James 5:16
The earnest (heartfelt, continued) prayer of a righteous man makes tremendous power available [dynamic in its working].

Elijah was a man who prayed and incredible things took place, but his prayers were not powerful. He declared that there would not be dew nor rain until he said otherwise, and God called that "an effectual, fervent prayer." He prayed, "Let this boy live again!" and a dead boy was brought back to life. By most people's standards, those would not be considered "powerful prayers," yet the results were miraculous.

God never gave power to prayer. He gave power to the Christian of the Godkind who prays. Notice our verse for today does not say the effectual fervent prayer makes tremendous power available, but the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man. The Bible says, "But as many as received Him, to them gave He power...." Prayer is the transporter of power: it distributes power to the areas you want to be changed. You have power inside you that moves when you speak. Pray with all confidence knowing that you are the one who gives power to prayer.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am full of the Holy Ghost, and the power of the risen Christ resides in me. As I release words of faith in prayer, I make tremendous power available to change whatever needs to be changed!

Colossians 2:14
Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to His cross.

Something incredible happened the moment Jesus breathed His last breath on the cross of Calvary. At that moment, as He was offered up as the perfect sacrifice, the spotless Lamb of God, every record of sin for the entire world was removed. You and I were not there when He died that day, yet He died for all the sins of the world. That includes the people that lived before He was born, the ones who were alive at that time, and everyone that would ever live after that moment. It was a moment of utter sinlessness in the world. Imagine that!

You and I should have been the ones hanging on that cross as a penalty for our sins. Jesus did not have any sins of His own to answer for. But He took upon Himself the demands of justice for the sins on our record. Now there is no more penalty for you to pay as punishment. The proof of anything you would ever do, think, or say that was wrong, was removed once and for all time. Nothing you had done before you knew Christ, or could ever do, can be held against you. You are forgiven - past, present, and future. Jesus paid it all, hallelujah! That is the wondrous Good News!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am not a sinner saved by grace. I am a brand-new creation in Christ Jesus. I have no record of wrongdoings. The sin debt of my old life was paid in full, and I do not owe anything! No record of wrong can be used in the courts of Heaven against me. Glory to God!

And the hostile princes and rulers He shook off from Himself [emphasis added], and boldly displayed them as His conquests, when by the Cross He triumphed over them.

After Jesus died on the cross, He confronted the devil and his cohorts on their own territory and defeated them. The devil was no match for Him because there was nothing in Jesus for the devil to use against Him. 'Devil' is not a name. It is a job description. It means one who throws consistently until he pierces through. The devil specializes in harassing the mind. His goal is to bombard your mind with lies until he penetrates your thoughts. 'Satan' also is not a name. It simply means accuser. Wherever there are accusations, the devil is at work.

God never accuses you. On the contrary, through the perfect sacrifice of Jesus Christ, He has done everything that needs to be done for you to live a life free of guilt, shame, and condemnation. Just like Jesus shook off the devil and His cohorts, shake off every trace of guilt that the accuser is trying to use to weigh you down. Walk in the freedom of the light of God's unchanging love for you.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am loved unconditionally and forgiven completely. I live a life of increasing influence and power because the triumphant Christ lives in me. I walk in the light of God's love without fear, doubt, or condemnation. I am taking territories and winning nations in a day, because the King of all domains lives in me!

Galatians 2:20

1 Corinthians 15:19-20

If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable. But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept.

After Jesus was raised from the dead, He stayed on Earth for another forty days. The Bible says that He was seen by more than five hundred of his brothers and sisters at the same time (see 1 Corinthians 15:6). It did not say that they were all in the same place. (You'll get that later.) You see, there was something about Jesus that defied the ordinary. He ignored the viscosity and molecular density of water and walked on it as if it were concrete. He transformed dirty water into the best-tastina wine. He did many other notable miracles that are not recorded in the canon of scripture. And among the most extraordinary was the resurrection from the dead.

You see, if Jesus was never raised from the dead, there would be nothing for us to talk about. We would have a powerless Gospel. But His resurrection changed everything. It proved that there was no power that could hold Him down. Now the same Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead is inside you. What can possibly hold you down? Right this minute, you are rising. You may not feel it, but it is happening. It is inevitable. You are rising in influence, rising in excellence, rising in favour. Your health is rising. Your bank balance is rising. Everything about your life is being elevated. And one day, very soon, just as Jesus rose from the grave and ascended on high, you too will leave this corpse of Earth and rise to meet Him in the air. Oh, hallelujah! What a day that will be!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

There is gravity-defying power on the inside of me that pushes me to ever-increasing levels of glory. I am unsinkable, unstoppable. I am walking in abundance, moving with the speed of the Holy Ghost, and my success is inevitable.

John 10:27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

It has been medically proven that by the time a baby is born, he or she can recognize their parent's voice, especially the mother's. Even from the womb, the voice of a mother has a calming effect on the baby. After the child is born, the baby will turn his or her head toward the parent who is talking, recognizing their voice.

Those who belong to God are born with the innate ability to recognize their Father's voice. You were conceived in the womb of the Word, birthed by the midwifery of the Holy Spirit, and you are born of God. Just as a natural born baby becomes familiar with the voice of his or her parent by hearing their voice over and over again, you also become intimately acquainted with the voice of your heavenly Father by listening to and reading His words as often as possible. You know His voice.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am God's favorite child. We have the best relationship, and I hear from Him every day. Confusion is not a part of my life – I know my Fathers' voice and I follow him.

When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, whom do men say that I the Son of man am? ... He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

"I do not care what anyone thinks." That is the attitude that some Christians have. They believe that because they are Christians, the opinions of others do not matter. But even Jesus asked, "What are people saying about Me?" When Jesus asked this question, He was not looking for "likes," or waiting for the opinions of others to define who He was. He asked, knowing exactly who He was.

