

My theme: Military Planning at Its Finest (qntmpkts.keybase.pub)

In this thread, we're going to take an in-depth look at censorship and the people who are attempting to control public opinion. Yesterday, all Q related threads (subs) on Reddit were simultaneously shut down. The moderators claimed it was done because user content violated the terms of service.

Q said the Reddit ban is censorship and it will (ultimately) fail.

Then he wrote this:

EXPECT TWITTER/FB FORCE NEXT.

AJ [TEMPLATE] WAS DESIGNED TO ATTACK/CENSOR 'QANON'

[primary obj]. Q says there's a plan in place to systematically silence certain voices on social media.

Alex Jones was a litmus test to see how the government and the public would react to banning one person from all major platforms. If you're not a follower, the next statement may seem self-important, but Q says the end game is to silence discussion about his drops on 8chan. I stand corrected.

The tactical objective is to silence discussion about Q.

The end game is different (and more sinister.)

In the 1960s, if one wanted to control public opinion, they needed to control the content of a handful of TV news stations (ABC, CBS & NBC), a few Hollywood studios and some of the leading newspapers.

That was the goal of Operation

Mockingbird. (freepress.org/article/operat...) In the 1980s, cable TV changed the landscape and the means by which public opinion would be influenced. Networks and cable companies would now have to be controlled if public opinion were to be influenced. In 2004, Facebook was launched, offering a platform where anyone could amass a million followers if they provided good content.

Facebook also allowed for a diversity of opinions to be shared—opinions that at some point, may need to be controlled. Youtube was perhaps the biggest game-changer when it comes to influencing public opinion.

Instead of 3 networks or 300 cable channels, Youtube provided tens of thousands of channels, each with a different viewpoint (viewpoints that may need to be controlled.)

On November 5th, after the corrupt Saudi princes were arrested, Q asked who the major shareholders of news and social media networks were. (Saudi princes?)

Censoring the views of billions of users across multiple platforms is labor intensive and expensive work.

Wouldn't it be handy if a machine algorithm could be written to handle that work? In March, Q asked who controls social media and who wrote the algorithm that censors across multiple platforms.

[C]lowns [I]n [A]merica perform in a circus.

And believe it or not, they control social media through corrupt shareholders that they control.

Eric Schmidt [ES] has been instrumental in helping the deep state control social media. Much of is done over networks that were set up in areas controlled by the C_IA. In 2013, before Trump took office, North Korea was a C_IA playground. (theguardian.com/technology/201...) Social media ended the mainstream media's control of public opinion.

Public opinion today is shaped by average people expressing their ideas on social media.

The threat of us controlling the narrative is so serious it may result in Twitter, Facebook, etc, shutting down.

Remember, information is everything, the flow of information is no longer controlled by the MSM but by you/others.

Hence, why we are dedicating 'critical' time to distribute crumbs which can be followed in greater detail to paint the entire picture once more information is released.

Why has POTUS dedicated so much time into labeling the MSM as fake news?

Why is this relevant?

We are fully prepared that all social media will be shut down to prevent the spread of this information (i.e. POTUS' Twitter etc. and/or mass censoring).

Sealed Federal orders pre-submitted as prevention and masked as 'in general' (though that does not account for rogue agents/programmers within).

Dates (impending actions) are deliberately provided for authenticity.

Alice & Wonderland.

POTUS has hammered the Fake News media since taking office to empower us to do our own research, think for ourselves and come to our own conclusions. Many people assume Facebook, Twitter, Google, etc. would never shut down because they would lose too much revenue.

Q informed us that social media platforms can operate at a loss because they're backstopped by the C_IA's black ops bank account.

Part 1

How do you demonstrate 'reasonable cause' to regulate and/or break up BIG TECH?
What is the common theme/tactic of the LEFT?
Define 'Fascism'.
Forcible suppression of opposition?
Define 'Censorship'.
The institution, system, or practice of censoring?
Define 'Narrative'.
A way of presenting or understanding a situation or series of events that reflects and promotes a particular point of view or set of values?
Define 'Projection'.
The attribution of one's own ideas, feelings, or attitudes to other people or to objects; especially : the externalization of blame, guilt, or responsibility as a defense against anxiety?
The forming of a plan : scheming?
Define 'Psychological Projection'.
A theory in psychology in which the human ego defends itself against unconscious impulses or qualities (both positive and negative) by denying their existence in themselves while attributing them to others?
Define 'Narcissist'.
A person who has an excessive interest in or admiration of themselves: narcissists who think the world revolves around them | narcissists preening themselves in front of the mirror?
Define 'Dogma'.
A point of view or tenet put forth as authoritative without adequate grounds?
Define 'Aggression'.
Forceful and sometimes overly assertive pursuit of one's aims and interests?
Define 'Suppression'.
The action of suppressing something such as an activity or publication?

