John 15: 5

I am the vine, ye are the branches.

Many of God's people live below their fullest potential in Christ simply because they lack the understanding of who they are in Christ. When you were born again, or born from above, the life that you received from your parents as a newborn baby was supplanted by the very nature and life of God.

Brothers and sisters, Jesus did not come just to spare you from the consequences of sin but that you would be a partaker of His divine nature. He came that we might have life, and in our scripture for today He tells us something so profound. I am the Vine, ye are the branches, meaning the same life in the Vine is what is being fed to the branches. Hallelujah!

You have the very DNA of Christ, which means the world ought to respond to you in the same way that it responds to the Lord. You have eternal life now. You are the sons of God now. It is a present hour reality. Hold on to this truth. Jesus is the Vine, and you are the branches.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I can do all things through Christ. As He is, so am I. I refuse to be sick; the life of God is in me. Hallelujah!

2 Peter 1: 4

1 John 3: 9

Whoever has been born of God does not sin, for His seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he has been born of God.

To properly understand the verse of scripture above, you'll have to study it in the right context. The purpose of that verse is actually in the 6th verse of the preceding chapter, and it says, "He who says he abides in Him ought himself also to walk just as He walked." (1 John 2:6 NKJV). Notice it doesn't say, "He who says He abides in Him walks just as He walked." Rather, it says if you're a Christian, you ought to walk (live) as a Christian; walk as He (Jesus) walked.

These are all instructions and guidance given to us in the Word of God. You were called to display righteousness, to walk in His rightness. The life that we have in Christ is sin-free. However, in your walk of faith, it's possible to make mistakes. So, the Bible says, "the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin" (1 John 1:7). He prepared for us automatic cleansing.

He expects you to yield yourself to the Word, to be taught, to be guided in righteousness. Through the Word, you'd discover that you're cleansed from all unrighteousness (John 15:3) and have the capacity to live sin-free. Praise God!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Lord, thank You for Your grace and the power of Your righteousness at work in me! I yield myself to the Word, to be taught, to be guided in righteousness. Sin has no dominion over me. I have the rightness of God in my spirit, and it's expressed in my thoughts, words, and actions, in Jesus' Name.

And the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick, the people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity.

One of the things that the Lord showed me that we would have this year is record-breaking immunity to diseases, and if you are sick in your body today, I want to pray for you. I pray that that pain in your body will cease. I pray for you, in the Name of Jesus, that the miracle you're expecting for your job, for your finances, for your family will come to pass, that your expectations will come to pass. I pray for you to be well and sound, in the Name of Jesus.

I rebuke arthritis, cancer; I command the pains to leave, the boils to go, in the Name of Jesus Christ. Be healed in your heart, be healed in your eyes, be healed in your bones. I command your lungs to be free, your kidneys to be healed, in the Name of Jesus, your blood to be cleansed by the power of the Holy Spirit. Receive healing into your body right now in the Name of Jesus. Receive healing now. Strength has come to you now.

Yes, you're healed by the power of the Holy Spirit. Get up from that bed, in the Name of the Lord Jesus. Stand up and be healed right now. Thank God for your healing. Thank Him. He's done it! He's done it! Hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a record-breaker in this year. No sickness shall attach itself to my body; I am walking in record-breaking immunity, in the Name of Jesus!

Galatians 3: 14

That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

If you are born again, then you are the seed of Abraham through faith. Now when we talk about the blessing of Abraham, it is more than you sowing your seed and God multiplying it back to you in the form of a harvest.

Yes, that is part of it, but that's nowhere near the total package. Prosperity is your inheritance! Many of God's children have not even scratched the surface to find out what belongs to them, and as a result, they are going without what belongs to them by right. The Bible says all things are yours, meaning everything is within your reach; it is inside of you.

God has given you riches and wealth and the wisdom to multiply them! You're the seed of Abraham; therefore, the world is yours! You lay up gold as dust; your prosperity is endless. You walk in abundance, having more than enough for yourself and for others. Hallelujah! Glory to God! You are blessed in all things. Amen.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Prosperity is mine in the Name of Jesus! The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. I am the seed of Abraham; the world belongs to me. Hallelujah!

Romans 8: 27

Matthew 28: 18

And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, all power is given unto me in heaven and earth.

Some Christians live life under torment and are subject to the elements of this world without a single clue they have the power to live above such. It's not even on their radar that they don't have to accept it, that they can actually live free of oppression in any area of their lives.

The word 'power' Jesus used is the Greek word Exousia, meaning authority, jurisdiction, delegated influence. When He announced to the disciples that all exousia has been given to Him in heaven and in earth, He was pretty much informing them that they have gained mastery over demons, sickness, and disease, that every spirit and situation would bow before them.

In the very next verse, and I mean if you could hear Him speak, He would have said it in the same breath, the Lord Jesus then commanded them saying, "Go ye therefore," meaning equipped with this new information, now go in that authority.

You and I today have that same authority. You don't have to be subject to oppression and disease. You can command sickness and poverty to go; you can tell that headache to stop and that cancer to shrivel up and die. Brothers and sisters, Christ lives in you, and He came with all that authority for you to operate in. Hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me! In the Name of Jesus, I refuse to be sick; my body is the temple of the Holy Ghost. Victory belongs to me, hallelujah!

Philippians 4: 13

Philippians 4: 13

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

When you got born again, you received the life and nature of God. Christianity is not a religion but the very life of God in humanity. That is exactly what is going to give you record-breaking victory. You function like Him; you are a partaker of the divine nature, hallelujah!

You were delivered from the power of darkness and translated into the Kingdom of God's dear Son (Colossians 1:13). You're, therefore, no longer subject to the elements of this world. That means that you must refuse to be snowed under by infirmities and harsh elements of this world that make life unbearable for the ordinary man.

Jesus is the Vine, and you are the branch. Therefore, the life of Christ flows through you, and you are reigning in life because you are a partaker of His divine nature. That same Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead is in you and is quickening, revitalizing your body. You will walk in victory over sickness, victory over poverty, victory over depression, in the Name of Jesus!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The Lord has made my life easy, glorious, and exciting. I live a stress-free life in Christ. I'm in God's rest; therefore, I enjoy a life of joy and peace with prosperity!

Colossians 1: 13

John 8: 32

And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

If you walk in ignorance of the truth of God's Word, you'll remain in bondage and suffer the same things that the people of the world suffer. In our scripture for today, the Lord Jesus tells us that the truth shall make you free.

But it is only the truth of God's Word that you know and have a revelation of that can work on your behalf. That means you have a responsibility to invest time in God's Word. The Bible says get wisdom and with all thy getting get understanding. Rise up in your spirit and take the dominion. Tame the world with your faith-filled confessions.

