1) This is my #Qanon thread for July 29, 2018.

Q posts can be found here: qanon.pub

My theme: FISA is the Foundation

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjTF1HEUwAAo8NI.jpg>

2) Many people have given up hope that corrupt government officials will ever be prosecuted. We've been programmed by years of experience to believe they've rigged the system in a way that will forever allow them to evade prosecution.

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjTLj8V4AA78QL.jpg>

3) There is no disappointment without expectation.

Many of us have unrealistic expectations of what the prosecution of corruption looks like. We want arrests and we want them yesterday and until the crooks are in jail, we won't be satisfied.

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjTKpS-VsAAqh4i.jpg>

4) The corruption in government is cleverly disguised crime syndicate.

The arrest of America's most notorious crime syndicate leader, Al Capone, provides a blueprint for the way our own corrupt government officials will be taken down.

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjTMZuHU8AAStrd.jpg>

5) In the film, "Untouchables" Elliot Ness had a problem. Most of the cops he worked with were corrupt. He was advised by an older, wiser cop to find some new blood—cops who were untainted by the system's corruption.

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjTNMXyUwAAgyfO.jpg>

6) Ness assembled a team of men with integrity—law enforcement officers who could be trusted to go after a very dangerous crime syndicate.

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjTOHyRU4AA5HeT.jpg>

7) With his team assembled, Ness went after Capone.

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjTO73JVAE1Jds.jpg>

8) Although Capone was a ruthless criminal, it wasn't blackmail, extortion or murder that put him behind bars.

It was tax evasion.

Evidence provided by Capone's bookkeeper proved to be his Achille's heel.

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DJTPXSwU4AAMm8E.jpg>

9) Even though Ness had the evidence needed to convict, Capone nearly went free by bribing the jury.

At the last minute, Ness confronted the judge and forced him to switch juries with another courtroom.

That move sealed Capone's doom.

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DJTQSiQUcAAMF2b.jpg>

10) There's no denying that these people are as corrupt as they come & they've put measures in place to prevent their own prosecution.

This thread will look at evidence suggesting that they're actively being tracked down, removed from power and prosecuted.

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjTRnc7U4AASXs8.jpg>

11) In the same way that Capone wasn't prosecuted for murder but tax evasion, government officials will likely be prosecuted for boring crimes. Rather than pedophilia or murder, they'll likely be charged with illegal activities involving government surveillance.

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjTUEosUUAxNB6.jpg>

12) I'll do my best to piece together the sometimes confusing issues, people, and dates that when assembled, shine a light on the clear trail of evidence exposing one of the biggest crime syndicates in modern times.

The trail begins by understanding FISA surveillance.

#Qanon

13) I'd to thank Jeff @themarketwork and Sundance @TheLastRefuge2 for the tens of thousands of hours of research they've done and the information they've shared on FISA and the intelligence community.

#Qanon

https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjTVAY_V4AA8lKD.jpg

14) Sundance has been telling us for more than 6 months that the criminal activity of government officials always leads back to the illegal way in which they gained intelligence and used it in court for political purposes.

#Qanon

The Intelligence Laundry

Here's what I don't understand. Not a single congressional hearing has ever questioned the FISA search issues? Not a single question to a single witness, specifically Comey or Yates, ever asked them about the DOJ-NSD and FBI abuse of the FISA database.

The origin of almost all of the corruption seems to consistently circle back to the abuse of the FBI and NSA database which is very much documented and never subject to being refuted. Yet for some reason I cannot fathom, the historic FISA surveillance/search abuse issue is never brought up by anyone, any investigative authority, in any aspect of this ongoing storyline.

It all starts with abuses of the FISA system for political opposition research; yet we never hear a single voice calling attention to the DOJ-NSD and FBI abuse of this system. Frustrating...

It all starts with abuses of the FISA system for political opposition research; yet we never hear a single voice calling attention to the DOJ-NSD and FBI abuse of this system.
Frustrating...

15) When the mainstream media talks about FISA abuse they only discuss it when forced to and never connect the dots. Reporting is minimal and done in a way that obfuscates its importance and confuses the public.

17) If the last Inspector General report left you disappointed, remember, it's not Horowitz's job to prosecute. His work is considered internal affairs. His publicly available reports make recommendations for more efficient operations inside the department.

