UEBERT & BEBE ANGEL

With years of full-time ministry behind them, Uebert and BeBe Angel are pioneering and leading voices in proclaiming the Good News of God's grace (Euaggelion) and the prophetic around the world. Between them, they are best-selling authors of Spiritual Warfare, Intimacy, Prayer Banks, Supernatural Power of The Believer, etc. Uebert and BeBe Angel are internationally sought-after conference speakers and as global leaders, they are highly regarded for their vision, innovation and boldness. As the founders of the Good News Church (Spirit Embassy), and holding the office of the prophet they have impacted millions of lives worldwide through their passion to win souls by bringing the revelation of the Good News of God's grace (Euaggelion).

Psalm 27:1

The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? .... of whom shall I be afraid?

Many Christians around the globe know Jesus Christ as their SAVIOUR, which is wonderful, but knowing Him as your SALVATION will completely revolutionize your life and take your walk with Him to a whole new level.

Observe the words of David in our opening verse; he said, "The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?" As your savior, you're hoping that He will "deliver" you from something, perhaps, your enemies; but as your salvation, you transcend that arena where He rescues you from danger or difficulty; you lose your fears, because you're in Him.

Psalm 27:2 further shows the result of the Lord being your salvation. It says, "When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell."

The Christian isn't one who needs to be delivered from anything; you don't need to be bothered about your adversaries. The one who needs deliverance is the one who doesn't know Christ as his SALVATION. When they come out against you, they'll stumble and fall if you know Jesus as your salvation. He's your Rock of defense; your protection. Hallelujah! This is different from you asking Him to protect you. Let this be registered in your spirit that you are living in the salvation of the Lord and nothing can move or shake you in the name of Jesus

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The Lord is my salvation and my strong tower. Nothing shall move or shake me. Every area of my life is in safety in the name of Jesus.

For all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever.

The lord told Abraham to sojourn to a land and he said something very profound , ...." as much as you can see, you can have it ..."
There is a visual element in faith. As much as you can see it ,you can have it.

Don't be limited by your circumstances or any physical flaws within your radius.

See beyond the natural and as much as you can see, you will surely possess it .The enemy might try to put blinkers around you so that you don't see beyond the recession ,sickness or poverty but today rise up and see beyond.

Your family is waiting for you to see beyond and the entire generation will be saved. Your company might be stagnant for some time but see prosperity and expansion beyond measure in the name of Jesus .Hallelujah.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Genesis 15:2

Galatians 1:10

For do I now persuade men; or God? or do I seek to please men for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ

Most people are caught in between two options, pleasing God or pleasing men. Everything that they do is about "what will people say." Their lives are driven by the quest to please men more than God. You see people going for functions where their hearts are not really settled to be, taking educational courses which they do not want and even getting into relationships in order to please other people.

Today, as Apostle Paul highlighted, there is no profit in pleasing men more than God. Choose to please the master more than men and make a bold decision to cut all ties which you created out of pleasing men. You are unique in your own way and don't keep yourself under unnecessary pressure by trying to please other people or take wrong actions for the sake of gaining people's approval.

Let there be a manifestation of that which is hidden within you. There is greatness which is inside of you. Go for it without hesitation and you shall see a mighty a hand of God.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a child, fearfully and wonderfully made. I am unique in my own way and today I chose to please my master and his grace is sufficient for me in the name of Jesus!

Psalm 139:14

John 16:1*These things have I spoken unto you....

Many Christians are reckless with the words they utter. The words that you speak have power to revamp your life either in a negative or positive direction. The world we are in was framed not by mortar and water but words. God had to speak words to bring up the universe.

In our scripture today „Jesus said , “..the things I speak..” Note the master didn't say the “words” but the “things” which means every time when we speak, we are speaking objects. Never use your tongue recklessly because every time when you speak you are framing destinies either in a positive or negative manner.

Choose your words wisely and use your tongue to build not to destroy .The tongue in your mouth is not just a mere mass of flesh but an instrument to mold a glorious future. The Bible even confirms that death and life lies on the power of the tongue which your words are a determinant of the length of your life on this earth. When God places you in any set up, be a giver of life by the words you speak. You might be in ministry or in a company, use your tongue to edify not to break.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My mouth is a pen of a ready writer and my tongue is a builder of destinies. I speak life to every area of my life. From this day onwards only positivity shall spring forth out of my life in the name of Jesus.

And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

It is pathetic to see some Christians worshipping a God which they are not sure of his existence or ability. Some are not sure about where their prayers are going. I have seen a lot of people who pray and feel like their prayer hasn't crossed the ceiling of their houses.

The Bible says something very profound ,"... this is the confidence that we have..." The word confidence also means guarantee. We have surety that when we talk to Papa God he hears us. We are so sure that God is with us and he hears us always.

Never go for feelings when it comes to his existence. God is there whether you feel like he is there or not .Your situation might not concur but remind yourself that he said he will never leave you nor forsake you .He is with us till the end of the world in the name of Jesus.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

1 Corinthians 3:20 -21

And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain. Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours;

Many a time we base our faith based on our connections ,education or influence .Apostle Paul here reiterated that never glory in men. This means never base your trust on men for it is God who owns everything and if we are in him we also own everything. Hallelujah.

The apostle went on to say ,"...all things are yours.." The word doesn't say some things are yours but all things are yours .The promotion that you want is yours ,the position that you cry for is already yours .God gave us everything that pertains to godliness and life .You have all things at your disposal, just see it, speak it and possess it in the name of Jesus.

Today rise up and possess everything that belongs to you, for all things belong to you.

Nothing can resist you if you know that everything is all yours.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

FURTHER STUDY

Psalm 50:1-14

Romans 5:5

And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

Love is a force that goes beyond any circumstance and where there is love there is always liberty. Remember for even God to save the world, he was driven by his love towards humanity. His love for humanity pushed him to the limits by giving his "only begotten son". We are standing tall today because of unequivocal love and we are products of his generous gift of love.

Most people when they read the Bible they think the greatest commandment for us as Christians is to love as Jesus mentioned in the gospels. That word is not for us brothers and sisters but those who were in the old covenant, before Jesus died and rose from the dead. As of you and me our word is in Romans 5, " ...the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts.." we don't love by commandment but by nature. Our hearts are marinated in love.

Be an embodiment of love today and demonstrate love to the world for our God is love. Love gives so don't just expect it but be the first one to demonstrate it and show its fruits. Hallelujah.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I'm an embodiment of love. I love not by commandment but by nature. Today I chose to demonstrate love to my world and my God gives me power both to will and to do in the name of Jesus.

2 Corinthians 5:17

Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new

The flesh is always weak and associated with all manner of failures .Remember Jesus said something very profound during his Gethsemane agony that , "...the spirit is willing but the flesh is weak.." The disciples could have tarried with their master but the flesh was weak and weary .

The word human comes from the word humus which means dust. This is a half-baked description of a man. The Bible says we are new (Greek -kainos) creature. We are not just new but never existed type of specie .We are born from above not from beneath and no limitation of the flesh can touch us because we are not of this world, we are born from above and all the elements of the flesh cannot touch us. Hallelujah!

You are a spirit ,possessing a soul and living in a mortal body. The real you is a spirit and that one is more attuned to the divine .Today declare over your life that no element of this world shall touch you because you are born from above, you are in this world but you are not of this world. No sickness ,stagnation or poverty shall come near you because you are a different species.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

2 Corinthians 5:20

Ephesians 6:18 (Amp)

Pray at all times (on every occasion, in every season) in the Spirit, with all [manner of] prayer and entreaty...."

The Amplified translation of Ephesians 6:18 makes the higher purpose of prayer clearer than other versions. Prayer is very important. Oftentimes, when we talk about prayer, what comes to people's mind is asking God for things, making entreaties and requests; that's all they've known about prayer.

Yes, such a prayer has its place, where you make requests, but prayer has higher purposes than asking God for your needs. Praying for material needs, that is, asking God for something for yourself is actually the lowest kind of prayer. When you pray like that, you're praying at the babyhood stage; it's the prayer of spiritual babies. Someone could pray, "Oh God, I need a job," or "Lord, I need some money," or "Dear Father, give me a car, a wife, a husband, a house etc."; but that's the lesser purpose of prayer.

There're higher purposes of prayer. One of them is fellowshiping with the Father through the Spirit. Another higher purpose of prayer is the privilege to exercise our authority in Christ. There, you take your place of authority and cause things to happen within the ambits of the power given to you by Christ Jesus. Thirdly, prayer helps us to activate and walk in the consciousness of the divine presence. Fourthly, through prayer, we enforce the will of the Father in the earth.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I have the word of God in me and my prayer is according to the will of God. I shall not pray amiss for God himself gives me the power to will and to do. My prayer life is taking a new shape in the name of Jesus!

1 Corinthians 3:21-22

Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours; Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;

It sounds awkward when I say you have power over death or life. You can choose either of the two. Now the biggest question ringing in your mind right now is , "...are those all relatives of mine who passed on chose to die?"

Get what the scripture is saying. The bible says all things are yours, not some things .It went on to say whether death or life, it's all yours. This means everything is under your power or jurisdiction. You can either choose death or life. In Deuteronomy, God said I place before your life and death, choose life. It seems it's all by choice because can-not say chose life if it's not by choice.

Go for life today and allow every area of your life to be filled by a life giving spirit. Death and life lies in the power of your tongue. Speak life in you. physical body, ministry, family ,business and all in the name of Jesus.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I have a spirit giving life in me and my tongue is a source of life. I decree and declare, long life filled with joy and prosperity in the name of Jesus!

Deuteronomy 30:15-20, Proverbs 18:21

1 Thessalonians 5:5,

For ye, are all children of the light, and children of the day; and are not children of the night, and children of darkness.

The sun and the moon have a wonderful relationship. The moon isn't a light; it's a very black substance, and yet it reflects the light it gets from the sun. So sometimes, we say we're like the moon, while Jesus gives us light to reflect. This is a powerful idea, but it's not the best. God doesn't regard us as the moon that reflects the light of the sun. Yes, the Bible says Jesus Christ is the Sun of righteousness (Malachi 4:2), but who are we?

In the verse above, the Spirit, writing through the Apostle Paul, was addressing Christians; He's talking to you, and He minces no words in describing you. He says you're light! You're born of God, of His Word, which is light, so you're the offspring of Light. The Spirit expresses the same thought in Ephesians 5:8. It reads, "For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light" (NIV). How interesting this is! It doesn't say you were in the darkness; it says you were darkness, but now, you're light. This means you can also declare with audacity, as Jesus did, "As long as I'm in the world, I'm the light of the world!"

When those in the world say "there is light at the end of the tunnel", as for you child of God you shall say I'm the light in the tunnel and I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. If you wait for the light at the end of the tunnel, the darkness in the tunnel will swallow you (John 1:4).

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am the light of the world. I shine forth effusively, illuminating my world with glory and virtue. Through me many are turning to Christ, are transferred from darkness into God's marvelous light, and from the power of Satan unto God. Praise God!

FURTHER STUDY

Matthew 5:14-16

Acts 16:25

And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

Some of the situations that befall us in life are meant to distract our focus from the source of life. I have seen many who have their communion with God determined by the circumstances around them.

When there is money streaming from their businesses, they can easily worship but when things go in a wrong way even their worship or prayer life dwindles. Apostle Paul and Silas learnt not only to pray but to worship, even when they were in chains (Ephesians 6:19). It doesn't matter what situation you face in life, don't allow your experience to dictate your mood or interfere with the joy of the Lord in your heart. In your life, see challenges as opportunities to manifest the glory of God; that way, you'll always be full of joy.

Learn to worship your way out of challenges and situations that may seem or appear to be stubborn like Apostle Paul and Silas. They didn't say we will not pray and worship God because we are in chains, they still found time for God. Confuse the enemy by praising your God even when things are not so good. God remains God whether we are facing challenges or not, so today let your spirit bubble forth in joy and praises. Hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

From today nothing has the power to distract me from worshipping and serving my God. I am no longer a victim to circumstances of life. My God remains God in the midst of all circumstances. Hallelujah!