You were crucified with Christ, from the rudiments or elements of this world. Refuse to be subject to them. No system or policies can work against you; you're greater than them all. Therefore, rise above them. You play by a different set of rules. Get into the Word and walk in the light of the truth.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I walk in the blessings of God. My life does not know sorrow. I am moving upward and forward only, in the Name of Jesus. My path is the path of the just; therefore, it shines brighter and brighter unto a perfect day, in Jesus' Name.

Romans 1: 16

2 Corinthians 2: 14

Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place .

In our scripture for today, the Apostle Paul lets us know that God always leads us in triumphal procession in Christ Jesus. We've been called to a life of success, joy, health, righteousness, and boundless possibilities. Hallelujah!

The one who's born again reigns over Satan and the negativities of life. Someone might say, "But my experiences aren't in line with the triumphant life. Rather, it's the exact opposite." The first thing you need is to accept that the triumphant life is the right of every believer. However, it takes understanding and the walk of faith to live this transcendent life.

God is a "faith-God." He operates by faith, and as His offspring, we're to do the same. The Bible says that without faith it's impossible to please God (Hebrews 11:6). We walk by faith and not by sight or sensory perception (2 Corinthians 5:7). Faith is living in and by the Word. It's God's will and desire that you live joyfully, reigning and winning every day in life through the Word.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My ability is of God. I am breaking records in finances and in my career. I was born into greatness, and I will excel in everything I do.

Genesis 22: 18

Romans 4:18

Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations; according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.

The story of Abraham and his wife Sarah is a perfect example that there's no such thing as "too late" with God. Our scripture for today says, against natural hope, Abraham believed in hope that He might be the father of many nations, according to the Word of God. He was about a hundred years old, while Sarah was ninety years (Genesis 17:17). Yet, God told Him He was going to have a child through Sarah. Abraham believed, and at the appointed time, Sarah brought forth Isaac.

Some people often lose hope, wondering why they didn't get the job, contracts, promotion, or money for which they had prayed and fasted. It makes no difference how hopeless you might think your situation is. There's no such thing as "too late" with God.

Simply trust Him, for He's the God who gives life to the dead and calls things that don't exist as though they already existed. He lives in eternity where there's no past or future. With Him, everything is in the NOW, and He proves Himself Master over all circumstances, no matter how late, dead, or impossible they might seem in the eyes of men.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. Nothing shall be impossible for this day, for in all these things, I am more than a conqueror. Hallelujah!

FURTHER STUDY

Genesis 17: 17

Romans 8: 37

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

Your road to success could have trials and challenges, from inflation to economic recession, health issues, unemployment, etc. However, the good news is that it doesn't matter the challenges you face or the situation in your country. The Word says, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Christ.

Now, if this meant that no matter what you face in this world you'd conquer, that would have been wonderful. But it means much more than that. It means you've gone past conquering because you conquered a long time ago—in Christ! You're now living in the victory of Christ! That means there's nothing to struggle with or to try to overcome anymore because you've already won.

Don't allow the circumstances of life or your country's economic situation to make you a victim. You were born into the victorious life when you were born again. Therefore, say like the Apostle Paul, "None of these things move me ..." (Acts 20:24).

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I thank my God who always causes me to triumph, for greater is He that is in me than he that is in the world.

That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

We have the greatest weapon on earth at our disposal. The Lord has given us the power of attorney to use His name in the affairs of life. Every believer can use that name to bring back into line any situation that is contrary to His Word in our lives. The name of Jesus is just as powerful as the person of Jesus.

When you pray in the name of Jesus, it's as if Jesus himself is standing, and the words you are speaking are coming out of His mouth. They are carrying the same authority as if Jesus himself had just said it. Can you imagine commanding that cancer to go in the name of Jesus, speaking peace to that storm in your marriage in that precious name?

Our scripture for today says at the name of Jesus every knee should bow. That means nothing can oppose you when you come in that name. You have the power to cause changes in your life today, take authority over every situation in the Name of Jesus, and see everything fall in line.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Today I take charge of my finances in the Name of Jesus. I command every form of illness to leave my body. I speak peace to every storm in my life.

Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

If your confession is wrong, then things will go wrong. Our confessions rule us. Remember that. Notice in our scripture for today the Bible didn't say you're snared by your enemies or by the wickedness outside. He said you're snared by the words of your mouth.

Keep the word of faith in your mouth always. Hebrews 13:5-6 says, "... for He hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. So that we may boldly say ..." Keep declaring what the Word says about you. He's your refuge and your strength. Walk through life with confidence, and refuse to fear!

No matter what you face today, or who chooses to plot against you, know that you're divinely protected! Greater is He that's in you than he that's in the world.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus, and not only do I have right standing with God, but I also have the ability to know and do what's right. Therefore, I reign in life over circumstances. For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

As a child of God, you must be passionate about soul-winning. It must burn in your heart to take the Gospel to the lost. You're the custodian of the Gospel. It is, therefore, your divine responsibility to publish it around the world.

When you understand that Jesus is the only way, you'll stand up for the Gospel. Fuel your passion for the Gospel. Keep preaching and talking to others about the Good News of God's grace. Discuss the Gospel continually with those who are also fired up in their spirits for the Gospel, and intercede in prayer for the lost who are yet to hear the Word of salvation.

You have a responsibility today to share the Good News, not just through your words but by the way you carry yourself. Paul said, God called me to reveal His Son in me. In other words, when He would do business, or play golf, in all these things, Christ was revealed in Him. That's the calling of every Christian, not just pastors and teachers. It's time for you to answer the call.

If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature all things have passed away, behold all things are become new.

When man puts something that has been broken back together, it is usually not as good as before. But when Jesus does it, all things become new! The One who made the heavens and the earth is more than able to make it better than it was before! That is the truth the apostle Paul was communicating to us by the Spirit of God in our scripture for today.

Any electronic product which you buy usually comes with an instruction booklet which says, "Send only to authorized dealers for maintenance and repairs." Similarly, when something in your body or life breaks down, you go back to Jesus, your Creator and Maker. You go to Him because God's Word tells us that

"all things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made."

It doesn't matter what has gone wrong in your life. All you have to do is put your trust in the One that is able to do exceeding, abundantly above all we could ever ask or think. He makes a way where there seems to be no way; He makes rivers in the deserts. We serve a God of the impossible. Don't give up, because He makes all things new.

In the way of righteousness is life, and in its pathway there is no death.

Brothers and sisters, God doesn't want you to worry about whatever happens in the world. Just as our scripture for today says, "In the way of righteousness is life, and in its pathway there is no death."

