2) On Nov 4th, Robert Mueller sent his sentencing memo to a judge regarding General Flynn's case. Mueller recommended no jail time.

The unredacted document was made public. Predictably, the MSM hoped it spelled doom for POTUS.

Michael Flynn sentencing memo on Russia is a ticking time bomb for Team Trump

Donald Trump can deny the significance of Flynn's cooperation, but the redacted portions of Michael Flynn's sentencing memo are ticking time bombs.

Last December, Q told us the General had the dirt on everyone in DC and that he was safe.

Dear Chairmen Grassley, Goodlatte, and Gowdy:

I write in response to recent letters requesting the appointment of a Special Counsel to review certain prosecutorial and investigative determinations made by the Department of Justice in 2016 and 2017. I take the concerns you raise seriously.

Since I took this office, it has been my goal to establish the highest standards for our work and to maintain integrity and discipline throughout the Department of Justice. I know the Department, I respect it and its mission, and I love it and its people. I am deeply proud of the important work that the hardworking men and women of the Department do every day to fight violent crime, reduce opioid addiction and deaths, keep Americans safe from threats both foreign and domestic, and uphold the rule of law. We are determined to be worthy of the responsibility we have been given and to earn the trust of Congress and the American people. I appreciate your support for the Department and our law enforcement community.

It is important that Congress and the American people have confidence in the Department of Justice. No institution is perfect. That is why I and my senior leadership team, including FBI Director Wray, are working every day to ensure the deny the existence thereof. This is integral to our duty to adhere to the highest ethical standards, and to ensure that prosecutorial and investigative decisions are made without political bias or favoritism—in either direction.

As you are aware, I have asked the Department's Inspector General, Michael E. Horowitz, to review certain matters that you and some members of your committees have raised in recent and previous letters. In addition to his ongoing investigation, the Inspector General has now confirmed that he has opened a review into the Department's compliance with certain legal requirements and Department and FBI policies and procedures with respect to certain applications filed with the U.S. Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court.

Congress created the Department's Office of the Inspector General explicitly for the purpose of, among other things, investigating alleged violations of criminal and civil laws by Department employees, including actions taken by former employees after they have left government service. The Inspector General's jurisdiction extends not only to allegations of legal violations, but also to allegations that Department employees violated established policies as well.

Sessions also confirmed that the Inspector General has the ability to convene Grand Juries and refer criminal cases to US Attorneys, such as John Huber.

To carry out these duties, Title 5 of the United States Code provides the Inspector General with broad discretion and significant investigative powers. The office currently employs approximately 470 staff, a significant number of whom are lawyers, auditors, and investigators who may exercise wide discretion on matters under their jurisdiction. If the Inspector General finds evidence of criminal wrongdoing, he may refer it to a United States Attorney who can then convene a grand jury or take other appropriate actions. To be clear, the Inspector General has the authority to investigate allegations of wrongdoing, collect evidence through subpoena, and develop cases for presentation to the Attorney General and the Deputy Attorney General for prosecution or other action. The Inspector General also may, under appropriate circumstances, make information available to the public even if no criminal or disciplinary action is recommended. In contrast, this type of information would not normally be publicly available after the conclusion of a traditional criminal investigation.

Mr. Huber is conducting his work from outside the Washington, D.C. area and in cooperation with the Inspector General. The additional matters raised in your March 6, 2018, letter fall within the scope of his existing mandate, and I am confident that Mr. Huber's review will include a full, complete, and objective evaluation of these matters in a manner that is consistent with the law and the facts. I receive regular updates from Mr. Huber and upon the conclusion of his review, will receive his recommendations as to whether any matters not currently under investigation should be opened, whether any matters currently under investigation require further resources, or whether any matters merit the appointment of a Special Counsel.

We understand that the Department is not above criticism and it can never be that the Department conceals errors when they occur. I expect every person in this Department to adhere to the highest level of integrity, ethics, and professionalism. If anyone falls short of these high standards, I will fulfill my responsibility to take necessary action to protect the integrity of our work.