FURTHER STUDY

Ephesians 5:18-19

Ephesians 5:18-19

And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit; Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord.

The fact that you received the Holy Spirit at a specific time does not mean you will always be filled with Him. Being filled with the Holy Spirit has to be a daily experience, in the same way you drink water every day. You don't get filled with the Spirit simply by saying, "I'm now filled with the Spirit." There are things to do that get you filled with the Spirit.

As a child of God, you should always enjoy His presence every day. In the verse above, there is a clear outline of how to live a life of being constantly filled with the spirit. He lets us know the way to do it is by "...speaking to yourselves..." For those without light this seems to be a high level of madness, but that God for the bible says God uses the foolish things of this world to confuse the wise. Hallelujah!

Firstly, you have to learn to speak to yourself Psalms, these are spiritual poems sung or spoken to God in worship. Secondly you have to learn to speak to yourself Hymns, these are songs of thanksgiving and praise directed to or about God. Spiritual songs are prophetic songs of God's Word that come to you from the realm of the spirit, sometimes in other tongues. Fourthly learn to "make melody in your heart to God," the melody might not sound nice to someone else who hears it, but you will get blessed as you sing to the Lord. This might not make sense but to God it makes faith. When you feel like singing don't resist the spirit just spring forth in the direction of the spirit. Everything might be out of key in the realm of the natural but you are edifying yourself in a special way. As you read this prophetic word for today, let your spirit spring forth in tongues, songs and hymns in the name of Jesus.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

All things are working together for my good and my lines have fallen for me in pleasant places. I can never be disadvantaged in life for I operate from a mountain top perspective in the name of Jesus!

FURTHER STUDY : 1 Samuel 30:6, 1 Chronicles 16:9-10, Acts 4:31

Ecclesiastes 8:4

Where the word of a king is, there is power.

One aspect about our Lord Jesus Christ was that he reigned and functioned as a king even before he was crucified. Even in the face of adversity, standing before Pilate Jesus knew he was a king; John 19:10 Then Pilate said to Him, "Are You not speaking to me? Do You not know that I have power to crucify You, and power to release You?" 11 Jesus answered, "You could have no power at all against Me unless it had been given you from above. Therefore, the one who delivered Me to you has the greater sin."

The only reason why Jesus had to be crucified was for the prophecies of the prophets of old to be fulfilled. He could have called ten thousand angels to destroy the world and set him free, but he chose not to. He clearly knew that Pilate had no power over him. Whatever Jesus uttered would come to pass.

Do you know that we are kings? The bible tells us that Jesus washed us from our sins with His blood and made us kings (Revelation 1:5-6). The power of a king is not only on his crown but his words. As kings and priests we have power to decree and declare things into being and it shall be established. The word of God in your mouth is a force, use it to create a better future, glorious ministry and a fruitful destiny.

From today, whatever you bless shall be blessed, and whatever you curse shall be cursed. Whatever mountain you shall command to move, shall be moved (Mark 11:23). The power of life and death is in your tongue. Use your words to chart the course of your life, speak only those things that are consistent with God's word concerning you.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The word of God on my lips brings healing, prosperity and deliverance. I walk in victory today. I decree and declare love, peace and prosperity in the name of Jesus Hallelujah!

Philippians 4:13

"I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me."

If you believe you are a failure, you have already failed before you even started. As a child of God you should know that God's ability is at work in you. Rather than living the rest of your life in misery, defeat and weakness, begin to speak and utter God's grace over your own life. His grace is made perfect in our weakness (2 Corinthians 12:9) Through the power of the Holy Spirit, you are filled with an unfailing strength.

Romans 5:6 says, "for when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly." You might have been weak and timid before you received the good news of Jesus Christ, but now in Christ you live, move and have your being. You would easily give up when confronted with the situations of life, but when the gospel came, and you embraced it, you were turned from within by his divine power. From today be bold and courageous, be audacious in faith; you can face any crisis and win. Be resolute to do big things for the Lord. God has granted you the ability in Christ. Failure is not an option for you, beloved of God. No matter what you face today, and you may be facing seemingly impossible obstacles in your life, you can boldly declare, "my ability is of God; the greater One lives inside of me."Hallelujah .

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The Spirit of God lives in me. My ability is of God, and I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. Nothing shall be impossible for me today! and I boldly declare I will never be a failure!

FURTHER STUDY

Acts 17:28-30

1 Corinthians 15:57

But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

God can turn water into wine, but cannot turn your whining into winning. As a child of God when you go through challenges, don't complain! The Lord knew there'd be challenges, but He gave us the assurance that we will be triumphant always: "Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place"

In the face of adversity learn not cry, learn not complain but be like Apostle Paul as in our opening scripture who gave thanks to God, who was the guarantor of victory. Apostle Paul even thanked God for victories that were to come. He had cultivated a winning mentality, he knew that he could achieve and do anything through Christ who strengthened him. Don't think of defeat, failure or weakness, be thankful to God for past and present victory and have gratitude for the deeds God is already doing in your life. A person who is filled with gratitude is a person of constant victory.

Be conscious of the fact that God's intent for your life is to give you victory. The word giveth is the Greek word DIDOMI [to supply, furnish, to give something to someone to his advantage] Your victory is a settled fact. Nothing is, and can ever be to your disadvantage. The victory that comes from the LORD will leave no trace of the enemy's presence in your life. IT IS A PERMANENT VICTORY. Child of God walk in that reality and you will not be perturbed by the challenges of life.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Grace has put me in a place of advantage and I have been positioned for permanent victory and success in life. Even as the world battles a downturn, with major economies failing, I still have the advantage because I am a child of grace. I am walking in permanent victory and the devil has nothing on me.

1 Corinthians 14v 18

I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

Apostle Paul had gotten a revelation about speaking in tongues that no one had. Remember this apostle was not even part of those who physically walked with master Jesus, he was one of the least when we talk of time of venturing in ministry but somehow he had a revelation of the word that even confounded other disciples. The span of his ministry was filled with deep revelation of the word, miracles, signs and wonders. What was his secret? The secret is in our scripture above; he spoke in tongues more than all of them.

Tongues are a spiritual language that goes beyond our natural senses. Your mind can even argue with you simply because it doesn't understand them but as you speak you change your environment and the power to effect change is generated. The bible says when you speak in tongues you edify yourself, this is like recharging a battery. As you are reading this prophetic word, bubble forth in tongues and edify your spirit. When your spirit is nourished, it will affect your natural world.

Praying in tongues positions your spirit for greatness and sets your life as an antenna for heaven. Apostle Paul in this scripture has actually identified a fault in believers today. We pray more with our earthly language instead of tongues. Today start Praying in tongues more and watch as power well up in you and catapult you to higher dimensions.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Today I build myself up in my most holy faith by praying in the Holy Ghost. My spirit is ignited and more attuned to the divine in the name of Jesus!

Jude 1v 20

Matthew 5 v14

Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid.

The scripture says you are the light of the world and you cannot be hidden. What a bold declaration? The Lord is saying you are the light not you shall be light which means right now no matter the situation you are a divine illumination. The devil might try to bring a dull cloud unto you but don't be perturbed, reflect the light of God's spirit which is inside of you.

When you have light, you cannot be hidden. No words or power can hide your gift, talent or vision. You have all what it takes to change the course of your life. Arise and shine for thy light has come. In you there is no room for failure because God has already set you on a place of effectiveness. You are set on a hill where nothing shall obstruct your illumination. The enemy might try with all his might but he will never win over you.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,

And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again.

The reason for your existence is your mission. Like a soldier in the army, when your assignment lapses you have no reason to stay. Jesus had an effective ministry though he ministered on this earth for a very short time. The impact of his ministry is forever seen. He was more attached to his assignment and mission. When you know your assignment, you won't be distracted by anything. Hatred, contempt or words cannot shift you from your purpose. According to our scripture for today, Jesus always uttered his mission that the son of man shall come, betrayed, crucified but rise on the third day. When he finished that mission, he had no reason to stay but to check out. Nothing took him away before his mission because his focus was so clear. He was here for the redemption of mankind through the cross.

When he finished that mission, he had no reason to stay but to check out. Nothing took him away before his mission because his focus was so clear. He was here for the redemption of mankind through the cross.

Don't let anything distract you from your purpose. You carry a higher assignment of God and it needs no turning back. The world is waiting for you and eagerly waiting for your manifestation. Never allow the echoes of this world to disturb you. Stick to the mission and you shall see the mighty hand of God. Hallelujah.

For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

Christianity is a confession of our faith, which means it has something to do with uttering some words of courage and faith. When you are endowed with the power from on higher, you can't help but speak. When you need your victory at all cost, learn the art of speaking. You are where you are because of the words you said or the ones you didn't utter.

Jesus said if you have faith, you can, you can say to this mountain. This means it was a specific mountain which was being addressed through the spirit of Faith. Right now as you read this word, you have your own mountain which might be sickness, educational failure, ministry and all but change your situation by speaking to your mountain through the spirit of faith. Faith should be demonstrated for it to produce results in our life. We have to be bold enough to speak to our situations and effect change.

We are meant to live by faith because it has power to effect change. Now the just shall live by faith (Hebrews 10 vs 38). Faith is a possessor, when you speak faith-filled words, trouble will run, disease will vanish and no obstacle will stand in your way. Speak bolts through the spirit of faith and cast away every mountain standing before you.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

By faith I remove every obstacle in my way. I speak endless victories in everything I do in the mighty name of Jesus.

Genesis 13:9 KJV

Is not the whole land before thee? separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.

Poverty is not the absence of resources; it's the absence of an imagination. You see, financial prosperity requires a particular mindset. Without that mindset, you can't be rich or enjoy lasting success. Abraham, who was rich, is a good example of such a mindset, a millionaire's mindset. When squabbles rose between him and his nephew's workers, he told the young man to choose the land he saw fit to move to. It was obvious Lot would choose the land that looked most fertile; and that's exactly what he did. On the other hand, for Abraham to give him the first option to choose it's because he knew that he had a mindset that transforms any location.

Abraham believed and was so convinced that he would make it in any location. Do you see that? A millionaire mindset sees possibilities and believes all things are possible. It believes it can generate something good out of any environment. Your situation might be harder and seemingly unchangeable but start to effect a change. You have the inherent power of God inside you, use it to alter your circumstances. Decree a thing and it shall be established.

Understand one important fact, "it is impossible for you to think anything that is impossible!". As long as your mind can contain it, your hands shall touch it. Today believed that you have the mind of Christ and you function exactly like him. Nothing shall be impossible for you.

God made a bold claim about us; He calls us gods. As a child of God, you possess an extraordinary being possessing extraordinary capabilities. We are new creatures in Christ (2 Corinthians 5:17) and can function like God functions. Remember you were created in his image which is the look and his likeness which is functionality. You have to function like Papa God.

When God saw darkness hovering upon the face of the earth, he didn't not cry, he just spoke what he wanted. He said, "let there be light" and there was light. What-so-ever thing you desire in your life is determined by what you say as a God. Create a life that shows

When one hears the word meditation, they immediately think of Eastern religious practices. The picture they have makes them avoid the topic altogether fearing that they might be dabbling in the demonic. But meditation is one of the most important and necessary Christian practices.

Our text shows that it is through meditation that we can have good success. This implies there is bad success.

Bad success is having a good house but living under fear of bank repossession; having no fuel or a marriage devoid of peace, joy

Then I will command my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years.

GOD is supernatural. It's amazing how people tend to doubt His miracles and disbelief what contradicts their knowledge. You cannot approach God with logical reasoning; He is a miraculous being. And most of the times His acts can't be explained in accordance with human logic (1 Corinthians 2:14). He uses the foolish things of this world to confuse the wise.