The patriarchs of the Old Testament did not suffer during the famines that occurred in their lifetimes. Abraham remained very rich in livestock, silver, and gold. Isaac reaped a hundredfold in the land He sowed. Joseph, with his entire family, was richly provided for in Egypt. They weren't just spared from suffering—they prospered exceedingly! So, even if your nation or the world enters a recession, you need not suffer. As long as you keep our eyes on Jesus your Righteousness, you will be a record-breaker in this year!

1 Peter 1: 23

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth, abideth forever.

Man's body was made from the dust of the ground; so, man has to feed on cultivations from the ground to survive. Man, however, is a spirit, and the spirit of man came from God's Spirit and was created with the Word of God. Therefore, you must continually feed on God's Word to truly live.

The Lord Jesus said in Luke 4:4, "... It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God." Acts 20:32 says, "And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified."

Through the Word, you condition your life for victory every day, such that no matter the circumstances, you're always triumphant. In Isaiah 55:11, the Lord says, "So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." Culture and regulate your life with the Word, and keep growing from glory to glory.

Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

Is it not amazing that today is the tomorrow you were worrying about yesterday, yet you are here and alive? God does not want you to worry about tomorrow. He wants you to know that He gives you all the help you need for today, and when tomorrow comes, so will fresh help from Him.

This is God's principle, even in the Old Testament. When the children of Israel were in the desert, God gave them fresh manna from Heaven every morning (see Exodus 16:13–16, 31). They did not have to worry about tomorrow because when tomorrow came, there was fresh manna again. He was their provision every day.

Today, God's manna is the grace He gives you every day. If you are worried about a situation tomorrow, know that there will be sufficient grace for that situation when it comes. God wants you to simply rest in His ability to heal, deliver, protect, and provide for you every day. Instead of worrying, set your mind on God's Word, for the Bible says, He keeps Him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Him.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God.

Few Christians seem to be conscious of the fact that God lives in them. They couldn't be and still talk the way they do. When a need arises in their life, many are quick to say, "No, I can't do that." Why? Because they're trusting in themselves, or the flesh, to put them over. They know they don't have the ability in themselves to do it.

But when you are conscious that God is in you, then you know His ability is your ability. You are no longer limited by your own human understanding and strength. This is why Paul could say, I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

No matter what you face today, and you may be facing seemingly impossible obstacles in your life, you can boldly declare, "my ability is of God; the greater One lives inside of me." That's faith talking. And it will put the Greater One to work for you!

Each time I think and meditate on God's Word and contemplate the greatness of the Lord, I'm awed to realize that He actually put it in the heart of man, His own creature, to love Him. It's an amazing miracle. I don't know if you've ever thought about the fact that He made you. His greatness is beyond description.

It's too humbling and boggles the mind to think that He'd put in our hearts to follow after Him and love Him. To think that He made it possible for us to know Him, and want to know more about Him, as part of His work in us, is such an amazing reality.

Best of all, He's now made you His partner in winning the lost. He could get them to know Him without involving you because He's God. He's all-powerful and can do all things. However, He chose to make us a part of His business of bringing others to salvation. What a miracle! What an honor!

That I may know Him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death.

People today run after two things: miraculous signs and wonders and knowledge. It was no different in Bible times. The apostle Paul acknowledged that "Jews request a sign, and Greeks seek after wisdom" (1 Corinthians 1:22).

So, when Paul preached Christ crucified as God's solution to them, the message was "to the Jews a stumbling block and to the Greeks foolishness" (1 Corinthians 1:23). They didn't understand how getting a revelation of Jesus and His resurrection could give them the miracles they needed or the wisdom they wanted.

Brothers and sisters, you don't have to run after miracles or wisdom today. All you need is to know the One who is made unto us wisdom, the One who is the resurrection and the life. Trust me, miracles will follow you; you won't have to chase them. The more you know Him, the more of His wisdom and power is manifested in your life.

That is why the Bible says that He keeps them in perfect peace whose minds are stayed on Him. As you meditate on the Good News today, that perfect peace will guard your heart and mind through Christ Jesus. Jesus died literally of a broken heart so that your heart can be filled with joy.

The scripture tells us that He has not given us the spirit of fear but of power and of love and of a sound mind. Refuse to be afraid. It is not of God. For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

Focusing your mind, emotions, and entire faculties on what you're praying about is very important and praying in the Spirit is a great advantage in this regard.

When you pray in the Spirit, your spirit prays; your mind is unfruitful. Therefore, it's important that you yield yourself to the Spirit by giving Him your mind—paying attention to Him as you pray. That way, you'll be in sync with Him. His visions, promptings, ideas, and thoughts will be clear to you. Praying in the Spirit gets you synchronized with God's will, His purpose, and timing.

Your mind is a tool. You have to discipline your mind to think in the direction of your prayers, and if it wanders, to switch it back to that thing you're praying about. If it wanders again, bring it back until your mind gets the message. Prayer arrests your mind. Channel your thoughts and emotions in the direction of the Spirit, and you'll receive the ministrations of the Holy Spirit.

James 5: 16

Acts 20:35

I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

Now I know you have read this scripture before, but there is something I need to see here. If I called you to my office and gifted you with something that you desperately needed, that would be a blessing, right? I mean your heart would rejoice; you would feel blessed. But if I asked if you wanted to experience an even higher dimension of blessing, I'm pretty confident you would be up for it. Many people never get to that next level simply because of what our scripture for today says: it is more blessed to give than to receive.

That means to move to that level, you are no longer waiting to receive from someone, but you are now the one giving to the Lord. Yet very few people pray for God to give them something that they can give back to Him so they can enter this level of blessing, no! They want something they can consume right now. As a result, many will never experience the level of blessing that is beyond rejoicing over what another man can do for you.

At that level we are talking about, Paul says, "all things are yours" (1 Corinthians 3:21). You no longer have needs. You are only conscious of supply. Hallelujah! You can change your life today; become a giver. Remember, God rewards faith, and you can never out-give Him. Go out and prosper today!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Prosperity is my inheritance in the Name of Jesus! I have received the grace to acquire wealth, and no demon on earth or in hell shall hinder me. I will never be broke another day in my life!

Rejoice in the Lord always, and again I say, rejoice.

The apostle Paul was an expert on rejoicing in the midst of persecution. Satan was constantly stirring up trouble for Him. But do you know what He said about all that persecution? He said it was not even worth considering compared to the glory that was about to be revealed.

If Paul could rejoice in the midst of beatings, stoning, shipwrecks, imprisonment, and almost every other kind of persecution, you can do the same. Just do what He did. Never allow the enemy to steal your joy.

