Hatch Act

The Hatch Act, 5 U.S.C. §§ 7321-7326 (PDF) (HTML), limits certain political activities of most executive branch employees. For example, the law prohibits employees from engaging in political activity while on duty or in the Federal workplace. It also prohibits them from soliciting or receiving political contributions.

The U.S. Office of Special Counsel (OSC) is the agency responsible for enforcing the Hatch Act. General information about the Hatch Act may be found on the OSC website.

U.S. OFFICE OF SPECIAL COUNSEL

In addition to the prohibitions discussed herein, federal employees in the following agencies, divisions, or positions are "further-restricted" under the Hatch Act and cannot take an active part in political management or political campaigns (i.e., engage in political activity in concert with a political party, candidate for partisan political office, or partisan political group):

- Election Assistance Commission
- Federal Election Commission
- Office of the Director of National Intelligence
- Central Intelligence Agency
- Defense Intelligence Agency
- National Geospatial Intelligence Agency
- National Security Agency
- National Security Council
- National Security Division (NSD)
- Criminal Division (CD)
- Federal Bureau of Investigation
- Secret Service
- Office of Criminal Investigation (ORI)
- Office of Investigative Programs (CISOM)
- Office of Law Enforcement (ATF)
- Merit Systems Protection Board
- U.S. Office of Special Counsel
- Career members of the Senior Executive Service
- Administrative law judges, administrative appeals judges, and contract appeals board members.

Who We Are...

The U.S. Office of Special Counsel (OSC) is an independent federal investigative and prosecutorial agency. Our basic authorities come from four federal statutes: the Civil Service Reform Act, the Whistleblower Protection Act, the Hatch Act, and the Uniformed Services Employment & Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA).

OSC promotes compliance with the Hatch Act by providing advisory opinions about the law. Every year, OSC's Hatch Act Unit provides over a thousand advisory opinions, enabling individuals to determine whether their contemplated political activities are permitted under the Act. The Hatch Act Unit also enforces compliance with the Act by investigating alleged Hatch Act violations. Depending on the nature and severity of the violation, OSC may seek disciplinary action against an employee. OSC prosecutes Hatch Act violations before the Merit Systems Protection Board.

A Guide to the Hatch Act for Federal Employees

September 2014

https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DrBs1iSU0AEIST_.jpg

Understanding How the Hatch Act Applies to You

The Hatch Act generally applies to employees working in the executive branch of the federal government. The purpose of the Act is to maintain a federal workforce that is free from partisan political influence or coercion.

A Covered Employee:

- May not be a candidate for nomination or election to public office in a partisan election.
- May not use his or her official authority or influence to interfere with or affect the result of an election. For example:
- May not invite subordinate employees to political events or otherwise suggest to subordinates that they attend political events or undertake any partisan political activity.
- May not knowingly solicit or discourage the participation in any political activity of anyone who has business before their employing office.
- May not solicit, accept, or receive a donation or contribution for a partisan political party, candidate for partisan political office, or partisan political group. For example:
- May not host a political fundraiser;
- May not sell tickets to a political fundraiser;
- May not use any e-mail account or social media to distribute, send, or forward content that solicits political contributions.

A Covered Employee:

- May be a candidate in a nonpartisan election.
- May register and vote as they choose.
- May assist in voter registration drives.
- May participate in nonpartisan campaigns.
- May contribute money to political campaigns, political parties, or partisan political groups.
- May attend political fundraising functions.
- May attend political rallies and meetings.
- May join political clubs or parties.

What Happens if I Violate the Hatch Act?

An employee who violates the Hatch Act is subject to a range of disciplinary actions, including removal from federal service, reduction in grade, debarment from federal service for a period not to exceed 5 years, suspension, letter of reprimand, or a civil penalty not to exceed $1000.

* Further restricted employees, as described herein, may not engage in these activities.

Ask yourself a very simple question.

Why is the FAKE NEWS media continually expending resources to defame, debunk, and cast as a conspiracy, for, as they say, a nobody who started on 4chan?

Why did the FAKE NEWS media attempt to cast blame of recent events on the 'Q' movement?

Was it an attempt to silence?

32) The first article is a pathetic attempt to frighten people over the dangerous and bizarre Qanon conspiracy.

The author attempts to paint Nevada Congressional candidate Joyce Bentley as a kook for mentioning her concerns about the deep state.

A Nevada congressional candidate who backs Trump promoted the QAnon conspiracy theory
Republican candidate Joyce Bentley posted a 9-minute clip that claims the "deep state" occupies "the highest levels of power."

<https://www.newsweek.com/qanon-republican-congressional-candidate-promotes-conspiracy-theory-1195615>

33) The President's speculation that George Soros may have helped fund the migrant caravan sent the MSM into seizures. This article is their attempt to correct the record.

34) Speaking of George Soros and correcting the record... the next entry is from Soros' slave David Brock and Media Matters, again slamming Joyce Bentley for taking the red pill.