Imagine what He says here in Leviticus. He tells the Israelites that in one harvest season, they will reap enough food to last three years! That's supernatural financial provision. There is Grace resting upon your life that for very small effort you shall have a great harvest.

I tell you, it's possible for you to eat food and have it never run out (1 Kings 17:16). Phenomena like this and miracle money which the Lord has graced me to constantly move in, are proofs of this. They are signs of the limitless financial possibilities in God. May you enjoy His supernatural provision in every area of your life in the name of Jesus.

Most manufacturers add a preservative to their products. The preservative acts as a buffer against anything that is known to attack the product. Because of a preservative, a product lasts longer and maintains its quality & potency. Sometimes a product might be exposed to harsh conditions but it will still maintain its potency because of a preservative.

Now, The Bible says God will preserve you. He will protect and guard you against all possible harm. That means inside you is something that acts as a buffer against enemy attacks. So no matter what the devil throws at you, it can't destroy you. God knew it beforehand and designed you to overcome it! No weapon fashioned against you shall prosper.

And just as preservatives are meant to protect a product from damage for a particular period, you too are covered in this current age until our Lord returns in glory. You have nothing to be afraid of at all; you shall not die prematurely.

You shall live to declare the works of the Lord.

When you worship him, don't act as if you are pitiful about him. He has it all and it's a Privilege to be called his.

There is a problem where many believers tend to feel like they shouldn't ask too much from God. They feel like they are bothering Him and being a nuisance. That's a wrong understanding of His loving nature. He is more than willing to lavish wealth on you.

His supply is limitless and will never diminish no matter how much He gives out! He really yearns to prosper you beyond your wildest imagination (Ephesians 3:20). So break those barriers in your mind and increase your de-

The Bible says that you shall decree a thing and it shall be established unto you (Job 22:28). What-so-ever you say by your mouth shall manifest as it is. Take good care of your tongue because it has power to build or destroy your life. The bible says that we are come unto my mount Zion; unto an innumerable number of angels. Let it stick in your mind that you are a resident of Zion and in Zion there is a language of Zion. Our language is not a language of failure even when things are not looking so good. We maintain our positive utterances.

I am a citizen of Zion; for this the Bible says, in Isaiah 33:24, "And the inhabitant shall NOT say, I am sick"; therefore, I do not say I am sick. This is the master recipe of all time when God says "they shall not say I'm sick ..." The idea is not on the sickness but on what you say before and after the coming of a circumstance.

The scripture demands us to have an enlightenment in our minds and our imaginations. The word "understanding" in Greek is the word "dianoia" which means imagination. As long as your imagination is dead, you can never create anything valuable.

The word you feed on everyday has power to affect or shift your imaginations and when your imagination is changed it will affect your outside world which includes your health, business, education and all

And the hand of the LORD was on Elijah; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel

There's such a thing as the speed of the Holy Ghost, where you achieve and accomplish things supernaturally. It's part of the ministry of the Holy Ghost in our lives: He causes us to accomplish feats that are beyond human comprehension, and in record time.

For EXAMPLE, after the Holy Ghost came on the Apostles, on their first day of evangelism, three thousand souls were won and added to the Church (Acts 2:41)! During their next outreach, 5000 men (women and children not counted) were added to the Church (Acts 4:4). These were supernatural achievements and divine speed operation.

Today, it's even greater, because the Bible says the glory of this latter house shall surpass the former (Haggai 2:9). We're moving with the speed of the Holy Ghost to accomplish extraordinary results for the Kingdom. Romans 9:28 says, "For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness..." (Rom 9:28). If you have a project to accomplish, do it with God's power and speed. You say, "Father, I have this project; I'm going to do it by the power of the Holy Ghost; it'll be excellent, it'll be on time, and it'll create more opportunities for me and others to accomplish greater things for the Kingdom, in the mighty Name of Jesus!"

It's a new day; it's the day of the Lord's power, and great things are happening with us, to us, and through us. We read in our opening verse that Elijah outran Ahab's chariot. Those horses were the most sophisticated but still Elijah overtook him because he was now moving in the dimension of the above and nothing of the natural was going to challenge him.

See, I have given into thine hand Jericho, and the King thereof, and the mighty men of valour.

The importance of visualization is that you SEE things before they happen. The very foundation of Christianity is about visualization. God Himself saw the world first before he made it. In today's scripture, Joshua is told by God that the battle he was about to engage in was already won – he just had to 'see' it!

You see, the devil wants you to only see what is wrong about your life, to see only the bad and the more you focus on this negativity the more it takes root in everything around you.

2 Corinthians 4:18 says; "we look not at the things which are seen we are looking at the things which are not seen".

So take your eyes away from the wrong things. Visualize yourself healed, visualize yourself wealthy, visualize peace and joy in your home. See yourself travelling yet you've been denied that visa.

You have already won!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I see the best in everything around me. I see myself soaring above every negative situation. Every battle has already been won, I am untouchable - Thank you Lord Jesus!!

Deuteronomy 32:10

He found him in a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; he led him about, he instructed him, he kept him as the apple of his eye.

God is the quintessential Lover, and He desires intimacy with you. When you understand this, as you look at His Word, you will recognize that it is God's love letter to you. He uses words such as our scripture for today to express and communicate to you the unfathomable depths of His love for you. You are "the apple of His eye," which is a Hebrew idiom that can be translated literally as "the little man of the eye." You are not ignored; you are not invisible. God, who sits in the Heavens with the Earth as His footstool, constantly has His eyes on you. Hallelujah!

The Bible says that the eyes of the Lord are too pure to behold anything evil. That means as He beholds you, He sees nothing evil about you. He only sees what is right and beautiful about you. He sees His very own righteousness in you. You are the one He loves and cherishes above all else. You are the image He sees reflected in the very centre of His eyes. And like a true lover, He also wants to be the image or apple of your eyes. He wants to see Himself reflected in your eyes. But how do you lovingly gaze at the invisible God? You do that by looking into His Word. As you gaze at the Word, you are gazing at the beautiful image of your darling Lover.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony ...

There is a law in physics that says for every action, there is an equal and opposite reaction. However, there is a law that is superior to the laws of physics or any other natural law. It is the law of faith. That law says that there is an action you can take in the natural – a force you can apply – that will cause a greater spiritual reaction. Faith makes it possible. When you believe what the Word of God says about you, there is a corresponding action you can make in the natural that will force a spiritual reaction and give you your miracle.

The Bible tells us that we overcome by the word of our testimony. Many Christians miss the revelation in this. They understand that verse to mean that you testify after you have overcome that difficulty or challenge that you are facing. But that is not what it says. It says that you overcome by the word of your testimony. You see, faith is not reactive. It is proactive. It is a force that, when applied, prevails over every obstacle. That means you do not have to wait until the pain is gone to testify of your healing. You do not need to wait until you see millions in the bank before you declare yourself rich. You can testify of your permanent residency in the country of your choice before you ever see the physical visa. Apply the law of faith and force your miracle into manifestation by the word of your testimony.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I decree and I declare that my miracle is in my mouth. By faith, I step into my future and claim every blessing that has my name on it. Success is mine. Riches are mine. Healing is mine. Peace is mine. Victory is mine right now, in the mighty Name of Jesus!

You are not ordinary. In fact, there is nothing ordinary about you. Ordinary people are employed to work in days. Your days, however, are employed to work for you. Ordinary people go to bed at night anxious about what will happen tomorrow. They wake up the next morning worried about what will happen that day. But that is not the life for you. The scripture for today tells you that your tomorrow is employed by God to do all the worrying for you.

That leaves only today, and today has also been given its assignment. It is created by God to be a container for your joy. The Bible tells us that this is the day that the Lord has made. Your duty is to rejoice and be glad in it. This day exists to provide a space in time for you to rejoice in. Not one second of today is allocated for worry, fear, or doubt. When you look at the clock, no longer see it as minutes ticking by in your day. Instead, face each day knowing that you have 86,400 seconds of joy to experience and explore.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, Let there be ...

The Bible tells us that in the beginning, the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the deep. That word moved means to flutter in constant imagination of an outcome. You have been endowed with the same divine superpower. You also have the ability to flutter in constant imagination of an outcome. Your fluttering looks like muttering. That is what true meditation does. You see, what the Holy Ghost was doing was meditating. He was thinking deeply about the outcome He desired. Through the agency of His imagination, He framed it like a picture in His mind. Then He declared the things He saw and brought them into being.

As Christians, we have a superior way of meditating. We do not empty our minds as we meditate as the world does. Instead, we fill our minds with the Word of God that pertains to the future or outcome we want to create. Then we mutter, speaking to ourselves - the face of the deep - the things we want to see, do, and become. Your mind is the vision board of your future. No matter how extraordinary that thing you desire seems, if you can think it up, you can bring it down. Take a picture of your future using the lens of the Word. Frame it in your mind using your imagination. Then speak it into existence.

Did you know that every world-class airline carries salt on board? If you have ever flown in an aeroplane, you have seen it, but you may not have realized what you were seeing. When you fly economy, as you board the plane, you pass through a certain area where only a select few are allowed to travel. It is called first class. In that area, everything looks different. The fabric and arrangement of the seating are of superior quality to that in economy. The accessories and accoutrements are designed with a person of class in mind. First class is designed for the person with a certain style and flavour. That person is you.

We always say that Spirit Embassy the Good News Church is a church of class. There is something about us that sets us apart from the rest, a certain revelation that we have understood, that the demoniac in our scripture for today also understood. Before his encounter with Jesus, this man was running around looking ragged. The way he carried himself reflected his spiritual condition. But after his deliverance, he had become salt. And the first thing that changed about him was his fashion, the way he dressed. When you have an encounter with Jesus, there should be a visible transformation. How you look on the outside ought to reflect the change that has taken place on the inside. You are no longer an "economy" person. You are first class, the one people pass by and desire to become.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

You have the potential to be as rich or richer than Mark Zuckerberg. It does not require you to take on a new side hustle or work more hours. You have all the resources you need right now to do it. It is a superpower that you possess that, for many people, is underutilized. Yet, it is a God-given grace that is available for you to take advantage of. This Kingdom asset is a visible trademark of every Christian. In fact, it is impossible to be filled with the Spirit and not be rich in this way. What is this superpower that can make you richer than Mark Zuckerberg every single day of your life? It is a smile. Did you know that children smile as many as four hundred times a day? It is virtually impossible to be around a smiling child and not be filled with joy. A study found that it is very difficult to frown when looking at someone who smiles. Smiling is contagious. Smiling is such a powerful stimulant to the pleasure centre of your brain that even if you fake a smile, it releases feel-good hormones throughout the body that help you feel better. Chocolate, a well-regarded pleasure inducer, cannot match the power of your smile. British researchers found that one smile can generate the same level of brain stimulation as up to 2,000 bars of chocolate. The same study found that smiling is as stimulating as receiving up to £16,000 in cash. That's nearly $25k a smile. Become as a little child by enriching your life every day with a smile.

Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

It is possible to be God's friend. Not only is it possible, but it is also a right afforded to you exclusively as a child of God. This verse gives us a potent key to understanding the secret of friendship with God, and it is given to us by God Himself in the person of Jesus. He tells His followers, "I have called you friends; for [because] all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you." God says you're My friend because I make my Word known to you.

Do you see how easy it is to be called God's friend? His friend is the one who is ready to hear what He has to say, the one with whom He shares His secrets. The Church at large has grasped the revelation that God is love (agape). We must also understand that out of His agape love, He pours out His friendship love (phileo) in our hearts. He demonstrates His affection for you by sharing His Word with you. And when you give attention to the Word of God, you are demonstrating your readiness to be His friend and to receive His affection. You are taking an interest in what interests Him, and what interests God more than anything is that His Word is heard and believed. Even as you are reading this Good News today, you are being a friend of God.

Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

There are two ways you can become successful in this life: you can struggle to the top, or you can start at the top. Every person who has pioneered a dimension of success has the scars to prove it. They will tell you of their struggles and their failures. They will talk about their mistakes and their disappointments. Their success was an uphill journey, and although they eventually succeeded, it was a hard-fought victory. You can choose to go that way, but there is a better way.