The only time the opinions of others do not matter is when you are using those opinions to define who you are. But how others perceive you—the image you project—does matter. You are Christ walking, talking, eating, dressing. Let everything about you reflect the God-kind that you are so that others can see the image of Christ in you.

A Christian looking for a miracle is like a cash-rich multi-billionaire looking for a job. It's not necessary. In fact, it is a crime for a Christian to look for a miracle. Miracles were never intended for you. The plan of God was and is for you to access and manage the resources that He has already given you. Your body is a resource. Your mind is a resource. Information is a resource. Access is a resource.

This is an ideal time to take stock of the inventory of resources that God has given to you. Your greatest resource is the Word of God, for in the Word you discover all that you are and all that you have. Everything you could ever need in this life is wrapped up in the Word. Recognize and manage your resources well, and you will never need a miracle another day in your life.

1 Corinthians 13:7 AMPC Love bears up under anything and everything that comes, is ever ready to believe the best of every person ...

This is the year of the God-kind, a year where those who are spiritual will rise above the pitfalls and obstacles others will face. You must walk in the Spirit. Therefore, it is paramount that you walk in love this year, because walking in love is walking in the Spirit. Be ready to repel every offence. No offence is worth you compromising your love walk.

Our scripture for today encourages us to always be ready to believe the best of every person. It does not say that they will necessarily act their best. But you are ready to believe that they will. Even if it turns out that the person does not live up to their own best potential, that is not the point. The point is that you are expecting the best rather than the worst. That is what love does. That is the nature of God in you. You are not trying to be this. This is who you are. Your DNA, nature, and character are love.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I see with the eyes of God the best in every person. I am a grace collector and a grace dispenser. My nature is the nature of God, and I walk with the Spirit of love. I love because I am a lover.

A private iet was sent to pick him up, and he spent a week with the kina plaving golf with him every day. At the end of his stay, the king insisted on giving the golfer a gift and asked what he would like to have. The golfer thought a moment and said, "A golf club would be nice." The king agreed to send it to him after he got back home. On the flight back home, the golfer daydreamed about swinging his brand-new golf club out on the green. After about a week or so, a courier arrived with a package. It was from the king, but the package was the size of an envelope. When the golfer opened the envelope, there was a deed to a five-hundredacre golf club.

Just your liver is worth about half a million U.S. dollars. That should give you an idea of your value. It is not designer clothes that give you value, no! You are the one giving value to what you wear, what you drive, what you eat, where you live, and what you do.

Someone said, "If you can't buy it twice, you can't afford it." Even if you cannot yet afford whatever your "it" is, that does not mean you are not worth it. Begin to shift your mindset and rec-

Acts 3:1 Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.

You have the power to do what the world's greatest physicists could not do. You have the power to change time. When midday rolls around, it is no longer 12 o'clock but lunchtime, the time you eat lunch. When the clock strikes 11 at night, it is now bedtime, the time you go to bed. But when you pray, prayer takes possession of the hour—whatever hour that is—and transports it into the spiritual dimension. It becomes the hour of prayer.

Peter and John recognized that they had this power to change time. Every day they transformed 3 PM to "the hour of prayer." These men understood that prayer is the culture of Kingdom citizens. Every move of the Spirit is preceded by prayer. When you want to get deeper in the things of the Spirit, prayer is the only way. This year you will walk in a dimension of the Spirit that you have never known. That dimension can only be entered into by people of prayer.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Prayer is my culture. I spend time in prayer every day with the Unending Oracle. He speaks to me, and I receive strategies that catapult me to success. I live by a different set of rules. I do not fear anything because I overcome every obstacle in prayer, in the Name of Jesus!

Then said I, Woe is me! For I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts.

A person of prayer is a person of character. Prophet Isaiah saw a vision of the Lord in all His glory and cried out, "I am a man of unclean lips!" The angel took a burning coal and touched his lips, and his character was changed. He went from a man of "unclean lips" to a man of sanctified speech who spoke as an ambassador of Heaven. The very next thing Isaiah said was, "Here am I. Send me."

Prayer is the burning coal that purges your speech of everything that is unclean. When you talk to God on a regular basis, your mouth is trained to speak words that are full of grace. Prayer seasons your speech. I decree and declare, as you make prayer your priority, the anointing that I carry for prayer becomes your anointing, in the Name of Jesus!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

Rapture, the catching away of the Church, can happen at any time. It is imminent. But that does not mean it is time to retire and lie under a palm tree somewhere until it's time to go. Now is not the time to slow down. It is time to pick up the pace, If you have been waiting to start a business, the time to do it is now. Jesus said that we are to occupy, do business, until He comes. That instruction is your empowerment for success in any area of business.

The Bible says that the apostles gave themselves continually to prayer. While they set others in place to take care of other business, they made prayer a business. It became their conglomerate, their corporation. With all your new business ventures this year, one business ought to be at the top of your list. It is the business of prayer. Prayer can only come from the Word. Make the Word the standard for your life. The Word you put inside is what works. While the world is crying about recession and economic downturns, you will be shining this year!

For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

Fear is not the opposite of faith. Fear is faith that is connected to the wrong source. Faith is produced by hearing, and the activation of that faith is based on whose words you give attention to. The faith that God gives is produced by hearing, and that hearing comes by giving attention to the Word of God. Likewise, the faith that the devil gives is produced by hearing, and that hearing comes by giving heed to his lying words. Fear is a gift. Do not receive it.

Your mind is your most expensive real estate. Every thought that you entertain should be qualified to be there. Refuse to allow your mind to be inun-

Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need

The level of joy and victory in your life as a believer is directly proportional to the abundance of grace which you receive. Some have taken more grace than others. If grace was likened to an endless ocean, some only receive a thimble full of grace; others receive buckets or barrels or tankers full of grace. Some never even visit the ocean of grace. But then there are those who receive what the Bible refers to as "abundance of grace."