Thank you for your leadership on these and other matters. Chairman
Committee on the Judiciary
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, DC 20515

NOV 13 2017

Dear Chairman Goodlatte:

This responds to your letters dated July 27, 2017, and September 26, 2017, in which you and other Members request the appointment of a Special Counsel to investigate various matters, including the sale of Uranium One, alleged unlawful dealings related to the Clinton Foundation and other matters. We are sending identical responses to the other Members who joined your letter.

As noted during our prior meeting in response to your letters, the Department of Justice (Department) takes seriously its responsibility to provide timely and accurate information to Congress on issues of public interest, and seeks to do so in a non-political manner that is consistent with the Department's litigation, law enforcement, and national security responsibilities. Additionally, the Department's leadership has a duty to carefully evaluate the status of ongoing matters to ensure that justice is served and that the Department's communications with Congress are accurate and complete.

To further that goal, the Attorney General has directed senior federal prosecutors to evaluate certain issues raised in your letters. These senior prosecutors will report directly to the Attorney General and the Deputy Attorney General, as appropriate, and will make recommendations as to whether any matters not currently under investigation should be opened, whether any matters currently under investigation require further resources, or whether any matters merit the appointment of a Special Counsel. This will better enable the Attorney General and the Deputy Attorney General to more effectively evaluate and manage the caseload. In conducting this review, all allegations will be reviewed in light of the Principles of Federal Prosecution. (USAM 9-27.000) facts and the law. Professionalism, integrity, and public confidence in the Department are critical for us, and no priority is higher.

Your letter referenced various allegations related to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) handling of the investigation into former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton's use of a personal email server. On January 12, 2017, the Department's Inspector General (IG) sent a letter to you and other Members advising that the IG's office was initiating a review of, among other things:

- Allegations that Department or FBI policies or procedures were not followed in connection with, or in actions leading up to or related to, the FBI Director's public announcement on July 5, 2016, and the Director's letters to Congress on October 28 and November 6, 2016, and that certain underlying investigative decisions were based on improper considerations;
- Allegations that the FBI Deputy Director should have been recused from participating in certain investigative matters;
- Allegations that Department and FBI employees improperly disclosed non-public information; and
- Allegations that decisions regarding the timing of the FBI's release of certain Freedom of Information Act documents on October 30 and November 1, 2016, and the use of a Twitter account to publicize the same, were influenced by improper considerations.

These investigations include issues raised in your letters. In addition, the Department has forwarded a copy of your letters to the IG so he can determine whether he should expand the scope of his investigation based on the information contained in those letters.

Once the IG's review is complete, the Department will assess what, if any, additional steps are necessary to address any issues identified by that review.

We know the information Q provides is reliable because the odds of so-called coincidences approach mathematical impossibility.

Q's information is presented as coincidences. If we find the information ourselves and piece it together, drawing our own conclusions, it avoids future legal entanglements.

RE: FUSION GPS

Dear Mr. Taylor:

I write on behalf of Perkins Coie LLP as its General Counsel. We understand that your client, Fusion GPS, has received a number of requests for information regarding the identity of clients who engaged Fusion GPS to conduct research during the 2016 Presidential campaign. We further are aware that Fusion GPS is currently engaged in litigation in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in an effort to prevent the compelled disclosure of its bank records which would reveal confidential client information.

We recognize the important principle of client confidentiality, and we appreciate your efforts to fulfill your obligation to maintain client confidentiality. In the circumstances, however, we believe it is appropriate to release Fusion GPS from this obligation as it relates to the identity of Perkins Coie. Further, given the interest in this issue, we believe it would be appropriate for all parties who hired Fusion GPS in connection with the 2016 presidential campaign to release Fusion GPS from this obligation as well. Finally, now that the appropriate client representatives have been informed of the specifics of our engagement with Fusion GPS, and with their consent, Perkins Coie therefore authorizes you to disclose the following:

Fusion GPS approached Perkins Coie in early March of 2016 and, aware that Perkins Coie represented the Democratic National Committee ("DNC") and HFACC, Inc. ("Hillary for America") with respect to the 2016 elections, expressed interest in an engagement with the firm in connection with the 2016 presidential election to continue research regarding then-Presidential candidate Donald Trump, research that Fusion GPS had conducted for one or more other clients during the Republican primary contest.