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjThr-yUcAEfRVr.jpg>

18) What the media overlooks—and therefore what most people don't see—are the criminal referrals that come out of Horowitz's investigations which are being funneled through the office of John Huber. (An office that has been sealed up airtight to prevent information leaks.)

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjThQP0UUAEuxJc.jpg>

19) Why would #Qanon be tasked with signaling to Trump supporters a message telling us we can trust certain people inside of government?

Is it because an operation involving deception is underway that might make us think we can't trust them?

20) Let's have a look at the Federal Intelligence Surveillance Court (FISC) and the FISA process.
#Qanon

21) America's most secret court was established to provide judicial oversight of surveillance when used for National Security purposes.

This site has a good (though somewhat technical) explanation of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court.

#Qanon

<https://epic.org/privacy/surveillance/fisa/fisc/>

22) Jeff @themarketswork wrote a less technical article that breaks down the terms related to FISA and the Federal Intelligence Surveillance Court (FISC).

FISA Surveillance – Title I & III and Section 702

There are two primary types of electronic surveillance - Title III and FISA. Title III of The Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (Wiretap Act) is directed towards U.S. Citizens. Title...

<https://themarketwork.com/2018/04/01/fisa-surveillance-title-i-iii-and-section-702/>

<https://themarketwork.com/2018/04/01/fisa-surveillance-title-i-iii-and-section-702/>

Some FISA terms:

- FISA – Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978.
- FISC – Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court – synonymous with FISA Court.
- FISA Title I – Electronic surveillance of persons within the United States.
- FISA Title III – Physical searches of premises or property within the United States.
- Title VII – Surveillance of Foreign Persons outside the United States. Contains Section 702. Title VII is effectively synonymous with Section 702.
- Section 702 – Subsection of Title VII – Procedures for surveillance of Foreign Persons outside the United States. Section 702 is effectively synonymous with Title VII.
- Incidental Collection – U.S. Citizen caught up in the process of Foreign Surveillance.
- "To" or "From" – A search query based on communications "To" and/or "From" surveillance target.
- "About" – A search query based on communications containing a reference "About" surveillance target – but is not "To" or "From" target.

There are three general types of FISA surveillance:

1. Title I FISA Surveillance – known as Traditional FISA surveillance.
2. Title III FISA Surveillance – known as Traditional FISA surveillance.
3. Title VII FISA Surveillance – commonly referred to as Section 702 surveillance.

FISA Title I and III provisions relate to the conduct of electronic surveillance and physical searches for foreign intelligence purposes of persons, facilities, or property inside the United States.

- FISA Title I provides for electronic surveillance of persons within the United States.
- FISA Title III provides for physical searches of premises or property within the United States.

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DJTIE1sU8AAckI6.jpg>

23) The aspect of FISA that we're interested in is the one that was used to spy on former Trump campaign member Carter Page— FISA Title I.

FISA Title I and Title III surveillance require there be probable cause to believe the proposed target is a foreign power or an agent of a foreign power and that the facility (can be a phone number) or place is – or is about to be – used by that target.

FISA Title I and III surveillance require formal approval from the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court (FISC) – also known as the FISA Court.

Carter Page, a U.S. citizen, was surveilled under FISA Title I. The FBI used the Steel Dossier to portray Page as “an agent of a foreign power” – specifically Russia – to the FISA Court.

The FBI obtained one initial FISA warrant on Carter Page and three subsequent renewals from the FISA Court.

The House Memo specifically noted that Page's FISA order was not under Title VII of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act – which is how we first knew Page had been surveilled under FISA Title I.

Title VII of the FISA Act provides for the most common type of FISA surveillance.

Surveillance under Section 702.

Section 702 permits the government to target for surveillance foreign persons located outside the United States for the purpose of acquiring foreign intelligence information.

Oversight of Section 702 collection is conducted by the FISA Court, which reviews the government's Section 702 certifications, targeting procedures and minimization procedures for compliance with statutory and Fourth Amendment requirements.

