Introduction

The United States National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) has a collection of posters from the World War II era. The images available online are low resolution and are difficult to locate and browse. This document is a collection of selected NARA images related to the US Army Air Forces. They are reproduced here for easier viewing and reference.

To view the actual NARA records index, unless it has since changed, follow these steps:

1. Visit the Archival Research Catalog (ARC) at <http://www.archives.gov/research/arc/>
2. Enter the search phrase: World War II Posters
3. Look for, and click on, the entry: World War II Posters, compiled 1942 - 1945. It will have the subtitle: ARC Identifier 513498 / Local Identifier 44-PA. You may have to page through several pages. Caution: There are several other similar links, but they do not have associated online images. Look for the entry with the subtitle mentioned.
4. Once on the Archival Description page for this entry, under "Includes," click the link for "2829 items described in ARC."
5. This will list all the items. To view a particular item, click its link. Then click the "Digital Copies" tab to see a thumbnail image. Click the thumbnail for an enlarged view.
