My Theme: What Happens When people Learn the TRUTH?

2) On February 7th, 2018, Nancy Pelosi gave a speech on DACA that set a record at 8 hours. She seemed to be a passionate supporter of that cause.

3) Seven months later, when the President said DACA would be terminated unless the House voted to make it permanent.

Pelosi refused to take action on DACA which led to a confrontation with an angry mob at a press conference in San Francisco.

6) Attorney General Barr said ending human trafficking is a top priority of the Trump administration.

10.7K people are talking about this

7) Human trafficking will take a more prominent public place after FISA abuse has been exposed and dealt with.

8) Exposing corruption is a multi-year process with many components.

Exposing FISA abuse is the start.

Once the public is aware of past government corruption, crimes related to Uranium One, the Iran deal, human trafficking, Haiti, etc, will be made public.

Q !CbboFOtcZs 07/29/18 (Sun) 11:53:05

Foundation.
Bottom to top.
Layers.

FISA = Foundation.

Start.

People are more aware of current events.
Establish link.
Think criminal/illegal act(s) to prevent/overturn Presidential election of POTUS.
Public awareness.
Evidence introduced.

MSM covert link.
Think Sessions open statement re: leak investigations.
How do you build a home?

Foundation to structure (layers).

Huber.

Layers (U1, Iran, Human Traffic, Haiti, Corruption, etc etc).

Logical thinking.

9) Like many politicians, Adam Schiff is well-connected to Ukraine

(This photo is from 2014.)

10) It seems that Schiff's dealings with Ukraine will soon be made public.

11)

12) Interesting that Q is discussing disclosure.

In last night's dream, I read a document that disclosed many things the public was not aware of.

The person who wrote it intended full disclosure, but the person who had final say omitted certain items from the final document.

13) The dream reminded me of this post.

Not everything can be publicly disclosed because so much ties back to foreign heads of state. Much will be revealed, we want transparency but not at a cost we can't recover from.

20) Q dropped a couple of links to help us understand the motive behind the allegations that POTUS is involved in corruption related to Ukraine.

21) Florida Rep Debbie Mucarsel-Powell has been hailed by Dems as a hero for bravely supporting the impeachment of POTUS.

22) In 2018, it was revealed that her husband makes most of his money representing companies owned, in whole, or in part, by Igor Kolomoisky—a Ukrainian oligarch plagued by allegations of contract killings and embezzlement.

25) Another example is Adam Schiff's connections to Igor Pasternak, whose company works with the Ukrainian military to deliver weapon systems.

It was only after they met that Schiff advocated for U.S. military aid to Ukraine.

28) Admiral Rogers.

Michael S. Rogers
From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

For other people named Michael Rogers, see Michael Rogers (disambiguation).

Michael S. Rogers (born October 31, 1959) is a former United States Navy admiral who served as the second commander of the U.S. Cyber Command (USCYBERCOM). He concurrently served as the 17th director of the National Security Agency (NSA) and as chief of the Central Security Service (CSS) from April 3, 2014. Prior to that, Rogers served as the Commander of the Tenth Fleet and Commander of the U.S. Fleet Cyber Command.^[d] During his tenure, he helped transform and elevate U.S. Cyber Command into a unified combatant command. He relinquished command on May 4, 2018 to his successor, Paul Nakasone.^[d] He retired from active duty in the United States Navy on June 1, 2018.

Pentagon and intelligence community chiefs have urged Obama to remove the head of the NSA

The heads of the Pentagon and the nation's intelligence community have recommended to President Obama that the director of the National Security Agency, Adm. Michael S. Rogers, be removed.

The recommendation, delivered to the White House last month, was made by Defense Secretary Ashton B. Carter and Director of National Intelligence James R. Clapper Jr., according to several U.S. officials familiar with the matter.

Action has been delayed, some administration officials said, because relieving Rogers of his duties is tied to another controversial recommendation: to create separate chains of command at the NSA and the military's cyberwarfare unit, a recommendation by Clapper and Carter that has been stalled because of other issues.

The news comes as Rogers is being considered by President-elect Donald Trump to be his nominee for director of national intelligence to replace Clapper as the official who oversees all 17 U.S. intelligence agencies. In a move apparently unprecedented for a military officer, Rogers, without notifying superiors, traveled to New York to meet with Trump on Thursday at Trump Tower. That caused consternation at senior levels of the administration, according to the officials, who spoke on the condition of anonymity to discuss internal personnel matters.

The White House, Pentagon and Office of the Director of National Intelligence declined to comment. The NSA did not respond to requests for comment. Carter has concerns with Rogers's performance, officials said. The driving force for Clapper, meanwhile, was the separation of leadership roles at the NSA and U.S. Cyber Command, and his stance that the NSA should be headed by a civilian.

Rep. Devin Nunes (R-Calif.), chairman of the House Intelligence Committee, on Saturday sent Clapper and Carter a letter defending Rogers. "I have been consistently impressed with his leadership and accomplishments," said Nunes, who is also a member of Trump's transition team. "His professionalism, expertise and decade-long leadership have been remarkable during an extremely challenging period for NSA. I know other members of Congress hold him in similarly high esteem."

Nunes said he will call a hearing on the matter.

Rogers, 57, took the helm of the NSA and Cyber Command in April 2014 in the wake of revelations by a former intelligence contractor of broad surveillance activities that shook public confidence in the agency. The contractor, Edward Snowden, had secretly downloaded vast amounts of digital documents that he shared with a handful of journalists. His
