He also built a stone mansion with cream-colored walls and a bright turquoise roof surrounded by several other structures, including the maids' quarters and a massive, square-shaped white building on one end of the island. Workers there, the Associated Press reports, told each other it was a music room fitted with a grand piano and acoustic walls, whose gold dome flew off during the deadly 2017 hurricane season.

The employee that spoke to Bloomberg said when Epstein would visit the property, he would walk around shirtless in shorts and flip-flops, and had a rule that he should never catch sight of the staff that maintained the place.

Sometimes, the employee added, women would sunbathe topless or in the nude around a pool near the island's main residence.

7) Since Epstein's arrest, at least 12 people have come forward as victims.

8) Elisabetta Tai said she met Jeffrey Epstein & Ghislaine Maxwell at a mansion in New York. She was told she would meet a man who could get her a gif modeling for Victoria's Secret. The encounter quickly turned into a nightmare.

Umbrella surveillance = listing more than one level of connections relative to the main suspect (ghislaine maxwell), each connection level is a hop.

2nd leads to the US.

We must find the 4th hop that will connect us to the [New York Society For The Prevention Of Cruelty To Children].

The New York Society For The Prevention Of Cruelty To Children Hosted Its Eighth Annual Spring Luncheon
Published April 13, 2019 | By Api Podder

New York Times best-selling author of Educated Tara Westover was the keynote speaker

Press Release - New York, NY — April 12, 2019 — The New York Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (The NYSPCC) held its eighth annual Spring Luncheon Thursday afternoon at The Pierre Hotel in Manhattan. Board Members and event chairs Elizabeth Mayhew and Valesca Guerrand-Hermès, along with Vicky Cornell, widow of music legend Chris Cornell, and NYSPCC's Children's Council member, joined the event's honored guest speaker, Tara Westover, best-selling author of the memoir Educated — one of The New York Times' Best Books of the Year in 2018 — for an afternoon of philanthropy and conversation.

MSNBC anchor Stephanie Ruhle shared the stage with Westover for an opportunity to discuss the author's thoughts on and experiences with child abuse and neglect, and the importance of The NYSPCC's work to eradicate them.

"We are so grateful to Tara, Stephanie, and to all of our guests who attended this essential event for The NYSPCC," said Mary Pulido, Ph.D., Executive Director of The NYSPCC. "Not only are we able to raise necessary funds to continue our work with New York's most vulnerable, we are also fortunate to be leaders in the conversation and action it will take to prevent and eradicate child abuse.

"[Healing victims of child abuse] goes back to a focus on sense of self," said Westover. "That's what has been taken away from them. We have to try to do what we can to help them rebuild that sense of their own selves; that right to take up space. Once they have that, they will see themselves."

Fox News alum and Children's Council Member Kimberly Gulfoyle, Manhattan Magazine Editor-in-Chief Cristina Cuomo and New York Times bestseller and attorney Regina Calcaterra were also in attendance, with celebrity auctioneer Harry Santa-Olalla leading a reverse auction that helped The NYSPCC surpass its fundraising goals — raising over $400,000 to make the event the most successful Spring Luncheon to date.

The annual Spring Luncheon gathers crucial funds for The NYSPCC, with proceeds from the event supporting The NYSPCC's Trauma Recovery and Safe Touches programs. Both programs help educate and prevent child abuse in all its forms.

The New York Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (NYSPCC) is one of the most highly respected child protective agencies in the world. Founded in 1875, the NYSPCC helps the most vulnerable children of our community recover from trauma. And, more importantly, it helps prevent child abuse through its work with parents, teachers, children and foster care agencies. The NYSPCC is used as a model for child abuse prevention centers across the nation, and most recently, has been contracted nationally to help eradicate child sexual abuse in the sport of gymnastics in partnership with The Athlete Assistance Fund. The NYSPCC has investigated more than 650,000 cases on behalf of over two million children and has educated over 47,000 professionals working with children on child abuse and neglect issues. <http://www.nyspcc.org>.

50) Chester Bennington was a musician, notably, the lead singer for Linkin Park and later, the lead singer for Stone Temple Pilots. He suffered from sexual abuse that began when he was 7 years old.