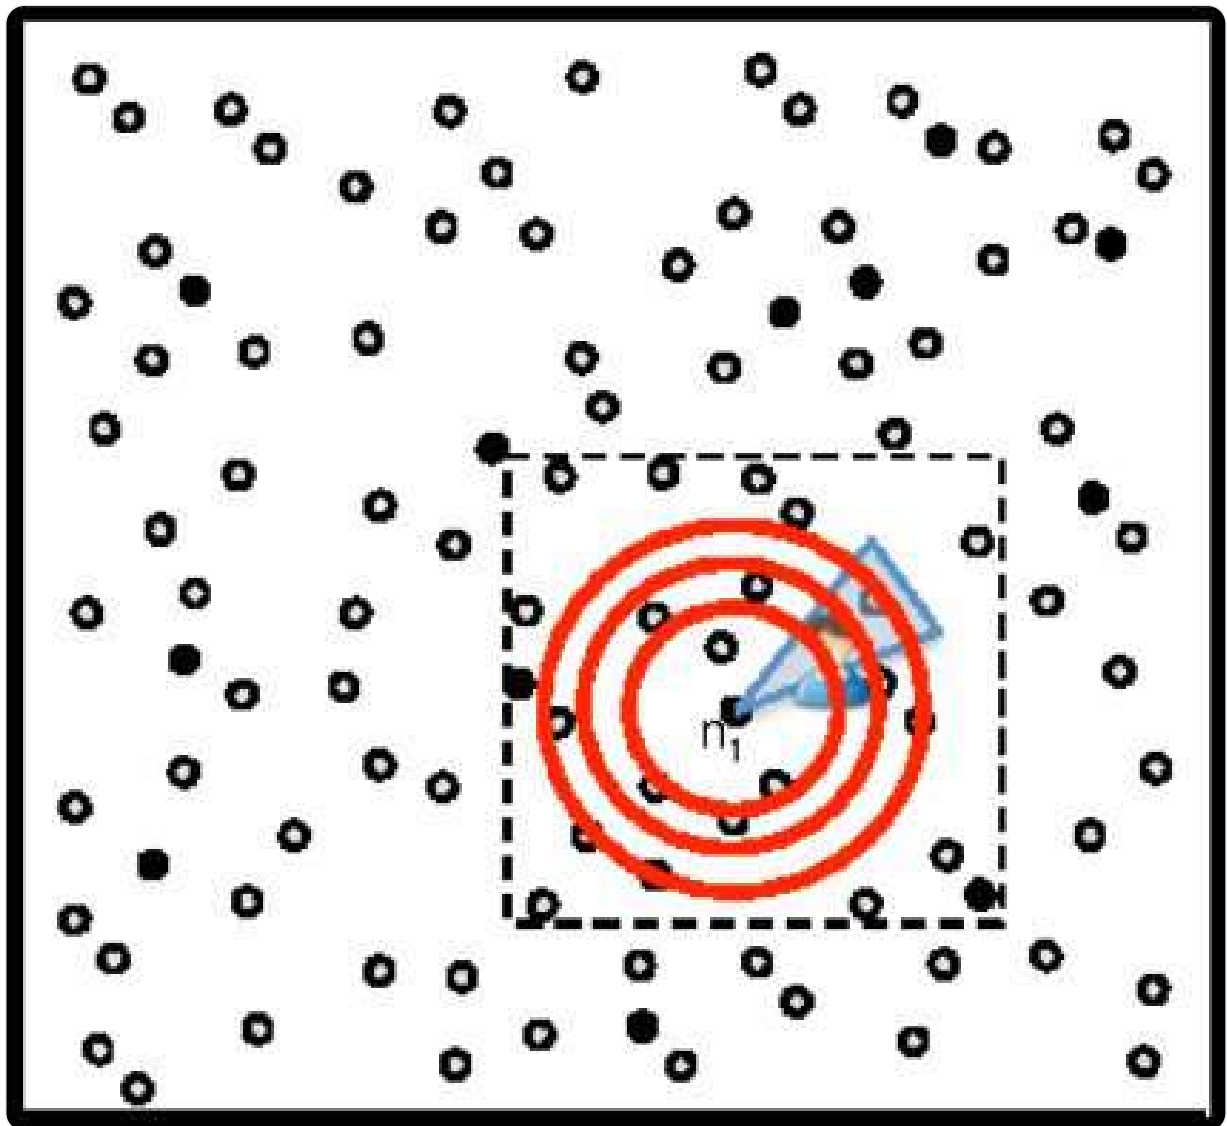

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjTlvfyU0AAQFi8.jpg>

24) FISA Title I is the most extreme form of surveillance.

It allows the surveillance, not just of the targeted individual, but anyone they come in contact with.

The justification?

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjToq4wUUAANlr9.jpg>

25) FISA Title I is used when the target is believed to be a foreign power or the agent of a foreign power and when the target represents a threat to national security.

