Link to "The Steps Of Kindom Background"

<http://loveforlife.com.au/node/8305>

We have split this remedy document into two because we felt it was getting too long and that people might not get to the actual steps that are "The Steps Of Kindom". All the background information to the steps, that we are still revising, can now be found here: <http://loveforlife.com.au/node/8305>, with links to all the recent videos, articles, etc, that give the bigger picture as to why the steps are so important and, indeed, the ONLY remedy that we have come across that provides, freedom, truth, peace, joy, abundance and do no harm for all of life without loss of uniqueness/originality and without the need for slaves and rulers.

The First Step - Scrutinise

The first step is to scrutinise ALL the information you base your life on to determine the information that is maintaining and supporting harm and suffering, and the information of LIFE that supports and maintains LIFE. If we are to co-create a world of Do No Harm, we can use ONLY the information of LIFE because NONE of the information of "The System" can be used to co-create a world of Do No Harm. While we are learning to live in ways that do no harm, we will obviously still be using the information of "The System" and some of the tools of "The System" but it is vital that we can distinguish between the information of "The System" that does harm and the information of life that does no harm so that we know what to wean out of our lives. This means we have to learn and contemplate, learn and contemplate for a while so that we are clear what to avoid. It is vital that we comprehend exactly how we have become trapped in "The System" so that we can see how to get out of it. See The Ninth Step below for more on this. All the while you are learning and defining the dream of Kindom, you can start growing food, eating raw food, drinking clean water and detoxifying your body. Your body will start to heal and your thoughts will become clearer the more you do this.

The more pure and sincere your intention to co-create a world without harm and the clearer your dream, the better the choices you make in terms of who you co-create with and how you co-create will be, so that the dream of Kindom does not become more compromised than it has to be. Then you need to start talking, sharing your dream with others until you find others who share the same dream so that you can begin to work together, being vigilant about not allowing the intellectual property of "The System" to sabotage your dream. This document will help here.

Once you have some people to work with, you are already co-creating Kindom, your tribe, even if you are still living separately for the time being. Keep co-creating the vision of Kindom as you learn so there is no vagary and anything that does not fit the dream is out. Work out how to gradually remove more and more of your Kindom from "The System", getting as sustainable as possible while "The System" is still there.

Keep growing food all the while you are growing relationships, just don't get distracted by people who have a different dream loaded with intellectual property. Remember; what you put into your dream is what you set into motion, which is why you have to be so vigilant about what you are thinking and feeling.

The most difficult part of co-creating Kindom is learning how to live peacefully with each other again which is why forming the tribe is so important. There are many communities with land but many of them fail because they haven't learnt how to overcome "personality" and ego problems.

When you start talking, expect many to view you as a nutcase! This goes with the territory of creating Kindom, but you will find those who share your dream as you create the dream of Kindom around you. It is the gift of life we create for others that sets us all free. When we are all permanently serving each other with gifts of life we are all the wind under each other's wings taking us to paradise and forever maintaining paradise. While the flow of MAN'S gift of life is set into motion, we co-create paradise in present sense.

The Second Step - Taking Care Of Love

As we develop relationships with others, we help each other to wean off system thoughts and emotional baggage. When we can distinguish between thoughts that are our own and thoughts that have been imprinted in our brains by the images of "The System", we comprehend the demons that keep us apart and learn to fade them out of our thinking. We learn to be non-judgemental and unconditional.

When we are conscious, we do not need money because we give freely without conditions. So, if I give you some apples because I have plenty, and you give me some pears because you have plenty, we are not "trading" or "exchanging" because that implies conditions. I give you the apples whether you give me the pears or not, because I have plenty to share. You give me pears whether I give you apples or not because you have plenty to share. When we all give freely, we all have plenty. Take care of love and love takes care of everything else. There is no need for trade or commerce or money. They are all fictions.

We can start sharing what we have with those who share the dream so that we can all move forward together. While we are still compromised, we still use money when we have to but we can still start giving our life energy to others for free without fee or condition. When we all feel, think, and perform acts of love on a daily basis to benefit others, we receive acts of love towards our lives tenfold. Look at how Anastasia (see "The Ringing Cedars of Russia" series here: <http://loveforlife.com.au/node/1125>) lives all the time.

The Third Step - Forming Community Immunity

As the relationships and commitments between us deepen, so we are forming Community Immunity. Once we are all together nothing can break us apart if we do not let it. What happens to one happens to all of us. We live our lives for the benefit of each other. No self-centredness comes into the picture. This is Community Immunity in action. When we stand firm as a tribe, we are strong against any attacks from the force of "The System".

Concerns that arise amongst us do not affect the living dream because we know that we can work through issues that arise without needing a back door if we are challenged. None of us are perfect and we do not need to be perfect to co-create Kindom. What we do have to be aware of is that we all carry baggage of "The System" that will rise to confront us from time to time. We can choose to let go of that baggage or to hold onto it but, if we are not willing to let it go, we will never be able to co-create Kindom.

