 >Ginsburg wrote that the Mann Act (which punishes those who engage in interstate sex traffic of women and girls) is "offensive." Such acts should be considered "within the zone of privacy." (Page 98)
 >Demanded that we "firmly reject draft or combat exemption for women," stating "women must be subject to the draft if men are." But, she added, "the need for affirmative action and for transition measures is particularly strong in the uniformed services." (Page 218)
 >An indefatigable censor, Ginsburg listed hundreds of "sexist" words that must be eliminated from all statutes. Among words she found offensive were: man, woman, manmade, mankind, husband, wife, mother, father, sister, brother, son, daughter, serviceman, longshoreman, postmaster, watchman, seamanship, and "to man" (a vessel). (Pages 15-16)
 >Wanted he, she, him, her, his, and hers to be dropped down the memory hole. They must be replaced by he/she, her/him, and hers/his, and federal statutes must use the bad grammar of "plural constructions to avoid third person singular pronouns." (Page 52-53)
 >Condemned the Supreme Court's ruling in Harris v. McRae and claimed that taxpayer-funded abortions should be a constitutional right.

We will pursue the vision we have carried around the world over this past year — a vision of strong, sovereign, and independent nations that respect their citizens and respect their neighbors; nations that thrive in commerce and cooperation, rooted in their histories and branching out toward their destinies.

That is the future we wish for this world, and that is the future we seek in America.
(Applause.)

With this strategy, we are calling for a great reawakening of America, a resurgence of confidence, and a rebirth of patriotism, prosperity, and pride.

And we are returning to the wisdom of our founders. In America, the people govern, the people rule, and the people are sovereign. What we have built here in America is precious and unique. In all of history, never before has freedom
