My Theme: Not All Posts Are For Anons

2) After Q posted a link to tweet last night, the 8kun board and Twitter erupted in controversy over whether Q had made a mistake.

Q's response was: "Not all posts are meant for anons."

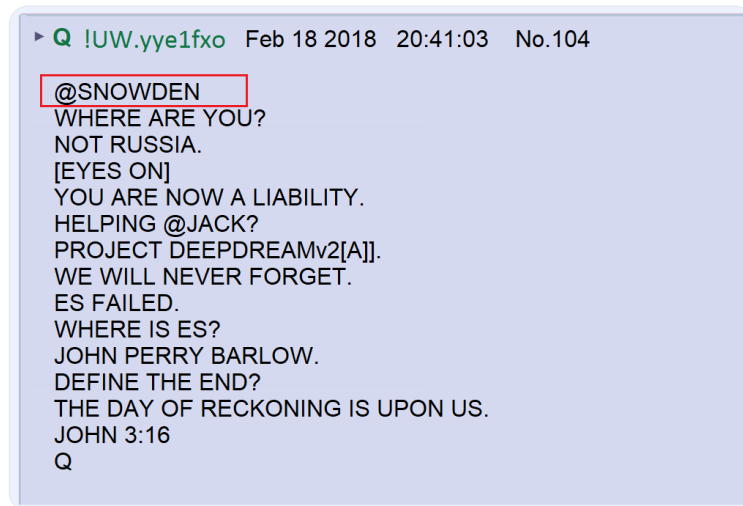

This thread will explore how (and why) Q addresses people other than anons.

3) Some posts by Q are obviously intended for a particular person.

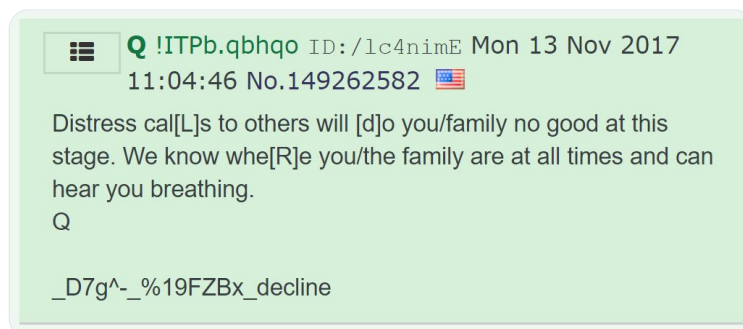

Q frequently sends messages to Jack Dorsey, the CEO of Twitter.

4) Q also posts messages intended for Edward Snowden.

5) Sometimes, Q trolls his enemies.

6)

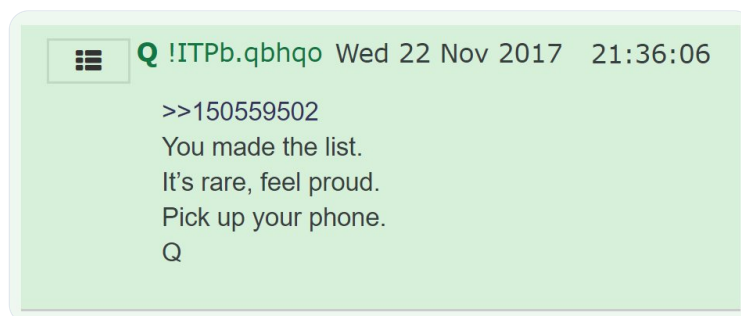

7) Sometimes Q replies to people who post on the board.

8) 🕶

9) On Thursday night, Q posted this message addressed to particular members of the military —"EAM loyalists."

► Q !!Hs1Jq13jV6 06/04/20 (Thu) 16:49:59

EAM LOYALISTS:

RED1: POTUS twitter removal
RED2: Central communications blackout [continental US]
RED3: CLAS movement PELOSI or PENCE
RED4: Movement of MIL assets [10th Mountain_1st citizen riot control.

RED5: NAT MIL COM CEN
RED6: SEC OF DEF _instruct1

Q

10) Q sent this message to Lisa Page after anons realized the photo he posted from London showed her walking with her co-conspirators.