We do not have to be concerned about that which we have no control over. Those who are not pure and sincere in their intent or are unwilling to let go of the constructs of "The System" will not stick around because those focused on the living dream of Kindom will not be tempted by the distractions they offer. A lone spark cannot make a fire. If someone is peddling a belief system, they will not have much success if everybody else is too busy co-creating the gardens and the community centres to pay attention to their stories.

If someone comes with bad intentions, to take advantage of what is on offer without the willingness to contribute, the curse of their impure and insincere intentions will come back to hurt them, not us. We will not accept abuse or violence but we will not tell someone to leave because Kindom has no leaders and we do not have the right to dictate to others. However, it is unlikely that a user will stick around without changing his/her intentions because it will not be comfortable for them to be around those whose intentions are pure and sincere.

Many men and women get caught up in Anastasia's dream (the "Ringing Cedars of Russia" series see: <http://www.loveforlife.com.au/node/1125>) but the dream of Kindom is not just her dream. We all have the power to co-create dreams that expand the living dream of life and we don't want to fall into the trap of thinking that we must follow Anastasia's dream. No Man is supposed to be in the image of another Man's thought which is what happens if we try to model our Kindoms on Anastasia's model. Some people who have been inspired by Anastasia's dream have even started expressing their thoughts and feelings using the same language and imagery that she uses - where is their uniqueness in all of this?

The Ringing Cedars series have some wonderful insights but a lot of fiction as well. Let's not fall into the trap of blind belief just because "Anastasia said...." Remember that none of us have heard anything directly from the mouth of Anastasia about what Vladimir has written. As with all information, we still have to be vigilant and keep using our brains. ## The Fourth Step Holding Hands To Wean Our Lives Of "The System"

The tribe uses its combined fiction (intellectual property) to step out of the fiction. While they still have any fictional, commercial value, we sell up houses, land, assets, etc, to buy a piece of land for Kindom, unless it is bequeathed or we set the land free from "The System", something we are currently working on. We cannot own LIFE, which means that no one owns the land but we take responsibility for protecting and nurturing that land and returning it to Paradise, repairing the damage done by centuries of greed and selfishness. This is the start of letting go of "The System" and all the temptations of "The System", including beliefs, faiths and opinions that support harm to LIFE. We each need to make the sacrifice (acts of love) to give up all the fictions we presently believe we own, when we know we don't own anything at all. We are conscious co-creators.

It may not be practical for everyone of the tribe to come together at once, due to our compromised state, but some who are able to do so can make a start, with those who are not yet ready to move can visit and support through gifts of money, resources and/or skills even while they live elsewhere. While they are supporting from afar, those on the land are creating the infrastructure that will provide a place for them to come when they can. This is all part of the transition from life in "The System" to life in Kindom. It is the tribe that is important for without the tribe, land is nothing.

There is no right or wrong as far as who brings what to Kindom. Someone may have the fictional dollars to buy land and/or keep us going before we are completely out of "The System", but someone else may be a fountain of useful information about how to grow food forests or create sustainable homes, while an elderly woman with one leg may be great with children and know how to preserve food and use food to heal. One is not worth more than another; we are all unique and we each bring our uniqueness to Kindom which is why every Kindom is unique, the sum of the uniqueness of each man, woman or child of the tribe.

While the truth lives for all of us, we have the freedom to co-create in the image of our uniqueness. Only the belief in fiction fashions clones. We are no one's sheep nor shepherd. Each Kindom will be unique because of the unique men, women and children in them.

The only guideline required is DO NO HARM.

The Fifth Step - Cleaning Up

Where to go? Obviously, the goal is to have Kindoms all across Earth so right where you are could be a good place to start. It is easy to want to run off to places where it is unspoilt, beautiful and far away from everything of "The System" but, when we do this, we are not taking responsibility for the mess we have ALL contributed to. To run away is to give up responsibility for the harm that we are all responsible for. We all contribute to the harm so the responsibility to heal the damage lies with all of us. We have all contributed to the decimation of Earth through agriculture and animal husbandry. While it is ideal to have a bit of bush on the land you are co-creating with, it is also important that much of it is land that has been harmed that you can regenerate, thus contributing to the healing of Earth. If you are lucky enough to have a couple of acres, start there. If you live in town, your tribe may not be able to live together but you can still form bonds and grow food in each other's gardens, learn together, eat together and start to form Kindom images in your children's brains, rather than all the system images they (and you) are constantly bombarded with.

There is nowhere we can go to escape "The System". It's tentacles spread across the whole of Earth and those behind "The System" have the technology to find anyone anywhere. There is no point trying to hide. It is better to be out in the open for all to see so that, if those behind "The System" want to send in their enFORCERs, they have to come out into the open to do so.

We are determined to co-create Kindom close enough to the major centres of Sydney and Canberra so that it is easy for people to come and visit. Our goal is to provide a living demonstration of a Do No Harm life outside "The System" so we need to be easily accessible for those looking for inspiration and information.

