#Qanon #IGReportUnredacted

Chapters Thirteen and Fourteen address allegations that then Deputy Director Andrew McCabe and then Assistant Attorney General Peter Kadzik should have been recused from participating in certain matters, or violated the terms of their recusals.

Chapter Fifteen addresses allegations that the timing of the FBI's release of FOIA documents and its use of Twitter to publicize the release were influenced by improper considerations or were otherwise improper.

Chapter Sixteen includes our conclusions and recommendations.

We also include a non-public classified appendix, which discusses highly classified information relevant to the Midyear investigation (Appendix One), and a non-public Law Enforcement Sensitive (LES) appendix containing the complete, unmodified version of Chapter Thirteen (Appendix Two).

6

We are providing copies of our unclassified report and the classified appendix to Congress, and are publicly releasing our report without these appendices. We also are providing copies of our unclassified report to the Office of Special Counsel (OSC) for its consideration.

#IGReportUnredacted

from or about the private email accounts of all three senior aides. Emails sent to or from the private email accounts were potentially relevant to: (1) further reconstructing the full collection of work-related emails and emails containing classified information that were sent to or from Clinton's servers; (2) finding additional emails containing classified information that were transmitted and stored on unclassified systems other than the Clinton's servers; (3) finding evidence of knowledge or intent on the part of Clinton, the senior aides, and possibly others regarding the transmission or storage of classified information on unclassified

10) The report says James @Comey refused to tell Congress about the Clinton Foundation investigation (a separate matter from the email investigation) in the months before the election.

#Qanon #IGReportUnredacted

B. The Differential Treatment of the Clinton Foundation Investigation

In 2016, the FBI had an open investigation into the Clinton Foundation. Comey refused to confirm the existence of the investigation on July 7, 2016, in testimony before the House Oversight and Government Reform Committee because the investigation was not public.

In addition, numerous witnesses told us that agents involved in the Clinton Foundation investigation were instructed to take no overt investigative steps prior to the election. We asked Yates about this instruction. Yates stated, "[Y]eah, I think there was discussion about look, if [agents on the Clinton Foundation investigation] want to go do record stuff and stuff that you can do covertly, fine. But not overtly.... And the sort of thought being we'll address that again at the end after the election was over." Yates explained that this instruction was explicit because the Department does "everything [it] can to avoid having an impact on an election." Yates continued:

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/Dfr1xqyUcAEFFo8.jpg>

11) @Comey's alibi? "It wasn't public."

The real reason?

He'd be admitting that Hillary, a presidential candidate, was under criminal investigation. (That might cost her the election.)

GOP Rep. Darrell Issa:
The #IGReport is "extremely damning of an infection at the Department of Justice" in favor of Clinton. He also cites "the transmission of sealed grand jury information to a Gmail account."

Concerns like colleagues with the report being watered down? "All IG reports are watered down by the agency that they're overseeing. They're allowed to make constructive and even convincing or unconvincing arguments to change words. But as it currently is, it's still extremely damning of an infection at the Department of Justice in favor of the anticipated next president and a pattern of allowing violations of the Federal Records Act even, as you'll see in the report, the transmission of sealed grand jury information to a Gmail account."

21) The resolution by @Jim Jordan and Mark Meadows may never be voted on but it could [set the stage] for a move to impeach #RodRosenstien if he continues to stonewall Congress.

#Qanon #IGReportUnredacted

The resolution crafted by Freedom Caucus Chairman Mark Meadows, R-N.C., and Rep. Jim Jordan, R-Ohio, says it is "the sense of the Congress" that the DOJ should "provide certain documents in its possession" within seven days of the resolution's adoption.

It is unlikely that the House will actually consider the resolution, which does not compel the Justice Department to provide the documents. However, the effort by Meadows and Jordan could serve as a precursor to future actions against the Justice Department -- including an attempt to impeach Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein.

The resolution notes that Rosenstein "appears to have threatened to subpoena the calls and emails of the [House] Intelligence Committee staff in retaliation for requesting documents and investigation the Department of Justice."

On Tuesday, Fox News reported that Rosenstein threatened to "subpoena" emails, phone records and other documents from lawmakers and staff on the House Intelligence Committee during a closed-door meeting in January. Rosenstein is overseeing Special Counsel Robert Mueller's investigation into Russian activities during the 2016 election.

44) For the #Qanon followers wondering where the redactions are the Q told us about, I would advise waiting a few days before throwing your arms in the air in disbelief.

45) Consider (in the purest sense) what a redaction is.
To redact is simply to edit (usually to remove) certain parts of a written document.

#Qanon

Dictionary

Enter a word, e.g. "pie"

re·dact

/rəˈdakt/

edit (text) for publication.

- censor or obscure (part of a text) for legal or security purposes.

46) A redacted document is not one that is filled with blacked out areas.
It can be such a document, but that's only one way to redact—to edit—a document.

#Qanon #IGReport

https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DftZ_kKU8AAV1_.jpg

47) I know a little about editing. My editors do great work. We send book manuscripts back and forth adding some paragraphs and redacting others.

#Qanon #IGReport

48) Funny thing about good editing and proper formatting... you'd never guess by reading one of my books that 6 months of redactions occurred before the book was published.

#Qanon #IGReport

49) I do a lot of redacting and adding content to my blog posts, too. Sometimes I'll have 100 revisions in a blog post before I publish it.

The key to good writing is making it look like there were no edits—no redactions.

#Qanon #IGReport

50) Look again at the #IGReport

Look at the formatting—the line spacing, the margins, the fonts that are used, spaces between paragraphs, indentations and the overall flow.

#Qanon

51) You'll probably see (like I did) a lot of irregularities in the formatting.

Those irregularities happen when a clean document is hastily edited—when it's redacted.

Senate probes FBI's heavy-handed use of redactions to obstruct congressional investigators Faith in the American system has been broken in many cases, and only turning over the rocks will restore it.

From the Attorney General of the United States:

The Inspector General's report reveals a number of significant errors by the senior leadership of the Department of Justice and the FBI during the previous administration. Accordingly, this report must be seen as an opportunity for the FBI—long considered the world's premier investigative agency—and all of us at the Department to learn from past mistakes. The Department is not above criticism, and it is accountable to the Chief Executive, Congress, and most importantly, the American people.

Since his confirmation, Director Wray has brought on a new leadership team—one in which the American people can have confidence. Their mission is to return this great agency to its longstanding, non-partisan policies and great traditions.

I would like to thank the Inspector General for his tireless and thorough work on this matter. This has been a prolonged and painful process for the Department and the FBI. But this is not the end of the process. United States Attorney John Huber continues his work in cooperation with the Inspector General to review certain prosecutorial and investigative determinations made by the Department in 2016 and 2017. He has reviewed this report and, based on its findings and his own investigation, will provide recommendations as to whether any matter not currently under investigation should be opened, whether any matters currently under investigation require further resources, or whether any matters merit the appointment of Special Counsel.

And, finally, to the people of the FBI, I say this: I have worked alongside the agents and employees of the FBI for decades, and it is my honor to serve with you as Attorney General. In offices throughout the country and the world, you embody the fidelity, bravery, and integrity that is your motto. Continue your mission. Achieve excellence. And understand that your work—protecting the American people at home and abroad—is your greatest legacy.
