My Theme: Know Your History

2) Societies like Rome achieve greatness only to have it destroyed by corruption that went unchecked.

3) The United States was going the way of Rome, but the election of Donald Trump changed the course of history. He was elected (whether the public knows it or not) to root out and remove the corruption that pervades every part of our society.

<https://www.youtube.com/embed/G2qjXXafxCQ>

4) Last December, Q said the public would soon learn that law enforcement agencies and other U.S. & foreign assets have been conducting one of the largest criminal investigations in modern history.

► Q !!mG7VJxZNCI 12/03/18 (Mon) 11:02:17

The public is about to learn that the DOJ, FBI, + other US/Foreign assets have been actively working behind the scenes in one of the largest criminal investigations in modern day history.

Q

5) The scope of the criminal investigation is unprecedented.
The prosecution of corrupt people cannot be stopped.
These events will be written about in history books for centuries to come.

6) POTUS knew that corrupt politicians intended to remove him from office by any means necessary. He hinted at their plan to impeach him in April, before his call to Ukraine.

He said his first move would be to appeal an impeachment to the Supreme Court.

7) Q posted a link to the April tweet by POTUS.

8) Q posted a link to an article that derides the house for the unconstitutional way in which they've conducted impeachment proceedings. The author wants the Supreme Court to rule once and for all on what the framers of the constitution intended with respect to impeachment.

9) Article.

An Impeachment Role for the Supreme Court? | National Review

The question of whether the House may impeach a president on whatever charges it wishes could be resolved by bringing the case before the Supreme Court.

10) Impeachment is a serious matter.

Attempts to delay justice for criminal politicians will fail.

Dems used FISA to interfere in the 2016 election and the Mueller hoax to interfere in the 2018 election. Impeachment is their attempt to interfere in the 2020 election.

It must be done right.
 It must be done according to the rule of law.
 It must carry weight.
 It must be proven in the court of law.
 There can be no mistakes.

16) Q posted a link to Grassley's tweet.

17) The impeachment had been hard on those who support POTUS. Anons shared their thoughts.

18) The battle against corruption is taking its toll.

The history books will record this as both a time of great darkness and a time where truth and light shine forth.

Q hinted that some of the damage inflicted on POTUS may be undone at some point.

https://www.conservapedia.com/Obamagate_timeline

It is not going to be an easy process to get out there with some of the more serious stuff. I have been looking into this for a while.

• Lisa Page testified in 2015, "I'm not talking about the Woods file. I'm talking about a separate effort that was undertaken in order to try to verify for investigative purposes, not for purposes of the FISA, but a separate effort undertaken to try to validate the allegations contained within the Steele reporting." Crossfire Hurricane was one of the code names for four separate investigations. The subject of the Dragon FISA remains unknown.

- Joe Biden invites Deep State informant Eric Caramella to attend luncheon for Italian Prime Minister Matteo Renzi. Brennan, Chappie, and Comey also in attendance.^[42]
- The invitation is unusual for a low level GS-13 civil service system employee.
- Arrange internet access cutoff by Ecuador Embassy.^[43]
- 19-20 October. Steele finishes two more installments of the dossier concerning Manafort's alleged role in alleged collusion.
- 19 October. Lisa Page texted Andrew McCabe:

Lisa Page: "Hey can you give me a call when you get out? Meeting with WH counsel is finally set up and I want to talk about timing. Thanks."

- The Shearer dossier written by Clinton operative Cody Shearer with allegations about the sexual and financial activity of Donald Trump. Shearer gave his memo to Clinton confidant Sidney Blumenthal, who transmitted it to State Department official Jonathan Weiner, who then gave it to Christopher Steele, who passed it on to the FBI. The Shearer dossier was not included in BuzzFeed's January 10, 2017 release. After the fraud of the Clinton-Steele dossier was exposed in early 2017 Stormy Daniels claimed she was paid to keep silent about an affair with Trump, and a stranger threatened her and her child. Kathleen Willey was a volunteer at the White House in 1993 when President Bill Clinton grabbed her, fondled her, and pressed her hand against himself in the Oval Office. Willey told her story in a 60 minutes interview and became a target of a smear campaign directed by the Clintons.^[44] In 1998, just before Willey was to testify in the Paula Jones trial, Willey was approached by a stranger who asked her menacing questions about her children, naming them by name. On Hardball in 1999, MSNBC host Chris Matthews identified the mysterious stranger as Cody Shearer.^[45]
- False date put on Carter Page FISA application March 17, 2017 leak hunt.
- October. IG Midyear report says:

The case agent told us that he scheduled a meeting on October 19 with the two SDNY AUSAs assigned to the Weiner investigation because he felt like he had nowhere else to turn. ... The AUSAs both told us that the case agent appeared to be very stressed and worried that somehow he would be blamed in the end if no action was taken.