The Sixth Step - The Mud Room

The first stage of Kindom is to establish a community centre on a small part of the land, perhaps ten acres. (Again, if you don't have land, you can still start a "mud room" in your tribe just by working together to wean off system information.) We all live closely with each other, in yurts, tepees, caravans, sheds, portable homes and cabins while we co-create all the community gardens and infrastructure, including a community school taking ideas from the Shchetinin school in Russia, to take care of basic needs.

See: Mikhail Petrovich Shchetinin - Kin's School - Lycee School at Tekos:

<http://loveforlife.com.au/node/5173>

We call this community centre "THE MUD ROOM" because, just as in a house you go through the mudroom to leave behind wet raincoats and muddy boots before entering the house, so the mud room to Kindom is where we let go of the beliefs of "The System" that we do not want to take out into the larger part of the land. The Mud Room is where we heal our bodies of diseases and addictions through a living raw food diet and other natural healing methods, and where we learn how to live with each other without rules, regulations and rituals, and without leaders and followers. There will no doubt be lots of talking and some arguing but if this is what needs to be done, so be it. However, getting on with the infrastructure is also vital so it is important not to get so caught up in discussions that nothing gets done. Learning to recognise our baggage helps us learn to ignore it and go and get on with something useful! Letting go of the baggage is not giving time and attention to baggage thoughts and feelings and this takes practice. Sometimes we just have to say, "Those are not thoughts I want to think, so I will think about something else." We may have to do this fifty or a thousand times over before the thought demons start to fade away. We are not our feelings and we do not have to be ruled by our feelings.

It is our preoccupation with the dreams (shadows/self-centeredness) of "The System" that causes all the chaos, destruction and harm to the living dream of the life that we are part of. Very few communities, if any, have ever survived attacks from the men, women and children infected by the dreams of "The System". It is very important that we do not allow any of the information of "The System" to spread out from The Mud Room into the Kindom/Kin-Domains. If we do so, we will just be bringing "The System" with us to our Kin Domains and we will still be giving our life energy to "The System". All we will be creating will be another system.

The dream of Kindom is one where we return to living as fully conscious MAN in nature without ANY prosthetic of "The System". When one of us will be ready to do this we do not know but it is vital that, when that moment comes, there is pristine land for them to live in this way. The Kindom land has no connection to "The System" which is why we will not move there until we are ready to do with out all the services of "The System". It is vital that we never forget this dream, even though it may not be our generation or the next or the next that learns to live as fully conscious MAN again . The steps of Kindom are those of the Mud Room and the Kin Domains. Many people's dream stops here but we do not forget that paradise is found where MAN was before MAN fell. Therefore, we see the Kin Domains as some of the stepping stones that return us to Kindom.

The Mud Room is a separate, although adjoining, piece of land to the large Kindom land. The Mud Room maintains the contracts with "The System" until such time as there is either no system or because we are big enough not to worry about it. Ideally, there will be enough of us able to take on responsibility for the Mud Room land right away so there will not have to be any contracts with "The System". Obviously, the fewer contracts the better, so we will make the Mud Room as sustainable as possible, using alternative energy, composting systems and recycled materials, particularly waste, to build the infrastructure. There is no commerce, trade or barter in the Mud Room because everything we receive in the Mud Room is given freely as gifts of love. Thus, those coming for workshops, food, healing, etc, are not charged because we give everything for free without a fee without conditions or contracts, but they are welcome to give gifts if and when they choose to, without conditions or contracts either. This minimises the curses and prevents us having to process them because the loving intention takes over. There is no greed or selfishness involved because we are doing what we do for Kindom.

When the infrastructure of the Mud Room is complete, the land size may grow as men, women and families move out onto hectares of land, not yet ready to live as MAN in nature (Kindom) but ready to take full responsibility for their thoughts, feelings and actions and for their bodies. They eat a living food diet and build a sustainable home, use free energy and get their food forests started. They are supported in all of this by the tribe, just as they support those in other Kin Domains and the Mud Room. As we get the infrastructure of the Mud Room established, we live as gifts of LIFE that benefit not just the tribe but the wider community. Out in the open, we are a magnet for those seeking a way out of the chaos of "The System". This protects us from the enFORCERs of "The System" while the tribe grows and we learn more and more about how to live Do No Harm.

As we grow and learn, we are able to offer our gifts of LIFE to those outside the community for free without a fee, offering workshops on Kindom and related topics as well as teaching people to heal their bodies of so-called fatal diseases, offering surplus food for the benefit of the community as well as preparing delicious raw food for them to sample so that they learn how to truly nourish their bodies and brains. The wider community is welcome to visit and participate. Perhaps there could be a community garden for those of the wider community who wish to grow food but do not have the space to do it, their children could come to the Community school, etc. As the tribe grows and we have the infrastructure necessary, we are able to offer sanctuary for those needing to escape from "The System", whether because they have been harmed by the lackeys of "The System" or just because they need a place to rest for a while.