How much grace do you want? There is grace for anything and everything. Grace is that overflowing of God's ability in your life. Grace is that glory of God working for you. Everything that God gives to you comes through grace. Christ has made you righteous, which gives you the right to access whatever grace you need whenever you need it. The thimble or the bucket, even the tanker is not for you. Every grace is available to you. Permanently plug into the endless ocean of grace and collect as much as you need.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The righteousness of God is imparted to my spirit. I am as righteous as Jesus is righteous because His righteousness has been given to me. Therefore, I have a right to everything to which He has a right. I boldly collect what I need. Abundance of grace is overflowing in my life. Hallelujah!

Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

If you ask the average Christian who the Father of Jesus is, most will say it is God the Father. However, today's scripture tells us expressly that Mary was impregnated by the Holy Ghost. The Bible also says that we Christians are born of the Holy Ghost. He is our Progenitor. The Holy Ghost is involved in your natural and spiritual birth. Job caught a glimpse of this revelation in the Old Testament when he declared, "The Spirit of the Lord has formed me, and the breath of the Almighty has given me life." (see Job 33:4).

You are not just born of the Holy Ghost as a new creature in Christ; you are His expressed image on the Earth. When people see you, they see the Holy Ghost. The presence of the Holy Ghost in you should cause people to be healed. Peter's identity was so intermingled with the Holy Ghost that when Ananias and Sapphira lied to Peter, the Bible declares that they lied to the Holy Ghost. Brother and sisters, there is a reality to which you ought to awaken. You are not a mere human being. You are God walking and talking by the indwelling of the Holy Ghost. You are a god, born of the God-kind.

For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

Some people argue over whether there is one way to God. They are disturbed when they hear statements like Jesus' saying, "I am the way." Yet, if these people were all locked in a room and someone yelled, "Fire!" and pointed them to a door marked "Fire Exit," they would not argue about whether that is the right door. They would make a beeline for the fire exit. They would recognize that door as the access point to their safety and the preservation of their lives.

Similarly, some people are doors—gates, as it were. They give you access, the kind of access that not only preserves your life but propels it to another level. These gates help you to avoid danger and to secure a better life. In this very important year of the God-kind, it is crucial that you recognize your gates and honour them. Never ignore gates that can usher you into greater dimensions of the Spirit and push you past the boundaries of mediocrity.

And I will stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof: and after that he will let you go.

The ways of God are in sharp contrast to the ways of the world. The world says the more you take, the more you get. God says, the more you give, the more you receive. What the world calls a problem, God calls a blessing. Such was the case with the plagues in Egypt. When God commissioned Moses to go down to Egypt, He said he would do "wonders" in their midst. What was a wonder to the people of God were plagues to the Eayptians.

These are perilous times. Nations will be perplexed. Ignorance will increase.

New strains of viruses will be introduced. To the world, it will be economic crises, depression, and plagues. But to those who are spiritual, it will be a wonder. Don't be distracted. "Fear not" is mentioned three hundred and sixty-five times in the Bible, that's one for every day of the year. Just as God preserved His people in the midst of the plagues and chaos and caused them to come out more prosperous than before, God has a spiritual Goshen for those who love His Name. He will make a distinction between those of the world and those who are His.

Being quiet is more than an action. It is a strategy and a skill. I have noted two kinds of people who practice being intentionally quiet: those who are successful in prayer and successful in business. People of prayer, and those who are business savvy and surpassing the ordinary in their finances, learn to listen more than they talk. They choose words that will position them for the most advantageous opportunities. They plan in silence, move with stealth, and conquer loudly. They have learned to let success be their noise.

Paul counselled Timothy to let his profiting appear to all. It is the profiting that appears, not the process for the profiting. Resist the urge to announce the A to Z of what you are doing, your aspirations and plans. If a contract is in the works, don't talk about it until it's signed, sealed, and delivered. Ecclesiastes 3:7 says there is a time to be silent and a time to speak. Know when to declare and when to keep quiet. If there is something you want to accomplish, find scriptures that pertain to what you want to do, immerse yourself in the Word, and emerge when your success can speak for itself.

For if the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

It is impossible to be born of your parents and not have their DNA. It is God's divine design that the likeness of the parent is passed to the children. You produce what you are. That is why you cannot sow into the life of a broke pastor and expect to be rich. He does not have the faith to take you beyond his level. If he cannot produce results in his own life, he cannot produce results in yours. Jesus said, I am the Vine, you are the branches. There is an indelible connection that causes what is in Him to be in you. You begin to look like the one with whom you are connected. That is a spiritual principle.

I am unequivocally a prophet, a Word man, a faith man, and I don't lack by a longshot! That is who I am; that is my spiritual DNA. And those who carry that spiritual DNA are people of the Word, people of faith, people who are successful in business, and people who are prophetic. There is a prophetic person inside of you. Say the best about yourself. Begin to release that prophetic unction with bold declarations of faith.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The anointing for prosperity is in my DNA. My products and services are becoming household names. My fame is being spread abroad. God has given me unprecedented favour this year, and I carry the authority of my Father wherever I go.

1 Timothy 4:12 Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

"Train up a child in the way he should ao: and when he is old, he will not depart from it." That is a verse that is commonly quoted but often misunderstood. This verse is not so much about verbally teaching our children, although it incorporates that. It is about setting an example. Children tend to do what they see you do, not what you tell them to do. And one of the critical ways that we train our children is in what they observe us do with money. In the very next verse, it tells us a key area in which we must train our children: "The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender." Which of these are you portraying by example?