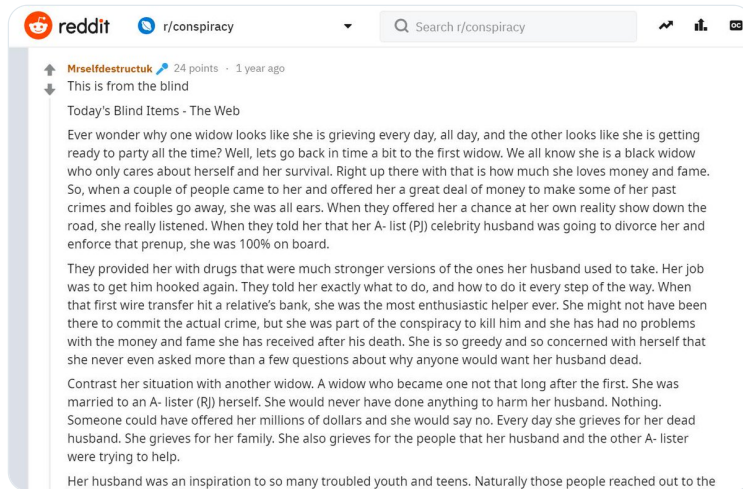

Early life

Chester Charles Bennington was born on March 20, 1976, in Phoenix, Arizona. His mother was a nurse, while his father was a police detective who worked on child sexual abuse cases.^[48] Bennington took an interest in music at a young age, citing the bands Depeche Mode and Stone Temple Pilots as his earliest inspirations,^[9] and dreamed of becoming a member of Stone Temple Pilots, which he later achieved when he became their lead singer.^[7] Bennington suffered sexual abuse from an older male friend when he was seven years old.^[8] He was afraid to ask for help because he did not want people to think he was gay or lying, and the abuse continued until he was 13 years old.^[9] Years later, he revealed the abuser's identity to his father, but chose not to pursue him after he realized the abuser was a victim himself.^[10] Bennington's parents divorced when he was 11 years old. The abuse and his situation at home affected him so much that he felt the urge to kill people and run away.^[9] To comfort himself, he drew pictures and wrote poetry and songs.^[9] After the divorce, Bennington's father gained custody of him.^[5] Bennington started abusing alcohol, marijuana, opium, cocaine, meth, and LSD.^{[9][10][9]} He was physically bullied in high school. In an interview, he said that he was "knocked around like a rag doll at school, for being skinny and looking different".^[11] At the age of 17, Bennington moved in with his mother. He was banned from leaving the house for a time when his mother discovered his drug activity,^[9] his career as a professional musician.^[9]

51) The story goes that Geffen found out what Cornell and Bennington were up to and he put an end to it.

52) The story about Chris Cornell and Chester Bennington can be found on this blind Item thread on Reddit.

53) On December 9th, 2017, an anon said Bennington and Cornell tried "to" move on Geffen and paid the price.

54) Q seemed to confirm the anon's suspicion but he corrected their choice of words.

Cornell and Bennington didn't try 'to' move on Geffen. They tried 'the' move on Geffen.

55) As I noted in my last thread, Q doesn't always confirm our suspicions, directly.

Sometimes he replies with an obtuse remark that suggests we're on the right track.

The implication here is that they confronted Geffen with what they'd found and it didn't end well for them.

56) A major goal of Donald Trump's presidency is the removal of corruption on a global scale.

Since most people are unaware of the depth of corruption, it will open their eyes to the truth.

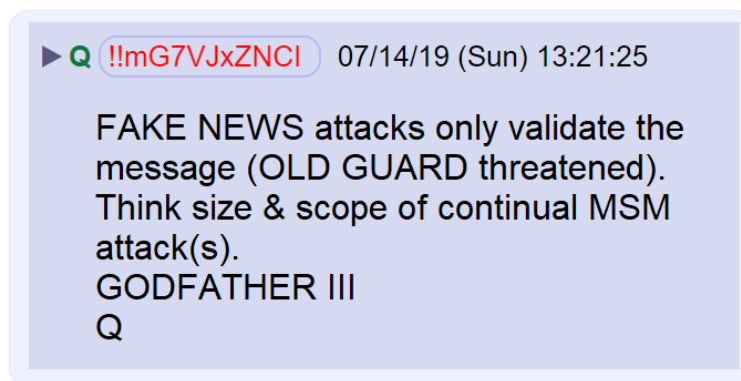

It will bring a great awakening.
(I believe it will be a spiritual awakening.)

57) Since Q returned, the Fake News media has resumed their attacks.

The media attack POTUS because he's a threat to their narrative (and their existence)

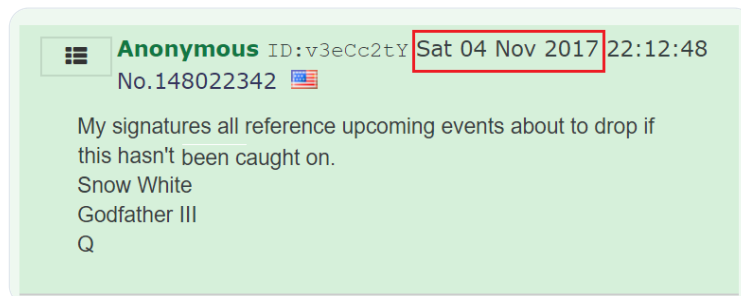

They attack Q for the same reason—his operation is a threat to their narrative and their existence.

58) Godfather III is a Q "signature."

Signatures are coded words that indicate subjects and/or events that are about to happen.

Snow White refers to the CIA.

59) Godfather III refers to the Vatican.