► Q !CbboFOtcZs 07/27/18 (Fri) 08:50:59

Keep your promise.
This is not a game.
Q

11) A Congressional hearing on the Clinton Foundation was scheduled for December 5, 2018. The week before, Q posted this message, ostensibly sent to the person who leaked information about US Attorney Huber's investigation of the Clinton Foundation.

► Q !!mG7VJxZNCI 11/30/18 (Fri) 19:27:58

To the person who leaked Huber >
[Clinton Foundation] Whistleblower'
DO NOT reveal more.
MONDAY.
Q

12) The message was actually intended for the deep state. They held a funeral for Bush 41 that day, delaying the hearing 1 week.

Huber wasn't going to testify because his investigation wasn't complete. The warning was used as bait to get the deep state to expend ammunition.

► Anonymous 12/05/18 (Wed) 10:56:46 ID: 3d66f9 (7)

One man, who gave up everything, risking his life (himself/family), to fight for & defend, We, the PEOPLE.
Bait expends ammunition.
EVIL has no place here.

13) Sometimes the intended recipient of a message is obvious. Sometimes, it isn't.

14) This message was sent to the deep state during John McCain's state funeral, which served as cover for a gathering in Washington.

The cabal coordinated their plans and spoke in person (in a SCIF) to evade NSA detection.

► Q !!mG7VJxZNCI Sep 1st 2018, 12:37:23 PM

It must be hard to communicate.
Every moment together is a moment you should not waste.
Former President's are still able to arrange SCIFs?
Does the American taxpayer 'foot the BILL' for the [12] hotel rooms in close proximity to the central SCIF?
SS detail(s) ordered @ max perimeter def?
Nice color choice.
It's a shame the windows had to be blocked out to eliminate that view.
Q

15) In April of 2018, Q posted this warning about following people who profit off the movement. He implied that some people had wrong motives.

► Q !xowAT4Z3VQ 04/29/18 (Sun) 08:11:22 ID: 09b0d5 No.1233458 >>1233466 >>1233467 >>1233468

Be careful who you are following.
Some are profiting off this movement.
Some are building a big following off this movement only then to retreat and go mainstream.
Patriots make sacrifices.
Some, the ultimate sacrifice.
Patriots are SELFLESS.
Do they ask for monthly payments to remain Patriots?
Think logically.
To some, it's only about the money.
Those who would seek personal gain at the expense of others in this movement has an agenda.
You decide.
This is not a game.
The only profit we should all be striving for is TRUE FREEDOM.
God bless you all.

16) Understandably, many people took this as a general prohibition against making money.

But to find out who Q was speaking to, you need to read other messages.

17) At the time of this post, Jerome Corsi was the most popular Q decoder. Corsi had been promoting his latest book and had other revenue streams related to his involvement with Q.

18) After Q posted the message "Be careful who you follow" Corsi thought perhaps Q was a socialist.

Weeks later, he claimed Q had been compromised.

19) On May 11, Q posted a link to a thread by SerialBrain2 who explained how Infowars and Jerome Corsi had tried to discredit Q and when that failed, how they tried to subvert the movement.

It was that Corsi and Infowars had attempted to usurp the movement.

I don't think it would be fair to say that a journalist can't make money when covering Q. But that's the difference. A journalist covering Q isn't necessarily usurping Q. The paytriots in question were trying to usurp Q. This video explains what happened very well. It certainly cleared my head about it all.

24) Last night, Q posted a link to a tweet from the Obama Foundation.