You demonstrate the need for regulation and the breakup of monopolies by allowing the ones in control to abuse their power. They must be allowed to go too far.

That means allowing some people to be banned for no legitimate reason. Although Q has assured us that censorship will fail in the long term, in the short term, the fools pulling the levers must be allowed to do stupid things. Q is preparing us for the inevitable. What happened on Reddit will likely happen on Twitter, Facebook and Youtube.

Some of us will be booted for no other reason than discussing Q. You might be wondering if Q could also be banned from 8chan.

That seems unlikely.

The owner of 8chan is all about free speech.

(I would imagine the generals had a talk with him before they set up shop.) (splinternews.com/meet-the-man-k...)

Brennan started working full-time on 8chan, setting up a Patreon site for donations. Nearly 150 patrons signed up, donating over $1000 a month, but it wasn't enough to cover his time and server costs. And within three months, Patreon kicked 8chan off its service for violating community guidelines.

8chan kept going offline because it exceeded bandwidth limits or, because of its offensive content, got kicked off various ISPs. Brennan needed stable financial support and a reliable hosting service to keep it alive.

That was when Jim Watkins got involved.

Watkins contacted Brennan, who was then living in New York City, to offer assistance. Despite a roughly 30-year age difference, the two hit it off immediately. Watkins describes Brennan as "a good guy [and] a brave man." At the end of October 2014, Brennan went with Gamergaters to a strip club in Queens to celebrate 8chan's first birthday as well as his decision to move to the Philippines to work with Watkins.

According to Tom Riedel, the former president and current secretary of Watkin's company, N.T. Technology, Brennan and Watkins formed a business partnership.

"N.T. Tech provided the domain name and hardware, [Brennan] is responsible for software and growing the community," said Riedel by email. "Right now it doesn't make enough to pay for itself, but hopefully 8chan was created by Brennan, is run by Brennan, but is now owned by Watkins.

Watkins is an American in his 50s who picked up computer skills while in the military. He described himself in his first email to me as "a very boring person." He wears glasses and a greying beard, though his hair remains brown. He doesn't have a large online presence, but does maintain a blog on 8chan, where he sporadically posts photos of his family and his animals.

Watkins told me on the phone that he wanted to protect 8chan because he's seen "all these other sites that have big potential and then they go away." As for concern about or responsibility for the actions of his digital tenants, he argues that it's all just free speech.

"As long as they are not making imminent threats of harm against someone, their speech is protected political speech," he told me. "No different than Trump or Clinton or Mr. Smith or or anyone else."

Watkins isn't the first message board owner to strike this stance. Reddit's founders famously held a strong free speech position initially as did 4chan's Poole. But they all backed off over time. Reddit now bans revenge porn and hate speech. Poole eventually told Rolling Stone that 4chan never had free speech "in the absolutely sense."

The only free speech Watkins rejects concerns copyright violations, which would result in large fines for the site thanks to the Digital Millennium Copyright Act or DMCA. Over all, Watkins holds a hodgepodge of expediently adopted political ideals in service to one very clear motivation: extracting cash from the internet.

In the bonus round, Q described narcissists and then outlined the tactics used by Antifa, the MSM, and social media platforms.

► Q !!mG7VJxZNCI 09/12/18 (Wed) 17:44:35 No.233

'Narcissists' are renowned for using 'psychological projection' to blame other people, even when it is entirely apparent that they are the ones in the wrong.

Define 'Realism'.

The quality or fact of representing a person, thing, or situation accurately or in a way that is true to life?

Actions of [ANTIFA]:

- Aggression (Projection)
- Suppression (Fascism)
- Censorship (Narrative-Dogma)

How do you inflict MAX PAIN / DAMAGE?
Drop [daily] carpet bombs [RATS RUNNING] >>> drop/release MOAB?
<https://saraacarter.com/how-anti-trump-leakers-moved-from-offense-to-defense/>
SESSIONS and FLYNN [targeted] for [immediate] removal/recusal?
SESSIONS Senate CONF vote?
[RR] Senate CONF vote?
Reconcile.
IF SESSIONS WASN'T A THREAT WHY WAS HE THE PRIMARY TARGET?
WHY WAS IT CRITICAL TO MOVE [RR] INTO DOJ ACTING AG RE: APPOINTMENT OF MUELLER / DIR SC OVERSIGHT [AUTH]?
IF YOU KNOW WHAT YOUR ENEMY IS PLANNING HOW DO YOU PREPARE STRATEGICALLY?
THINK TODAY.
STRATEGIC ADVANTAGE?