Even when they were shackled in prison, Paul and Silas made the decision to rejoice. The power of God fell in that place, and the chains had no choice but to loose them. You can release the same power in your life today when you choose to rejoice. So, rejoice, and again I say rejoice!

For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming.

In our opening scripture, the Apostle Paul talks about the second coming of Christ and shows us that we're the restraining force against evil in our day. The only reason Satan has not led the world to man's total annihilation is because of the resistance put forth by the body of Christ, the Church (1 Corinthians 12:27).

Our presence in the earth preserves it and forbids Satan from unleashing terror upon it. Understand that you're the reason there's a check on the works of darkness in your world, such that men's lives are preserved and influenced with the Gospel.

That's why you shouldn't take prayer lightly, especially praying in the Holy Spirit. It dispels the works of darkness and puts to flight the devil and his cohorts. As you speak in other tongues, Satan and his demons are perplexed and frustrated, and their evil works vanquished!

Boy, I love the Word! Do you realize that even though we are believers and are Heaven-bound, for now, whilst we are here on earth, we still need to live a good life and enjoy all the materials things that come with it?

The good news is that God has already made a way for you to have all things in abundance. Notice our scripture for today says, seek first the Kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added unto you.

That means the moment the Kingdom of God takes first place in your life, prosperity becomes effortless. It is now God who begins to work and put finances in your hands, putting you in the right place at the right time and giving you favor with those in authority. Tap into the resources of Heaven today by putting the Kingdom of God first in all you do, and watch as God moves you from glory to glory.

God wants to take care of every area of your life, even the smallest detail. He loves you so much that He knows the number of hairs you have on your head. And if your loving heavenly Father knows and is interested in the small details of your life, then you don't have to overcome any problem on your own.

You can cast all your cares on Him today. There is not one thing you should face alone. Allow Him today to meet you at your point of need and enjoy peace in every situation.

What a promise we have in Christ! We can know for sure that He is always there, a very present help in time of need. The bank can let you down, a doctor can fail, but Jesus will never leave you nor forsake you.

You see, the Lord's love for you is unconditional. That means that He loves you today the same way He did yesterday when you were at the altar giving your life to Him. There is nothing you can ever do to quench His love for you. That is why David could boldly declare, "the Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want."

It doesn't matter what situation you come against today. If God is on your side, you are on the winning side. You are never alone. It does not mean that you will never face challenges, but that He will be with you in trouble, and victory is sure. There is nothing the world can throw at you that you cannot overcome.

We can do mighty exploits when we tap into the power of God on the inside of us. The Bible tells us that if the Spirit of Him that raised Christ from the dead dwells in you, He that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by His Spirit that dwelleth in you. All you need to walk victoriously is the Holy Ghost.

He is the author of all that is good in your life, and He never holds anything back from you. His desire is for you to yield and achieve your greatest potential. Acknowledge Him in all your ways, and let Him be the one who leads you in everything you do today.

John 15:5

I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without me you can do nothing.

In our scripture for today, the Lord Jesus teaches us a way for us to produce fruit in every area of our lives. He says that He is the Vine and we are the branches, and if we continue to abide in HIM as the branch is joined to the vine, the fruit production is inevitable. Glory be to God! We are already wired and connected for success.

As we are His branches, all we have to do is to abide or remain in Christ our Vine. The word there translated as 'abide' in the Greek rendering is meno. It means: to continue to be present, not to depart; to tarry. Do you see that?

How do you do that? By renewing your mind with the good news of God's grace, being conscious every day of our position in Christ. Because you have received Christ, you are in Christ and are accepted in the beloved.

What the devil tries to do is to remove you from the Vine. He does this by getting you to focus on your condition instead of your position in Christ. The condition you are facing could be financial lack or deteriorating health. Stay focused on your position, not your condition. Don't be a forgetful hearer of God's Word. Stick to the Word, and you will come back with a testimony.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Jesus is the Vine, and I am the Branch. I abide in Him and therefore will produce fruit in season and out of season. I am enjoying all that belongs to me in Christ Jesus. I live and walk in prosperity and good health.

Genesis 39:2

And the Lord was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

Although Joseph had been rejected by his brothers and subsequently sold into slavery and served in Potiphar's house, the above scripture still referred to him and described him as a prosperous man. What does this tell us? How could a rejected slave be described as prosperous?

Notice something in this scripture, the Bible says, "And the Lord was with Joseph ..." meaning the very presence of God in Joseph's life resulted in him being prosperous. This shows that prosperity isn't a function of your career or assignment, but a product of your spirit.

In our verse, the word prosperous is translated from the Hebrew word tsalach, which means to make progress, to succeed and be effective. Thus, not only was Joseph making progress and succeeding, but he was also effective. Even though he had been sold into slavery, falsely accused and imprisoned, he continued to succeed and make progress; for the Lord was with him.

Today the same Lord that was with Joseph is with you. In fact, that same Lord lives on the inside of you and has given you eternal life. So, no matter what, you are succeeding and making progress.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The Lord lives on the inside of me. I am prosperous. I am succeeding in all I do. I am effective in all I do. Thank you, Lord for the Holy Spirit who guides me and leads me in all affairs of my life. I can never be a failure in Jesus' Name.

And, behold I send the promise of my father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with the power from on high.

Before His crucifixion, the Lord Jesus promised the disciples and others who would believe in Him that not only would they do works He did, but they would do even greater works (John 14:12). The Father was sending the Holy Spirit to reside in us to enable and empower us for the miraculous. Jesus made the promise because of His request: "And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Comforter (Counselor, Helper, Intercessor, Advocate, Strengthener, and Standby), that He may remain with you forever (John 14:16 AMPC).

Through the power of the Holy Spirit living in you, there's absolutely no height of success or victory you can't achieve. 2 Corinthians 4:7 says, "but we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellence of the power may be of God and not of us." You have inside you the supernatural elixir for victory. You can do all things with the Holy Spirit who lives within you. He's the One who brings into your life enablement to blaze new trails and cause new things to happen.

From the Master's emphasis in our opening scripture, He knew we wouldn't be able to fulfill the divine call without the divine enablement that the Holy Spirit brings. But blessed be God, we've been embedded with the power from on high for the miraculous. Hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The Holy Spirit has made me a proof-producing Christian. The reality of God's Kingdom is manifested in me. I live a life of the supernatural by the power of the Spirit.

And Peter said unto him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

Notice that Peter didn't even need to lay his hands on Aeneas before he received his healing. That is because Aeneas was already carrying the healing from within him. Aeneas was on the sickbed, yet the answer to his healing was inside of him. What the Apostle Peter simply did was to awaken him into this reality.