Mentorship is a proven prototype. Jesus used the model of mentorship when He called twelve disciples, as well as you and I, to follow the path that He has set. A mentor is a shortcut to your success. With a mentor in your life, you do not have to start at the bottom. Their ceiling becomes your floor. You gain the benefits of their success without any of the struggles. This is what the Apostle Paul refers to as being "partakers of my grace." Today, grace is imparted to you to identify that set person whose revelation you live by, that person who has achieved that level of success that you desire whose grace will be the slingshot to catapult you to the top!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The grace of supernatural speed is activated in my life. What takes others years or months to accomplish, I achieve in record time. My eyes are open to see my helpers, and I walk in a prepared path. I will not miss an instruction or fail to honour the one who has been sent to lead me into prosperity.

FURTHER STUDY

James 4:6

Romans 13:11

And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

There is a three-letter word that is more powerful than any problem you are experiencing right now. It has the ability to shift your perspective from lack to abundance, failure to victory, sickness to healing, and disappointment to hope. It is a word that many people associate with delay. But it is endowed with expectation, abundant in anticipation, and pregnant with possibility. It is the power of "yet." I like the way the prophet Habakkuk put it. He said, "Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls: YET I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation." Hallelujah!

What gives you the audacity to be expectant even when it seems nothing is moving in your life, when you're surrounded by failure, when there's nothing to show for your hard work, when the economy is down, when there are nay-sayers all around you? It is the God of your salvation! He is a good Father, and His desire for you is only good. As long as He is in your life and you have access to hearing His word, you can and should expect everything good. Whatever looks like an impossibility is a lie. Only believe, and you will see and testify of the goodness of the Lord.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am not limited by my present circumstances because I am a child of the limitless God. Therefore, I expect good things to happen to me every day. I will never miss the right opportunities, and I will never be denied access to what is mine by divine right. I am a possibility thinker and an impossibility doer, and my God will go beyond anything I expect Him to do.

But by the grace of God I am what I am; and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

I am about to give you a secret that will revolutionize the way you do business, ministry, relationships, and life in general. We believe in being diligent in business, and the Lord Himself commands us to do business until He comes. But there ought to be a difference in the way we do business as Christians and how the world conducts its business affairs. Why should we be praying for what the world gets without prayer when there is a resource that gives you the right to work from a position of rest? There is a supernatural advantage available to you that puts you over in life. It is the advantage of grace.

Apostle Paul puts it this way: I laboured more abundantly than all of them, but it was not me, but the grace of God. Hallelujah! You can employ grace to work for you. The Word of God says that as you make Kingdom business your priority, "all grace (every favour and earthly blessing)" is available to you. As a giver, you position yourself so that every kind of grace – every favour and earthly blessing – is working for you. There is grace to receive profitable business ideas, grace to get clients, grace to take your business to another level, grace for marketing, grace for your products and services to be liked, purchased, and recommended grace for expansion, grace to dominate in your industry, grace to find a good spouse, grace to conceive. There are all kinds of grace! Every grace is appropriated by faith. You need only believe and speak the grace you want to see operating in your affairs. Whatever the need, there is grace for it.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I refuse to struggle. By the grace of God, I function from a position of rest. I am anointed for excellence and influence in the marketplace. I am a magnet for resources. Favour attracts the right relationships to me. I have the grace for fruitfulness; there is no barrenness in my life. Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear. We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak.

An art gallery is filled with select works of art that cannot be found everywhere. That is why people will travel from afar just to stand and gaze at them hanging on a wall. It is the duty of a curator to carefully identify, select, and collect the best quality pieces, then arrange them so that the presentation carries the intended theme. In a similar way, God has given you the power to curate your life. How do you do that? By carefully identifying, selecting, and collecting quality words, then arranging them so that the presentation of your life is what you want it to be.

Your words frame your life. That is why it is paramount that you be conscientized – aware of and intentional – about what you say. Don't talk too much. Instead, carefully identify and select words that bring you the most benefit. There are things that a Christian ought to say, and things a Christian ought never to say, because what you say, you create. Right now, your life is the product of words that you spoke and words you "gazed at" and believed. If your life is not all that you desire it to be, the good news is you can change it. Become a word curator. Right now, as you read these words, you are receiving grace – an anointing – to discern which words are suitable for the gallery of your life and which are not.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a word curator. My words are intentional and powerful. When I speak, I speak as God does and bring into being the things I desire. Therefore, before I speak, I exercise the mind of Christ in me, and carefully identify, select, and frame in my mind words that benefit me and those around me. My life is a work of art, and my success is guaranteed.

If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

There are some people who are, and will be, difficult to deal with. They are by nature cantankerous and seem to thrive where this is discord. No matter what you do or do not do, they find a way to be miserable and to malign others with their words. Our verse for today alludes to the fact that it is not always possible to live peaceably with everyone. But there is a key that lets us know what part we must play as Christians. First, we must understand something about what it means to live "peaceably."

Living peaceably means to make peace, to cultivate or keep peace, and to be at or live in peace. The first two meanings require the involvement of at least one other person. The fact is, you can desire peace, but the other person may not. That is why Apostle Paul interjects the key phrase, "as much as lieth in you." You cannot control what other people do or how they respond to situations. But you have complete control over how you choose to respond. You can always, and without exception, be at peace. It is your nature and right to do so. Misery, they say, loves company. But misery will never be comfortable in the company of those who choose peace.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I love everybody because love is my nature. I do not speak evil of anyone because I refuse to relinquish my power or my peace. No matter what negative words are spoken about me, I will not respond in kind. I refuse to be troubled by the words or actions of others. I choose to live in peace because peace is my inheritance.

Fort Knox is considered the most heavily guarded place on Earth. If you could somehow get past the 30,000 soldiers guarding the outside, you have to figure out how to get through the walls. The walls are made of granite, four feet thick, and held together by 750 tons of reinforcing steel and concrete. It is built to withstand any kind of attack. In fact, it is believed that the walls are so well fortified they could withstand a direct hit by an atomic bomb. Inside, if you manage to find your way through the maze of locked doors, you will be confronted by a 22-ton vault door to which a few people each hold a piece of the combination. No one person knows the entire combination. It is protected by the most advanced security technology. All of this and more to protect the gold inside.

Gold cannot think, speak, or see. It has no spirit or soul. It has no feelings, and it cannot love. Yet, it is guarded and protected to those extremes. How much more you? The God who created gold has deemed that no amount of gold is worthy of being compared to how precious and valuable you are to Him. If man can go through such extremes to protect inanimate objects, know that your Heavenly Father has not left you unguarded or unprotected. You are His most prized possession, and you shall never be moved.

Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

The religions of the world have one thing in common. They all teach that there is something you have to do in order to get to God. Christianity is not like that. The tenets of our faith teach that it is impossible for you to get to God by your own efforts. Our scripture for today plainly tells us that no man can approach Him. He lives in an unapproachable light that no man can see or has seen. God, in that sense, is inaccessible to man. This might sound disappointing, but for the Christian, it is the most exciting news.

You see, God did something better than allowing us to approach Him. He approached us. Knowing that He is in a form you cannot touch, He came in a form that you can touch in the Person of Jesus. We could not look at Him in His real form, so He emptied Himself into a human body and declared "I am the Light" that we could look upon. Jesus is the extension of God's love for you. He is not preventing you from approaching that light. The only way you can approach it is from in Him. The Bible says that your life is hid with Christ in God. Once you are in Christ, you are no longer approaching that unapproachable light. You are in it.

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind ...

Some think financial prosperity isn't for Christians. They are wrong. God identified Himself with three people in the Bible – Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob – and each of them was super wealthy. In Exodus 3:6, God said to Moses, "... I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." Genesis 13:2 tells us that Abraham "was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold." The Bible says of his son Isaac, "And the man [Isaac] waxed great, and went forward, and grew until he became very great: for he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of servants: and the Philistines envied him." (Genesis 26:13-14). Jacob, too, had a similar testimony. The Bible says, "And the man [Jacob] increased exceedingly, and had much cattle, and maid servants, and menservants, and camels, and asses." (Genesis 30:43).

God's prosperity is not for a select few; it's for all who follow and live by, His Word. He said in 3 John 1:2, "Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth." If you have struggled all your life in lack, want, and penury, what you need is a new orientation, a new mindset. Change your language, consciousness, and thinking, and your situation will change. Romans 12:2 says, "And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind." Think and talk prosperity until your whole mentality isn't just overhauled but supplanted by the possibilities of a prosperous life.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

It is God's will for me to be rich, not only in revelation but also in money and financial assets. I am an heir of God and joint-heir with Christ. I am born into the wealthiest family on Earth, and prosperity is my birthright. Therefore, I have and maintain the consciousness of sufficiency and superabundance. All the wealth in this world belongs to me!

2 Peter 1:3-4

According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue; Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

I remember sitting with my wife in the first-class lounge at Heathrow Airport in London a few years ago, and, to my surprise, a headache got to my head. Words rushed immediately out of my spirit, demanding to be spoken. I declared out loud, "He took!" My wife, responding to my sudden outburst, said, "Took what?" I realized it was the spirit of faith speaking through me. I answered, "The Bible says, 'He took our infirmities.' Is 'took' the past tense of 'take?'" My wife answered in the affirmative. Then I said, "So, it's taken. Headache, you are taken!" Divine health is the birthright of every child of God. Jesus took every sickness, disease, and infirmity in His own body when He died on the cross. And when He resurrected from the grave, He did not bring any of them back with Him. Any sickness or infirmity you are dealing with right now is the result of an illegal transaction. Every evil work that God removed from your life, through the finished work of Jesus Christ, is illegal to be returned to you. Jesus paid for your good health with His own blood, and it is a non-refundable transaction. God has given you the gift of divine health. Refuse to accept the evil gift of sickness. Fill yourself with the knowledge of what the Word of God says about your right to divine health so that when the devil tries to convince you of sickness or any infirmity, that Word will rise up in your spirit and declare, "No returns!"

And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed. And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, and fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks.

We have seen countless miracles take place during our services. People have received notifications of miracle money being deposited in their bank accounts, credits being added to phone lines, money appearing in people's pockets, and credit scores increasing. The miracles that happen are undeniable and are usually responded to with tears of joy or shouts of praise unto the Lord. But those people would not be aware of the miracle that took place if they had not checked their pockets, purses, or wallets or checked their credit scores. The same is true when healings take place. The receiver will be instructed to do something they could not do before. There was one particular woman who received a tremendous healing miracle. Her stomach was distended as if she were pregnant. When healing was ministered to her, she did not even realize that a miracle had taken place. Someone had to point out to her that her stomach was now flat.

What is true of miracle money, miracle credit scores, and healing, is true of anything that you have focused your faith to receive. You must monitor your miracle. The ten lepers in our scripture for today all received a miracle, but we are told that only one of them "saw that he was healed." It did not say he felt or heard anything spectacular. He was simply paying attention to what might be happening in his body – looking for a change – and he saw it. Do not miss the manifestation of your miracle because you are waiting for the spectacular to take place. As soon as you receive the Word concerning your issue, start looking for any signs that something is taking place. Even if the initial signs seem to go against the result you are expecting, start giving God the glory, thanking Him for the miracle that has taken place, and you will surely come back with a testimony.

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

Faith is temporary. Most Christians have not been taught that. As a result, those Christians have been trying to get results with faith that is no longer working. The Bible tells us that faith is the substance of things hoped for. It is the substructure that makes the main building stand for those things you want to have that you have not yet seen with your physical eyes. Once you have seen it, you no longer need faith for it. Faith is temporary on that basis.

The main thing you need to know about faith is that you cannot use yesterday's faith today, and you cannot use today's faith tomorrow. Faith has to be now. Our scripture for today says "faith is," not faith "was" or faith "will be." And according to Romans chapter 10, verse 17, that faith "cometh" by hearing.