Being out in the open with connections to those living around us and with a profile on the internet through the website, music and videos (while the internet is still running) is our protection from a Waco situation. If we are constantly spreading the word that we are not a religion, a cult or a sect, we are non violent, we do not have weapons, we do not take drugs and drink alcohol, and that we are all about Do No Harm, it is very hard for those behind "The System" to conduct a smear campaign and justify the destruction of Kindom.

We also become the Pandora's box of the dark side as tens of thousands come every year to be healed, cleansed and inspired. We are breaking down the program of the dark side and replacing it with the program of co-creation as many who work in "The System" leave once they realise what they are a part of. We travel to areas where people are inspired to co-create Kindoms to assist if required.

The Seventh Step - Transition

As we move into our Kin Domains, the infrastructure we have set up as the mud room becomes the healing centre, visitors centre, school, live food restaurant/cafe, film/music/art production, with everything we do from the beginning being acts of love for others. We are all taken care of and do not have to worry about healthy freshly picked organic living food, clean living water or non-toxic soulful shelter. Just as a tree drops its twigs to the ground while it keeps growing and those twigs nourish the soil, so the infrastructure that we no longer need benefits others.

This is how life works, and the bonds we have formed in our time in the mud room, teaching us to live for the tribe, will have us all giving some of our time every week, for the rest of our lives, to serving those who come for healing or to visit and learn. The wider community can send their children to the community school and use our other services which supports the living dream of Kindom, causing the living dream of Kindom to spread everywhere until there is no such thing as dead, unconscious, non-living suburbs, towns and cities full of lots & plots, fences, dead roads & dead buildings.

The Mud Room is the out-reach centre of the Kindom, the bridge between those still living in "The System" and those living in Kindom.

The Eighth Step - Co-Creating With The Land

The eighth step is when we are all living as caretakers of the land, conscious living creators that do no harm in feeling, thought, word or deed. Our children are co-created with the intention to expand the dream of life and are brought up in nature so that they learn the information of life directly from life forms of life and co-create with life uniquely. Our food forests are grown and our life sustainable homes are built. Free from toiling to provide our daily needs, we are able to contemplate on expanding the dream of life and rejoice in the beauty that life has to offer. There is no exclusivity and privilege and no one is left out. We are healing all the damage done and Earth is returning to its pristine origins. There are Kindoms across Earth where we can access food and shelter if we choose to travel, and the tribes of the Kindoms support each other in the protection and co-creation of the dream of life. "The System" is just a memory that reminds us what happens when MAN gives life to thoughts that are not of the dream of life.

The Ninth Step - Comprehending The Grip Of "The System"

The "Name" Is The Mark Of The Beast The Strawman Identifying Your Slave Status In "The System"

Below is an explanation of the "name" we are given for our characters of "The System" which we use to contract with "The System" and the consequences (the sequence of the con) of renting that name. It is vital to comprehend how the name is used to bind us to "The System" and what we have to do to disassociate from the names of "The System" because, to co-create Kindom (real freedom, truth, peace, joy, abundance and do no harm for all of life without causing loss of uniqueness and without the need for slaves and rulers) successfully, we have to leave everything of "The System" behind. Any contracts we have with "The System" perpetuate "The System" and while "The System" exists, harm doing, chaos and destruction exist. As explained in the Sixth Step, the Mud Room will have contracts with "The System" for as long as necessary but Kindom land has no contracts with "The System". We have called this The Ninth Step but it really permeates through all the steps because it is the key to freeing our brains from the brainwashing of "The System".

The Name That Binds You

The "name" you are given as a slave (renter) of "The System" is what binds you to "The System". This is the name on the birth certificate, citizenship papers, passport, Medicare card, bank cards and all other identification documents of "The System". For example, when parents sign for the birth certificate, they have agreed for the State to take responsibility for the administration of the name of the baby but they have made a claim on that name and have agreed to take full-responsibility for the rental of the intellectual property that is the name of the baby so that they can perform business with "The System", administered by the administrators of "The System", and receive the benefits of "The System" for the name (the baby). In truth, no one owns the name but, in claiming it, we take on the responsibility for the business conducted under the name.

By claiming the name, we give those of "The System" the authority to make decisions on behalf of our names because they administer the intellectual property of that name, which gives the impression that they are ruling over us. They do not see the living men, women and children, living co-creators that we really are, however, because they are only interested in the intellectual property of the name that we are renting and the benefits that "The System" is providing which they administer on behalf of the name.

