Avoid Hidden Fees With Transparent Pricing

Managing global talent can feel overwhelming. Budgeting for workforce costs shouldn't be. Unfortunately, many other providers' processes include hidden costs that erode any apparent savings from their discounted service fees. Common hidden costs can include:

- Early termination fees
- Employee offboarding fees
- Expense fees
- Fees to update employment contracts
- Tax documentation fees
- Bank rates for foreign exchange fees
- Fees to access a dedicated account manager
- Professional/administration fees

Working with Velocity Global gives you a partner with an unsurpassed commitment to providing transparent and accurate pricing quotes. In fact, a Big Four accounting firm found Velocity Global's employer burden and value-added tax (VAT) quotes 99.63% accurate. As a result, you immediately know exactly what you'll pay—no surprise fees. We also help you effortlessly comply with local labor laws by paying the right burden amounts, mitigating the risk of severe fines, legal fees, business interruptions, and reputational damage.

Velocity Global is committed to giving you full peace of mind when it comes to pricing accuracy, transparency, and compliance.