The Greek word translated as "despise" in our verse today is the word kataphroné□, which means to think little or nothing of. Poor people are often despised. When they speak, no one listens, and they are often looked down upon. But when prosperous people speak, they make a sound that cannot be ignored. God's desire is for you to live a prosperous life in front of your children. In fact, He said above everything else, I want you to prosper (see 3 John 2). When you exemplify prosperity, your own youth will follow suit, and no one will be able to look down on them.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am empowered to prosper in every area of my life. I am prospering in my spiritual life, my relationships, my health, and my finances. I am a tither and a giver. I lead my children into prosperity and guarantee the success of my generations.

But ye, beloved, building up yourselves

Speaking in tongues is not as mysterious as some would have you to believe. It is the supernatural native language of the Christian. That is why no matter what part of the world you come from, every Christian can speak this common language of tongues. It is the language of the Spirit, and it is an inborn supernatural ability that is given to you the moment you are born again. The Holy Spirit will not pry your mouth open. Just as with your natural earthly language, you open your mouth and expect to speak. You supply the sound; He supplies the words. It is a wonderful cooperation between your body, spirit, and the Holy Spirit.

Paul was a phenomenon! The secret to his tremendous impact was, "I speak in tongues more than all of you." As you chart your course through this year, now more than ever, it is critical for you to employ this powerful resource of speaking in tongues. Speaking in tongues has a multitude of benefits. It sharpens your sensitivity to the Word. It gives instructions to angels. It repairs any part of your life and body that is broken down. You can say one word in tongues, and it can have more impact than a multiplicity of words in your earthly language. Don't miss the supernatural waiting for the spectacular. You don't have to wait for a special feeling or event to speak in tongues. You are of the God-kind, and you speak the God-kind of language. Expect to speak. Open your mouth, and begin to speak now!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

As I speak in tongues right now, I am declaring the Word of the Lord. Mountains are being moved. Health is permeating my body. Ideas are flowing to me. My faith is being raised to another level, and angels are being dispatched to work on my behalf.

Have you ever noticed that life jackets and other safety vests are always bright or fluorescent in colour? The brightness makes the person wearing it more visible so that they avoid danger. If your car breaks down at the side of the road, you can light emergency flares or flashers to help other drivers see you and attract help to you. Light attracts help. It is the same way in the spiritual realm. Angels are ministering spirits sent to help you. They are beings of light, attracted to light. If you do not have the light of the Word in you, you cannot see them, and they cannot see you and come to your aid.

Ignorance is increasing in the world. It is a dark place. What you need is more light. The light of God in you gives you access to the spiritual realm. You are enlightened through the light of God's Word. The more Word you have in you, the more light you will have. Jesus Himself said of John that he was a burning and a shining light. But our verse for today tells us that even the baby Christian has the capacity to shine brighter than John. Let your light shine, and then add Word fuel to the fire and burn even brighter.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a Word addict. I feast on it throughout the day. Every time I am exposed to the Word, the light in me burns brighter and brighter. I attract and move with holy angels who are ready to carry out my instructions.

The reality is, however, that you know nothing of sickness. I'm talking about the real you who is a born-again spirit. Understand that you are the body parts of Christ, flesh of His flesh and bone of His bones. You are one with Him. Do you suppose that Christ gets sick? No, He does not! Neither do you.

There is a reality in Christ to which you are awakening, even right now as you are reading this. There is life in you that cannot be quelled by anything in this world. That is why the Bible says, greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world (see 1 John 4:4). The same life that God has is flowing in and through you. The Spirit of Life is in you giving life to your physical body. Believe it. Declare it. And that divine life will supplant every form of sickness that tries to attach itself to your physical body.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The life of God in me cancels every illegal transaction of the flesh. By the authority of the Spirit of God, I command every virus, lump, tumour, and every form of sickness to check out of my body now! I am invigorated by the life-giving Spirit of God, and life is my portion, in Jesus' Name!

You have no part in that. The rapture is imminent. That means that you have a unique opportunity to live your best life on Earth as it is right now. This is it! You will not get another chance like this. Yes, the time will come where we will reign on Earth. But that will be an altogether new dispensation.

For it is the God who commanded light to shine out of darkness, who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

The Lord Jesus is the Light of the world. He's the Light that shines in darkness, and the Bible says the darkness comprehends it not (John 1:5). This same Light, according to our opening verse, has shined in our hearts to give us light of the knowledge of the glory of God. What does this mean?

The Word of God is light (Psalm 119:105); that light is in our hearts. That means no more darkness, no more confusion, and no more uncertainties in your life. There's direction and purpose for your life, because you have the light of life.

The Lord Jesus put it this way, "... I am the light of the world. He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness but have the light of life" (John 8:12).

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am set on the course that I must follow. I live in the light as He is in the light. There is no confusion in my life. I am the Godkind! I am moving from glory to glory by the power of the Holy Ghost!

The Scriptures tell us, "The first man, Adam, became a living person." But the last Adam—that is, Christ—is a life-aiving Spirit.

It's beautiful to know that having been born again, you've become one spirit with the Lord (1 Corinthians 6:17). That means that just as He is a life-giving Spirit, you're also a life-giving spirit—a dispenser and distributor of divine life. Your purpose is to bring the lost into the life of righteousness through the Good News.

This is why Jesus, in John 20:21, said, "... As the Father has sent Me, I also send you." He has appointed you as His representative and bearer of His Gospel on Earth, to manifest the Godlife to the nations of the world. Eternal life is revealed through the preaching of the Gospel. This means that as people listen to you sharing the Good News, eternal life—salvation, prosperity and the righteousness of God—is unveiled to them.

As you go out today, remember you are a life-giving spirit, and the words you speak will minister life to those that hear you.