The "Name" Is The Mark Of The Beast

The "name" is the mark of the beast because "The System" is the beast. Without the "name" you can't perform in "The System" (the intellectual property) of commerce. Barter is a very mild version of "intellectual property", but it is still a lie because no one "owns" anything. As strangers, you can exchange "goods" (again, intellectual property) with each other without either party knowing the other's name but if one of the parties is underdone/ripped-off/tricked/d-eceived/let-down/misled/etc, he/she/they may pursue the stranger by going to all the tribes in the region and give a description of the culprit/s image, in hope they get a "name" until they meet up with this "name" to have the matter resolved amicably, even if it means getting the "names" tribe involved because their "name" has been "soiled" by the dishonour of one of their kin. It all comes back to the "name". We can't escape this FACT. In "The System", and outside "The System", no equal (or not) exchange in value/substance, whether gold, silver or wheat standard or not, can occur without the name. In re-presenting "intellectual property", we accept the mark (the shadow/reflection) of the beast (the image).

The beast is "The System" of "Intellectual Property". The name in "The System" is "Intellectual Property" as well and all man-made con-structs in "The System", including all the information, settings & characters in the Bible, Torah, Talmud, Koran, Gitas, Galactic Federation, Ramtha, Kryon, Laws/Statutes/Bills/Acts, commerce, insurance, government, his-story, science, education, sport, fashion, drugs, alcohol, etc, are all intellectual property as well AND all require a "NAME". We/MAN can't act/perform/re-present ANY image of intellectual property without a name. It is impossible to do so. A sound or image to describe and identify that intellectual property is required. Even nothing is a name for no thing (invisible - make-believe, imagined, out-of-thin-air, etc). The "name" is the mark of intellectual property, the mark of "The System".

The Curses Of "The System"

All private corporations are also intellectual property that those of "The System" administer. We have gone from men and women in "The System" thinking that they owned the land, and the services such as Telstra, to nearly everything being owned by private corporations. Where the people were taking responsibility and appointing representatives to administer affairs on their behalf, now the people have no responsibilities and everything of "The System" is administered by the administrators of "The System". This is because all the intellectual property of "The System" is based on the lie that some men and women are more equal than others and deserve to have their lives be placed on a higher standing than the lives of other men and women. Lies are curses and the more lies that are created on the back of the base lie of "The System", the more the curses amplify and increase.

The makers of the curses do not want to feel the effects of their curses returning to them so they trick us into accepting their curses which we do as we accept the lies. The more those behind "The System" can get us to accept the lies of "The System", the more we take on the curse which supposedly prevents them, the makers of the curses, from having to feel the effects of the curses of their making returning to them.

Everyone of "The System" operates under limited liability because none of them want to be held accountable for their actions in the name of "The System". They want to deflect the curses. This is what limited liability is all about. "The System" has been designed so that those at the top never have to process the curses they are creating. No matter how high up the ladder you climb, all forms of harm are deflected back to those who claim ownership of the intellectual property, i.e., us! None of the private corporations of "The System" can process the curses because they are empty vessels, also designed to deflect the curses from their makers so that we, all those with names attached to or contracted to the private corporations, have to process all the curses being created in the name of the private corporations. The private corporations are not present and neither are the master puppeteers because they are hiding in the shadows. We are the only ones present who can process the curse which is why we experience the shock and trauma of the curses. There is nowhere else for them to go.

Everyone caught up in "The System" is cursed. "The System" is the system of processing curses. Even if we have no contracts with "The System", using anything of "The System" is processing the curses. While we use the internet, we are cursed because the construction of both the software and hardware have caused destruction to life. Those in the shadows of "The System", the master puppeteers pulling the strings of belief in ownership of the name, do not process the curses because they claim no ownership but they benefit from the "wealth" of the rest of us, the marionettes, processing the curses because we have given them the responsibility to administer all the assets of the intellectual property that the name is attached to. Ownership of the name is ownership of the person, the strawman, the "i", the self, the ego, the intellect, the mind, the individual (in-divide-u-all); our belief in all of these, in the "i" that performs in the story of belief we were tempted to enter into, hooks us in under a corporate "STATE" of ownership and creates the me, me, me, "i", "i", "i", mine, mine, mine, greed and selfishness that is the underlying current of "The System" and is the mark of our fallen status as the cursed, better known as the "hu-man". This is our "bond" to the curse, our bind to the dead-corpse (corp-orate) State. We have willingly fallen into a "State" of unconsciousness and non-sense, superimposing intellectual property over land and house so that we can be ruled, where we have agreed to be wards of the state, children incapable of taking full-responsibility for our lives and in need of administrators to take care of the name.

How We Pass The Buck And Claim The Chaos

As explained in the "The Dream of Life" video series

www.loveforlife.com.au/node/8235 or

<http://www.youtube.com/user/ArthurLoveForLife/videos> they create the fairy tales for us to take on character roles in. Our belief, the "i", that the "i" (Christian, Muslim, Jew, New Ager, scientist) is on a journey from somewhere to somewhere, that there is somewhere other than life here and now, and that there are hierarchies "out there" (archangels to cherubs) as well as in "The System", leads us to give up taking full responsibility for everything that is happening in the name of "The System", here and now. We pass the buck to the master puppeteers who rule over us here and now while we accept and process all their curses here and now. The base lie that all the lies of "The System" are based on, continues to grow while we continue to accept it and wait for someone else to come along and sort out all the problems. The master puppeteers know this and so are orchestrating that "someone" who will offer a new, rosy version of "The System" that will still require the master puppeteers to maintain their administrative status, ruling over the cursed.

