

Tuition Sponsorship Letter

[Read time 1m 27s]

Hi, my name is LeBron, and my dream is to start my own company. While I'm only 9 years old, I'm convinced that I don't have to wait until I'm a grown-up to start a great company. While there are several challenges to getting started, I'm very excited to share that I have been accepted into an opportunity to help me reach my dream.

Dream Chaser Kids is an opportunity for young people like myself who launch companies and change communities for good. Many of the world's most greatest companies, like Apple, Facebook, and Microsoft, were started by young people who were not much older than those who enroll.

As a student, I will learn and launch my company with the help of my dream team, coach, a community of entrepreneurs my age, and my own online store to sell my products. In addition to starting my company, I will learn:

- how to create wealth and practice philanthropy
- how to find my first three paying customers
- how to nurture intellectual engagement, innovation, and curiosity
- how to develop my brand and soft-skills
- how to develop honor for myself, others, learning and leading

I'm writing to ask you to consider being my personal sponsor. The program tuition is $2,500. I have already received $700 in grants and scholarships, and I'm asking for your help to reach my tuition goal of $1,800.

As a sponsor, you will receive a mini-documentary about my company and all the good I plan to do in the world. When I get there, I'll have you to thank.

You can make a tax-deductible gift of any amount by visiting my sponsorship page.

I am grateful for your support, and your generous consideration.

LeBron,
Future CEO