No one knew just how bad the breach was — but it was clear that a lot more than a single filing cabinet worth of materials might have been taken. A secret committee was immediately created, including Ms. Dacey, Ms. Wasserman Schultz, Mr. Brown and Michael Sussmann, a former cybercrimes prosecutor at the Department of Justice who now works at Perkins Coie, the Washington law firm that handles D.N.C. political matters.

Rapid Fire (1992 film)

Plot

The film opens in Thailand, with Antonio Serrano (Nick Mancuso), a mafia drug distributor visiting long-time associate Kinman Tau (Tzi Ma), a drug kingpin. Serrano is having troubles and wants them to work together, but his request is not reciprocated.

Turned off from politics after witnessing the death of his father at Tiananmen Square in China, Los Angeles art student Jake Lo (Brandon Lee) is lured to a party of Chinese pro-democracy activists. While there, he witnesses Serrano killing party sponsor Carl Chang (Michael Paul Chan), who was an associate of Tau. When Serrano and his men attempt to kill Jake, he swiftly disarms them using martial arts techniques. Jake is placed under protective custody by federal agents, who coerce him into coming to Chicago and testifying against Serrano.

When the agents at the safe house are revealed to be corrupt, Jake escapes through the window and encounters a young police detective named Karla Withers (Kate Hodge), with whom he develops an immediate bond. Withers' partner, Lieutenant Mace Ryan (Powers Boothe), helps Jake evade his pursuers and reveals that he had been pursuing Tau for 10 years.

Jake is persuaded by Ryan to help him exploit Serrano's FBI ties and obtain information about Tau's next shipment. Though the sting operation is successful, Jake is nearly killed in a barrage of gunfire and assaults Ryan after he reveals his involvement wasn't necessary. Later that night, Jake and Karla begin a romance and have sex in her apartment, while Ryan and his team lead a raid at the revealed location of the next shipment: Tau's laundry factory. Both the lovemaking and the events of the raid are shown alternately as they occur in actual time, culminating with Serrano being murdered in his cell by one of Tau's henchman.

Jake, Ryan and Withers subsequently team up to bring down Tau once more. Though Ryan and Withers are captured by Tau's men, Jake rescues them and eventually kills Tau at a train platform. He and Karla then evacuate Ryan from the burning factory and ride to the hospital together in an ambulance.

WHAT IS A SCIF?

SCIF

Sensitive Compartmented Information Facility (pronounced "skiff"), a U.S. Department of Defense term for a secure room. It can be a secure room or data center that guards against electronic surveillance and suppresses data leakage of sensitive security and military information. SCIFs are used to deny unauthorized personnel, such as foreign intelligence services or corporate spies, the opportunity for undetected entry into facilities for the exploitation of sensitive activities.

Other industry definitions include:

ACS

Access Control System.

Another High-Ranking FBI Official to Depart

BYRON TAU DECEMBER 04, 2018

WASHINGTON—A top FBI official who helped oversee two politically sensitive investigations related to the 2016 presidential campaign is retiring from government service.

Bill Priestap, who currently serves as assistant director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation's counterintelligence division, will leave his post by the end of the year. Mr. Priestap, a 20-year veteran of the bureau, worked on organized crime and drug cases in Chicago before rising through the national security ranks of the agency after the terrorist attacks of Sept. 11, 2001.

Mr. Priestap's retirement is unrelated to the controversies over the handling of the 2016 investigations, according to a person familiar with the matter. He "became eligible to retire and has chosen to do so after 20 years of service," the FBI said in a statement.

The federal government allows some employees, including FBI agents, to retire with full benefits if they are 50 or older and have at least two decades of service.

During the 2016 campaign, Mr. Priestap was one of several officials at the center of two politically volatile probes: the investigation into Hillary Clinton's handling of classified information, and a counterintelligence inquiry into whether associates of then-candidate Donald Trump colluded with the Russian government.

