

Q May 3, 2022

This update covers the messages posted by @q account on Truth Social. I can't say with certainty that this is the same person or group that posted on 4chan, 8chan and 8kun, but evidence is growing to suggest that it is.

On April 14th, @q responded to a post by Donald Trump Jr. who wondered why the security cameras didn't work in a Brooklyn subway during a recent shooting.

Five minutes later, @q retruthed and responded to a post by Andrew Northwall.

@q reposted a message that was originally posted two months earlier on February 21st. There have been many guesses as to its meaning but @q has not confirmed any of them.

One minute later, @q reposted the $p = 23$ riddle and noted that although some people are getting close, it remains unsolved.

The numbers converted into P = Posts using Hexadecimal to Text.

Hex To Text

Hex	▼	To	Text	▼
50 20 3D 20 70 6F 73 74		P = post
 		Convert

Hexadecimal is abbreviated for hex that comprises of a system based on base 16 structure that is used to simplify how instructions to computer machine are represented.

This 16 symbols numeral system is developed for the purpose to inhibit an 8-bit binary number so it can be effortlessly written while encoding data into the computer. It can be imprinted and typed using two different hex digits with each hex digit demonstrating a nibble or perhaps a 4-bits format. Hexadecimal numeral system for encoding computer instructions is considered to be an effective one comparing to the other three types of the numerical system.

Speaker Nancy Pelosi (D-Calif.) is getting ready to reunite with the Glamazons — making a return appearance on RuPaul's reality TV series.

Pelosi will make a "special appearance" on the upcoming season of "RuPaul's Drag Race All Stars," Paramount+ announced Friday. The new season of the drag queen competition premieres on May 20 on the streaming network and will follow previous winners who are duking it out to earn the title of "Queen of All Queens" and a $200,000 cash prize.

It'll mark a reunion of sorts for Pelosi, who made a cameo on "RuPaul's Drag Race: All Stars" in 2018.

Pelosi praised the TV show's stars after her inaugural appearance, saying in an interview that year, "This idea of people believing in themselves, being themselves, taking pride in themselves, is not just a lesson for politicians but for everyone in the country. And that's why I was so excited and couldn't resist being on the show."

When was the last time we saw a leak from SCOTUS? We're living in unprecedented times folks

politico.com/news/2022/05/02/s...

The immediate impact of the ruling as drafted in February would be to end a half-century guarantee of federal constitutional protection of abortion rights and allow each state to decide whether to restrict or ban abortion. It's unclear if there have been subsequent changes to the draft.

No draft decision in the modern history of the court has been disclosed publicly while a case was still pending. The unprecedented revelation is bound to intensify the debate over what was already the most controversial case on the docket this term.

Congress must pass legislation that codifies Roe v. Wade as the law of the land in this country NOW. And if there aren't 60 votes in the Senate to do it, and there are not, we must end the filibuster to pass it with 50 votes.

To adequately describe a draft SCOTUS opinion outlawing the right to choose.

It's devastating for the millions of women who will lose the right to make their health care decisions, thanks to a partisan court.

Congress must pass abortion protections. Now.

Clinton campaign officials' claims undercut, 'privileged' info pitched to reporters: Durham

By Jeff Mordock - The Washington Times - Tuesday, April 26, 2022

Special counsel John Durham has revealed that employees of the research firm Fusion GPS sent journalists hundreds of emails with unverified accusations against President Trump to trigger negative news stories.

Mr. Durham was responding to efforts of people with ties to Hillary Clinton's presidential campaign to keep potentially explosive evidence out of his hands during the upcoming trial of a Clinton campaign lawyer accused of lying to the FBI.

In a court motion filed late Monday, Mr. Durham said the slew of emails undercuts the assertion of Clinton campaign officials that Fusion GPS's research for them should be protected under attorney-client privilege.

One way that we know President Trump and Q are working together is that they frequently post at the same time. There are 1440 minutes in a 24-hour day. If two people post on social media once a day, what are the odds that they would post at the same time?

President Trump made one post on Truth Social yesterday. It was above article about Durham's investigation of Spygate. Below is a screencap from qagg.news which aggregates posts from Truth Social with timestamps. You can see that President Trump only posted once on May 2nd.

Great evening in NEBRASKA, thank you!

May 1

The only post by President Trump yesterday was made 23 seconds after the post by @q about the leaked Supreme Court document, which was @q's only post that day until he retruthed the post by Trump that coincided with his own post.

As an experiment, you might try to post a message on social media within one minute of a post by the President but it must be made before his post. It's extremely difficult to correctly anticipate when President Trump will post, but Q has done it on dozens of occasions. Are these simultaneous posts merely coincidences or do they suggest coordination?