This is why there is no place for making claims in the dream of life that is Earth/Nature/Kindom/Reality. While we cannot prevent those of "The System", enFORCERs or not, sending out and administering curses if they choose to do so, we can refuse to accept and process the curses, instead sending them back to their makers where they stay and amplify moment by moment without escape or respite, burning their brains and affecting all those who benefit from the curses, as well as their loved ones and all those connected to them. Everyone, directly or indirectly, associated with them or their systems are bound and must process the lies they support. All that we have to do is hold this image in our brains so clearly that it is unbreakable; when you see the chemtrails in the sky, return the curses to their makers.

Be it a heart attack, fatal accident, house fire, etc, don't be attached as to how and when they will process their curse. With peace, forgiveness and acceptance of MAN'S/our freewill, allow the cursed to uniquely process their own lies. Let them take full-responsibility for everything they think, feel and do. The more we return the curses, the more the makers of the curses will directly experience the effects of their curses.

Then they have the choice to either stop creating the curses that are causing so much harm or to continue creating the curses and to continue experiencing the effects of their curses. For more on this read: "Introduction To "The Curses Are Being Returned"

The point is, "Stop Claiming The Lie"

When we remember who we really are, we realise that we cannot be destroyed; they can harm the body but, as life (MAN), we are always life. When we give up ownership of the name and remember who we really are, we are indestructible.

The name is a curse; when we sign the mortgage, we are taking on the curse of "ownership" of the land. When we sign for a bank loan, we are taking on the curse of money. Going to court and claiming to be responsible for or re-presenting that name is agreeing to accept whatever penalties/curses those re-presenting "The System" dish out because you are accepting responsibility for whatever you did in "The System" using the name of "The System".

How We Take Responsibility For The Name

It is possible to get those of "The System" off your back by telling them you are not the owner of that intellectual property - the name - and to go to the owner of that intellectual property to resolve the claims they are mistakenly making against you. However, they can then produce evidence of you taking responsibility for the name because of all the contracts you have made with "The System" using that name. When you sign up for the services of "The System", the gas, electricity, phone, internet, mortgage, registration, passport, permit, certificate, money, credit, bond, trust, lien, etc, of "The System", you are providing them with evidence that you do take responsibility for the name and that they have the right party. They then see you as a liar and/or a pirate stealing/misappropriating the copyright holder's intellectual property that they are administering, for private/personal gain, etc. You cannot disassociate from the name if you are using/renting it for your benefit. You can only disassociate from the name if you are prepared to give up all the benefits of "The System" and have no contracts with "The System".

Comprehending the role of the name within "The System" makes our position as slaves/renters very clear but it does not come with a quick fix. To be free of "The System" and unaccountable to "The System" means to be "free" of all the benefits of "The System". We cannot have the sweetener without the Aspartame, the bacon without the cruelty.

Mistaken Identity

We are all fully responsible for our actions and, if we are caught by the enFORCErs of "The System" because we have hurt someone, stolen or otherwise caused injury to another man or woman, we do not deserve a "quick fix" or to get out of whatever penalties we incur. However, if no harm was caused, there are no injured parties, no peace was broken, no crime committed, etc... then the "authorities" have the wrong party. Anyone under the radar can explain that he/she was confused at the time about this name, about this re-presentation of intellectual property because he/she is not that name nor the owner of that name/intellectual property. He/she was not present to the matter, i.e., not aware of the full picture, not in full control of their faculties. At the time of the confusion/matter/claims raised etc, he/she was not aware of the mistake in identity nor did the "authorities" provide full-disclosure as to which party they were after. He/she was under the influence of a spell.

This is all true BUT, as explained above, if he/she has contracts with "The System", he/she is admitting to taking full-responsibility for that "name". Basically, there is nothing he/she can do unless they are prepared to give up all contracts with and benefits of "The System". If he/she is determined to depart from "The System", he/she can start bouncing the curses back to the makers so they process the lie/curse. He/she needs to tell them of his/her intention that all involved including their loved ones, beneficiaries, associates, etc, are now processing the curse/lie. He/she has free will and has the gift of life to set his/her thoughts in motion here and now. We all have the choice to change and empower our situations. The more people who support this bouncing back of the curses, with clear intention and image, the more powerful it is and the more it accelerates and expands. Read "Introduction To "The Curses Are Being Returned" <http://loveforlife.com.au/node/8183>

Give Back Their Intellectual Property

He/she gives the authorities the "name's" birth-certificate, driver's license, passport, Medicare card, bankcard, credit card, registration papers, etc, in an envelope and tells them this is the correct party in the matter they are dealing with and to deal with the owner of that intellectual property because he/she is not the owner of this intellectual property and is no longer a renter of this intellectual property. This is the moment it all changes and the responsibility for the curses comes back on the makers and all involved. This is a big responsibility and most do not want to take it on - they prefer to remain in "The System" under limited liability/responsibility.

