Biden's early vote lead is not enough & they know it.

Dems plan to call @realDonaldTrump's Election Day surge a "Red Mirage" to delegitimize his wave of support.

They'll try to create a smoke screen post-Election Day, even running TV ads to cast doubt on Nov. 3 vote.

Be ready.

Trump campaign statement on Democrat plans to delegitimize Election Day results

"Democrats are panicking because Joe Biden has not run up a large enough lead in early votes in battleground states and they know that President Trump's in-person votes on Election Day will make up the difference and propel him to victory. Biden's political operatives have already been distributing talking points and research to delegitimize Election Day results by coaching surrogates to refer to the President's Election Day success as a 'Red Mirage.' The operatives are advising surrogates and None of this will be true, but it will be held up as proof that President Trump's victory is a so-called 'Red Mirage.' No one should fall for it.

"We are aware that Democrats have already cut television ads they are prepared to deploy to further cement the 'Red Mirage' misinformation, seeking to convince people that all Joe Biden would need for victory is more time, extending well beyond Election Day. At the same time, we fully anticipate that Democrats will be in court arguing to extend deadlines for accepting and counting votes mailed and received well past deadlines enacted by individual state laws. Americans should remember that Biden has assembled a massive team of lawyers who will try to loosen election integrity so they can steal this election, and also recall that Hillary Clinton advised Biden not to concede defeat 'under any circumstances.' The last gasp of the Biden campaign will be ugly and it will be ruthless.

Trump campaign statement on Democrat plans to delegitimize Election Day results

"Democrats are panicking because Joe Biden has not run up a large enough lead in early votes in battleground states and they know that President Trump's in-person votes on Election Day will make up the difference and propel him to victory. Biden's political operatives have already been distributing talking points and research to delegitimize Election Day results by coaching surrogates to refer to the President's Election Day success as a 'Red Mirage.' The operatives are advising surrogates and media to create a smoke screen by casting blame all around – imagining postal delays or falsely claiming that mail-in ballots that have simply not been returned should be considered legitimate votes that need to be counted. None of this will be true, but it will be held up as proof that President Trump's victory is a so-called 'Red Mirage.' No one should fall for it.

"We are aware that Democrats have already cut television ads they are prepared to deploy to further cement the 'Red Mirage' misinformation, seeking to convince people that all Joe Biden would need for victory is more time, extending well beyond Election Day. At the same time, we fully anticipate that Democrats will be in court arguing to extend deadlines for accepting and counting votes mailed and received well past deadlines enacted by individual state laws. Americans should remember that Biden has assembled a massive team of lawyers who will try to loosen election integrity so they can steal this election, and also recall that Hillary Clinton advised Biden not to concede defeat 'under any circumstances.' The last gasp of the Biden campaign will be ugly and it will be ruthless.

"What actually has happened is that Democrats fielded a candidate in Joe Biden who excites virtually no one, and his potential voters are not motivated to go to the polls in person. Democrats also made the mistake of spending months frightening their supporters away from voting in person because of the coronavirus, and now they've realized that their early vote lead will not be enough. Biden's campaign also committed the political sin of failing to build a ground game or field operation and now they are paying the price with their inability to turn out supporters. Biden knows that the votes he already has in the bank through early voting are from supporters they already had, so he has cannibalized his own Election Day turnout. Because of this Biden predicament, we are on guard for Democrats to attempt to subvert state deadlines for receiving and counting ballots and we will fight to make sure they adhere to the law. President Trump wants every eligible voter to be able to vote, vote once, and have it counted."

REPORT: At Least Seven Dead In Austria Shooting, Explosion Near Vienna's Main Synagogue

At least seven people have been killed in a shooting in Vienna, Austria.

Several gunmen opened fire near the city's center. At least six shooting locations have been identified by police so far. Two of the dead are believed to be assailants including one who may have blown himself up.

Interior Minister Karl Nehammer called it an apparent terrorist attack.

The latest on the Hunter Biden laptop saga comes from the Daily Mail.

DC activist groups primed for Nov. 3 and whatever follows

By ASHRAF KHALIL October 30, 2020

WASHINGTON (AP) — Activists in the nation’s capital are banding together for Election Day, pooling resources, running training sessions for demonstrators, forming rapid-reaction teams and organizing events that are expected to draw large crowds.

A collection of groups led by Black Lives Matter and Shutdown DC plan an eight-hour event at Black Lives Matter Plaza, one block from the White House. It will include a giant screen showing election results, DJs and performances by bands playing Washington’s signature go-go music.

Robin Bell, a local activist who gained international notoriety for projecting sarcastic messages onto the side of Washington’s Trump International Hotel, will have two projections going in different parts of Washington.

Cities around the nation are bracing for election-related unrest as activists get ready for what could be weeks of sustained street actions, depending on how the vote count goes and how President Donald Trump acts after his repeated refusals to say whether he will accept the results.

...no future for America's youth. A vote for Biden is a vote for Lockdowns, Layoffs and Misery. Get out and VOTE tomorrow!

Trump's rush to make a vaccine available before the end of the year is his way of providing a medically defensible reason not to lock us down again.

Biden and the media's push to delay public access to a vaccine will be used to justify more lockdowns and institute the Great Reset—a plan to implement government healthcare, guaranteed minimum income, debt forgiveness, contact tracing, forced vaccinations, and permanent lockdown.

Governor Cuomo will now require out of state visitors to test negative for covid before and after arrival.

The #GreatReset comes to New York.

Michigan is requiring restaurants and other establishments to record the names, contact information, and visit times of all customers to “aid with contact tracing.” The maximum fine for non-compliance is a $200 and up to six months in prison.

Arizona exceeds 2016 voting levels

From CNN's Bob Ortega

Early voting in Arizona, including mail-in ballots and in-person, has now exceeded the state's 2016 total vote.

As of mid-day, Arizona's Secretary of State's office reported 2,667,535 ballots accepted. The biggest share of those, 1.68 million, are from Maricopa County, the state's most populous county and home to Phoenix and its suburbs. In 2016, the state had 2,661,497 overall.

Arizona is the fourth state to surpass their total 2016 vote. Texas, Hawaii and Nevada have also passed the level from four years ago.