- 20 October. NSA Dir. Mike Rogers is briefed by the NSA compliance officer on several strange 702 "About Queries" that were being conducted. These were violations of the Fourth Amendment (search and seizure), i.e. unlawful surveillance and gathering. As a result of Rogers suspecting surveillance activity being used for reasons he deemed unlawful, in mid 2016 Rogers ordered the NSA compliance officer to run a full audit on 702 NSA compliance. Section 702 of the FISA Act is basically spying on Americans; the actual "spying" part is 702. Item 17 is "About Queries", which allows queries or searches of content of email and phone conversations based on any subject matter put into the search field. Rogers ordered the "About Query" activity to stop, reported the activity to the DOJ, and then to the FISA court. Rogers also stopped "About Query" permanently.^[46]
- The Origins of the Prague Narrative: Steele's dossier memo reads:

"Kremlin insider reports Trump lawyer COHEN's secret meetings with Kremlin officials in August 2016 was/were held in Prague."^[47]

No more Steele memos until Dec. 13.

- Clinton email IG Report states:

AUSAs met with their supervisors at SDNY and informed them of their conversation with the Weiner case agent. The AUSAs stated that they told their supervisors the substantive information reported by the case agent, the case agent's concerns that no one at the FBI had expressed interest in this information, and their concern that the case agent was stressed out and might act out in some way. (pg 304)

Midyear Clinton email IG Report Page 274, footnote #165:

No electronic record exists of the case agent's initial review of the Weiner laptop. The case agent told us that at some point in mid-October 2016 the NYO ASAC instructed the case agent to wipe his work station. The case agent explained that the ASAC was concerned about the presence of potentially classified information on the case agent's work station, which was not authorized to process classified information. The case agent told us that he followed the ASAC's instructions, but that this request concerned him because the audit trail of his initial processing of the laptop would no longer be available. The case agent clarified that none of the evidence on the Weiner laptop was impacted by this, explaining that the FBI retained the Weiner laptop and only the image that had been copied onto his work station was deleted. The ASAC recalled that the case agent "worked through the security department to address the concern" of classified information on an unclassified system. He told us that he did not recall how the issue was resolved.

- Devin Nunes says FBI whistleblowers in NYO informed him the FBI was sitting on Weiner laptop.^[48]
- 21 October. Carter Page FISA warrant. DOJ and FBI sought and received a FISA probable cause order (not under Title VII) authorizing electronic surveillance of Carter Page from the FISA court. The warrant application was signed by Sally Yates and James Comey. The FISA order was ultimately used by Brennan's Working Group, as the information gathered gave them multiple investigative leads into the Trump campaign.^[49]
- Carter Page is a US citizen who served as a paid FBI informant up to March 2016 at which time he became a volunteer advisor to the Trump campaign. The FISA Court at this time is still unaware of the Section 702 violations.

During the Cuban Missile Crisis, leaders of the U.S. and the Soviet Union engaged in a tense, 13-day political and military standoff in October 1962 over the installation of nuclear-armed Soviet missiles on Cuba, just 90 miles from U.S. shores. In a TV address on October 22, 1962, President John Kennedy (1917-63) notified Americans about the presence of the missiles, explained his decision to enact a naval blockade around Cuba and made it clear the U.S. was prepared to use military force if necessary to neutralize this perceived threat to national security. Following this news, many people feared the world was on the brink of nuclear war. However, disaster was averted when the U.S. agreed to Soviet leader Nikita Khrushchev's (1894-1971) offer to remove the Cuban missiles in exchange for the U.S. promising not to invade Cuba. Kennedy also secretly agreed to remove U.S. missiles from Turkey.

A Deal Ends the Standoff

Despite the enormous tension, Soviet and American leaders found a way out of the impasse. During the crisis, the Americans and Soviets had exchanged letters and other communications, and on October 26, Khrushchev sent a message to Kennedy in which he offered to remove the Cuban missiles in exchange for a promise by U.S. leaders not to invade Cuba. The following day, the Soviet leader sent a letter proposing that the USSR would dismantle its missiles in Cuba if the Americans removed their missile installations in Turkey.

Officially, the Kennedy administration decided to accept the terms of the first message and ignore the second Khrushchev letter entirely. Privately, however, American officials also agreed to withdraw their nation's missiles from Turkey. U.S. Attorney General Robert Kennedy (1925-68) personally delivered the message to the Soviet ambassador in Washington, and on October 28, the crisis drew to a close.

Both the Americans and Soviets were sobered by the Cuban Missile Crisis. The following year, a direct "hot line" communication link was installed between Washington and Moscow to help defuse similar situations, and the superpowers signed two treaties related to nuclear weapons. The Cold War was far from over, though. In fact, another legacy of the crisis was that it convinced the Soviets to increase their investment in an arsenal of intercontinental ballistic missiles capable of reaching the U.S. from Soviet