We realise that most people are too compromised to do this but how can you disassociate from that name if you are using/renting it to gain the benefits of "The System"? This is why we have to support each other so that more and more of us can exit from "The System" supported by those still contracted to "The System" until we have enough of us to walk away together, back to the co-creation of Kindoms, Do No Harm Communities. This is why we wrote "The Steps Of Kindom", originally called back in 2006/2007 "The Ten Steps Of Kindom": <http://loveforlife.com.au/node/5788>

We cannot escape "The System" on our own; we need to free each other and the beauty of this is that, in doing so, we cure our lives of the greed and selfishness that keeps us trapped in "The System".

"Claiming" "The System"

If you make claims or argue (give life-energy to their charge) for any of the claims and laws made by representatives of "The System", or if you claim copyright or trade rights over the name, etc, you are also showing that you are taking full responsibility for their claims, that you are the re-presentative of the name, the claimer, and that you are taking full responsibility for any administrative charges made against the name, the intellectual property they administrate and the rental fees (includes all rules, regulations, rituals, procedures, conditions & contracts) attached to the contract for administrative services rendered for that intellectual property. You are processing the curse. This is why you can never go to your court (caught) seeking commercial remedy from "The System" using the intellectual property of "The System"; the moment you make a claim (believe in, have faith in or have any associated opinion) about something of "The System" you are agreeing that you are the renter of the name of "The System" and that you are under-the-standing of the authorised (appointed by the author/s) re-representatives of the intellectual property of "The System" and agreeing to be governed by the "authorities" appointed by the inventor/s (the authors) of the intellectual property.

All forms of paperwork that you file on behalf of the name with the administrators of "The System" in any area of "The System, no matter what, is admittance that you are the re-representative of that name and that you presently gain the benefits of "The System" and accept them as your authority/masters. If you are a free MAN, living creator, without masters, why do you have to write to anyone about anything, at any time, or go to court about anything? Besides being accountable for doing harm, you are not answerable to anyone. All men (living co-creators) are equal. The moment you engage in their world you are admitting that you accept their authority and that you are in and of their world. No matter what you write, they will ignore it. If they drag you to court, don't be caught re-presenting the name or claim responsibility for the name by arguing for any claim/matter raised in that name.

This is why we have to completely withdraw from "The System", taking full-responsibility for who we really are as MAN and what we are really part of. Staying in "The System" and using anything of "The System" means that you accept the authority of others to govern you meaning you live under limited liability and are not willing to take full responsibility for MAN, living-creator, that is who you really are.

It is a trap to claim/argue-for ANYTHING of "The System", be it a law, a bond, an account, a trust or money, privileges, benefits, etc, of "The System". Unless you want to remain as a slave, including your children, don't go to their courts and stop using all the services they administrate. Together in large numbers we can help each other pull out of "The System" back to co-creating Do No Harm Communities (Kindoms) as tribes of MAN on land. "The Dream Of Life" videos and "The Steps To Kindom" have been written to inspire a mass exodus out of hell ("The System").

The Name Is Our Access To "The System"

The name is the character we have been given to access, rent, and perform in the fairytale world that is "The System". The living MAN that you are is not that name and the living MAN has no place in the fairytale therefore you cannot be in the world that is "The System" as living MAN. Your only access to "The System" is through the name that identifies you as a slave of "The System", a renter of all the intellectual property of "The System" you are RE-PRESENTING.

This is why they manufacture and encourage our belief in ownership. We do not "own" anything of "The System", not the money, the houses, the cars, anything. The money in your pocket is intellectual property you are renting, and you are a tenant in the house you think you own. They have conned us into making a claim over the land & money and believing we can own land & money. When they arrived on the shore of "new" lands and put up their flags, they were not claiming the land but declaring the introduction of their system of religions, law, science, education and authority. They were bringing in a new "God" ("The System") for us to worship and bow down to, therefore accepting their authority to administer the system they were introducing. While they make no claim over the land, those of "The System" have divided the land up into Parishes that they administer through their priests and clergy and the Land Titles Office. They do not administer the land; they administer the titles (intellectual property - scribbles on paper) over the land just as they administer the "sinners" (us) who are the processors of the curses. The clergy, with their "vow" of poverty, are protected from the curse of money and ownership with even the Pope and the Archbishops never handling money or claiming ownership, even though they live in luxury and benefit from the riches and ownership claims of the churches of "The System", another deflection.