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjTpiQV4AA-oBD.jpg>

26) If a political campaign wanted to spy on their opposition, it would be handy if they could get the Federal Intelligence Surveillance Court to authorize Title I surveillance on an opponent.

It would allow them to spy on virtually everyone in the opposing campaign.

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjTqdlOUCAAa1aw.jpg>

27) #Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjTr2QUUYAEGbQF.jpg>

28) We know that the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court (FISC) authorized FISA Title I surveillance of Carter Page.

The question is whether it arose organically out of routine FBI operations or whether it was the objective of a political campaign.

#Qanon

29) If the Title I surveillance on Carter Page arose organically—if it was the result of the FBI doing routine work—then there would be no trail of evidence pointing to an intentional plan.

#Qanon

30) If there is evidence of a plan—and especially if there is evidence of an attempt to conceal a plan—it would be hard to argue that the surveillance arose organically.

#Qanon

31) In 2010, Attorney General Eric Holder without an official change of policy or change of law, suddenly decided not to allow the DOJ Inspector General access to the DOJ's National Security Division records. Prior to that time, the DOJ Inspector General had full access.

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjTydCXU0AAOfya.jpg>

32) In 2014, Michael Horowitz approached Congress and asked them to pass legislation requiring the DOJ to allow him access to the National Security Division—the branch responsible for managing FISA Title I and III surveillance.

#Qanon

33) In 2015, Deputy Attorney General Sally Yates responded with a 58-page letter, effectively telling the Inspector General to buzz off. He was not getting access to the National Security Division and that was that.

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjT08aLUYAAirqj.jpg>

34) Horowitz pushed Congress to pass the Inspector General Empowerment Act and ultimately won his battle to get access to the National Security Division but only as Obama was leaving office. It was signed into law on December 16, 2016.

#Qanon

<https://themarketswork.com/2018/05/28/bypassing-the-inspector-general-sally-yates-and-the-dojs-national-security-letter-carve-out/>

35) The relevance:

Obama's DOJ took extreme steps to avoid the sunlight provided by the oversight of an Inspector General but only in the division responsible for management of FISA surveillance.

Why?

Did they have something to hide?

#Qanon

NATIONAL SECURITY DIVISION

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DJT3FOLU8AANWBp.jpg>

36) Here's where things get interesting.

At this time (2013-2016) the heads of all the intelligence agencies were more or less on board with Obama's plans.

The two exceptions were Admiral Rogers, head of NSA and General Flynn, head of the Defense Intelligence Agency.

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DJT7obWVAAIZdpV.jpg>

37) General Flynn was forced into retirement. Admiral Rogers maintained his position through Obama's Presidency and was the only intelligence department head to be kept on by President Trump.

#Qanon

https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DJT8HSeUYAAcy_.jpg

38) At the same time that some intelligence agencies were attempting to do damage control against allegations of improper use of the government's spying apparatus, one agency seemed to be working covertly to expose illegal activities.

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjT9OzzV4AAavxo.jpg>

39) Most people know that ten days after the election, Admiral Rogers made a trip to Trump Tower to speak with the President-elect.

Rogers' 2 bosses, Ash Carter and James Clapper demanded Rogers be fired for not telling them about the meeting.

40) But the efforts by good people to expose illegality in the Obama intelligence community go far deeper.

The FBI and DOJ when they need to gather FISA-related intelligence on a target, access a database that is maintained by the NSA.

#Qanon

41) From November 2015, through March 2016, a sharp uptick in queries into the FISA database prompted Admiral Rogers to order an audit.

#Qanon

42) The audit revealed that the FBI had been allowing contractors to access the database who were not trained in minimization procedures and may not have had a legitimate need for access. (The non-compliance rate was 85%.)

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DJUEd8tUcAAqvyH.jpg>

43) The findings of the audit were presented to the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court. Judge Collyer produced a 99-page response, which not long afterward was declassified and made public.

#Qanon

Link to full report:

https://www.dni.gov/files/documents/icotr/51117/2016_Cert_FISC_Memo_Opin_Order_Apr_2017.pdf

44) Until just a few years ago, the existence of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court was not publicly acknowledged. There are no pictures available of the inside of the court. (The best I could find was a drawing someone did.) The activities are kept classified.

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjUJQB6UcAAftH4.jpg>

45) Yet Dan Coates, Director of National Intelligence, thought it would be helpful to declassify a memo exposing misuse and potential abuse of the FISA process by the FBI.