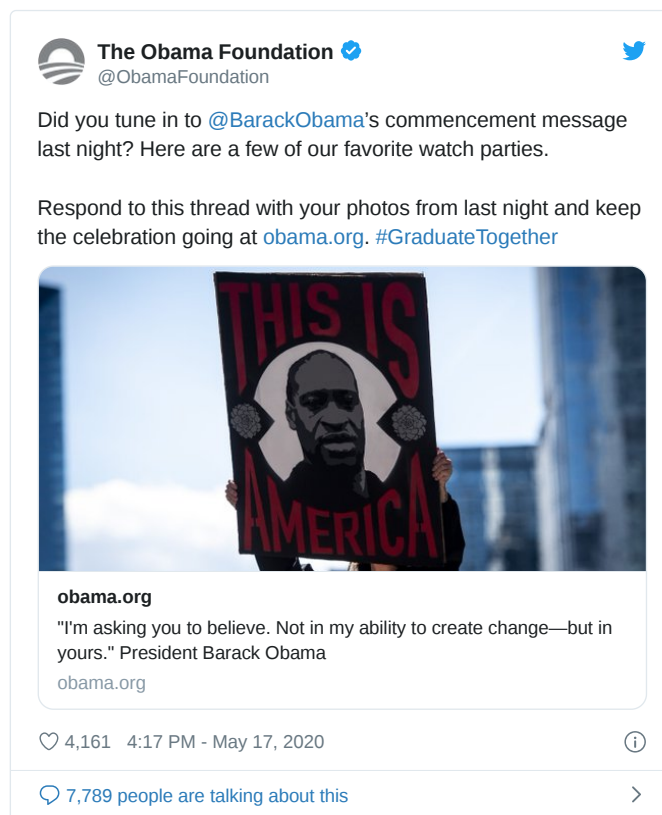

He also posted a photo of George Floyd.

(The photo is not associated with the link)

Q wrote: "Reconcile."

25) Here's the tweet.

26) The tweet was posted on May 17th, but George Floyd died on May 25th.

If you don't know how social media images are displayed, this might make you think the image was posted a week before Floyd's death.

► Anonymous 06/06/20 (Sat) 17:32:41

>>9510953

This was tweeted on May 17. George died May 25?

27) An anon pointed out that most website images are dynamic in nature. If an image is changed on a website, it will also change on linked social media posts, regardless of the date of the post.

► Anonymous 06/06/20 (Sat) 17:37:40

>>9510953

>Reconcile.

This: >>9510963

Dynamic link to an outside page that changes images irrespective of date of tweet.

Here's another one, even older from Oct 29 last year

<https://twitter.com/ObamaFoundation/status/1189209929799864320>

28) This does not require a lot of technical expertise to understand. Anyone with a personal website or blog has probably encountered this phenomenon even though they may not have understood the technical aspects of how it happens.

29) That Q would not understand this phenomenon seems unlikely to me.

30) Nevertheless, anons thought Q made a mistake and asked him to retract his post.

► Anonymous 06/06/20 (Sat) 17:42:01 ID: ac933c (7)

Q you really need to walk that last one back.....

The same reason a thumbnail of a gray clapboard shows up on a YouTube video when it's been deleted...

The thumbnail is CURRENT (obama.org main image) but the content is OLD.

Q you really need to retract that.....

31) Q responded with a snippet of code.

34) I've seen many interesting theories about what Q was implying with the Obama Foundation tweet and the snippet of code.

Here's an example from @calcon79

Caleb Conner
@calcon79

Replying to @QNE_ANQN

I personally believe Q showed the code which was used as a "bot" to constantly check their preview cards to show he had already caught them updating the website before they actually posted a new tweet when George Floyd died. That code does not update it returns a result

64 12:38 PM - Jun 7, 2020

22 people are talking about this

35) So far, Q hasn't confirmed any of the theories.

And I don't think he's going to.

36) Here's why:

He wasn't addressing anons.

He was sending a message to the people who run the Obama Foundation website.

► Anonymous 06/06/20 (Sat) 20:36:10 ID: 7ab38a (1)

I don't understand how people don't get the Q post. The tweet card updated because the site updated, however that is not what Q is pointed us to. Web developers frequently use the card validator privately BEFORE they update a page, to make sure the card looks proper before they go live. What Q is saying is that: 1, they control Twitter, and 2, they saw the Obama web developers sent requests to validate the GEORGE FLOYD card BEFORE the Floyd event happened. It's a warning - "we caught you"

37) Q seems to have confirmed that with this post.