Faith has to keep coming, and it can only keep coming as you keep hearing. Faith does not come by hearing the Word of God. It comes by a hearing faculty, the process of hearing. That process of hearing comes by the Word of God. In other words, the Word of God comes in and produces hearing in you, and that type of hearing produces faith. Take time to hear the Word. It is for you to help you now.

Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

As Christians, we do not rejoice over the downfall of those who oppose us or those who set themselves against us. That would not reflect the character of Christ in us. Instead, rejoice that you are known by God and in Him, and His nature is at work in you. In ministry, we have experienced people persecuting us for no reason, saying all sorts of things about us. What they do not realize is that we are motivated, activated, and controlled by love. When love controls you, it makes you a master in life. Nothing moves you. Nothing causes you to get perturbed.

When the children of Israel came out of Egypt, they plundered the wealth of the Egyptians. They lived in Egypt as paupers, but they came out prosperous and persecuted.

As a child of God, you are destined to prosper, and with prosperity comes persecution. But when persecution comes, do not retaliate in kind. Speak evil of no one. When your enemies chase you, maintain your focus and keep moving forward. Just like God removed the wheels from the chariots of those who were chasing the children of Israel, your God is able to reduce the speed of the enemy. He is Jehovah Gmolah, the God who repays. Anyone who fights you is fighting the God who prospers you, and that is a fight they can never win.

But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost

On a previous day, we talked about how faith is now, and how faith that “cometh” by hearing requires us to keep hearing the Word of God concerning the thing we desire to change. We stand under that Word until we see the manifestation. Even though you cannot use yesterday’s faith today, there is a way to raise your faith to a certain level and never come down. That way, when your next faith target is set, you do not have to start all over again at the bottom building up your faith. You can start at the last level of faith you reached.

Faith is like a ladder that has no top. There is no limit to how high you can go, and it is the Holy Ghost who helps you move from one level of faith to the next. As you pray in the Holy Ghost, He props you up – boosting you to another level – with tongues, words that cannot be uttered in articulate speech. As you pray in tongues, you wedge your faith in place at the level of the Word or revelation you just received. It is like wedging a window open; your faith cannot be lowered. Find a time to pray. And as you pray in tongues, be conscious that you are wedging your faith – tell yourself you are at a higher level of faith. As you read our books, after you read a chapter, pray in tongues. As you listen to the messages we teach and preach and receive revelation, pray in tongues. As you do so, you wedge your faith at another level and lock that revelation into your spirit.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My faith is moving to another level. As I pray in the Holy Ghost, I pray with confidence knowing that I am praying from a superior level of faith. I am rising like an edifice, higher and higher. I am unstoppable, a world changer, and my exploits shall also be recorded in Faith’s Hall of Fame.

2 Corinthians 13:14

... The intimate friendship of the Holy Spirit, be with all of you.

The Holy Spirit is the most misunderstood Person of the Godhead, yet He is the One most present with us here on Earth. He is often relegated to the status of "it," or objectified as power or fire. He is often thought about only when people want something extraordinary to take place, like a thing to be used. Yet, the Word of God clearly shows that the Holy Spirit is a Person. He speaks, He has feelings, and what's more, He yearns for a relationship just as you yearn for a relationship. He longs to have a relationship with all Christians. More importantly, He wants to have a relationship with you. He wants to talk to and discuss things with you. He wants to be included in your conversations and involved in your day-to-day activities. And it hurts His feelings when He is ignored. Though the Holy Spirit is God, you do not pray to Him. Instead, you pray with Him. He is your greatest and most reliable prayer partner. When you pray, tell the Holy Spirit, "Let's pray together." That's what it means to pray in the Spirit or to pray in the Holy Ghost. Praying with the Holy Ghost does not mean you feel the Holy Ghost around you. Praying with the Holy Ghost means you literally tell Him, "You are my Partner, my Companion, my Friend. Come let's pray together." When you eat, don't ask the Holy Spirit to bless the food. Instead, invite the Holy Spirit to eat with you, then pray over and bless your food. He does not bless the food. He eats the food with you. When you shop, ask His opinion about what you should buy. Every morning, smile at Him and say, "Good morning, Holy Spirit!" Greet Him in the afternoon. Talk with Him throughout your day. And when you lie down at night, tell Him, "Good night, Holy Spirit."

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Holy Spirit, you are my best Friend, and I do not do anything without You. I am committed to cultivating my relationship with You. Because of You, I am never alone. Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised:)

There is a difference between confession and affirmation. Confession is when you declare something that you want to be true. Affirmation is when you declare something that you know to be true. You do not affirm in order to get. You affirm because you already got. The Bible speaks of the profession of our faith, but the word actually means affirmation. It is an acknowledgement of what you already possess. When you affirm something, it is more than just words coming out of your mouth. When you affirm something, you involve your body, you engage your emotions, and you speak from your spirit. Your entire being is involved, spirit, soul, and body. You are rich. That is a reality. When you affirm that you are rich, you don't just announce it like you are stating the time on the clock. No! You force your body and soul to come into alignment with the truth of the Word. You smile because of how rich you are. You sense the pleasantness of what it is like to be rich as you make your affirmation.

Muhammad Ali touted himself as the greatest boxer of all time. While he was undeniably a great boxer, his stats prove he was not the greatest. His final record was 56 wins out of 61 fights, stats that were bested by other boxers. But as far as he was concerned, he was the greatest of all time, and no one could convince him otherwise. He consistently affirmed it. Win or lose – and there were times he did lose – nothing could get him to change or stop his affirmation. That is how you must be with the Word which tells you the truth about who you are and what you have. Go with the Word consistently. Never let anything stop you from affirming who you are and what belongs to you.

But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

A lot of Christians are asking God for power. The truth is, no matter how much they fast, pray, declare, or cry out to God, He is not going to give them the power they are asking for because it was already given to them. The problem is, they do not know the power that they already have. You have been given power, dunamis, which translated from the Greek means inherent power – power that is residing in a thing by virtue of its nature. This is not power that you need to try to receive. As a Christian, you already have it. This power resides inside of you, but it will not do you or others any good unless you understand what you have.

Dunamis power – the power you have – is power for performing miracles. It is moral power and excellence of soul. It is the power and influence which belong to riches and wealth. It is power and resources arising from numbers. And it is the power consisting in or resting upon armies, forces, or hosts. The power you have inside you is miraculous power, ability, abundance, strength, and might. You are not waiting for power. You are a walking, talking powerhouse ready to take on any challenge and fulfil any mission.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Everything you desire is already here. The car you want, that four-bedroom house you drive by and look at every evening, all the cash you can carry, you name it. God is not sending any of that down from His dwelling place or sending angel Gabriel to deliver it to your door. He has already given you everything you need. But you say, I need money. I need healing. I need my marriage restored. I need my permanent visa. Where has God given me everything I need? The answer is simple: the Word is all you need.

People want me to prophecy a house or a visa, but you have something better than me prophesying to you. You have the Word of God, which the Bible says is a more sure word of prophecy. In fact, prophets who are of God speak the Word of God. The biggest condition of a word spoken to you by a true prophet is that you stay in the Word. The Word in your mouth is better than Jesus coming down from Heaven. That is the expression of your faith, and for those who deal with faith, the Word is enough. Only believe the Word of God and speak it in faith. Then, you would never need a prophecy.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Let each one [give] as he has made up his own mind and purposed in his heart, not reluctantly or sorrowfully or under compulsion, for God loves (He takes pleasure in, prizes above other things, and is unwilling to abandon or to do without) a cheerful (joyous, "prompt to do it") giver [whose heart is in his giving]

There is a difference between being important and being valuable. We are all valuable to God, but we are not all important. The Bible tells us that God sent His Son to die for the whole world. That is how valuable every single person is to God. But some manage to increase their value from God's perspective and graduate from being valuable to being important to Him. Today's scripture gives you a simple formula for getting on God's VIP – Very Important Person – exclusive list. There is something God prizes above all other things: above preaching, above prophesying, above prayer, even above soul-winning, and that is a cheerful giver. You see, money is a tool for moving God's Kingdom agenda forward. God Himself declared that money causes His cities to be spread abroad, not prayer, not preaching, not prophesying – money! Jesus spoke more about money than about Heaven and Hell combined. So, how do you make yourself a VIP to God? Be a giver who does not only give because the preacher asks you to give, but one who gives as the Holy Spirit leads at any given opportunity. And when you give, be joyful and quick to do it. He delights in the one who recognizes the privilege of partnering with Him to fulfil His purposes in the Earth and who takes joy in doing it. God dearly loves, is well pleased with, and is unwilling to abandon or do without such a person. Your attitude in giving can become your best insurance policy. It can guarantee you a permanent position on God's VIP list.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I have purposed in my mind and heart to be a giver. I am anointed to give, and as I do so, I am aligning my purpose with Heaven and fulfilling my priestly order. I bring joy to my Father's heart and cause the Gospel to reach the ends of the Earth. Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours.

Quite a few countries have their own credit scoring systems. It is a system by which an individual's financial information is disclosed to certain lending institutions to determine how good or bad of a financial risk you are. Credit scores can impact the amount and terms of loans, the cost of insurance, and how much money is required for a deposit on housing, utilities, or other things. If your credit score is low, you are left with the least favourable options, if any at all. If your credit score is high, more financial options are available to you and at better rates. That is why miracle credit scores have become one of the most sought-after miracles in our ministry. But there is something even better than miracle credit scores. It's called grace.

God did not check your credit scores in order to determine what He would give to you. He does not look at your past or present performance to decide whether you are good enough to qualify for the things that you want. He has qualified you with His own goodness and placed you in perfect standing with Him by giving you His own righteousness. The only collections on your record are goodness and mercy. Through His grace, He has made it possible for you to access whatever you desire. Do not fall into the trap of thinking God's response is linked to your performance. Society might have put you down and said that you were not good enough, but God has raised you up. You are qualified by His grace, and all things are yours.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I decree a thing and make it so by the Grace which is at work in my life. I am at the top and moving to greater heights. No man can disqualify me because God has qualified me. Therefore, there are no closed doors in my life, for the Grace of God has granted me access, and I will not be denied.

Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

There are many trends but not many trend-setters, because it is a difficult thing to set a standard that other people want to follow. It takes a certain grace to do that. For example, if you know that fashionable dressing is not your forte, the best thing is to find a mentor – someone who has mastered the art of fashion – and copy their style. See how they put things together, how they stand, how they move, how they walk, even how they speak. You do not need to reinvent the wheel and try to figure out how to start a new trend. The same is true in the financial realm. When you want to excel in a certain area of business, find someone who has conquered money and reached a certain level of financial dominion. Learn the best from the best, because quality is copied.

The same is true in ministry. That is why Apostle Paul could boldly say, follow me as I follow Christ. He knew that he was carrying a certain grace that no one else had. He was mentored personally by the Lord Jesus Christ, and he had a certain way of presenting the Gospel, a certain style and manner of speaking. The main reason churches don't grow is there are ministry leaders who put their own personality into the ministry when it was their mentor's personality that originally attracted the people. We do not have much time left before the rapture takes place. Now more than ever, you must take advantage of the grace that has been made available. Copy your mentor. Believe in him whom God has sent. Do what your mentor does, and you'll get your mentor's results.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

2 Corinthians 4:18

While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

There is a paradox that exists in the life of many Christians. From a strictly factual standpoint, they appear to be broke. They look at their bank accounts, and there is not one comma in their bank balance to speak of. There is only as much as a trinity of numbers. That's a fact. The reality, however, is it is impossible for you to be broke as a Christian. But until you have awakened to this reality, it is like a man entering a shop with multiple millions in the bank but is unaware of it. He moves around thinking he lacks resources to get what he desires, when in truth, he could own the whole store and the street it sits on. It is important for you to understand that there is a difference between facts and reality. Facts are based on temporal circumstances, things we see that can be changed. But truth is by definition constant and unchanging. The Bible says that faith comes by hearing. Hearing, in turn, comes from the Word of God which is truth – constant and unchanging. Faith is always available in the life of a Christian. That means you always have what you need to change your circumstances. Faith is the currency of the spiritual realm, and you are never without it. It is a gift given to you by God, and He will never remove it. You can never bankrupt faith.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I have everything I need to get my miracle. By my faith, I get my healing. I speak in faith and resurrect anything that appears dead in my life. By faith, I call money into being, pass my exams, get a new house, obtain a new building, grow my church or cell group, get a spouse, secure my marriage, and receive a child. I am not hopeless or helpless. I am too rich in faith, and it is impossible for me to go broke.