You need to understand Aeneas was a believer just like you, filled with the Spirit and speaking in tongues. All he needed to do was activate the power that was lying dormant on the inside of him by awakening to the truth and proclaiming the Word of God.

What you are facing today does not matter, whether it's in your family or your business, whether it's in your body or your marriage. I decree and declare, be made whole. Jesus makes you prosper! Jesus Christ makes you well in your body. That sickness is leaving you right now in the Name of Jesus.

Despite the imperfections you see on yourself, God sees you as a New Creation, He sees you as a partaker of His divine nature and one who is more than a conqueror.

The above should be your confession every day. See yourself as Christ sees you, COMPLETE in Him. Don't wait to feel blessed before you can say I am blessed.

Whatever you may think you lack, whether it's godly character traits, physical health, peace in your family, or financial freedom, you already have everything in Christ. You are not going to get it; you possess it right now! That's why John says, "now are we the sons of God" (1 John 3:2). We are not waiting for it. We have already arrived. Many of God's children still believe that being poor is a sign of humility when it's a clear sign that you are out of the will of God for your life. I want you to understand today that poverty is not humility, and it's not the plan of God for you. You were made to live the good life.

The Lord Jesus himself said I have come that you may have life and have it more abundantly. I can assure you that this life He spoke of did not include poverty or sickness. David had to come to the realization of this truth when he said, the Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want. In other words, as long as the Lord is with me, I will not lack. He knew that as long as God is with him, he will never be needy. Brothers and sisters, now that you have come to Christ, prosperity comes with it. You can't help but become a money magnet. Keep your heart with all diligence, for out of it spring the issues of life.

When you allow negative words and thoughts to dominate your mind, they become a cancer, eating up every good thing that you have built in faith. You are responsible for the things you are allowing in your heart.

Our scripture for today says to guard your heart. That means that you alone have the responsibility of choosing the things that get into your heart. A good report brings joy and is refreshing; a bad report, on the other hand, can bring fear and anxiety. When you choose to keep your mindset on the good news of God's grace, you can determine the direction of your life.

It all boils down to whose report you will believe. The good news has an inherent ability to align every area of your life to the will of God. And even as you read these passages, there is an anointing welling up in you, positioning you for that promotion and connecting you to God's healing power.

If you are poor and God says I will be your God, it means that you will be well provided for. Since God fed nearly three million Israelites in the wilderness every single day for forty years, you can be sure that God will provide for you too.

If you are sick in your body today and God says I will be your God, it means that He is going to be the Lord who heals you (Exodus 15:26), and you will be healthy. If you are drowning in debt

For ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

In today's scripture, I want you to pay close attention to the choice of words. The Bible says, "I will dwell in them." What does this mean? It means to "settle down in them!" Hallelujah! The Lord has chosen to settle down in you. In other words, He has set up His headquarters in you, but that's not all. He also said, "I'll walk in them." The word 'walk' here is the Greek word emperipatéō, which means to perambulate, to patrol the boundaries of a property in search of any damaged part or notify of any trouble.

You see, the Holy Spirit in you ensures that anything that goes wrong in your body is fixed. If it is in need of renewal, the Holy Spirit will renew it. No wonder the Bible also says, "He who raised Christ from the dead shall also vitalize your mortal bodies by His Spirit that lives in you" (Romans 8:11).

Become conscious that the Holy Spirit lives in you in all His power. He's all that you need. His presence in you keeps you victorious over the devices of the evil one and the corrupting influences in this world. Hallelujah!

LIVING and ACTIVE.

The quality of your life is determined by the quality of the Word you have in you. Build yourself up with the Word. Study the Word daily and see your life grow from one level of glory to another level of glory.

And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up ...

Have you ever heard of the term you are what you eat? If you eat an unhealthy diet, you will become malnourished. It's amazing how so many Christians make sure that they eat 3 or 4 times during the day, but only feed their spirit a cold sandwich once a day and expect to grow spiritually. Many times, it is because they undervalue what the Word of God does for you.

Take a look at the above scripture. The Bible makes it plain that the WORD is able to build you up. The Word of God is not a storybook, neither is it like some old history book! The Word of God is

1 Timothy 1:12

And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry

I have met so many people around the world who ask me what their calling is and what their purpose is. The answer to these two questions is found in the scripture above. Your life as a Christian is to bear witness of the reality and truth of the Kingdom and minister the Gospel to those in your world and in the regions beyond.

You have received the power to be a faithful and effective witness of the Lord Jesus. He has made you an able minister of the Gospel (2 Corinthians 3:6). One vital evidence that the Holy Spirit is active in your life is soul winning.

Whenever people received the Holy Spirit in the Bible, they preached and taught the Word with boldness, resulting in the conversion of sinners. For example, Peter ministered the Gospel and converted three thousand souls in one day. The Bible says, "Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls." (Acts 2:41).

Christ has come and has brought salvation to the whole world. But it is now your calling, purpose, and responsibility to tell the untold and take the message of salvation to the ends of the earth.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I have been made a minister of the Gospel. My mission is to tell everyone about the goodness of God's grace. I have been empowered to witness. I will carry out this mission from today until Jesus comes. Amen.

As Christians, we're victorious in Christ Jesus, and we maintain our victory by speaking faith-filled words. We speak righteousness, success, and excellence only.

The Apostle Paul calls our language "the wisdom of God": "Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world ... But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery ..." (1 Corinthians 2:6-7).

Notice, the word 'fellowship' there in the Greek rendering is koinonia, which means joint participation. This means there is a oneness which many fail to comprehend.

Get a hold of this truth: you're not an ordinary person; you're a joint heir with the Monarch of the Universe (Romans 8:17). You're a member of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones (Ephesians 5:30), meaning you can't go anywhere or do anything without Him. He's in you

For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

In your life, you must learn to agree with God through His Word. In the opening Scripture, the Bible lets us know that God has not given us the Spirit of fear, but of love, power, and of a sound mind.

This lets us know that fear is an outside force. It's not consistent with our nature as Christians to be afraid of anything. Christians who manifest fear in their lives are manifesting something that is not of our Heavenly Kingdom.

There's nothing in this world that can destroy you, as the greater One lives in you. There's no demon hatched out of hell that can harm you. Why? Jesus said nothing shall by any means hurt you (Luke 10:19).

That means there's absolutely nothing that has been created with the ability to hurt you. Be it men or demons, living or non-living things, you have overcome them all! That means you're untouchable! No evil shall befall you, and no harm shall come near you! You're shielded from the misfortunes and mishaps of life.

