3) An important point for understanding current events:

Q says the mere declassification of the Carter Page FISA application will expose Rod Rosenstein's role in Spygate and force him to resign or recuse himself.

4) Some fear that POTUS will be forced to fire Rosenstein and risk being seen as a tyrant—a move that would lead to impeachment proceedings.

Q is telling us that Trump doesn't need to be personally involved in the decision. Rosenstein may choose to self-terminate.

5) Even if Rosenstein doesn't resign, Trump isn't going to take the bait his opponents have set out and fire him.

If Rosenstein won't resign, there are other options.

Sessions could fire him if it gets to that point (but it may not go that far.)

#GoodbyeMrRosenstein

6) The second point to consider is that Q says after the declassification, all signers of the Carter Page FISA application will then be under Grand Jury (GJ) investigation.

#GoodbyeMrRosenstein

7) The third point is that the declassification of the FISA application will demonstrate a coordinated effort on the part of the Obama White House with foreign allies [UK/Australia] to illegally spy on candidate Trump and retain control of the White House.

#GoodbyeMrRosenstein

8) The fourth point:

Under the direction of John Brennan and James Clapper, signals and human intelligence were used to surveil the Trump team and the White House was given updates on Trump's campaign through the President's Daily Briefing.

#GoodbyeMrRosenstein

9) FISA Declassification brings down the house.

Q

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DnzKRAeWsAEjg1n.jpg>

12) Trump put Rosenstein in an awkward position. Because Sessions is recused from matters related to the election, Rosenstein must handle the declassification of FISA documents that will incriminate him.

Quite the pickle.

13) As a workaround, DOJ Inspector General Horowitz has been tasked with approving the declassification of the FISA application as well as related texts & emails by Comey, McCabe, Strzok, Page & Ohr.

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/Dnzmc5AXoAATJQM.jpg>

- 14) Appointing an impartial person like Horowitz to handle the declassification avoids the problem of Rosenstein interfering in the process and it prevents Trump from being accused of trying to interfere in the Mueller investigation.
- 15) Trump is not "walking back" the declassification as reported by the media.
He's taking a better (safer) approach.
Everything will come out.
POTUS will not be baited into firing Rosenstein.
- 16) Q says our so-called "allies" need to learn what it means to be a true ally.
- 17) As a safety measure, Rosenstein has been prevented from signing FISA applications and he will soon be under Grand Jury investigation.
- 18) Recent dueling articles by the New York Times and Washington Post about McCabe and Rosenstein are evidence that the rats are panicking.
- 19) Since DC is panicking, this week we can expect to see outrageous, shocking, inflammatory, emotional-driven headlines.

Please don't pay too much attention to them.
(You've been warned.)

20) Keep your eye on the ball.

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/Dnzp-ccXUAAJj2C.jpg>

21) Don't forget, another IG report is due out soon. This one has to do with FISA abuse. Horowitz is in control of the timing of report's release.

22) Some documents to be released may be in front of a Grand Jury.

They can't be made public until they're no longer needed.
John Huber is in control of that.
Horowitz is coordinating with Huber.
NSA IG Storch is coordinating with IG Horowitz
Everyone works together as a team.

24) Rosenstein could be a black hat who was brought into DOJ to oversee the Mueller investigation and keep the swamp occupied (and overconfident) while Huber worked secretly on the prosecution of bad actors.

If so, Rosenstein had no idea what he was getting into.

25) If Rosenstein is a black hat, POTUS and Q would have known long ago he would eventually be exposed and forced out of office.

If they knew, it seems likely that Q would have dropped a "future proves past" clue for us about Rosenstein's replacement.

26) Is there a clue about Rosenstein's replacement?

27) In January, after Trey Gowdy announced he was stepping down from the House Ethics Committee [HEC] and not seeking re-election, Q asked what position he might be walking into.

28) In his announcement, Gowdy said he had grown weary of Congress and longed to return to "the justice system."

Gowdy finally had it with Washington

The influential chairman of the House Oversight Committee is sick of politics and won't seek reelection.

<https://www.politico.com/story/2018/01/31/gowdy-wont-seek-reelection-380231>

29) Prior to the partial declassification of Carter Page's FISA application, people were uncertain about Gowdy because he seemed too soft on James Comey.

30) To me, Gowdy's words seemed like an act.

He knew what was in the FISA application and seemed to give Comey the benefit of the doubt (at least publicly) knowing he could hammer the former FBI Director after the FISA application was made public.

[Learn to play the game]

31) Some people thought Gowdy might be up for a Supreme Court nomination but when it was clear that wasn't the role he would be stepping into, Q confirmed that Gowdy is a patriot.

32) Since Gowdy's natural role is a prosecutor, since we need someone in DOJ who can work with FBI Director Chris Wray, since he's intimately familiar with the deep state, and is one of the few people in DC who can be trusted, I wonder if Trey will replace Rosenstein.

33) Another possibility:

In May, when Rosenstein was conspicuously absent from a meeting about the Trump-Russia investigation, Ed O'Callaghan filled in for him.

Q asked us to look into his background.

Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein Announces Edward O'Callaghan as Acting Principal Associate Deputy Attorney General

Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein today announced that Edward O'Callaghan will serve as the Acting Principal Associate Deputy Attorney General. O'Callaghan, who has been serving as the Principal Deputy Assistant Attorney General in the National Security Division, will replace Robert Hur, who is succeeding Rosenstein as the United States Attorney in the District of Maryland.

"Edward O'Callaghan has served the Department of Justice with distinction, excelling as a prosecutor in the Southern District of New York and most recently as the Principal Deputy Assistant Attorney General in the National Security Division. His experiences in a variety of roles throughout the Department will be invaluable as we work to protect our national security, reduce violent crime, and promote the rule of law," said Deputy Attorney General Rosenstein. "I also want to thank Robert Hur for serving as the Principal Associate Deputy Attorney General. His counsel was invaluable over the past ten months and I look forward to seeing him thrive as the United States Attorney for the District of Maryland."

Prior to his appointment as Acting Principal Associate Deputy Attorney General, O'Callaghan most recently served as Principal Deputy Assistant Attorney General for the National Security Division, where he assisted the Assistant Attorney General in the administration of all units and components in the National Security Division, most notably in the Counterterrorism Section, the Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, the Office of Intelligence, the Office of Law & Policy, the Foreign Investment Review Staff, and the Office of Justice for the Victims of Overseas Terrorism. While awaiting the confirmation of Assistant Attorney General John Demers, O'Callaghan served as Acting Assistant Attorney General for