For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath ordained that we should walk in them

The Bible shows us that Joseph stood out in his day and saved the entire nation of Egypt from starvation during a time of famine (Genesis 41:55-57). He did not complain about the famine and recession of the economy; he did something about it. This is your season; this is your hour; this is your set time to make a difference in your world. The world ought to be a better place because you came.

Thus, beginning with your sphere of contact, do something to improve your world. It begins with being passionate for a God-idea and having the courage to implement that idea once you receive it. It doesn't matter how small the idea may seem. Once you have it, run with it. Before long, God will expand your vision and increase your inspiration. He will grant you the motivation and ability to conceive and execute more ideas that impact the world and make it a better place.

According to our scripture for today, God brought you into this world so that through you, He'll touch others with His love and power. He has ordained you to walk in good works every day!

Some of you might have grown up listening to your parents say, "I can't do this," or "I can't do that," "there's no money," or "we don't have enough." But you see, the Lord's desire is for you to cultivate the "I can do" mentality. This is the way I think: "Whatever God has laid for me to do, I can do it. I can do anything; I can have anything; I can!"

Notice in our scripture for today, the apostle Paul did not say, "We can do all things ...;" rather, he personalised it. This was his very own testimony. He made a confession that the ability of the Spirit had been granted him to achieve supernatural exploits in life.

Someone might say, "I don't have sufficient time to achieve the things I want to do." No! When you practice making the "I can do" confession, such things will be totally eradicated from your vocabulary, and therefore, your system. Rather than saying you don't have time for this or that, keep your composure, knowing that the God who lives in you is the owner of time (Joel 2:25 MSG).

Right now, I pray that the Lord will open your eyes so you might see the legions of angels stationed around you. Take your eyes off your enemies. The ability of your enemies to hurt you is nothing compared to the greatness of your God and His power to save you.

Right now, the same mighty power that raised our Lord Jesus from the grave, the same power that seated Him at God's right hand in the heavenly places—far above all principalities, power, might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come—is working for you in the name of Jesus!

'Weight,' in this context, is that trait or character that is not of God that can limit you from attaining your God-given potential. Pride, for instance, is one such weight. The Bible says God resists

He has the power to give words that only He can give, words that emanate from His innermost being and are deposited into the spirit of the man or woman who writes or speaks those words.

That same Spirit dwells in you, ready to give you inspired words. The words you need for that proposal, or that song, or that book, or that message - He is able to supply you with God-breathed words. And because He abides in you, even the words you speak are inspired

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

The word 'Almighty' used in the scripture there is the Hebrew word El Shaddai. The meaning of that word is "The God who is more than enough" or "The Many-Breasted One."

You see, we serve an extravagant God. We serve a God that will use an eighteen-pound hammer just to strike a bee that is about to sting you. He is a toomuch God! He prefers you to live a life of abundance and not just enough to get by.

David said, "Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over," (Psalm 23:5). God will show off His goodness in the presence of your enemies, and, after that, cause your cup to run over. He wants the very best for you today. Refuse to settle for anything less because He is El-Shaddai, the God of more than enough.

And he answered, Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they that be with them.

If the lord was to open your spiritual eyes and allow you to see in the realm of the Spirit, you will be amazed how many angelic beings are there attending to you and your needs. In the verse, the servant of the prophet was unaware of the heavenly host that was standing there guarding them. And because of that ignorance, he was gripped with fear when he saw his enemies.

Walk with the awareness that you are heavenly defended and protected. The enemy may want to move you into the realm of sight, but refuse and walk by faith. In the faith realm, you don't need your natural eyes or senses; you only need the eyes of the Spirit. There are angels fixing your contracts. There are angels fixing your marriage. There are angels fixing your education, your career, and some are even performing operations as you are walking. Be joyful today that you're not alone, and move with your shoulders sauare and chest out!

At the end of that passage of scripture, you will see how the enemies were all blinded and overcome. Be of good courage, the Lord is with you, and the devil will never win even if he tries!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

The Lord has given angels a charge concerning my life, and my life is secure. Every enemy surrounding me scatters right now! I am heavenly defended, and God Protected, in the Name of Jesus Christ.

John 3:16
For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

In our scripture for today, the word translated as 'perish' is the word apollumi. It means to lose, be destroyed, or to die physically or spiritually. Now, realise today that whatever you are going out to do, you can never lose. God gave his Son for this very cause. You cannot be defeated or destroyed. Whatever you set your heart to do, if it is in line with the Word of God, you should be able to achieve it

You are not dying before your time either. If you have an illness in your body that Doctors have given up on, you have the power to speak the Word of God and change that diagnosis. Declare it boldly today. I am not perishing; I am not dying before I am satisfied with my life. I shall not perish, but because He lives. I live!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am not losing today. I am not going to be destroyed by anything. I live a life full of glory. I am not dying before my time; longevity is mine, in Jesus Name!

And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

What do you do when you are faced with a situation that has backed you up in a corner? Your daughter is lying in hospital, and the doctors tell you she has one week to live, or the bank has just foreclosed on your home, and they are coming to repossess your house. All you need now is a miracle.

It's times like these when you let go and let God and just lift your hands in worship. Remove all worry and fear and just trust in His ability to turn around any impossible situation.

You see, real worship creates a conductor. It changes the atmosphere and creates an environment for miracles and healings to take place. When you worship, you invade your circumstances with the atmosphere of Heaven, and everything is forced to bow to the presence of Almighty God. At times like that, it's not about what you know but Who you know. This is why it is so important to live a lifestyle of true worship with the Father.

Learn to be intimate with the Holy Spirit today. Know the wonders of His person more strongly and clearly, and live a victorious life.

God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

God created us for intimacy. He wants to have a relationship with His creation, but not just a relationship, but an intimate relationship. When He created you, He had in his mind love, fellowship, and the pleasure to see and hear His creation enjoy oneness with Him. In our text, the Greek words Pneuma and Al_theia are the words Spirit and Truth.