Therefore, walk tall and bold every day. Refuse to fear.

For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

When the Bible talks about the carnal mind, it doesn't mean a sinful mind per se, even though the carnal mind is prone to sin. A carnal mind means a mind that's ordinary, of mere human understanding, just normal human life.

The person who's carnally minded, even though he's born again, reasons and acts like the natural man. He lives according to the senses. He's more attuned to and concerned about the things of the flesh. The Word and the spiritual realities of the Kingdom hardly get His attention.

Be Spirit-ruled and Word-governed. Refuse to be stirred by and attracted to fleshly things. You're after the Spirit if your affection, time, and energies are focused on things pertaining to Christ, His Gospel, and the eternal life that He's given us. So, let the Word of God control your values, ideas, opinions, choices, and decisions.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The Word of God has the ability to impact not only your spirit and your mind but also your physical body. The above scripture proves that not only does the Word impact your spirit, as you take in the Word into your mind, you impact every fiber of your being.

God's Word works in your spirit the same way physical food works in your body. Just as the food you eat is broken down and absorbed until it becomes part of you, the Word of God that you receive into your spirit also becomes in

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Confessing your sins is not really confession from God's point of view. Most people understand this verse to mean that when you sin, you must go to God, list all of your wrongdoings, and then ask (or beg) God for forgiveness. That is not what God had in mind at all when He said to confess your sins.

The word 'confess' in the Greek is the word homologeó which means to say the same thing as what God is saying. So, the principle of confessing your sins is simply saying the same thing that God has already said about your sins.

What has He said about your sins? He said that your past, present, and future sins have been forgiven. He said that He will be merciful to any unrighteous behavior. He said that He will not even so much as remember your wrongdoing much less hold it against you.

When you understand that, the last part of the verse becomes an acknowledgment and affirmation of what He has already done: He is faithful and just to forgive your sins and cleanse you from all unrighteousness. You have eternal redemption, and the issue of sin is no longer a problem between you and God. Hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

All of my sins, past, present, and future are forgiven. I am not a sinner. I am the righteousness of God in Christ. Hallelujah!

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ

Much of what is called church today is religious and far removed from the Bible. It's mostly about what God is going to do, what's coming, and what you're going to get. The problem with such messages is that they imply that right now there's nothing as though God hasn't done anything yet.

Notice, the verse doesn't say God "who is going to" bless us. It says that God has blessed us. It's already been done. He has already passed those blessings out. So, there is no need for you to pray, "Oh God, bless me." You are already blessed. All you need now is to receive those blessings. You receive the blessings the same way you received salvation: believe in your heart and confess with your mouth. When God tells you you're blessed, the first part to receiving is to believe that what He says is true. Then come into agreement with God and declare that blessing.

Nothing happens until you agree, and the Word only works on the return journey. When your mouth begins to utter what God says about you, that's when you start to change your situation.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

God has blessed me with everything I need to create the designer life I desire. Above all things, I am prospering in my health, finances, and relationships quickly, directly, and with ease. Right now, as I speak and as I pray in tongues, I am invoking and activating the blessings of God in my life.

That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth.

When the Bible says, "at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow," I need you to understand the language of scripture. Notice it didn't say "shall" bow, oh no! This is not a promise but a present-day reality, and when you read that passage in the original rendering, the word "should" is a phrase used in legal terms.

So, when the Bible says that every knee should bow, it means that all things in heaven, earth, and under the earth have been given the statutes by which to operate, and that is at the Name of Jesus they bow. "Should bow" is not a negotiation; they don't have a say in the matter.

The Name of Jesus is as powerful as the person of Jesus. Brothers and sisters, we were granted the power of attorney to use this name in the affairs of life. That means you can never be disadvantaged. That is why the scripture says, whatever you do, do it in the Name of the Lord. At that level, everything in your path has to bow to the authority that has been invested in that name.

It doesn't matter what you may be facing today. You have the authority to rebuke that sickness in the Name of Jesus, to speak life into your ailing marriage. Take charge of your destiny today in the Name of Jesus!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Divinity is tabernacled in my physical body! I'm a new creation, not subject to the elements of this world. I live the transcendent life! In the Name of Jesus, I reign over sickness, disease, poverty, and lack! Glory to God!

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

Our scripture for today says that faith is the substance of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen. In other words, faith gives evidence to or makes concrete or tangible what the physical senses can't perceive. God is a Spirit (John 4:24), and He operates from the spirit realm. To Him, things in that realm are more real than the things we perceive with our senses.

When you possess faith, you are carrying the proof or title deed that gives you legitimate right over anything you want in this life. That means with faith, you don't have to worry about what things look like on the outside. You have an assurance of an expected end on the inside. You no longer consider the circumstances, and just like old Abraham, you stagger not at the promise of God. Hallelujah!

We have a currency of faith. That's why the Bible says without faith it is impossible to please God. Have faith in the Word of God, and when you hear it, believe it and act upon what you believe, and you will surely come back with a testimony.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

Biblical hope means to have an expectation of good. Hope is what gives faith it's direction, for the Bible says, "faith is the substance of things hoped for" (Hebrews 11:1). In other words, faith comes to bring materiality to that for which you have hope; it gives faith something to work with.

Knowing that God loves you gives you the expectation of good things happening in your life. In other words, His love gives you hope. He is the God of all hope (see Romans 15:13).

When you're dealing with what looks like a hopeless situation, do what Ezekiel did. He said all I see right now is dryness, but Lord, what do you have to say about it? (see Ezekiel 37:3-4) This is still the year of the record-breaker. Even if your circumstances appear to be dead, dried up, and hopeless, don't just go by what it looks like. Find out what God has to say about it.

Brothers and sisters, God is good, and He loves you beyond comprehension. He is the God of all hope, which means you have the DNA of hope. When you speak the Word of God, you are speaking words of hope. Hallelujah! You can never be disadvantaged, and hopelessness is not your portion.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The word "building" as used by the Apostle Jude doesn't mean building something afresh or from scratch. It's the Greek word, epoikodoméō. It means to build on or build upon, building on an already existing foundation.

The Bible lets us know that God has dealt to every man the measure of faith (Romans 12:3). The faith given to you by God is the foundation you need to build upon for a life of success, prosperity, victory, divine health, and glory as God wants.

Offentimes, as you hear God's Word, faith comes to you strong, and you're inspired to take certain actions. That's

The centurion was different. He said, "Lord, You don't have to come to my house. I know who You are." This centurion believed that Jesus did not have to come to his house for his servant to be healed. He believed that Jesus only needed to speak the word. He said to Jesus, "Just speak the word, and my servant at home will be healed."