After Mr. Priestap's departure, none of the high-ranking bureau officials involved in the two investigations will remain with the bureau. FBI director James Comey was fired by President Trump last year, and Deputy Director Andrew McCabe was later dismissed by then-Attorney General Jeff Sessions over his contacts with the media, days before he was eligible to retire with benefits.

Peter Strzok, the chief of the counterespionage section, left the FBI this year after it emerged that he had sent disparaging text messages about Mr. Trump.

Top bureau officials, especially those with national security experience, are in high demand in private-sector fields like cybersecurity, defense contracting and private intelligence. Mr. Priestap's future plans aren't known.

Documents and congressional testimony show that Mr. Priestap was in the inner circle of FBI decision makers for both investigations. According to emails released by Congress, Mr. Priestap helped Mr. Comey edit a 2016 public statement on the investigation into Mrs. Clinton, who didn't face charges, though Mr. Comey said she had been careless with classified material.

Mr. Priestap also supervised Mr. Strzok, and a June watchdog report said the Russia investigation was under Mr. Priestap's supervision. Special Counsel Robert Mueller took over handling the probe last year.

A memo prepared by House Republicans, which criticized FBI decisions during the 2016 election, indicated that Mr. Priestap was involved in efforts to verify a dossier of salacious, unconfirmed information concerning Mr. Trump's ties to Russia. The dossier was used, in part, to obtain a secret surveillance warrant against a one-time Trump campaign adviser, according to the memo.

The Clinton and Trump investigations have come under enormous political scrutiny, with partisans on each side saying the bureau mishandled the inquiries.

Many Republicans, including Mr. Trump, have said that the FBI should have charged Mrs. Clinton with a crime. They have further accused the bureau of conducting illegal surveillance on Trump advisers.

The counterintelligence investigation, which originally opened during the campaign, whom Mr. Trump has repeatedly accused of conducting a partisan witch hunt.

Democrats have expressed frustration that the FBI criticized Mrs. Clinton in announcing its decision not to prosecute her, a departure from normal practice. They have also criticized Mr. Comey for reopening the Clinton investigation shortly before Election Day after obtaining new evidence, with some saying that it cost Mrs. Clinton the election.

109) If I were Priestap & I knew what he knew, I'd be the first to flip and I'd make my own deal with Sessions:

- I'll tell you everything I know.
- I keep my position and retire at 20 years with benefits.
- Nothing is leaked to the press about my cooperation.

(Just a hunch.)

110) Here's the latest list of FBI & DOJ employees who have been removed from power and those who remain.

It also means he must do the required work before his replacement is sworn in.

3. Meeting between Comey and Coleman on October 4

Comey's Outlook calendar for October 4 contains an entry for "Morning Briefs" from 8:15 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. that is immediately followed by an entry for "Meeting w/EAD Coleman" from 9:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. Coleman told us that he could not recall this briefing with Comey. Coleman stated that staying behind to brief Comey would be consistent with normal practice, but added that he did not recall this specific instance. Coleman told us that it would be unusual to have a one-on-one meeting with Comey and told us someone else would typically be present at these briefings, such as the DD or ADD. While not remembering this meeting, Coleman speculated that this may have been a one-on-one meeting with Comey to discuss Coleman's upcoming retirement from the FBI in December 2016.

Coleman told us that he kept regularly took notes in a journal. Coleman's notes from October 4 contained the following entry:

- (1) Anthony Wiener [sic]
- (2) [Unrelated]
- (3) Wiener [sic] - texting 15 yo - Sexually Explicit
9/26 - Federal SW - iPhone/IPAD/Laptop
Initial analysis of laptop - thousands emails
Hillary Clinton & Foundation
Crime Against Children

We asked Coleman about these notes and he told us that, given their placement in his notebook, the notes would most likely represent information he was briefed on first thing in the morning by his subordinates in the Criminal Investigative Division. Coleman stated that he may have passed this information to other FBI executives after the morning briefing with the Director, but he could not remember if that occurred here.