Our worship of God should be one of honesty of mind, free from needing stimulation from outside influences to worship Him and from needing an atmosphere to encourage us to worship. There is no falsehood in Alatheia (truth). God is Spirit, and He craves spirit to worship Him. Paul says, I serve God with my spirit. It's your spirit that has been created to connect with God in such a manner of total surrender and intimate fellowship.

From today begin to have a lifestyle of worship. Let your mind be completely saturated with His love and Presence. Let nothing motivate you to worship and love Him, but just because he created you.

Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

Ever hear people say we are an extension of Jesus here on Earth? Well plainly said, that is just untrue. The Bible says we are members of His body, meaning you are not an extension of Jesus, but you are Jesus Himself in the flesh, your flesh. When Jesus went to Heaven, He sent the Holy Spirit for you to continue doing the good He was doing on Earth. The Holy Spirit is the presence of the Father, meaning you house the Father through His Spirit who does the work Jesus started using your hands and feet and mouth

You see, brothers and sisters, how you cannot be an extension of Jesus but are Jesus Himself continuing His work through you. Armed with that powerful truth, you can boldly pray for a dead body to rise up and live again because it is not you doing it, it's Jesus, hallelujah! So, today, go out and do wonders because you are empowered by the Holy Ghost.

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

It is clear throughout scripture that God pays attention to a person's thoughts. In fact, scripture is a revelation and collection of His thoughts towards us. A person's thoughts or imagination determines the quality of life they ultimately live. It also influences their conduct in interaction with others. Hence, the reason for today's admonition.

We are told to keep our thoughts on things that are pure, lovely, honest, and have a good report. This is because our minds are like a projector screen. The enemy wants to broadcast his pictures on it, and so does God. Whosoever's images appear more on your screen controls your destiny. Your imagination is a prophecy of your future. What occupies your mind? That is your future. Change your future by keeping your thoughts focused on the things God has outlined for you today.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Isaiah 54:15

Isaiah 1:19-20

If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land: But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth is the LORD that spoken it.

To eat the "good of the land" means to enjoy life to the fullest. It is a life of abundance and a life of the overflow. However, the catch here is where the text says, "if you be willing AND obedient." It's possible to want one without the other, but the two cannot be separated. Making a choice to live a good life can be easy, but you also have to be obedient so as to gain what is promised in the verse. I don't know a single person who does not desire to live a good life.

Obedience to the principles in the Word of God is where the challenge begins. You can be very willing for God to use you, but are you going to be obedient when He tells you to come out of your comfort zone and do what you didn't want to do? Have a heart willing to be used by God, and have a heart that is obedient to His commands! You shall eat the good of the land if you choose it!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Today I make the decision to be willing and also obedient to what God has sent me to do. I shall enjoy my life to the fullest as a result! Good news is mine, in Jesus' Name!

The first thing I want you to catch with your spirit is what the above Scripture is NOT saying. The scripture above does not say that the Word gives light. Rather, it says that the entrance of the Word gives light. Therefore, it is the entrance of the Word that brings light with it!

It is your responsibility to allow God's Word entrance into your heart - your spirit. The Word of God has the ability to nourish and build you up spiritually, physically and mentally. "And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the Word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified." (Acts 20:32).

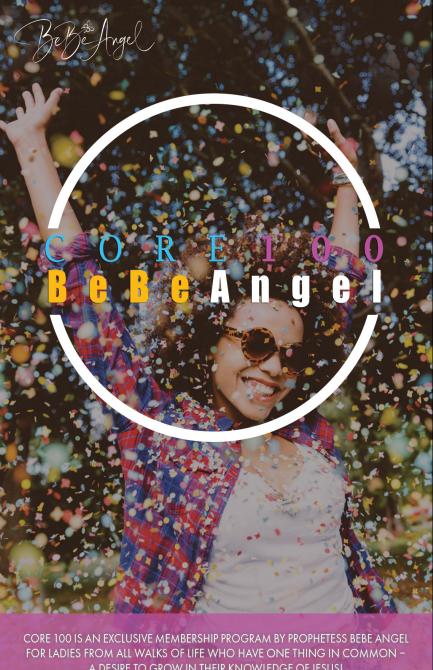

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Today I am thankful for the blessing of Your Word. With joy, faith and meekness, I receive into my spirit Your engrafted Word that is able to transform me from glory to glory, and the power of your Spirit to keep me in the centre of your perfect will, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid.

God brought you into this world so that through you, He will touch others with His love and power.

It's time for you to shine. It's time for you to make your presence felt! Be an influence in business, at work, at school, in your community! You are the Godkind, walk in the light of that reality!

Exodus 13:21

And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night.

In the book of Exodus, the children of Israel embarked on a journey that took them through the desert. Bitterly cold at night, and extremely hot during the day! Although they faced these harsh conditions, the above verse shows that the presence of the Lord provided warmth at night and shade during the day. Meaning that the children of Israel had their own atmosphere!

These were Old Testament folk. In the New Testament, we, the New Creation, know that we carry this glorious presence of the Holy Spirit in and with us (John 14:17). You carry your own atmo-

Therefore, it does not matter where you may find yourself or what happens around you. That divine atmosphere shields and protects you against the harsh conditions and negative circumstances of life. Glory be to God!

God and His Word are one. When you declare the Word concerning any situation, you are invoking His power to bring about a change in that situation. Maintain the habit of meditating on the Word—contemplating and speaking it forth—and you'll experience the release of the power of God in your life.

The tenses show that it's already done: God has given you all things that pertain to life and godliness.

Everything you desire in life is already inside you. There's no need to try to "get" anything from God as though it's coming from outside. You don't need to try to get what you already have. What you need is to know how to bring into physical manifestation that which already belongs to you in Christ.