Do you know who Jesus is? The Bible tells us He is the Word, and if you can believe and act on the Word of God, then you have responded just like the centurion did. How do you delight yourself in the Lord? It's by giving yourself to His Word, doing His Word, meditating on it day and night, and living it! Desiring God's Word and cherishing it more than your necessary food is delighting yourself in Him!

When you do these things, everything you do will prosper and turn out right. Whatever you get involved in will work. That's my life! Everything I do prospers. That's because I've made the Word my delight and my meditation.

Do you know you can have the Lord describe you this way within the context of your service to Him? Today make up your mind to be not just a light, for you're already the light of the world. Rather, be a burning and a shining light.

The way to burn and shine is by being effective in the things the Lord has called you to do. The Bible says, "Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord" (Romans 12:11). Psalm 23

1 John 3:2

Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

Boy, I love the Word! Our scripture for today says, "now are we the sons of God," not when we get to Heaven, but right now, this very moment we are sons and daughters of the Most High God.

When the Lord Jesus told the Pharisees that He was the Son of God, they wanted to stone Him. They were outraged by such a claim. They understood that by Him saying that He was the Son of God, He was telling them that He was like God. He was made of the same material as God; He had the God gene.

John tells us that now you and I are the sons of God, and when we see Him, we will look exactly like He does. God has invested in you all the attributes of His divine nature.

You can speak to the storms of life and command them to cease; you can call your dead marriage back to life; you are a partaker of the divine nature. You were created for a sign and a wonder. Go out today and conquer!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a partaker of the divine nature, and I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace.

When people hear about forgiveness, they tend not to look a little closer as to what it fully means to be a Christian. When you forgive a person, it doesn't mean you have forgotten what they did. The record of their wrongdoing is still there. The scripture above tells a different story about God's kind of forgiveness.

It says we have received forgiveness of sins according to the riches of His grace. The word 'forgiveness' there is áphesis in the Greek rendering. It means the complete blotting away of sins, a complete release from bondage or imprisonment, and letting go as if the sin had never been committed. In Christ, you are not pardoned of your sins. They don't exist at all! You received remission of sins, a complete blotting away. I've met many Christians who live in total shame of things they did in the past. They can't even pray as a result. Yes, you did something wrong or things you're not proud of, but don't let that shame dominate you. To God, those sins were never committed in the first place.

When the devil reminds you of your sin, remind him of Jesus on the cross. He took it all hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Today I forgive myself. I am free. I am clean. I am forgiven! Thank you, Lord Jesus!

Psalms 138:2

I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy loving kindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified [exalted] thy word above all thy name.

When God speaks, He becomes a servant of His word. Imagine that His own name, the very Name of Jesus, is lower than the Word! He put His Word above His own name.

It's interesting to note how Christians will call out the name of Jesus when they're in a bind, with no understanding, and never ever use or stand on the Word over that same situation. They don't even have verses they know by heart or otherwise to stand on. The scripture above says His Word is even greater than His own name. So that means God is bound by His own Word; He has to perform what He speaks.

Jesus' own life was a prophecy that had to be fulfilled to the letter. He even had to ask Mary for permission to come through her womb simply because it was written in His Word that that's how He would come. He could've chosen to come to earth as a teenage boy, but no, it was not written that way.

Now that you understand this revelation. Use it today. Pray the Word!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The Word of God is a part of my life. I choose to speak the Word over all situations, and I know for a fact, my life will never be the same again. I'm coming back with a testimony. Glory be to Jesus!

Jesus answered and said unto him, If anyone loves me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and WE will come to him, and make our abode with him.

When you take a clear glass of water and drop a cube of sugar in it, right away you begin to see the water seep into the cube. Before long, the cube dissolves, and nothing of itself is left.

You see, your life as a Christian ought to be exactly as that grain of sugar. Allow Christ to seep into every fiber of your being. You can't say I only allow God in my business, but my family life I can handle on my own. It's either He has made His abode in you, or He hasn't. He has full access, or He hasn't. It doesn't work both ways.

You don't have to go through life defeated by sin and failure. Your old sinful and defeated life was crucified with Christ, and the life you live now is infused with the life of Christ. You are completely dissolved in Him! Apostle Paul said it well. He said, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me."

From today, live like someone who knows he is full of Christ, hallelujah! Begin to manifest His presence and power to the world around you.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I have complete victory over sin and defeat. Christ has made His abode in me, and the only way for me to go is up. I can never fail, not now, not ever! Glory be to Jesus!

For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry Abba, Father.

One time, a pregnant woman walked up to me asking for prayer. She said her baby was almost due, but she was so scared that something bad was going to happen. She said she kept having this nagging feeling that either she was going to experience extreme complications or difficulties, or she was just going to die during childbirth. I said to her, well, that is very abnormal. Your body was not designed for complications; it was designed to give birth normally, and normal is exactly what it should do! Anything contrary is an abnormality created through fear!

You see, like the scripture above says, we were never given the spirit of fear. It's not part of our design. When your body starts acting a certain way, recognize the abnormality, and cast it out! Never toy with the idea of sickness, lack, or stress. Don't entertain it at all!

Too many Christians are suffering today simply because they allowed fear to dominate them. We received a spirit of adoption that allows us to function just like God. Quit living in fear and experience the best God has in store for you. Fear is bondage, and it will keep you there for the rest of your life.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

All things are working out for my life. No matter what I hear or see with my physical eyes, my whole family is perfect through Christ. I fear nothing. I am a success. Hallelujah!

This is why the scripture says, "as many as received Him, to them gave He the power to become the sons of God." You possess power right now to function like God. If you can only shift your mindset to see this new creation that you have become, you will never be

Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us (for it is written, "cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree")

Jesus hung and died on the cross because He knew the law which says, "he who is hanged is accursed of God." He wanted to redeem all of us from every curse of the law, so he went to the cross, "having become a curse for us." Jesus took all our curses at the cross so that we can take all the blessings!

Nowadays, believers are so curse-conscious. They'll come for prayer asking for curses to be removed. The moment you're born again, the Bible says you become a new creature. The person who was cursed died when you received Jesus. Now you live a life of victory.

If things are not working in your life, speak life into them. Speak the Word to those situations, renew your mind, and awaken to the reality that you are not doomed to be a failure because of a curse. You are CURSE FREE!

The only way God could bring us back to a relationship with Himself was to come as a baby, then grow to be a man. A man who walked, talked, fellowshiped, experienced hardships with the same humanity He created all in the Person of Jesus—Emmanuel, God with us. Jesus was truly one with God, yet He took on humanity to bring reconciliation between God and us. Today as Christians, we get to enjoy fellowship with God. We get to enjoy His presence through Jesus Christ. There was no other way this could have been made possible.