Why?

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjUINDqU4AEeJB.jpg>

46) When the abuse of the FISA database by the FBI and their contractors was discovered, Admiral Rogers immediately prohibited further access by contractors.

#Qanon

47) We don't know with certainty who the contractors were but Fusion GPS and CrowdStrike are the two main suspects. Both have a long history of working with the FBI.

#Qanon

Jeff @themarketswork wrote this article if you'd like more information.

48) The director of the DOJ National Security Division is required to report irregularities in FISA requests and is required to certify annually FISA compliance. In 2016, John P. Carlin was the head of DOJ National Security Division.

#Qanon

49) In January of 2016, the NSA Inspector General filed a report outlining numerous FISA compliance violations.

50) On September 26, 2016, Carlin filed his annual certifications with the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court.

The following day, Carlin announced he was stepping down from his position at DOJ effective October 15th.

Why?

#Qanon

Head of Justice National Security Division to step down

<https://www.politico.com/story/2016/09/john-carlin-steps-down-national-security-justice-228803>

51) I suspect that Carlin knew the jig was up. The illegal surveillance activities were being exposed and if he stuck around, he'd take the fall.

(#QAnon said Carlin forced to step down.)

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjUSOFQU0AALh1b.jpg>

52) What purpose would the FBI have for allowing private contractors to access the NSA database?

Simple. If you need information on an opponent, the database has everything you need.

#Qanon

53) It seems the FBI allowed Fusion GPS to access the database to obtain information for their private "research."

#Qanon

54) Our theory:

Fusion GPS was allowed by the FBI to obtain information from the NSA database. They then turned around and gave the same information to the FBI, who took it to court to get a FISA approval for surveillance on a target.

#Qanon

55) The process is a bit more complicated & involves handing off the information to multiple intermediaries. Each adds information then passes it to someone else. The end game is to manufacture evidence for a FISA application.

(Sundance calls it the Intelligence Laundry.)

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjUV7oAUcAAxJG0.jpg>

52) On April 18th, 2016, Admiral Rogers ended private contractor access to the FISA database.

On April 19th, Mary Jacoby (wife of Glenn Simpson - the founder of Fusion GPS) paid a visit to the White House.

Why?

53) Our theory is that she needed to update President Obama on their progress and advise him of the new roadblock put in place by the Admiral.

#Qanon

54) It seems the team found a workaround.

Bruce Ohr was # 4 at the DOJ and had access to the FISA database.

Bruce could use his credentials to get access for his wife Nellie Ohr [follow the wives].

#Qanon

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjUYRUIV4AAqliz.jpg>

55) From May 2016 through Sep 2016 this was how they gathered intelligence.

In May of 2016, Nellie Ohr began using a HAM Radio to try to evade NSA's watchful eye.
[They failed]

56) October 2016: Compliance Officer reports to Admiral Rogers:

57) The violations pertained to FISA "About" queries.
On October 26th. 2016, Admiral Rogers shuts down all FISA "About Queries", and never allows them to restart again.

#Qanon

58) By October of 2016, the surveillance project was complete. Bruce Ohr met secretly with Glenn Simpson of Fusion GPS. (A meeting that once exposed, cost Ohr his job and security clearance.)

59) Funny, it was never disclosed which white hat in the intelligence community released the information to the press about Ohr's secret meeting with Simpson.

60) The gathering of intelligence from the NSA database by Fusion GPS and Nellie Ohr had a specific purpose. They needed to connect someone on the Trump team with Russia. They found their connection with Carter Page.

61) The DOJ applied at least once, (perhaps twice) in the summer of 2016 for FISA authorization but the requests were denied. An October request was granted.

Lawyers from the National Security Division in the Department of Justice then drew up an application. They took it to the secret US court that deals with intelligence, the Fisa court, named after the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act. They wanted permission to intercept the electronic records from two Russian banks.

Their first application, in June, was rejected outright by the judge. They returned with a more narrowly drawn order in July and were rejected again. Finally, before a new judge, the order was granted, on 15 October, three weeks before election day.

OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL U.S. Department of Justice

(202) 514-3435 | oig.justice.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 12, 2017

DOJ OIG Announces Initiation of Review

Department of Justice Inspector General Michael E. Horowitz announced today that, in response to requests from numerous Chairmen and Ranking Members of Congressional oversight committees, various organizations, and members of the public, the Office of the Inspector General (OIG) will initiate a review of allegations regarding certain actions by the Department of Justice (Department) and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in advance of the 2016 election. Cognizant of the scope of the OIG's jurisdiction under Section 8E of the Inspector General Act, the review will examine the following issues:

- Allegations that Department or FBI policies or procedures were not followed in connection with, or in actions leading up to or related to, the FBI Director's public announcement on July 5, 2016, and the Director's letters to Congress on October 28 and November 6, 2016, and that certain underlying investigative decisions were based on improper considerations;
- Allegations that the FBI Deputy Director should have been recused from participating in certain investigative matters;
- Allegations that the Department's Assistant Attorney General for Legislative Affairs improperly disclosed non-public information to the Clinton campaign and/or should have been recused from participating in certain matters;
- Allegations that Department and FBI employees improperly disclosed non-public information; and
- Allegations that decisions regarding the timing of the FBI's release of certain Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) documents on October 30 and November 1, 2016, and the use of a Twitter account to publicize same, were influenced by improper considerations.

The review will not substitute the OIG's judgment for the judgments made by the FBI or the Department regarding the substantive merits of investigative or prosecutive decisions. Finally, if circumstances warrant, the OIG will consider including other issues that may arise during the course of the review.

74) The June Inspector General's report disclosed the fact that many FBI agents were engaged in behavior with the media that amounts to bribery. That activity is being investigated and may result in criminal referrals.

The OIG investigative finding was disturbing enough to launch a separate set of investigations that will be included in follow-up reports.

IG REPORT – We identified numerous FBI employees, at all levels of the organization and with no official reason to be in contact with the media, who were nevertheless in frequent contact with reporters. Attached to this report as Attachments E and F are two link charts that reflect the volume of communications that we identified between FBI employees and media representatives in April/May and October 2016. We have profound concerns about the volume and extent of unauthorized media contacts by FBI personnel that we have uncovered during our review.*

In addition, we identified instances where FBI employees improperly received benefits from reporters, including tickets to sporting events, golfing outings, drinks and meals, and admittance to nonpublic social events. We will separately report on those investigations as they are concluded, consistent with the Inspector General Act, other applicable federal statutes, and OIG policy.

The harm caused by leaks, fear of potential leaks, and a culture of unauthorized media contacts is illustrated in Chapters Ten and Eleven of our report, where we detail the fact that these issues influenced FBI officials who were advising Comey on consequential investigative decisions in October 2016.

[...] We do not believe the problem is with the FBI's policy, which we found to be clear and unambiguous. Rather, we concluded that these leaks highlight the need to change what appears to be a cultural attitude among many in the organization. (link to pdf – page Xii of executive summary)

Special counsel Robert Mueller's team, which is leading the investigation into Russia's involvement in the election, has been provided details of these communications.

A secret order authorized by the court that handles the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act (FISA) began after Manafort became the subject of an FBI investigation that began in 2014. It centered on work done by a group of Washington consulting firms for Ukraine's former ruling party, the sources told CNN.

<https://pbs.twimg.com/media/DjYL6vVV4AAibME.jpg>

87) What are the odds that two people would find their way onto candidate Trump's team who would be under FBI surveillance?

#Qanon

88) Normally, politicians are warned in a defensive briefing by the intelligence community, if they've unknowingly come into contact with someone who poses a threat to them. Trump was never given a defensive briefing about Manafort or Page.

Now, why would that be so?

#Qanon

89) Carter Page never played much of a role on the Trump team.
He was also never charged with a crime by Robert Mueller.
That's because Page wasn't a Russian spy.
He was an FBI asset.

#Qanon

90) In 2013, Carter Page worked for the FBI as an undercover agent, helping them build a case against Evgeny Buryakov.

3 years later, in March of 2016, he was still their informant.

Who is Rachel Brand?

Why was Rachel Brand dismissed?

Think timing.

"The succession question is actually a bit complicated. By default, under an obscure statute known as the the Vacancies Reform Act of 1998, Brand's temporary successor as the "acting" associate attorney general is her principal deputy, Jesse Panuccio. That same statute would also allow the president to choose someone else to serve as the "acting" AAG on a temporary basis for up to 210 days; the pool of individuals from which the president could draw in this case includes individuals already holding Senate-confirmed positions elsewhere in the executive branch (like EPA administrator Scott Pruitt) or senior civil service lawyers in the Justice Department, specifically."