There's no provision of the Gospel that isn't already your legal possession in Christ. You only need to speak them forth. What you say becomes. Whatever you desire or require today is already yours; call it forth, and it will appear. Glory to God!

Eternal life was a promise before the world began, which has now been fulfilled. God's plan was to make it available to men through the preaching of the Gospel. It was a gift to the whole world. This is a gift you already have.

When, as a sinner, you believed in Jesus and confessed his Lordship, you immediately received eternal life and became a Christian. Receiving eternal life brings you into oneness and sonship with God.

Eternal life is the superior life and nature of God; the God-life. It's the essence of divinity. This life in you makes you superior to Satan and his cohorts! Glory to God!

Today I admonish you to pray for every Minister of the Gospel around the world! This is your duty as a Christian who has a desire to see the word of God spread. It's very important to know that every time you pray, you're making it "legally" possible for God to intervene in some ways that He wouldn't have had you not prayed.

James, the brother of John, had been killed by the sword at the hands of Herod. The church had done nothing about it. But When Peter was arrested. the Bible says they (the church) prayed without ceasing. God intervened, and Peter was released (Acts 12:1-7). Had the church not prayed, the same thing that happened to James would have also happened to Peter.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Today I pray for ministers of the Gospel and God's people around the world that their strength does not fail. I pray against men or institutions who foster the persecution of Christians and hinder the spread of the Gospel. What does this mean? It means what is 100% Christ's is also 100% yours. So, if the Lord said in Haggai 2:8, "The silver is mine, and the gold is mine," if the silver and gold in the world belong to Him, then they belong to you also. Believe it, because it's true.

You can never be broke another day in your life! What belongs to Papa God also belongs to you!

Many of us are very familiar with this story. Abraham and his wife were barren and old. He was about a hundred years old, while Sarah was ninety years. Yet, God told Him he was going to have a child through Sarah. Abraham believed, and at the appointed time, Sarah brought forth Isaac.

Some people often lose hope, wondering why they didn't get the job, contracts, promotion or money for which they had prayed and fasted. Others gripe about the promises of God taking too long to be fulfilled in their lives.

I have news for you. It's NEVER too late with God. It makes no difference how hopeless you might think your situation is; there's no such thing as "too late" with God. Simply trust Him, for He's the God who gives life to the dead and calls things that don't exist as though they already existed. He lives in eternity where there's no past or future.

But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

In Christianity, we live in victory; we don't live in fear. We are bold, and we are strong, irrespective of the troubles or adversities we face. We maintain our faith-filled confessions. We are confident about life, confident that come what may we're more than conquerors.

You have heard some people say, "You just don't know what life will bring forth; you can never tell what's going to happen tomorrow." That's not us. We don't talk like that! That is not our language! We know what will happen tomorrow: tomorrow, we will win; tomorrow we will still be shouting, dancing, and rejoicing in the victory.

What an assurance! There's nothing to struggle with or try to overcome because you have triumphed already with and in Christ. Don't allow the circumstances of life to try to make you think otherwise.

As a child of God, there are unique abilities that God has placed within you. You might be at a stage in your life where you're not sure whether you should continue doing the things the Lord has committed to you, due to challenges, persecution, tests and trials. But let me tell you this: maintain your focus. Don't give up.

The Bible says if you faint in the day of adversity, if you give up because of the troubles and challenges you're facing, then your strength is small. But your strength is not small, because the Lord Himself is your strength. To give up in the day of trouble means you trusted in yourself. 2 Corinthians 3:5 says, "Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God." Trust Him to see you through. He is your ability.

For we walk by faith, not by sight.

It is imperative to understand that Christianity is a life of faith. It has nothing to do with your senses. You were born again by faith, and therefore, you can only live the Christian life successfully by faith. There's no other way!

Faith is a lifestyle. It's not a feeling you feel, or something you pick up to use whenever you want to get something from the Lord. You can strengthen your faith. You can stir up your faith. You can grow in faith, and you can also increase your faith.

Living by faith is living from your spirit according to God's Word. You look into the mirror of God and are metamorphosed (changed, transfigured) into the same image of God's glory that you see, from glory to glory (2 Corinthians 3:18).

Hebrews 11:6 says without faith, it's impossible to please God. That means you can't live for Him. To please Him is to live by faith every day, meaning that everything in your life is directed according to His Word. Your confidence is on the eternal realities of the Kingdom and not the earthly, transient, temporal circumstances of life (2 Corinthians 4:18). Glory to God!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

My actions, reactions, thoughts, words and responses to situations and circumstances shall conform to the express will of the Father by the Word, not according to sensory perceptions. Ephesians 6:18
Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints.

As Christians, we ought to understand the significance and purpose of prayer. The scripture above is very profound, and it instructs us to pray at all times, on every occasion, and in every season, in the Spirit, with all manner of prayers.

Often, when we talk about prayer, what comes to people's mind is asking God for things, such as cars, houses, marriage, breakthroughs, etc. Yes, such a prayer has its place, where you make requests, but there is more to prayer than just making requests. Prayer has higher purposes than just asking God for your needs.

One of the purposes is what I am showing you today: prayer as fellow-ship with the Father through the Spirit. This is when your prayer is solely about fellowship. This is living in the Father's presence in continual fellowship through prayer. No one can walk in such extraordinary fellow-ship with the Father except by the Holy Spirit. It's His ministry and delight to bring us into that place of constant and continual fellowship with the Father.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I walk in the revelation of Your Word to me today, teaching me to pray accurately, in accordance with your Word. Thank You, Lord, for showing me the right faith principles to apply for my prayers to produce the right results, in Jesus' Name.