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning

Christmas time can be a hectic time for many people. It seems everyone is trying to find perfect presents for their loved ones, so they search high and low trying to achieve this. Preparing the ultimate Christmas dinner can be like preparing for war for some too!

You see, most of these things we buy and prepare for are momentary. I've observed how children lose interest or break their toys even a few hours after opening their gifts. If it is clothes, they are outgrown in a matter of months. But every good and perfect gift comes from the Father, and His gifts are eternal.

He gave us gifts to do His will, but the biggest and most important gift was His own Son, Jesus Christ.

On this Christmas day, teach your children this. Never forget that every good gift and every perfect gift comes from God our Father. Merry Christmas!

That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith

Is it not amazing that Jesus Christ would come to connect us to the person who existed centuries before He came? Abraham, a man described as being blessed in all things who was rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold, is the man who was given the blessings which Jesus came to connect us with. This is the blessing of Abraham which is also yours:

And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed. (Genesis 12:2-3)

Do you see that? The scripture shows you exactly what you have just for being Abraham's seed! The Word tells how Jesus was shocked by the negative reaction He received for healing a woman on the Sabbath day. He said, how can someone stay bound in sickness being a daughter of Abraham? It came as a shock to him. (Luke 13:16)

The blessing of Abraham rests upon you. You are a partaker of greatness! You don't have to be sick another day or broke another day! You shall have abundance like he did, favor like he did, and prominence like he did in Jesus' Name!

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

If you don't love, you are not a believer, period! Some people have come to me in the past and confessed they have no ability to love. I say that is hogwash if you're truly born again.

The Word of God says in the book of Romans 5:5 that the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts. You don't have to activate it or pray for manifestation. It's just there! So, if you are a Christian and you say you can't love, then you are not born again.

I cannot emphasize the importance of walking in love. You can be a great preacher, musician, or committed tongue-talking member of the church; if you have no love, you have nothing. Jesus even said this is the only sign that will show we are believers.

If you hold a grudge against anyone, go and tell that person you love them with the love of Christ today! Otherwise, all your prayers, all your charity work, your giving, or anything you think is benefitting the Kingdom, is utterly useless if you don't love.

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, THINK ON THESE THINGS.

Thoughts are pictures of the mind with constructive or destructive possibilities, functioning with or within human emotions. In other words, they have the ability to influence your emotions.

A man's thoughts, if wrongly employed, can keep him in bondage, and on the other hand, he can experience glorious freedom as a result of his thoughts. Never underestimate the power of your thoughts.

If you are tired of the life you are living, then change your thoughts. Your life always goes in the direction of your thoughts. The character of your thoughts is what shapes your life. You are a reflection of your thoughts. If you want the life God has ordained you to live, then line up your thoughts with the Word of God, and your life will be a product of the Word.

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.

I am excited about today's scripture because it has a hidden gem that I'd like to share with you. Now, I want you to zone in on the word "together," and mark it or highlight it if you have an electronic copy of this devotional. That word is synergéō in the Greek, from which we derive the word synergy.

Now here it is. Synergy is the interaction of two or more substances designed to create something greater than the individual sum of the substances. Simply put, it's like two highly skilled individuals coming together to create something that is greater than what they could ever achieve individually for you.

So as the world is moving and time is going by, ALL these things are working together for your benefit. Whether it's someone's private business, or it's individuals rushing to their place of employment at 8 AM on a Monday morning, the Bible says ALL THINGS work together for you!

Somewhere, somehow, you should benefit from their synergy whether they know it or not. You're highly favored and blessed. The world is at your disposal if you dare believe!

Little did the guests know that these two were just as clueless as they were. They were baffled themselves as this was highly unusual. The best was always served first.

This miracle Jesus performed suggests something about the Kingdom of God. You see, we had thousands of record-breakers testifying of numerous amazing things God did for them during the course of the year. However, we still had some who faced challenging times too. By today's scripture, always know this, God's best is yet to come! As you prepare to enter the new year, God's best is ahead. You're walking into it as you read this script.

The best of everything is being poured out onto this generation as we have entered the last days until the rapture. This is where we see the pouring out of God's Spirit like never before. We shall see the best kind of miracles, the best kind of testimonies, the best kind of worship, the best kind of everything. Hallelujah! He has indeed saved the best for last!

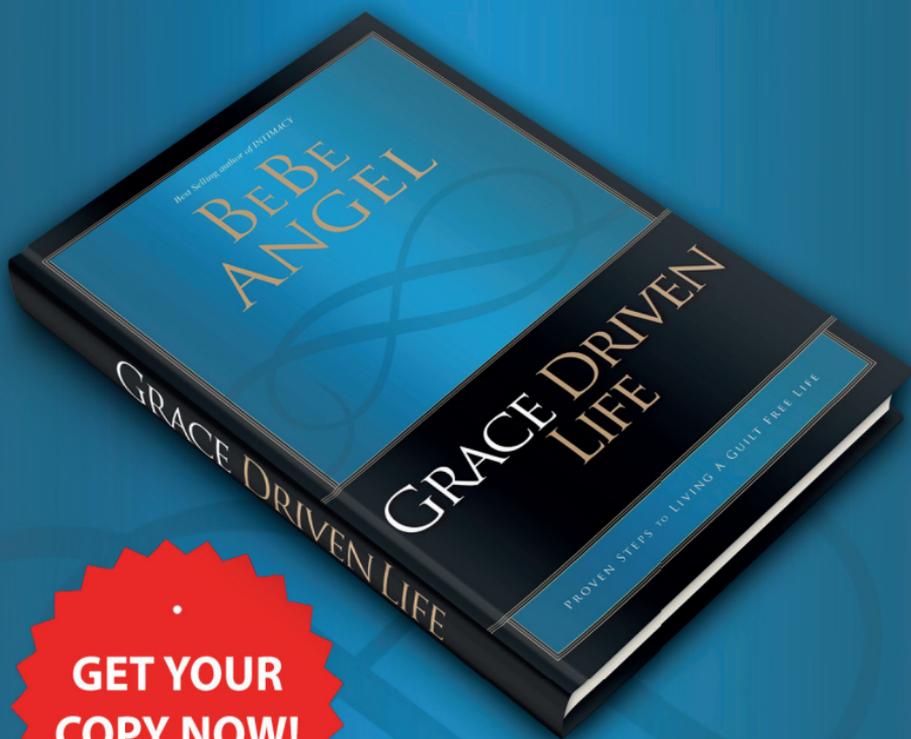

Happy New Year!
