The NSA has it all including the server, yet DJT keeps mentioning it over and over again on twitter to keep this topic relevant. Those who are awake are already awake and know it, those who are asleep will stay asleep, but it is necessary to keep the server as a relevant topic for when it will be revealed publicly.

suspects were indicted for bank fraud in July after prosecutors said they transferred money from the House bank to Pakistan and tried to flee the country.

There are strong indications that many of the 44 members' data — including personal information of constituents seeking help — was entirely out of those members' possession, and instead was stored on the House Democratic Caucus server. The aggregation of multiple members' data would mean all that data was absconded with, because authorities said that entire server physically disappeared while it was being monitored by police.

An IT aide told TheDCNF that colleagues deployed to clean up after the Awans' firing discovered that in many offices, computers were set up to be nothing more than "thin clients" that were portals to an outside computer. "They were using terminal servers, your desktop is projected to you" from a computer in a different location.

The presentation — though its language is at times opaquely technical — found remote sessions that remained active for months at a time. The House commonly uses Citrix remote sessions that allow someone's computer screen to show the contents of a different computer, but its security precautions ordinarily cause them to disconnect after just a few minutes. Virtual Private Networks can also make a server's hard drive appear to be local to a computer.

(a) There is established within the National Archives an Information Security Oversight Office. The Archivist shall appoint the Director of the Information Security Oversight Office, subject to the approval of the President.

(b) Under the direction of the Archivist, acting in consultation with the National Security Advisor, the Director of the Information Security Oversight Office shall:

- (1) develop directives for the implementation of this order;
- (2) oversee agency actions to ensure compliance with this order and its implementing directives;
- (3) review and approve agency implementing regulations prior to their issuance to ensure their consistency with this order and directives issued under section 5.1(a) of this order;
- (4) have the authority to conduct on-site reviews of each agency's program established under this order, and to require of each agency those reports and information and other cooperation that may be necessary to fulfill its responsibilities. If granting access to specific categories of classified information would pose an exceptional national security risk, the affected agency head or the senior agency official shall submit a written justification recommending the denial of access to the President through the National Security Advisor within 60 days of the request for access. Access shall be denied pending the response;
- (5) review requests for original classification authority from agencies or officials not granted original classification authority and, if deemed appropriate, recommend Presidential approval through the National Security Advisor;
- (6) consider and take action on complaints and suggestions from persons within or outside the Government with respect to the administration of the program established under this order;
- (7) have the authority to prescribe, after consultation with affected agencies, standardization of forms or procedures that will promote the implementation of the program established under this order;
- (8) report at least annually to the President on the implementation of this order; and
- (9) convene and chair interagency meetings to discuss matters pertaining to the program established by this order.

Critics said the appearance showed an inappropriate closeness between the Trump White House and the Justice Department.

Afterwards, Huber took a leadership position on an influential committee of U.S. attorneys that advises Sessions. (He was originally appointed to the panel by Obama-era Attorney General Loretta Lynch.)

"In a lot of respects, I think John Huber has become one of [Sessions's] go-to men," Tolman said.

One key difference between Huber and a special counsel is the level of autonomy — and presumably resources — he has. According to Sessions, Huber provides him with regular updates about his work.

Sessions did not close the door on appointing a second special counsel if Huber recommends it — although he has repeatedly indicated misgivings about such an appointment.

House Judiciary Committee Chairman Bob Goodlatte (R-Va.), House Oversight and Government Reform Chairman Trey Gowdy (R-S.C.) and Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman Chuck Grassley (R-Iowa) have all called for a second special counsel to investigate a variety of different conservative allegations related to the Obama-era Justice Department.

67) The backstory on R anon:

Shortly after #Qanon posted on July 4th, someone going under the name R anon showed up on 8chan.

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/Di9sh8YUUA1bGNO.jpg>

- 68) R anon suggested that the plan was for #Qanon to cease posting because he was taking over.
- 69) The lack of posts by #Qanon seemed a good enough reason for people to follow R anon.
- 70) My position was that no change of leadership was authorized unless and until we received direct confirmation from #QAnon. Without confirmation, I thought it better to focus on past drops while we waited for Q to return.
- 71) The dilemma of who to follow in the absence of a clear, direct order from command is the basis of the film, "Crimson Tide."

(It might be worth watching if you haven't seen it.)

Crimson Tide (film)

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Crimson Tide is a 1995 American submarine film directed by Tony Scott, and produced by Don Simpson and Jerry Bruckheimer. It takes place during a period of political turmoil in the Russian Federation, in which ultranationalists threaten to launch nuclear missiles at the United States and Japan. It focuses on a clash of wills between the new executive officer (Denzel Washington) of a U.S. nuclear missile submarine and its seasoned commanding officer (Gene Hackman), arising from conflicting interpretations of an order to launch their missiles. Its story parallels a real incident during the Cuban Missile Crisis, albeit aboard a Soviet rather than U.S. submarine.

The film was scored by Hans Zimmer, who won a Grammy Award for the main theme, which makes heavy use of synthesizers in place of traditional orchestral instruments.

An extended cut, which incorporated seven minutes of deleted scenes, was released on DVD in 2006. When the film was released on Blu-ray two years later, however, the film was restored to the theatrical version.<sup>[2]</sup>

In light of news that the President's former attorney Michael Cohen taped one of their conversations, consider this Q drop from April.

Cohen raid by FBI?
Public context: re: payment to Stormy Daniels?
SC & FBI raided POTUS' attorney to pull Stormy Daniels payment info?
RR signed off?
What other docs were collected?
How many places raided?
Raid on the President of the United States' attorney for payment details re: private case
re: Stormy Daniels?
Think logically.
How do you introduce evidence into an investigation (legally)?
Who has everything?
Methods which info collected/ obtained?
Admissible in the court of law?
Insert Rudy.
First public statement.
"It shouldn't take more than "a week or two" to come to a resolution on the probe."

Think resignations.
Who has the POWER?
If POTUS was in a weakened position (about to be impeached/indicted) would 'they' resign?
Why are we here?
Public forum.
World watching.
Sharing of intel to bad actors?
Purpose?
Not confirming SC is on /team/.