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.

In the Olympics, one of the most gruelling competitions is the triathlon. It combines swimming, distance running, and sandwiched in the middle is cycling. In the cycling leg of the race, competitors use an interesting strategy called drafting, a principle of physics that reduces resistance. The basic principle of drafting is the closer you get to the cyclist in front of you, the less air resistance you encounter. All of the resistance you would encounter is negotiated by the lead cyclist who is ahead of you. As a result, you work less, use less energy, and gain the advantage because of the work of the cyclist ahead of you.

Grace, like the lead cyclist or captain in a bike race, came to give you the advantage.

It clears a path of least resistance for you. If you find yourself getting worn out and expending unnecessary energy, that is a sign that you are doing all the work when grace should be working for you. Rather than trying to do everything on your own, use the physics of grace to your advantage. Physics is all about how things move and the forces that make them move. In the physics of grace, the Holy Spirit is your Coach – He will give you the best strategies; the Word of God is your compass giving you direction; faith is your bike – it is what you use to move towards your goal, and angels are on your team ready to serve and assist in whatever way you need. Stay close to the message of grace; keep it ever in front of you, and you will find yourself winning with ease.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The finished work of Jesus Christ guarantees my victory in every arena. I am focused on the finish line, set on the course that I must follow. By the grace of God, I push down my enemies and trample any obstacle that rises up against me. Indomitable grace is at work in me, and everything I am involved in prospers.

A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things.

Most people attend churches to get a miracle that money can fix. In fact, ninety per cent of prayer requests would disappear if the requesters simply had enough money. The Bible says that money answereth all things. That means wherever you see people struggling and arguing, the subject of money has been introduced. Everything is tied to money. The problem is many Christians who need money the most are the ones who speak most negatively about it.

Many Christians are uncomfortable talking about money because they were taught that money is inherently evil. It is not. Money is spiritual. It takes the form of its owner and listens to its owner. For example, the money of a drug addict becomes drug money. The money of a savvy business person becomes an investment that makes more money. The money of a giver becomes seed. Christians are the most qualified people to have money. We are the designated caretakers of the wealth of this world. You are supposed to have money, you and your generations. Learn to be comfortable talking about money in a positive way, especially if you want more of it. Practice, and keep talking about it. As you keep talking, money will answer.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Money will never be a problem for me. I have conquered money. I can get it at any time. When there is no money, I create it. My wallet has money. My bank account has money. I call money into being. Money comes to me from everywhere, in the Name of Jesus!

Hebrews 4:12

For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart

As we get into the festive season, it's so important for you as a Christian to understand and value the biggest GIFT you possess, which is the word of God. You might be going through the toughest time of your life and you're struggling to see a way out, but I have good news for you: the Word of God can lift you from where you are to your next level of glory and success. In today's scripture, we are reminded of the efficiency of this weapon we possess. So how do you make the word work in that situation right now?

First, personalise the word. Personalising it means you take it as God's Word to you personally, and then act accordingly. The word becomes a personal letter written to you by your father with full proof of every benefit that belongs to you. The Word won't work for you just because it exists in the pages of the Bible; you have to work it out. Use the Word to create and sustain your victories in life. Every time you study, hear or meditate on the Word, take possession of it; make it yours, and it'll become a force in your spirit that causes you to be a powerhouse.

The Lord Jesus said, "If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you" (John 15:7). This means that with the Word in you, you can ask anything you want, and even if it doesn't exist, it'll be created hallelujah! The Word in your mouth is a creative force; it brings miracles!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The word in me is my strongest weapon. I can speak anything into existence, and I always have a way out through the word. I shall never lose - forward ever, backward never!

FURTHER STUDY

Philippians 2:12

Philemon 1:6

That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus

Today's scripture touches so many people reading this right now. How many negative things have you said about yourself over the years? For your faith to be effective, you must acknowledge every good thing that's in you, in Christ Jesus. A lot of Christians only look for and acknowledge negative things in their lives. Statements like; "I have a bad temper. I never get anything right. I'm just a nobody; I don't know what is happening to me...." Talking yourself down like that will make your faith defective and ineffective. Instead, look and see the perfections of Christ in you.

Acknowledge every good thing in you in Christ Jesus. Never voice your seeming disabilities, disabilities, or frustrations; rather, affirm the Word and the good things in you. There are good things in you. If you don't know what they are, then look into the Word to find out. Galatians 5:22 highlights some of the good things in you: love, joy, peace, patience, gentleness, goodness and faith. These are features of your recreated human spirit. Acknowledge that you're loving, joyful, peaceful, patient, gentle, good and meek; otherwise, even with these virtues in you, they'll not work.

If you don't acknowledge who you are and what you have in Christ Jesus; you walk in darkness, living like ordinary men even though God has declared us to be gods. You are the God-kind. You're sufficient in Christ's sufficiency. The excellence of the Spirit is in you. Acknowledge and affirm this. Keep telling yourself that you are all that!!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am born of God therefore excellent. I see and say only the best about me. God has already told me who I am, and it shall remain so! I am excellent, I am successful, I am full of knowledge of the word, I am loved, I am a champion and I shall NEVER fail – I am ALL THAT!

FURTHER STUDY

Matthew 12:35; Psalm 82:5-7

Romans 8:28

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose

As a Christian, you can never be a victim of circumstances. You may have been evicted, you may have lost your job, business, and everything you once had but it shouldn't make you a victim. The fact that you went through terrible ordeals because your parents abandoned you while you were young shouldn't be an excuse for you to live as a victim. Face life's circumstances head-on, with the smile of a victor and the attitude of a king, because greater is He that's in you, than all the troubles in the world. The Word of God says, "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose" (Romans 8:28). This isn't addressed to everybody in the world, but to those that love God—the new creation—they're the ones for whom this will work. Everything in life has been programmed to work in your favour. There isn't anything that could happen on this earth to your disadvantage.

A Christian can only be defeated by his own choice, permission, or ignorance. God said my people are destroyed for the lack of knowledge. We're so blessed of God that even in the face of our own mistakes and errors, He doesn't blame us. He always has a way out. He's wisdom personified. When you're in any predicament, even if self-inflicted, right there in that trouble, in humility, say, "Lord, how do I get out?" "What do I do?" and in love, receive His guidance. He'll answer you faster than you would imagine. His love for us is what compels Him to relate with us that way. Therefore, no matter what happens to or with you, refuse to be a victim or be intimidated; you're a victor in Christ Jesus. Put the word to work today as a victor.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

By the Spirit of God in me, I can never be disadvantaged. All things are working in my favour because I love God. I am a champion; I am a victor, I am a success, I am excellent – Glory be to God.

FURTHER STUDY: Psalm 16:6

Matthew 4:4

...It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God...

There has never been a time when the world was so health conscious as it is now. Even major food companies are now lessening the content of sugar or salt in popular food items in a bid to help people stay 'healthier'. But with all this effort, still, there are those who from eating all the wrong things, have put their health in jeopardy.

It's the same thing spiritually. As a Christian, you must feed on the right information. You must feed your faith with the Word of God. Some Christians would rather feed their fears than feed their faith. You feed your fears when you give attention to wrong information. When you pay too much attention to negative things people say or keep the company of people who will never have anything good to say, you kill all the nutrients your spirit has gained through the right word which is the good news of Jesus Christ.

You see, the effect of feeding on wrong information may not be seen overnight; it can take time for one to start noticing that they're getting weaker and weaker spiritually. Before long, he's no longer as fervent in spiritual things as he used to be. Then, his life takes a completely different turn from God's original plan. Give attention to the right information. Fortify and energize your spirit for success with God's Word. As you feed your spirit with the Word, you'll be able to produce every good thing you.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am encouraged in the Word as I keep my eyes stayed on Him. I shall not be moved by the wrong news – I am motivated purely by the GOOD NEWS OF JESUS CHRIST – HALLELUJAH!!

FURTHER STUDY

Matthew 4:4

Luke 15:7

I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

In this era of social media, it's so easy for Christians to give attention to things that aren't so important. A lot of people strive to be famous and gain human recognition, but this is not what God wants. When you eventually stand before the Master, He won't ask for your degree or the awards you received from men or the wealth you amassed while on earth. Rather, He'll be interested in what you did with the Gospel in saving souls. It's clear from our scripture what God is after; He wants you to love Him and live for Him as His partner in soul winning.

Living for the Lord and partnering with Him to win the lost is the highest calling and greatest honour! Every soul on earth is valuable to God. He ransomed all men with the precious blood of His Son, Jesus. That's why when one sinner repents, there's joy in heaven. We therefore have the responsibility of taking His Gospel to the ends of the earth; the salvation of souls should be our passion.

Plan a personal soul-winning outreach during this Christmas period. The birth of Jesus has reconciled even the worst sinner to God. Talk to your schoolmates, tell your work colleagues, your hair stylist, your taxi driver - everyone you come in contact with.

Become a master soul winner!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I understand my purpose on earth: to be your light, a minister of reconciliation, pointing men to the good news of Jesus Christ. Thank you Lord for making me a master soul winner.

FURTHER STUDY

John 3:16

1 John 3:1

Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

I would like you to notice something in today's scripture. It begins with the word "Behold," which means, "See!" The same word is used in 2 Corinthians 5:17; it says, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." Now that you're in Christ, you ought to "see" that all things are now new.

If that isn't what you're seeing, it means you're looking at the wrong thing. You're not supposed to see the old, weak, sickly, poor and struggling "you"; that person doesn't exist anymore. You must see yourself differently now. Even if you gave yourself to Christ just last night, that 'old' you doesn't exist anymore. You might live in the same house or in the same job, it doesn't change the fact that you're no longer the same. You're now the God-Kind.

This kind of sight means to see from a spiritual standpoint, to see with the eyes of the Spirit. He wants you to "see" that you're righteous, prosperous, and sound. See that God has lavished His love on you and has accepted you. See that God is with you, and in you everywhere you go.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am worthy, I am righteous, I am not sickly nor am I poor. I see what God sees. Everything He said about me is the only truth I choose to see in the name of Jesus!!

FURTHER STUDY

2 Corinthians 4:17-18

Ephesians 6:13

Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day....

Some Christians think the evil day spoken of in today's scripture is some judgement day that will take place on the earth that will be so evil. It is not so. The evil day is when all hell breaks loose against you; it's when you receive an eviction notice, it's when the doctor breaks the worst news you weren't expecting! The evil day is when challenges suddenly arise at work; it's a figurative expression for the day of crisis.

This is the reason why, as a Christian, it's so important that you learn the Word of God in the days of peace, and have it inside you, so that in the day of crisis, you'll be untouchable. You see, in the day of crisis, it's only what you have inside you that'll carry you over to the other side unscathed. If you don't have substance of the Word in you, then the evil day will be just that to you – pure evil.

You can win every day by simply acting on God's Word.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I'm an overcomer in all things because your Word has infused me with the ability to do the impossible. The word is at work in me and producing results. I am ready for any evil day as I can withstand it through the word.