The religions, as are ALL belief systems, were created to deal with the deflection of the curses and those at the top of the Freemasonic/Satanic world dress as priests which filters down through the ranks of lesser priests of all religions who probably have no idea what they are doing. The Freemasonic system was designed, through administration, to give power and control to the few at the top and to keep the curses away from their doors while they enjoy all the wealth of "The System" provided by everyone lost in "The System" When we comprehend this, we do not have to waste time learning the finer points of law to get at the truth, or arguing over who owns what. "The System" has nothing to offer us except bondage and servitude so why should we take any further interest in it and why would we want to continue processing the curses?

Why Only You Can Process The Curse

We are charged for re-presenting everything of "The System", all intellectual property copyrighted by the holder-in-due-course = "The Crown". By giving our life-energy to "The System", we give "presence" to that which actually has no presence because it has no life. It is not present to the living, having no substance that we can touch, taste, see, hear, feel, smell. It is not life-sustainable and, being non-sense, cannot be sensed and cannot process a curse. While you are present as living MAN, putting your life-energy into the intellectual property they administer, the history, the money, the taxes, the fees, the laws, the education, the science, the university courses and careers, the media, the entertainment, the services and the religions, philosophies, new age, channelling, prophecies, stories, mathematics, geometry, alphabet languages and commerce/insurance, you give these dead-corpse constructs (empty vessels) the semblance of presence but all that is present is YOU which is why you are the one who has to process the curse.

Without you putting your life energy into these dead-corpse constructs, they are nothing and do not exist. They have no life. "The System" is nothing without our life energy and, as soon as we cease putting our life energy into "The System", it ceases to exist. It has no power. This is why the administrators of "The System" put so much effort into keeping us distracted, mesmerised and totally brainwashed in the intellectual property of "The System". The survival of "The System" depends on our participation in "The System". They need our LIFE and by persuading us into giving our life to their dead world, they make us into renters/slaves of their non-sense world. We labour, give our life, to pay the fees that prop up the dead world, hence the symbol of the crucifixion - the living MAN surrendering his/her real life for the dead world.

Appearing In The Dead World As The Living

The living MAN is not in the dead world or of the dead world but, through the invitation of their offers and claims (i.e, Joe Blow drove 80ks in a 40ks zone), you can enter the dead world, using the dead languages and dead constructs of the dead world to communicate as the living MAN, the living creator, bringing light (SENSE) into their darkness (NON-SENSE) so that they, the dead, can recognise the living amongst them. You do this as a gift of life (love) to help them discharge (be freed from) this claim, but you do not charge (give life to) their claims and you do not process the curse. The "charge" they create and administer for you is their attempt to get you to put your life energy into that charge and to process the curse. They will do anything, including using trickery, threats, intimidation and force to get you to give life (charge) to their charge/claim. When you appear as the living MAN, demonstrating that you are not in or of the dead world and that you do not accept or process the curses of the dead world, they flee because they know that the curses are being returned to the makers of the curses and all who benefit from those curses.

It is all about temptation; they are offering their "apple" to lure you into the dead world, away from the living Paradise that we are supposed to be co-creating, even though they are our brothers and sisters of life. They have turned against us, MAN against MAN, forgetting that we are all life and that what we do affects all of life.

It Is Up To Each Of Us

We have to forgive everyone lost in "The System" that is HELL, "The Beast". None of us, including those who pull the strings and those who make up the force of "The System", were provided with idiot-friendly, full disclosure as to what would become of our lives when we started to think and feel the thoughts and emotions offered (regardless of how) by our tempters, and were conned into re-presenting this intellectual property. We learnt to "believe in" this demonic garbage and therefore to

"OWN" these lies which possess us. However, we are all fully-responsible for the marionette roles we perform in worship of "The System" we uphold as our God and we need to intercede and confront all lies and liars and make whole all that does harm to MAN, nature/Earth, the dream of life.

We are lost in a counterfeit world of language, symbols and codes, used, abused, manipulated and treated as slaves at the beck and call of master puppeteers, black magic warlocks & witches, the master creators of darkness, who pull at the strings of belief (ownership) but are no more winners than we are. The lost is who we are here and now. Where the lost go, so goes the dream of life that is Earth, that is MAN, that is all of us. If all around us are lost in chaos then we live in hell here and now, if all around us are truly free and at peace living truth, then we live in paradise.

We are all of the pool of MAN'S consciousness; the thoughts and feelings we give life to impacts the collective consciousness of MAN. We have to walk the talk and inspire the lost to stop all forms of harm doing. We are all responsible.

Rather than putting our life energy into "The System", isn't it better to put our life energy into getting back to the land, to sense, co-creating Kindoms?

The Steps Of Kindom is the remedy we offer based on what we comprehend now. As we continue to learn and be inspired by information others have to offer, the remedy will expand. As we open up more and more of our brains/senses and access more and more of the sensory information of life, we will no doubt see things more clearly and see how to create Kindom more easily. This is a living dream for all those who feel inspired to use is, co-create it and expand it. It is our gift for life, setting our Love For Life in motion.
