

Sports Performance Facility Design

About Us

Stray Dog Strength has been a pioneer of strength and conditioning equipment since 1998. By listening to coaches, athletes and administrators our designs have evolved into an efficient modular system. Our products are built to last for generations and help athletes LEAVE THE PACK.

Facility Design

Custom Branding

Programming
Support

Facility Support

Why Choose Us?

We have created a fully modular system of products designed to work seamlessly together. The Stray Dog Performance System gives coaches a clear training framework that pairs our equipment with structured programming, helping them run more efficient sessions and build programs that deliver real results for athletes.