FURTHER STUDY

Colossians 3:16

Psalm 18:19

He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me

A common problem among some of God's people is this never-ending mindset of thinking God is happy seeing them living from pay-check to pay-check. As a Christian, you should have no sense of lack, disadvantage, or limitation. Whatever you're looking for, be it spiritual or material, you have an abundance of. "A large place" as pointed out in the scripture above means a wealthy place. Being born again, you're the seed of Abraham, and a joint heir with Christ. Essentially, this means the whole world belongs to you. It's too late for you to be poor or be counted as the poor. The only way you can be poor is by choice or ignorance, because God has already brought you out of poverty into your wealthy place.

God is delighted in you. Not because of what you've done but because of what Jesus Christ has done for you. You've already been delivered and brought into 'a large place' that knows no lack. Walk tall today knowing all things are yours. You've been delivered and brought into the land of milk and honey.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Today I am going to produce results. Everything I touch shall begin to flourish more than ever before. Thank you Lord for bringing me into my wealthy place.

FURTHER STUDY

2 Peter 1:3

Psalm 47:1

O clap your hands, all ye people; shout unto God with the voice of triumph

The kind of shout described here is not just any shout for the sake of it, it's a shout of victory. Some people shout out of fear, but in Christianity we shout in victory. We shout unto the Lord with the voice of triumph. It's like the shout the children of Israel gave in conquering Jericho. As they journeyed to the Promised Land, they got to Jericho, but the city was fortified with thick and imposing walls (Joshua 6:1).

The Lord, however, gave Joshua the strategy to conquer Jericho. It was the "shout strategy". Some people don't understand it when we shout; it's spiritual. The Bible tells us about Jesus, that He "...shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:" (1 Thessalonians 4:16).

There's no victory without a shout. When you face challenges, shout, not in exasperation, but in triumph. Even when you're not happy, shout! Even now, shout aloud with the voice of triumph; it's an act of faith. Shout and declare that you've won. The future can depend on your shouting; so don't keep quiet; shout your victory.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

As I shout a victory shout, everything that was standing in my way today is null and void in Jesus name. Thank you Lord Jesus – I have won!!

FURTHER STUDY

Psalm 5:11

Proverbs 4:23

Keep thy heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life.

As a Christian, you are to constantly read and meditate on God's Word so it can abide in your hearts. When your heart is filled with God's Word, you are protecting yourself from everything opposite of what the Word tells you. Guarding your heart is keeping you away from false doctrine, deceit, and unbelief. Your actions come directly from the things you think and believe. If your heart is overflowing with the right things, you will surely have the God-kind motives and you will move in that direction. Likewise, if your heart is overflowing with the wrong things, you will have bad motives and head down the wrong path.

What you listen to, and watch has a tremendous impact on your actions. Therefore, it is extremely important to load your heart with God's Word. What you speak over your life determines what is in your heart. "The tongue has the power of life and death and those who love it will eat its fruit." (Proverbs 18:21).

Your heart holds the concerns of your life when you don't load up on God's Word and this is why it is very hard to live a joyous life. Jesus said, "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." (John 10:10). When you find yourself in a bad situation, you can guard your heart by meditating on what God says about you.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

As I guard my heart with His Word, nothing shall remove me from my course. My eyes, heart and mouth are fixed on Jesus. Praise the Lord, I am full of His Word!

FURTHER STUDY

Mark 7:20-23

James 1:22

But be ye doers of the Word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

The type of deception in this verse is not owned by the devil. Actually, you deceive yourself when you just hear the Word and then go about your business. When you implement the Word, you get God-kind results. Some people believe that hearing the Word from their leader on Sunday's is enough. This is an error. You must load yourself with the Word and then go do it. You may not hit the ball out of the park the first time, but practice produces confidence. You can never fail to execute the Word!

Jesus will never tell you to do something that you cannot do. The Bible tells us that "I can do all things through Christ Jesus who strengthens us." (Philippians 4:13). The Word is a fail proof system, but you must work it for it to work. Hallelujah! If you want to lose weight, work the Word. If you want to make more money, work the Word. You are unstoppable with the Word!

You will not have victory from just hearing the Word. Change your strategy today if you know you need to implement the Word better. Going forward expect what the Word says you can have and do not settle for anything else. Keep working the Word even when it seems like nothing is changing because the situation must bow to the Word. Cheer up, the Word works!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I will hear and do what the Word says I can do. I am a proof producing Christian. I will never be deceived. Everything that was held up in my life is now released because of the Word working in me! Thank you Lord Jesus for the victory!

FURTHER STUDY

Luke 6:46-48

Ephesians 4:32

And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

Forgiveness is part of your DNA. Normally when someone is being rude or disrespectful, it is because they have an ought or grudge against that person. Christians must be kind and forgive others because Christ forgave us. This is not the easiest thing to do because forgiving someone seems like they are getting off the hook. Not so! When you align your character with the Word, you become more Christ-like and eventually forgiveness will be automatic.

Being tender-hearted is a strength, not a weakness. People will try to test you but since you are Christ-like, you will always pass your test. The Bible tells us that, "Only by pride cometh contention; but with the well advised is wisdom" (Proverbs 13:10). Wisdom will keep you on the 'kindness, tender-hearted and forgiveness' road. Keep walking on that road and you will disarm all contentious situations.

When you feel like you need to give someone a piece of your mind, remember what Christ has done for you. Being kind and forgiving people adds value to you, even if it doesn't feel like it. Visualize yourself treating everyone with kindness and forgiveness. You will be amazed at how fast you grow spiritually. Practice kindness and forgiveness today, you will have a brighter future because you did.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Christ has forgiven me, and I will forgive others. I will be kind to everyone. I will never hold a grudge or have unforgiveness. I am free in Christ Jesus!

FURTHER STUDY

Colossians 3:12-13

Galatians 4:7

Wherefore thou are no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

The moment you received the life of Christ, you became an heir of God. You are no longer a servant but a child that has access to all of the Father's benefits. Regardless of where you are in life, you are joint heirs with Christ. A servant begs for something but not a son or a daughter. Praise the Lord! You do not have to wait in line for anything, you have full access and authority. Keep rehearsing this daily and let it get deep down in your spirit. You are a child of God, the God-kind heir!

It may be difficult to see yourself as a joint heir with Christ. We must say what God says about us. When you are struggling with being a joint heir with Christ, make sure you are exercising this scripture, "Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ." (2 Corinthians 10:5). Never let your circumstances or past dictate who God says you are.

When you know you are a joint heir with Christ, your step and speech will be a witness. You are born from royalty and greatness lives in you! Never live beneath your God-kind benefits. Go and function as an heir with boldness. Nothing and no one can stop you. Shout because you are no longer a servant but an heir of God through Christ.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a child of God. I know I am a joint heir with Christ. Nothing will change my mind about who I am through Christ. Hallelujah!

FURTHER STUDY

Romans 8:17

1 Peter 1:16

Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy.

Holy is not a spiritual word that you must try to live up. The word holy simply means "to be separate". Put that revision into the scripture and you will get, "Be ye separate; for I am separate". Jesus is in a class all by himself. He has no competition. The word "be" is not a commandment but a more of a reminder of who you are. You do not become holy; you are automatically holy because God is holy.

You are not of this world. Once you have received the life of Christ you were removed from corruption and born of the incorruptible seed. This is good news! Read the Word daily to become more confident in who you are. You do not go to the places that you used to because of your works but because of the goodness of the Lord! He is far from any other god and so are you. Being separate is not a weakness. You stand out among the crowd when you do what the Word says you can do. People will be amazed and wonder how you obtain your results outside of the worldly system.

When you do it God's way, you get God-results. Begin to produce what the Word says you can do. Nothing can prevent you from making a mark on this earth. You have the Holy God backing you up and the Host of Heaven. You are victorious through Christ Jesus! You are not an average person; you are the God-kind.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am holy because God is holy. I will always make an impact wherever I go. I am different from the world because of Jesus. Praise the Lord!

FURTHER STUDY

John 17:14

Philippians 2:5

Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.

Did you know that you have the ability to function exactly like Jesus did on earth? You do. The same mind which was also in Christ Jesus is the same mind that He wants to be in you. Nothing short of it. This mind will cause you to dominate in every area of your life. This mind will have you walking and talking exactly like Jesus. Amen! You can have what the Word says you can have because you think like Christ.

The Bible teaches, "Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect," (Romans 12:2). You do not have to create any strategy on your own because the Word is already perfect. Trust and believe the Word, it will always work. When you think like Christ you will overcome evil with good.

Renew your mind by consuming the Word daily. You will not be associated with any worldly customs or values, but you will be loaded with Kingdom purpose. You will never question who you are or why you were put on this earth to do again. You have the mind of Christ. Shout because you have everything you need to fulfil the call on your life. Hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I have the mind of Christ. I think like Christ, speak like Christ and function like Christ. I know the will God has for my life. Thank you Lord!

FURTHER STUDY

1 Corinthians 2:16

Colossians 3:3

For ye are dead, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

Do not worry about what you used to be. Your life now is hidden in Christ. You do not respond to things the way you did before because you are dead to that old person. When Jesus rose with all power, your new identity was included. This new life is not based on your age, skin color or gender. It is simply based on the goodness of God. Your behaviour or speech might not change immediately but over time you will see the progress. You are hidden in Christ, old things have passed away, behold, all things have become new.

Your mind still has some memories of the old person, but you must believe and confess that you are a new creature in Christ. Remember, you are dead, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. Confess who you are everyday until you no longer need reminders. The Lord is with you and in you. Glory be to God! Set your mind on the things above and receive His endless supply of love. You cannot stay the same when you totally surrender to God.

Christ is your life. He must be demonstrated each and every day. The more you practice the Word the more you realize that your life is hidden with Christ. You were placed into the realm of God where you are one with Christ. The life you now live, you live for Jesus Christ.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a new creature in Christ. Christ in me the hope of Glory. My identity is in Christ Jesus. I live because He lives. Glory be to God!

FURTHER STUDY

Galatians 2:20

Luke 6:43

For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

In the text, the trees mentioned are spiritual trees. Every tree started out as a seed. If you did not know it, words are seeds. Overtime, anyone will be able to tell the seeds you invested in by the fruit it produces. Corrupt fruit is of the flesh. Good fruit is of the Spirit. To be rooted in Jesus you must have His Word planted in your heart. When your heart is changed your actions will change. Memorizing the Word is not enough. You need to become one with the Word to produce the fruit of the Spirit.

If we take this scripture in the natural sense, ask yourself, "Could someone live off of the fruit that you produce? "Will it cause corruption or bring goodness to their life. It is always good to take inventory of your fruit. Producing bad fruit may be understandable as a new believer, but a mature Christian should produce good fruit. When you are really rooted in Jesus, you will always produce good fruit.

You can rejoice knowing that you are rooted in Christ. Even if you had some bad apples here and there, you will produce good apples going forward. Praise the Lord! Practice the Word daily to identify any weak areas so you can produce good fruit. We are told by the Bible that, "The Sower went forth to sow and some fell into good ground, and brought forth the fruit, some a hundredfold, some sixtyfold and some thirtyfold." (Matthew 13:8). Shout for your hundredfold!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am rooted in Christ Jesus. Every seed that was not planted by Jesus is uprooted now. I will only produce the fruit of the Spirit! I am good ground. Thank you Jesus.

Psalm 1:3

Proverbs 13:10

Only by pride cometh contention; but with the well advised is wisdom.

Pride is one of the things that God hates. As a Christian, you want to make sure you stay far away from operating in pride. Nothing good comes from operating in pride, just take a look at the devil. Pride will have you think that you know everything and that you can do no wrong. This is very dangerous. When you get into any conflict or argument know that pride is at the root. You do not need to explain yourself in any contentious situation because it will only escalate.

Wisdom is the only solution when there is contention. You may need to walk away quickly or focus on something else before you regret saying or doing something. When wisdom is part of the equation, you can guarantee that humility will be present. Humbling yourself seems like the hardest thing to do but know that you are glorifying God when you operate in humility. When you resist the devil, he will flee from you.

