GiantFX7 Ingredients

The formula contains 32 plants, herbs and minerals from selected locations such as Africa, Peru, Northern Europe, Brazil and even Ethiopia.

All these Ingredients have two main purposes:

First, to remove the inflammation on your reproductive system level that's preventing your penis from assimilating the necessary growth nutrients.

And second to restart the growth of your penis from the cellular level.

And since they're 100% natural and have been carefully selected for their purity, your body will start absorbing them immediately and the growth process will begin right away.

Conclusion

All the ingredients have been clinically tested and are scientifically proven to increase the erectile tissue of your penis and make your manhood healthy again, starting with the very first capsule you take.

That's why, after analyzing the results of over 77,890 men who've successfully used this program, both myself and Dr. Mayer recommend taking at least 2 bottles of GiantFX7 over a period of 60 days.

And if you want to be 100% safe and don't risk it, we recommend you take at least 4 bottles, or more, over a period of 120 days.

They will also boost your testosterone levels, increase sperm production, strengthen your muscles and even help your hair follicles regrow.

Once you go with the 4 bottles package, in just 4 months from now you'll be able to add 3, 4 and even 5 inches more on your penis size...
