23) #Qanon

24) @AndrewCMcCarthy's take on the #CrossfireHurricane story is brilliant.

Spinning a Crossfire Hurricane: The Times on the FBI's Trump Investigation | National Review
At the height of the 2016 presidential race, the FBI collaborated with the CIA to probe an American political campaign.

<https://www.nationalreview.com/2018/05/crossfire-hurricane-new-york-times-report-buries-lede/>

<https://www.nationalreview.com/2018/05/crossfire-hurricane-new-york-times-report-buries-lede/>

That is, there was no criminal predicate to justify an investigation of any Trump-campaign official. So, the FBI did not open a criminal investigation. Instead, the bureau opened a counterintelligence investigation and hoped that evidence of crimes committed by Trump officials would emerge. But it is an abuse of power to use counterintelligence powers, including spying and electronic surveillance, to conduct what is actually a criminal investigation.

The Times barely mentions the word counterintelligence in its saga. That's not an accident. The paper is crafting the media-Democrat narrative. Here is how things are to be spun: The FBI was very public about the Clinton-emails investigation, even making disclosures about it on the eve of the election. Yet it kept the Trump-Russia investigation tightly under wraps, despite intelligence showing that the Kremlin was sabotaging the election for Trump's benefit. This effectively destroyed Clinton's candidacy and handed the presidency to Trump.

It's a gas, gas, gas!

It's also bunk. Just because the two FBI cases are both referred to as "investigations" does not make them the same kind of thing.

The Clinton case was a criminal investigation that was predicated on a mountain of incriminating evidence. Mrs. Clinton does have one legitimate beef against the FBI: Then-director James Comey went public with some (but by no means all) of the proof against her. It is not proper for law-enforcement officials to publicize evidence from a criminal investigation unless formal charges are brought.

The Evolution of the U.S. Intelligence Community-An Historical Overview

The function of intelligence as an activity of the U.S. Government is often regarded as a product of the Cold War. Indeed, much of what is known today as the Intelligence Community was created and developed during the Cold War period. But intelligence has been a function of the Government since the founding of the Republic. While it has had various incarnations over time, intelligence has historically played a key role in providing support to U.S. military forces and in shaping the policies of the United States toward other countries.

44) It's unlikely Mueller will charge POTUS with a process crime like obstruction of Justice.

Has the President effectively been cleared of wrongdoing?

Could (or would) the Mueller investigation continue with a different target?

TIME

<https://content.time.com/time/subscriber/article/0,33009,915030,00.html>

No one knows whether CIA spooks wind up in heaven or hell when they die, but wherever they are, they must be rattling their bones in protest. Barely a decade ago, almost no high officials in Washington talked directly about the Central Intelligence Agency. It was obliquely referred to as "the pickle factory" or "our friends" or "across the river" or, more openly, "the agency" or "the company." When the CIA's $46 million headquarters opened along George Washington Memorial Parkway in suburban Langley, Va., in 1961, the deceptive highway sign said only BPR, for Bureau of Public Roads. Even Soviet KGB agents laughed at that. Finally the sign was changed to read: CIA. Now candor has gone further. For the first time, a photographer—from TIME—has been allowed to take some pictures of the people and operations inside the pickle factory. Guided public tours of Langley may soon be held, if only on Saturdays, but agents unready to come in out of the cold will be warned to stay out of sight to avoid a happenchance recognition by touring friends.

A theory ?

Those pallets were full of smart phones to be distributed members, i.e. Hillary, bill, Hussein, bremmer, etc.. These were special phones which the cabal thought could not be tracked or monitored. The cabal needed a new way to communicate after Q exposed their gmail draft and game forum methods.

Hillary was in NZ (FIVEEYES), not only to raise funds (if that is the true story) but to test out the phones. . Under directions of Trump, NZ told Hillary that the phones were good.

The cabal worked with China's ZTE for these special PHONES. That is why ZTE was in the news lately. Trump drew attention to them to send the cabal a message that he was on to them.

The pics in London show the cabal meeting up after communicating with their secret phones.
Just a theory.

Did Hillary visit New Zealand with her U.S. Security clearance to find out what intel the Five Eyes [FVEY] had on their new phones in a way that would not alert anyone to what she was doing?

► Q !4pRcUA0IBE 05/10/18 (Thu) 21:45:37 No.77

Read below slow and carefully.

FVEY.

Why do 'Former' Dignitaries Still Hold SEC Clearance?

U.S. to U.S. = Logged/Flagged/Recorded

U.S. [in] NZ = No Logs/No Flags/No Records = U.S. Sec Clearance AUTH FVEY VIEW + Doc Take.

Read above slow and carefully.

WHY DO WE ALLOW [FORMER] DIGNITARIES SEC CLEARANCE?

Welcome to the Deep State.

Future to prove past.