It is not worth getting into a shouting match with anyone. Study the Word to help you identify those triggers in your life. Pain will teach you what pride prevented you from learning. Do not learn the hard way, there is no need to. Be the one who will deescalate any situation because you have the wisdom of God.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I will humble myself before God. Contention is not my portion. I will only operate in wisdom. Praise Jesus!

Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them because greater is He that is in you, than he that is in the world.

You have God living on the inside of you. That alone gives you victory over every situation. You may not realize that you are an overcomer because of who lives in you, but you are. The devil is very bad and will constantly try to convince you of the total opposite of who God says you are. The devil is a liar. The one who created the heavens and the earth, the one who is madly in love with you lives on the inside of you. Glory be to God! You will never fail with the King of Glory dwelling in you.

You are of God so that makes you the God-kind. Dogs make dogs, cats make cats and God makes gods! Defeat is not in your story. Depression is afraid of you. Lack has been kicked out of your blood line. Greater is He that is in you, than he that is in the world. The devil can never overcome you. Jesus already overcame the devil. Rejoice because you are more than conquerors through him that loved us (Romans 8:37).

Begin to function with boldness knowing that Christ dwells in you. The God in you alone is greater than the devil. Now add the Body of Christ to that. There is no other option but to win. Shout because Jesus has set you up for success. Victory is inevitable. Dominion is guaranteed. Health is automatic. Hallelujah!

And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

You will go through tough times as Christian. Your title, age, social status, or gender does not exempt you from life challenges. Rest assured that Jesus understands what you go through every single time. You have God's peace to carry you through every obstacle. Whether you lost a loved one, struggling financially or received devastating news, the Peace of God is there for you. When life happens, it can seem like the wind is knocked out of your chest. Never believe that there is no hope. Always confess that Peace of God shall keep your heart and mind through Christ Jesus.

The Peace of God is not like man. You will not be able to explain how you feel when you allow the Peace of God to rule your heart and mind. The Bible teaches, "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." (John 14:27). I. You can have consistent peace by receiving the Peace of God. Fear will have to go!

Jesus is more than willing to keep your heart and mind through challenges, but you have to let Him in. He does not want you to worry or lose sleep over a situation that you have no control over anyway. Give Him your problems today in exchange for His Peace. You are better today because you have the Peace of God. You will never be sad another day because you are kept by the Master.

1 Corinthians 6:11

And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

As the festive season is in full swing, it's very important that you become even more conscious of the value you carry through the birth of Jesus Christ.

Did you know that as one who's born again, it's wrong for you to keep seeing yourself as "a sinner?" Many live with this mentality and it reveals why they're struggling in their Christian walk. Now that you're born again, your life is new and divine; therefore, embrace the picture of the new you. You're the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus; as Jesus is, so are you in this world.

Quit saying statements like, "I'm not worthy", "I am not holy", "I am not righteous" etc, Christ is your holiness, He made you worthy through his perfect plan of salvation. Have a greater consciousness of your new life in Christ. That life gives you power to live above sin. You may ask, "If this is true, why do I still do wrong things and think wrong thoughts?" It's because you haven't fully yielded and subjected yourself to the dominion of the Word, to live in, and by the Word. Recognise your new identity; see the picture of the new you and live accordingly. Study and meditate on the Word; it shows your real glory. Embrace the new you!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Acts 20:24

But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

Never be bothered when you see yourself go through tests and trials; the Lord allows them because He knows the stuff you're made of. You're more than a conqueror (Romans 8:37); you always win. You reign and rule in union with Christ; nothing can put you down. The fiercer the challenges you face, the greater your victories and testimonies.

Look at today's scripture. According to Apostle Paul, it makes no difference, the adversities we face; we stand strong and tough in the Holy Ghost! We affirm, "None of these things move me." Hallelujah!

Occasionally, your commitment to Christ and convictions about the Gospel will be tested; as someone who lives by God's Word, you'll surely be persecuted. But be of good cheer, because greater is He that's in you than all your adversaries and persecutors put together. They may come out against you one way, but they'll flee before you seven ways.

Christ in you has made you tougher than you realise. Awaken to the reality of just how powerful you are over any circumstance. The birth and resurrection of Jesus Christ ensured that you become this creature that can never be shaken. You shall continue to advance despite those challenges.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I tower far above persecutions. I shall not faint under pressure whatsoever; I am strong and I am tough. I was born to rule and rule I shall! Glory be to God!

But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:

Because it's Christmas time, We see an array of so many beautiful lights lighting up and decorating streets, homes and establishments alike. So many lights everywhere you go. What comes to mind with all these festive lights is today's verse.

Now the Bible lets us know that God is "Light" and the "father of lights"; therefore, we're children of Light, dwelling in the light. That's what we read in scripture above; we've been brought into God's marvellous light; that's your location in the realm of the spirit; you live in His awe- inspiring light. Therefore, there's no darkness whatsoever in your life. The lights in the world have on and off switches, not so with the light in Christ, it can never be turned off.

Jesus in John 8:12; He said, "...I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." We have, and must walk in the same light in which God dwells and functions. This means we're to walk in His Word, for His Word is light. Walking in His light means your mindset and perceptions are a result of the Word; you view and live your life only from the perspective of the Word! God's Word should be the only light by which, and with which you see. Under that light, you see only possibilities and victories; you see the glory of God. Begin to walk in that light as you celebrate this season. Let His word light up your path – you shall never be confused or lack direction again!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I have been brought out of darkness and into the Kingdom of God's love and light. I shall experience no evil, no sickness, no death or corruption. I am surrounded by LIGHT! Thank you Lord Jesus!!

Colossians 1:12-13

2 Peter 1:3

According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue.

As the years go by, Christmas has become more and more commercial than spiritual. Big and small corporations alike take advantage of the season to maximise profits. Parents scramble to get presents for their children and preparations for family meals on Christmas day are well underway.

But what is the real reason behind Christmas? Christmas is the celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ. Christ, the Messiah came in the flesh; He came to live amongst us and is now in our hearts. Christianity is the divine life of Christ operating in a person. To be a Christian means Christ has taken up His residence in your spirit; you've become God's dwelling place; His living headquarters.

This is what Jesus made possible for us. He didn't come just to die for our sins, but to give us the God-kind of life. God made us humans but wanted us to have His kind of life. His plan, according to the Scriptures, was that Jesus would be the one to give us that life, and that we should receive it through faith. This life in you is immune to infection because it's divine. No wonder we're called associates of the God-kind; partakers of the divine nature. This is what someone needs to hear today - the life of Christ, the Good News! Tell them that life is imparted into the spirit of anyone who receives Christ Jesus as Lord. You can become a partaker of this supernatural life right now by asking Jesus to be the Lord of your life. That's why He came: to give you eternal life and make you one with God; and that's the reason for Christmas.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The life of God is working in me; in every fiber of my being, in every cell of my blood and in every bone of my body. That makes me victorious and triumphant over sickness, disease, and the negative systems of this world. I reign in life by Jesus Christ. Hallelujah!

2 Peter 1:4

John 1:14

And the Word was made flesh, and dwell among us...

The Bible says in the book of Genesis chapter 3, Adam and Eve heard the voice of the Lord God walking in the Garden, in the cool of the day. Prophets in the Old Testament heard a voice in their spirits, while others heard a voice from above; they, however, didn't see a form or a shape to that voice.

But when the baby Jesus was born in Bethlehem, it was that same voice that Adam and the prophets heard that was born in flesh, glory be to God! Jesus was always the Word of God in the bosom of the Father. But now, "...the Word was made flesh, and dwell among us. Jesus wasn't conceived like everybody else; He was conceived of the Holy Ghost and became flesh. What a miracle!

The most amazing part of this intrusion into the sense realm wasn't only that He put on flesh, and dwell among men, but that He was the Father's unflinching, unfailing and unconditional love manifested. His words, actions and miracles were all love-inspired. Jesus is God's love in flesh. Love is the totality of His personality. Jesus couldn't choose whether to love you or not to love you. He could only love you. This Christmas, gather your family and reflect on Jesus as the demonstration of God's love for you! To have given Himself as a ransom for your sins. He said in John 15:13, "Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends." He did just that for us!

If you awaken to this truth, it'll suddenly stir up your spirit. You'll never be discouraged, fearful, afraid, intimidated, or ashamed, irrespective of the challenges.

Merry Christmas!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Thank you, Lord, for demonstrating your love for me in such a special way. I'll forever be thankful and conscious of your love and express the same to my world in Jesus Name!

For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

If a multi-billionaire were to step into your bedroom today, wake you up, just to tell you he had a PERFECT plan for your life to change for the better, what would your reaction be? Many would jump up and scream or cry tears of joy in excitement for this promise. Now, this scripture here has been in the Bible for thousands of years coming from someone better than any wealthy man you can think of. His kind of wealth supersedes just material things, his wealth cures sickness, it cures depression, it cures and restores your family. Yet as you read the scripture just now you didn't jump up or scream in excitement. You see, God has a plan for your life, an excellent one at that! If you know how to provide for your own family, just think what the creator Himself can do for you.

(AMPC) says, "For we are God's [own] handiwork (His workmanship), recreated in Christ Jesus, [born anew] that we may do those good works which God predestined (planned beforehand) for us [taking paths which He prepared ahead of time], that we should walk in them [living the good life which He prearranged and made ready for us to live]."

God's plan is the best; your role is to discover that plan and walk in the light of it. As you study and meditate on the Word, you become more and more acquainted with His plans for your life. Also, you must yield yourself to the ministry of the Holy Spirit. He's the One who helps you understand the Scriptures. He grants you insight into the mysteries and realities of the Kingdom. He's in you to help you fulfil God's plan for your life.

But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory...

In this season of celebration and anticipation of a new year, a lot of reflection on what the year has been can easily go wrong. The 'I should've done this' or 'I missed that opportunity' lines start to gather in one's mind. So it's easy to look at yourself and not see what God says you are. A lot of Christians are guilt ridden having to complete another year with mediocrity still plaguing them.

You may say "What's really there to celebrate? Life has been so difficult." When you think or talk like that, you're going in the wrong direction. Stop looking at circumstances; look at the Word.

The scripture reminds us that we ought to move from one level of glory to another. The image of your life has to be more like what God says about it not what you see around you or what others say about you. The more you look into the word, the more you become it, it should be like a reflection in the mirror.

It is more blessed to give than to receive.

Today's scripture speaks of and translates itself quite adequately. It simply states - It's better to be a giver than to always be on the receiving end.

If the festive season teaches us anything, it teaches us that God the father is a giver. He gave the ultimate gift and we are enjoying that perfect gift for all eternity.

A true Christian who is Christ-like will never be a stingy Christian. A true Christian is a giving Christian. One who is concerned about the well-being of others, one who meets the need of his church and one who gives to those in need. Decide to be a giver by nature today. Let it be a part of your character. If you were one already, ask yourself what you can do better this coming year through your giving.

We, having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak

A common misconception among Christians who have read our verse of the day is they think if you keep saying something you'll end up believing it.

Faith is expressed primarily through words, and the Bible lets us know that we all have faith. If we didn't have faith, it would have been a problem, but we have it; He gave it to us as Paul said in Romans 12:3, "For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you...according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith." That's the faith with which you believed in Jesus Christ, and that faith speaks. Tame and rule the world; reign over circumstances through your faith proclamations. Don't cry because of any problem; speak words of faith. Perhaps you've been experiencing challenges in your job or your health, speak and effect a change!

Your blessing is in your mouth. Declare victory only and always. Declare this new year you're about to step into shall be the greatest yet and that'll be exactly what you get.

During the festive season, it is custom for big tech companies to launch or release a new model of a product or device.

The moment this happens, the value of the current one drops significantly. Commonly, all who are interested in the product start preparing for the new one, while losing interest in the old.

Now look at the words of Jesus in our verse: "For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" This world we live in has already lost its value as a new one is about to be released. A world that is about to be replaced with another isn't worth the loss of your soul, so live your life for the Lord. Let your passion be all about the