Nevada GOP-backed congressional candidate promotes QAnon video

The NRA's state association for Nevada also endorses Joyce Bentley

35) The next article is an embarrassing op-ed poking fun at POTUS for daring to have the Supreme Court rule on birthright citizenship by issuing an executive order.

(Don't waste your time reading it. I'd like to have those 3 minutes of my life back.)

37) Forget about the fact that the media spun this story into a week-long news cycle. The idea that someone would intentionally set up such an event for their benefit is just plain kooky.

'False Flag' Theory on Pipe Bombs Zooms From Right-Wing Fringe to Mainstream

Conspiratorial thinking has always been with us — the grassy knoll, the moon landing, the Freemasons. But it has been turbocharged in the Trump era.

40) Gab is a social media site used mostly (though not exclusively) by conservatives whose bad language has gotten them banned from Twitter. Silicon Valley used the synagogue shooting as a reason to try shutting down Gab & silencing the non-conformists.

Kicking Gab off the internet won't kill online extremism. It may make it worse.

Ms. Munro-Leighton confessed to Committee investigators that (1) she "just wanted to get attention"; (2) "it was a tactic"; and (3) "that was just a ploy." Potential violations of federal law include 18 U.S.C. §§ 1001 (materially false statements) and 1505 (obstruction).

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DrDFcttU0AA2IMf.jpg>

83) Munro-Leighton admitted she made up a story up about Judge Kavanaugh raping her and confessed she had never met him.

Link:

https://www.judiciary.senate.gov/imo/media/doc/2018-11-02%20CEG%20to%20DOJ%20FBI%20\(Munro-Leighton%20Referral\)%20with%20redacted%20enclosures.pdf%20with%20redacted%20enclosures.pdf)

Then, on October 3, 2018, Committee staff received an email from a Ms. Judy Munro-Leighton with a subject line claiming: “I am Jane Doe from Oceanside CA -- Kavanaugh raped me.”⁶ Ms. Munro-Leighton wrote that she was “sharing with you the story of the night that Brett Kavanaugh and his friend sexually assaulted and raped me in his car” and referred to “the letter that I sent to Sen. Kamala Harris on Sept. 19 with details of this vicious assault.” She continued: “I know that [‘Jane Doe’] will get no media attention, but I am deathly afraid of revealing any information about myself or my family.” She then included a typed version of the Jane Doe letter.

Eventually, on November 1, 2018, Committee investigators connected with Ms. Munro-Leighton by phone and spoke with her about the sexual-assault allegations against Judge Kavanaugh she had made to the Committee. Under questioning by Committee investigators, Ms. Munro-Leighton admitted, contrary to her prior claims, that she had not been sexually assaulted by Judge Kavanaugh and was not the author of the original “Jane Doe” letter. When directly asked by Committee investigators if she was, as she had claimed, the “Jane Doe” from Oceanside California who had sent the letter to Senator Harris, she admitted: “No, no, no. I did that as a way to grab attention. I am not Jane Doe . . . but I did read Jane Doe’s letter. I read the transcript of the call to your Committee. . . . I saw it online. It was news.”

Taxpayers fund Planned Parenthood and Planned Parenthood funds Democrat political candidates with your money.

► Q !mG7VJxZNCI 11/03/18 (Sat) 12:09:12 No.387

[D] Party Con:

When you can't raise money 'organically' through party (individual) donations (voter base) YOU STEAL IT from the American taxpayer and give it back to yourself in the form of campaign contributions.

[Example 1]

Planned Parenthood

<https://www.gao.gov/products/GAO-18-204R>

$1.5 billion provided in taxpayer funding over 3-year period.

[Case 1]

PP spent $30 million [disclosed - real estimates close to $65 million] in taxpayer subsidies to influence the outcome of the 2018 midterm elections.

[Conclusion]

Should it be legal for a taxpayer [D+R+I] funded organization to donate massive amounts of money to the D party in an effort to sway an election?

The Time is Now.

Patriots Fight!

"Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on the full armor of God so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand. Stand firm then, with the belt of truth buckled around your waist, with the breastplate of righteousness in place, and with your feet fitted with the readiness that comes from the gospel of peace. In addition to all this, take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the saints."

— Ephesians 6:10-18

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. —That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, —That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security."

— Declaration of Independence

We Will Do Our Job to Protect the Vote.

166) If you go to the polls, keep an eye out for trouble.
If you see anything suspicious notify the authorities.

► Q !ImG7VJxZNCI 11/04/18 (Sun) 15:33:58 No.405

[PANIC IN DC]

If you witness members of ANTIFA or any other people or organizations stationed at 'key' voter locations making threats or attempting to use scare tactics [voter intimidation] please contact local authorities immediately and report the incident(s).

Internal comms suggest preparations are being made and organized to conduct a 29+ location push [battleground locations].

See Something

Say Something

Uniformed and Non-Uniformed personnel will be stationed across the country in an effort to safeguard the public.

If you witness anything out of the ordinary with regards to staff, officials, machinery & equipment failures and/or malfunctions, unusual 'grouping' [buses dropping off people w/ guide and/or instructor], voter prevention [blocking], or other suspicious activity please contact local authorities immediately and report the incident(s).