1 John 5:14
And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us.

When we pray, we must understand that we need to pray in accordance with His word. God's Word is His will expressed to us; therefore, praying according to His will is praying the Word.

When we pray, it is important that our prayer is based on the revelation and insight given to us by God through His Word. We must act our faith in prayer, on the basis of the Word of God.

If God's Word covers the subject, then we are audacious in faith to receive answers.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

Today I choose to be lifted by HIS Word! I'm transfigured and guided by HIS truth in the path of HIS divine and perfect will for my life. Today, I walk in strength, health and in victory, because I live by HIS Word, in Jesus' Name.

Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

Many in the Church today are ignorant of this deep spiritual truth. If you're conscious that the Spirit of God, who is the conveyor of the blessings of God, and of all that's been given to us in Christ Jesus, lives in you, how could you live an ordinary life? Even if your body has been so bruised, broken, and ravaged by sickness, disease or infirmity, meditating on this truth will revitalize your whole being.

Romans 8:10 says, "And if Christ be in you, (though) the body is (be) dead because of sin...the Spirit is (gives it) life because of righteousness."

The Spirit of God is not docile inside you; He's active in you! Glory be to God.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am the temple of God, and His spirit dwells in me! I live an extraordinary life. God's Spirit in me is revitalizing my mortal body. There is nothing missing or broken in me! I am His righteousness, in Jesus' Name! Hallelujah!

For ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Glory be to the Lord God Almighty! The creator of Heaven and Earth dwells inside you! He decided to make you His dwelling place, but that's not all. He also said, I'll "walk in" them. "Walk in" here is translated emperipate , which means to patrol in search of any damaged part or notify of any trouble.

Part of the ministry of the Holy Spirit in you is to ensure that anything that goes wrong in your body is fixed. If it needs to be renewed, He'll renew it. No wonder He says, "He who raised Christ from the dead shall also revitalize your mortal bodies by His Spirit that lives in you"

(Romans 8:11).

Become conscious that the Holy Spirit lives in you in all His power. He's all that you need. His presence in you keeps you victorious over the devices of the evil one and the corrupting influences in this world. Hallelujah!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am the embassy of the Holy Spirit! He dwells and walks in me. He is patrolling in my body, destroying sickness and all afflictions. I live a victorious life in God. Hallelujah, I will never be defeated!

Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances.

When you were born again, you were delivered from the power of darkness, and you were translated into the Kingdom of God's dear Son.

You are, therefore, no longer subject to the elements of this world. You are now demon-proof! There is nothing that Satan and his cohorts can do to you.

This means that you must refuse to be snowed under by infirmities and harsh elements of this world that make life unbearable for the ordinary man. You have the Holy Spirit dwelling on the inside of you!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am demon-proof, and there is nothing the devil and his gang can do to me. Christ delivered me from the power of darkness. The elements of the world will never overcome me. in Jesus' Name.

John 8:32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

If you walk in ignorance of the truth of God's Word, you'll remain in bondage and suffer the same things that the people of the world suffer. You might even think that God is the one punishing you, but He isn't. Why will He punish you after He has "punished" Jesus in your place?

The Bible says that, "My people perish because they lack knowledge". The absence of knowledge is the presence of ignorance. Which means, it's the presence of ignorance that then causes them to perish. Spend a set time in God's word, meditating upon it. And you will gain knowledge of the truth you need to set you free!!

I meditate on the Word of God day and night! I have God's wisdom in me, and His Word makes me free. Thank you, Jesus!

The earnest (heartfelt, continued) prayer of a righteous man makes tremendous power available [dynamic in its working].

One of the reasons some Christians don't experience the manifestation of God's glory in their lives as they should is that they often treat their time of fellowship with the Lord casually. They don't have a time set aside for Him. They are often too busy with their day-to-day lives. In fact, their minds are full of distractions and therefore, they are unable to concentrate and hear what God has to say!

Prayer isn't a time of religious monologue where you just talk and talk until your mind wanders away. It should be a time of fellowship where your spirit communes with the Holy Spirit, so much so that your very being is in sync with His laid out plan for your life. Today, learn to set aside time to be with your Creator.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I am a true worshiper. When I pray, tremendous power is made available to cause changes and bring about Gods will for my life and those around me. Halleluiah!

Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore, the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

The word "bestowed" in our scripture above also means 'lavished.' The Father has lavished His love on you. This is the kind of Love that has no limits. Glory to God. Before anybody else loved you, Jesus had already expressed His love towards you. So much so that He died for you.

The fact that God loves you means you're special and valuable to Him. Do not look down upon yourself and have endless pity parties! Remind yourself that indeed you are loved!

Always take out time to meditate on the love of God. Think about His grace, kindness, and the fact that if you were the only one on Earth, the Lord Jesus would still have given His life for you. That's how valuable you are to God

When a man is born into this world, he's born with human life. However, that human life is not sufficient because man is a spirit-being and needs the supernatural life to function in his full potential. That's the reason Jesus came, to give us another kind of life, which is eternal life – the God-kind life.

When you're born again, you become a partaker of this new and glorious life. This life is sickness-proof, disease-proof, poverty-proof and failure-proof. It's a life of glory, victory, success and excellence, Hallelujah!

No matter the circumstances you may find yourself in, never speak lack. Never speak broke; never speak defeat! As a Christian, never utter statements like, "Things are tight. I have to manage. If I give or spend so much, I won't have anything left." To have such a mindset is to put yourself in a position of disadvantage and financial jeopardy.

Remember, you are the seed of Abraham through Christ! God wants you to live your life at that higher level of spiritual consciousness and awareness, where your spiritual eyes are open to see that the whole world belongs to you! You are not broke. You are not just getting by! Walk in the practical consciousness of what the Word says about your Kingdom rights, privileges, and possessions in Christ Jesus.
