7) Despite knowing the Steele dossier was bogus, despite exculpatory statements made by George Papadopoulos and despite the FBI having no derogatory information on General Flynn, Rod Rosenstein issued a memo in August of 2017, authorizing Robert Mueller to investigate them.

8) The scope memo under discussion is not the original memo, but a second one, written 2 months after the Mueller investigation began.

Here's the original memo from Rosenstein that opened the Mueller investigation on May 17, 2017.

Scope memo #1 May 17, 2017

Office of the Deputy Attorney General
Washington, D.C. 20530

ORDER NO. 3915-2017

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COUNSEL
TO INVESTIGATE RUSSIAN INTERFERENCE WITH THE 2016 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION AND RELATED MATTERS

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Acting Attorney General, including 28 U.S.C. §§ 509, 510, and 515, in order to discharge my responsibility to provide supervision and management of the Department of Justice, and to ensure a full and thorough investigation of the Russian government's efforts to interfere in the 2016 presidential election, I hereby order as follows:

- (a) Robert S. Mueller III is appointed to serve as Special Counsel for the United States Department of Justice.
- (b) The Special Counsel is authorized to conduct the investigation confirmed by then-FBI Director James B. Comey in testimony before the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence on March 20, 2017, including:
 - (i) any links and/or coordination between the Russian government and individuals associated with the campaign of President Donald Trump; and
 - (ii) any matters that arose or may arise directly from the investigation; and
 - (iii) any other matters within the scope of 28 C.F.R. § 600.4(a).
- (c) If the Special Counsel believes it is necessary and appropriate, the Special Counsel is authorized to prosecute federal crimes arising from the investigation of these matters.
- (d) Sections 600.4 through 600.10 of Title 28 of the Code of Federal Regulations are applicable to the Special Counsel.

Date 5/17/17

9) On August 2nd, 2017, a second memo modifying the scope of the Mueller investigation was issued by Rosenstein.

Until yesterday, his memo was mostly redacted.

11) Apparently, there was also a third Rosenstein memo, issued in October of 2017 that may have broadened Mueller's investigation to include Roger Stone, Rick Gates, and Michael Cohen. That memo has not been made public.

to come. The transcripts are ready to release

Whatever else Rosenstein told Mueller remains secret to this day.

Now, there is more. The Justice Department has recently allowed members of some congressional committees to view the scope memos, and out of that has come the news that there was a third scope memo to Mueller. Dated Oct. 20, 2017, its contents remain a secret. But its very existence suggests something was going on behind the scenes in the relationship of Mueller and his supervisors at the Justice Department.

Was Mueller heading off in new directions, with Rosenstein belatedly giving him authorization to proceed? Was Mueller proposing to investigate people or events not known when he was originally appointed? Was there something else?

At the moment, the third scope memo, like most of the second scope memo, remains a secret. Mueller included a brief description of it in his report, revealing that Rosenstein reauthorized him to investigate Michael Cohen, Richard Gates, and Roger Stone "as part of a full and thorough investigation of the Russian government's efforts to interfere in the 2016 presidential election." But the report, as released, blacked out other names on the grounds of "personal privacy." It is not clear what parts of the investigation they represented, and it is not clear why a third scope memo was necessary in the first place.

12) Last night, Hannity predicted today would be a bad day for Adam Schiff.

Will the 53 declassified transcripts of House testimony be released?

13) The second scope memo now shows four of five people that Rosenstein authorized Mueller to investigate, but a 5th name is still redacted.

(I have no guess as to who it is.)
