My theme: Meet The New Q - Same As The Old Q

2) There's been speculation that #QAnon has been compromised, has been subverted by the deep state or that the current Q is not the same Q who posted in October-November of last year. This thread will hopefully put those fears to rest.

FBI, DOJ to brief lawmakers on handling of Russia probe on Thursday

Trump met Monday with Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein and FBI Director Christopher Wray to discuss the expansion of the DOJ inspector general's investigation to include "irregularities" with the FBI or DOJ's "tactics concerning the Trump campaign," Sanders said Monday.

The Thursday meeting will include FBI Director Wray along with House Intelligence Committee Chairman Devin Nunes, R-Calif., House Oversight Committee Chairman Trey Gowdy, R-S.C., Director of Intelligence Dan Coats and Principal Associate Deputy Attorney General Ed O'Callaghan. Although Kelly is setting up the meeting, he is not attending.

<https://www.justice.gov/archives/nsd/staff-profile/former-acting-assistant-attorney-general-edward-ocallaghan>

FORMER ACTING ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL EDWARD O'CALLAGHAN

Download image

Edward O'Callaghan became Acting Assistant Attorney General (A)AAG on January 27, 2018. In addition to serving as (A)AAG, Ed serves as the Principal Deputy Assistant Attorney General for the National Security Division (NSD). In his capacity as Principal Deputy, Ed assists the Assistant Attorney General in the supervision of all units and components in the NSD, including the Counterterrorism Section, the Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, the Office of Intelligence, the Office of Law & Policy, the Foreign Investment Review Staff, and the Office of Justice for the Victims of Overseas Terrorism. Ed re-joined DOJ in November 2017 from his position as a partner in the international law firm of Clifford Chance. His private sector practice focused on defending financial institutions, public companies, asset management firms, and individuals in international and domestic regulatory investigations and criminal prosecutions, including cases involving alleged violations of the United States export controls and FCPA, securities fraud, insider trading and market manipulation, bank fraud, money laundering, accounting fraud, health care fraud, corruption, RICO, and criminal antitrust.

From 1999 until 2008, Ed was an Assistant U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York, and Co-Chief of the Terrorism & National Security Unit during the last three years of his tenure. In addition to the many counterterrorism investigations and prosecutions in which he was involved, he acted as the lead prosecutor on a number of high-profile matters including the Department of Justice's international financial fraud investigation and prosecutions related to corruption in the United Nations Oil-for-Food Program, RICO prosecutions of crime families, numerous banks and securities fraud cases, FCPA matters, export control enforcement, and other cases. Ed is a recipient of the U.S. Attorney General's Award for Distinguished Service (2008) and the Director's Award for Superior Performance as an Assistant U.S. Attorney (2000).

Ed graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Georgetown University in 1991 and earned his J.D. from NYU Law School in 1994. From 1995 until 1996, Ed served as a law clerk to the Honorable Kevin Thomas Duffy of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York.

24) I had 3 dreams last night about the mission we're on with #Qanon. I'd like to share one dream with you now.
In the dream, I saw the takedown of global corruption from a 40,000 ft view.
It took many people working together to accomplish this incredible task.

25) I saw not just people like @LisaMei62, @paul_serran & @tracybeanz but also people like Sundance (@TheLastRefuge2).

While Sundance doesn't necessarily follow Q, he does incredible investigative work that many of us rely on.

26) It's easy to overlook people who don't post about #Qanon but we ought to include them in our prayers and we should support them on social media.

27) If Q and his team are who we believe them to be, we'll be standing at the end of this journey alongside many who did not follow #QAnon's crumbs. We may have a little better idea today of where it's all going, but on that day we will acknowledge all who made contributions.

28) Since the takedown of global corruption is the goal for many who do not follow #Qanon why not embrace all who are working toward that goal, whether they embrace Q or not?

29) What have we gained if we manage to eradicate evil from the face of the earth but have not removed it from our own hearts?
